A. M. ELLISON DIES OF ACCIDENTAL INJURIES

Was 65 Years Old--Injured in Automobile Accident Saturday Afternoon.

Alfred M. Ellison, one of the men who was injured in the automobile accident six miles out from Greensboro, on the Pleasant Garden road, Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock, died Sunday morning at 2:30 o'clock at St. Leo's hospital at Greensboro as the result of the injuries.

Mr. Ellison was the owner of the machine in which he received the injuries. It is stated that something went wrong with the steering gear while the machine was running in intermediate speed and it ran into an embankment, turning turtle. The steering wheel struck Mr. Ellison in the chest, crushing the bone and badly bruising his body. Medical attention was given as quickly as possible and he was brought to the hospital, but death followed a few hours after an operation was performed. Chauncey Alfred, of Liberty, the only other occupant of the car, escaped with a broken collar bone, and it was stated at the hospital that he was doing nicely.

Mr. Ellison was 65 years of age and is survived by a son, A. M. Ellison, Jr., of Montgomery, Ala., and a sister, Mrs. Minnie Hackney, of Durham. He was a nephew of J. A. Odell, of Greensboro. His residence was five miles west of Staley.

Deceased was one of the country's most prominent citizens, and the past term taught the school at Patterson Grove.

His death comes as a great shock to his many friends over the county, and it was only a few days ago that Mr. Ellison was in Asheville after the closing of his school at Patterson's Grove.

The Telespot.

Circulars have been distributed in which the information is given that the Telespot is preparing to give the electric mail a trial service between St. Louis and Chicago. During the last session of Congress the country heard a good deal about the Telespot. A committee was appointed to investigate its claims with the view of making it a branch of the Post-office Department. The committee recommended it to the favorable consideration of the Department. The plan appears to be to induce the Government to take on the telegraph service just as it is delivered in a livery letter. The Telespot, claiming an automatic system by which as high as 1,000 words a minute can be transmitted over a single wire. We are told that where a message is delivered in a postal card it will be called a telecard, which means 10 words for 10 cents, and when it is delivered in a sealed envelope it is called a telespot, which means 50 words or less for 25 cents and 5 cents for each additional 10 words or less. From the Chicago-St. Louis base, the Telespot proposes to extend this business as far as lines are built or leased.--Charlotte Observer.

It is not the time for children to play on the street. It is not the time for young people to promenade the town Sunday afternoon in "holly." It was set apart for help things.--Laurinburg Exchange.

TOMATO CLUB WORK.

Work to Be Carried on in Providence and Columbia.

The tomato club work is to be organized and carried on more extensively in this county this year than ever before. Mrs. Margaret Scott, field agent of the canning club work, was in Asheville last week in the interest of the work and will return this week to assist in the organization of the different clubs. This work is to be supported by funds provided by the United States Department of Agriculture, and a supplementary allowance by the Board of County Commissioners. Already 43 counties in the State have organized for the work and others will likely follow.

This work was up to this year restricted to girls under 22 years of age, but the limit has been raised and any women interested in the work may enter the clubs.

The work is to be carried on in Providence township and in Columbia township. The W. E. White will have charge of the Columbia division and Miss Estelle Neece of the Providence division. Last year Miss Neece conducted clubs in this section and more than 5,000 cans of tomatoes were put in Providence township, from which some $400 was realized, a good profit. This work is most interesting and will be entered into by the people of these communities with zeal. Miss Neece will have charge of clubs at Providence, Julian and Plainfield.

On Thursday and Friday of this week, Mrs. White and Mrs. Scott will meet the women of Columbia township and organize clubs at Parks Roads, Centre and Pleasant Ridge. Twenty Killed by Storm in Texas.

Twenty persons, perhaps more, met death Friday night in a rain, electrical and wind storm general over nearly all Texas and eastern Oklahoma. Resultant floods have interrupted communication by rail and wire. In some places wind and rain continued last Friday.

Austin felt the brunt of the storm which in places reached cyclonic proportions. The death toll at the capital is expected to be at least 15. The storm was especially severe at Austin, and that city was in darkness last night. Rescue squads were busy all night taking endangered persons to higher ground, while the rain continued to fall in torrents.

Thaw Wins His Case Before the Supreme Court.

Harry Thaw has finally succeeded in bringing question of his sanity before a jury after many attempts. The Supreme Court of New York has granted his application for a jury trial made in the corpus writ. The trial date is May 17. Justice Hendrick made it clear that the jury is called to aid the court by advice and the jury's findings won't be binding if the court is satisfied that it is not in accord with the evidence and justice. The court could disregard the jury's decision and render its own.

Work on this improvement began last fall and has been steadily carried forward since that time. The Southern people negotiated and secured a loan for these improvements before the outbreak, and since interest was to be paid on the loan it was decided that nothing could be gained in delaying the improvement.

Having a Hard Time.

The peek-a-boo is having a Dickens of a time getting out.--Greensboro Record.

OVER THE COUNTY.

Items Picked Up From Every Section of Randolph.

Randolph hastens to welcome Mr. W. L. Angel and his good wife, who have recently moved to Brower township from Surry county. Mr. Angel is an experienced tobacco farmer and will, after this season, devote a large part of his time to the cultivation of this good money crop.

The road from Dry Not to Ramseur via Erect and Moffitt postoffice is to be completed after the crops are laid by in the middle of the summer. Both ends of the road have been graded and partially gravelled, but the unfavorable weather in the early spring prevented the completion of this road, which opens a rich section of the county, and in order that many of the subscribers along the route might be allowed to pay part of their subscriptions in hauling and work this delay is made.

