ASHEBORO, N. C., THURSDAY May 20, 1909.

BIRD DOGS BEWARE.

And Pointers And Settlers Must Keep

Shady.

or imprisoned no. longer than thirty ceived to Date.

Amount contributed by the Kan-dolph Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy. $150.00

W. C. Hammer 50,00
Wm. P. Wood 50,00
R. R. Ross 25,00
J. R. C. McAlister 25,00
U. R. Presnell 20,00

W. W. Jones Wm. Hooker

No 19

$1.00 Per Year

BAPTISTS ADJOURN

Endowment Fund of $600,000 Is Completed. MEET IN BATIMORE IN 1910.

Large increase in Appropriations for Missions—Prohibition Movement Strongly Endorsed—In St Joseph, Mo., in 1911.

The Southern Baptist Convention at Louisville, Ky., Saturday decided to raise an endowment fund of $600,000 for the Theological Seminary and within a short time after the decision was mad $150,000 of the amount was subscrib-d.

Batimorew as selected as the place for holding the next convention. The convention adjourned Mon-day. Some of the notable accom-pliahments of the convention are: The passage of a resolution strong-

In passage of a resolution and ly endorsing the temperance movement in the South; completion of the endowment fund of $500,000 for the Theological Seminary at Louisville; selecting St. Joseph, Mo., at he classe of meeting in 19:1 as the place of meeting in 1911.

At Monday's session it was an-nounced that the total amount for home missions was raised from $225, 900 to $343,500, and the total for foreign missions from $500,000 to

North Carolina vice Presidents

Foreign Mission Board-W. C. Tyree.
Home Mission Board-C. J

Thompson. Sun. ay School Board—N. B Broughton.

Gettysburg Monument to Cost $150,000

Gettysburg Monument to Cost $150,000
Col. William S. Burgwyn, of Weldon, has received a letter from Col. Charles H. Motionnell, of Chicago, who commanded the Twenty-fourth Michigan regiment, of the famous Iron Brigade, which at Gettysburg faced the twenty-sixth North Carolina, commanded by Col. Henry King Burgwyn, which share suffered a greater loss than any other regiment on either side during the entire war. Col. McConnell says he will build at Gettysburg, on the place where these regiments fought, a monument, a to cost $150,000.

Dr E. A. Yates Dead.

Dr. E. A. Yates, veteran minister nearly nine years lectured, and for partment of biblical literature at Trinity College, died sirting Trinity College, died sitting in a chair at his hotel in Jurham Friday

Heart trouble, with which he had been afflicted for several years, was the cause of his death. He was one of the ablest Methodist ministers in

Will Pack Fruit.

The Brushy Mountain Orchard Company was organized at North Wilkesboro last week with a paid-in capital of $5,000. J. W. McAlister, of Winston-Salem, pro-moted the concern, which is owned by John A. Young and other well known men of Winston and Wilkes boro. The new company will pack and market their own brand of

D. I. Talbert, formerly of New to his horse and Talbert could not get from between the wheels until a wheel had run over him and the

The sentence was imposed by Judge Garrettson, who presided over

The factory of the Atlantic Lum-ber Co, and three other smaller buildings were burned at High Point Monday night. The damage aggregated $15,000 with $12,000 insur-

In new paper until at Newbern is in operation and the Journal of that city is being printed on a product of the until. The pulp a being imported from Switzerland.

Missouri, Kansas and Texas RailThe Sunday School Convention for Ocdar Grove township will be need in New Union M. P. Church in steed of the M. E. Church, as published last week.

Missouri, Kansas and Texas RailThe Sunday School Convention for Ocdar Grove township will be need.

At Siler City on May 11, Dr. S.
R. Edwards to Miss Eina Hadley.
Hanging is indeed a terrible an awful suspense.

G. F. C. COMMENCEMENT.

Sixty-Second Annual Commencement Closed Last Night.

The Greensboro Female College commencement began Sunday with the annual sermon by Rev. E. K., McLarty, pastor of West Market Methodist church, of Greensbore. Monday evening the recital by the Expression Department was given.

The baccalaureate sermon w

presched Tuesday morning by Rev.
Jas. W. Lee, D. D., of Atlanta, Ga.
The alumnae reunion was held
Tuesday evening, at which time
Rev. Plato Durham, of Concord, delivered the andress.

Graduating Day was Wednesday and Wednesday evening the scason closed with the annual concert. This has been the best year of the school, which has just closed its 62nd annual commencement.

Randleman Graded School closed Randleman Graded School closed Friday. The morning program was interesting, it consisting of songs, orations, by C. Parsons on "Northern Patriotism" and Oscar Bessiev on Southern Patriotism. These were followed "by address by Rev. Kenneth Pfohl, of Wins on Salam, Mr. S. Bryant, member of the Board of Trustees made an encouraging talk to the natrons of the ing talk to the patrons of the scnool, and highly complimented those who contributed to the success of the school during the past year. During the evening the students enfortained a large and increase with entertained a large audience with a miscellaneous program of song and recitation, closing with an operetta entitled "A Fete in Flowerland."

elebration of the Victory for Prohibi-

Miss Elizabeth Marsh, of New Salem, who has been President for many years of the State W. C. T. U. will make an address at the Presby-terian Church on Wedsesday right May 26th at 8 o'clock, assisted by May 26th at 8 o'clock, assisted by the members of the Loyal Temper-ance Legion, who will have a short program of songs, etc. Those most interested in the coming of Miss Marsh, are very anxious that every body in Asheboro shall bear her, and feel assured they will be re-warded by coming out.

