We have given from time to time considerable attention to the improvement of our town, not only in the industrial line, but in its appearance. Industrially the town has improved wonderfully within the improved wonderfully within the last few years and we hope to see it go forward with even more rapid strides. But we are just now interstrides. But we are just now inter-ested in the improvement of the ap-pearance of the town, not only in cleaning up the streets, sidewalks and back yards, but in the planting of flowers and shrubs and the setting out of shade trees and arranging them in the proper way. It has been difficult for us to get anybody to take charge of this matter. Our to take charge of this matter. Our good women have organized clubs and are doing much toward raising moncy for the improvement of the yards, and, in fact, to the entire town.