The county is a green garden spot at this time of the year and unless some unforeseen calamity should befall us the fruit crop will be as large as usual. Many Randolph farmers are planting young orchards, and a better investment is hard to find about the farm.

Capt. H. H. Kennedy is already getting together his force of men and work is taking shape on the new road from the poorhouse to Trinity. This road will likely do one thing--inpress on the people who travel that road--and they will likely be many. The great need of a county home in this county. For a number of years the people have been calling on the commissioners for a modern county home, for the accommodation of Randolph's unfortunate, but so far the appeal has fallen on deaf ears. Sooner or later it will come, however. As for the road, it is likely that two or three forces will be started at once, and by hard work the road can be completed before the coming of winter.

Randolph numbers among her best citizens Messrs. S. F. and J. D. Pell, who have recently settled in this county, down in the good township of Brower. Messrs. Pell and their families come from Surry county and are engaging extensively in the cultivation of tobacco and are proving to be successful tobacco farmers. Randolph farmers that tobacco can be successfully cultivated on Randolph soil. They are pioneers and are showing the people of that section of the county what wonderful things can be done with Randolph soil.

Succeeding Mrs. Fannie Page as manager of the Central Hotel is Mrs. Fannie Hammond, of Kernshaw, who arrived last week and has now taken active management.

Following the fire on last Tuesday morning, Mr. Arthur Ross, secretary and treasurer of the Home Building and Material company, donated a handsome check to the fire company in recognition of their services in fighting the blaze that for a time threatened their plant. The fire boys are duly appreciative as will be shown by Chief Stedman's card, as follows: "In the name of the fire company I wish to express our sincerest thanks to Mr. Arthur Ross for the liberal check given us today in acknowledgment of the response to the alarm and work done at the fire Tuesday morning." Our fire company is the pride of the town, and the money they save the property owners cannot be estimated. The company is soon to give a minstrel, the like of which has not blown down this pike and it is likely that the town will turn out as well as a gaily number of out-of-town people to show appreciation of the good work the company is doing.

Several farmers of southeastern Randolph are raising turkeys and marketing the birds at a handsome profit at Pinehurst where they were worth 27 cents a pound during the past season. Mr. J. M. Lambert, of Brower township, who has recently come to this county from Moore county will soon have a great many young turkeys and will raise a great many of these handsome birds if all goes well.

Wheat over the county generally is about up to the average. The acreage is perhaps the largest ever and with the proper season a bumper crop will be harvested. If the war continues and holds the price of grain the present north Randolph farmers will have no cause for complaint.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Siler, who have recently been visiting in the Providence neighborhood, have wisely decided to remain in "the Old North State." Mr. and Mrs. Siler are natives of the county, and we hope they will stay with us.

Fifty subscribers have been added to the Bulletin mailing list the past week. Some of them were short-timers, but we hardly ever lose one of them and are glad to have them with us. We believe that the Bulletin carries all that's worth the while in a county newspaper and so do many other people as evidenced by the fact that our list has steadily climbed from nine hundred, a little over two years ago, to three thousand this issue.

Florida Ducks Prohibition.

The Florida Senate has turned down the prohibition amendment introduced in the legislature.

CHAMPION SPELLER.

Could Not Be Spelled Down in the Central Contest.

Randolph county evidently has the distinction of being the abiding place of two champion spellers, for on last Saturday in a contest held in Greensboro of the eastern central district, high schools, including Jamestown, Summerfield, Chapel Hill, Siler City and other schools, Miss Blanche Farrow, of Trinity high school and Mr. Wade Hussey, of Farmer high school, could not be spelled down on any words proposed in five attempts and the match was finally called off until some future date, probably in Asheville, to determine which of the contestants should receive the gold medal.

The contest was featured by several athletic events. The girls from Chapel Hill won the basketball championship while the Jamestown boys were the winners in the other athletic events.

FARMERS' BIG PROFITS.

War Demands, It Is Said, Added $200,000,000 to Growers' Gains.

Europe's war has enriched Middle West farmers approximately $200,000,000, the money chiefly going to growers of grains. What speculators have made by the war perhaps never will be known.

A prominent grain merchant said the $200,000,000 "extra" received by farmers for their bumper wheat, corn and oats crop can be readily accounted for by citing the one instance in regard to prices on cash wheat. He pointed out that what now is selling and has been for months, at from 35 cents to 50 cents more a bushel than it would have brought but for the war.

Wheat High in England.

London, April 24.--Wheat brought record prices at the corn markets throughout the country today, the best parcels being sold at Dorchester, Bedford and Nottingham for 63 shillings ($15.12) per quarter. Other good samples brought as high as 61 shillings.

Colonel Reece Sees Snow.

(The Greensboro Record, 23d.) Snow fell here yesterday between 1 and 2 o'clock, just enough to be plainly seen, but this is not as bad as the sleet that came along on the 26th of April and killed all the fruit, or the freeze that came on the 8th of May, but did no harm because the fruit was too far advanced.

Destruction in the Sand Hills.

(From the Moore County News.) Much anxiety was felt last Monday afternoon, when it was seen that all that scope of woods to the south of town was afire and everybody got busy and went out and it was decided that the better way would be to fire against it, which was done and the fire was thus held in a smaller territory than otherwise would have been possible, yet a number of acres were burned over and much damage done to the wood growth, destroying much wood. No dwelling were destroyed, but the forest was blackened and everybody scared for some time.