Ex Chief Builtus Is Sued.

The Wake County Board of Edn. ation has entered suit for the re-covery of $5,500 which it claims is the difference between the amount of money turn d over by ex-Chief Po-liceman Muling, and the aggregate fines shown by the warrants during the past two years.

Mullins, the defendant in the suit.

was recently permanently suspended by the Raleigh Police Commission for failers to perform his duty.

Ex-Sheriff J. Hodge Krider, Rowan, died almost suddenly at his Rowan, died almost suddenly at his home in Salisbury Friday morning, He was 52 years old. Had been a deputy sheriff for more than 30 years and was a brave officer. In 1906 he was elected sheriff of Rowan and served one term, being defeated for renomination by the present sheriff, J. H. McKenzie.

Kerosene Causes Death-

Nellie Graves, the colored servant in the home of H. B. Tatum, at London but now policeman in Kannapolis, Cabarrus county, was severely injured recently in an attempt to arreet a men for whom he had a warrant. When he approached the warrant. When he approached the description in it clucked ing.

New Mercantile Firm.

Hains Sentenced.

Flushing, April 17—Captain
Peter C. Hanns, Jr., was to-day given indeterminate sentence to Sing Sing from eight to sixteen years at hard labor for killing William E, Aunis last August.

The sentence was imposed to

Messrs C, C. and C. L. Cranford and Orlando Ferree have purchased the general merchandise business of G, G. Hendricks and will continue the business at the old stand west of the depot. The new firm will be known as Cranford Brothers &
Ferree. known as Cranford Brothers & Mrs. Geo. T. Russell, left for home

M18. Julius Shore, of Shore, Yadkin county, attempted to commit suicide on Tuesday morning of last week by taking Paris Green. The husband of Mrs. Shore has been working at a distillery in Salisbury and is not at home much.

NEWS IN BRIEF.

Julian Price succeeds E. Colwell as manager of the Greensboro Life Insurance Co.

Florence Nightengale celebrated colored, were horribly usugled and probably fataliv burt by a dynamit explosion at Burlington, N. C., on

There are seventy-eight nationts at the Pasieur Institute in Raleigh, where they are treated free at the excesse of the State.

Commencement exercises at Whit satt Institute will be held May 22 24 Rev. Melton Clark, of Greensbore, will preach the annual sermor

Mrs. Sarah Ward, wife of the late C. O. Ward, died at her home at High Point, where she had lived for

On account of the establishment of the Recorder's court at Greens-horo the salary of the mayor has been reduced from $1.000 to $250 a

Wm. Bowers, a well known farme of Davidson county, was killed by an extra train at a crossing near Lake, Tuesday. The deceased was 60 years old.

The election in Center Township Tuesday on the issuance of $30.000
Good Roads Bonds passed-off quietly, the measure being defeated 109 sgainst the Bonds to 59 for.— Siler City Grit.

J. L. Winningham, of Greensho J. L. Winningnam, of Greensoro, has closed a contract to erect a $15,-000 residence for Frank S. Lambeth, of Thomawille. The work will be-gin immediately. Mr. Lambeth's new home will be one of the finest in this section of the State,

Dr. L. L. Nash, who has for many years teen a prominent minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church South now living at Gibson Station, has given up his work as a preacher of the gospel because of the infirma-tives of old age.

A well known specialist has just completed an examination of the leper, John R. Early, at Washington and declares he found no symptoms of the desease. Early is a North Carolina and has been quarantized since Angust 31st. tined since August 21st.

LOCALS.

Miss Delphins Henley spent Sun-day with relatives in the country.

Mrs. Crassic Clark has returned

Mrs. Daisy Page Walker has been visiting at Col. J. E. Walker's. Henry Yow, of Sesgrove, was in

Rev. W. L. Sherrill, once pastor of M. E. Church here, was 'n town

Mrs. Annie Robins visited rela-tives and friends at Mc Gilead this Mrs. E. G. Morcis and children returned Tuesday from a visit to relatives at Randleman.

Miss Florence Blair, will be given at the Auditorium Friday night.

at the Auditorium Friday night.

I W. Phillips, of Sanford, has moved to Asheboro, living in West Asheboro. His wife and two children will arrive today. Mrs. Phillips is a sister of Mrs. Joel B. Trogdon.

Worth sppointed the following I F Craven.

Ommittes: Street & Health—A Mrs. G A Wood

J A Spence.

H M Robins

Dr J V Hunter

Wiley Ward.

Wiley Ward.

FIRE AT BROADWAY.

Ashebera Business Men Lose $1,500 in Lumber-Depot Burned.

A serious fire occurred at Broad way, in Moore county last Thursday afternoon, entailing a loss of several thousand dollars. Local business Florence Nightengare celebrated her S9th birthday in England Satthousand dollars. Local business thousand dollars. Local business thousand dollars. Local business men, who are also interested in mercantile houses at Broadway lost about $1,500 in lumber which was on the yards of lumber mills there. The fire originated in the boiler room of the saw mill of Thomas & Chandler, completely destroying several warehouses, the Atlantic and the U. S. Military Academy at West Western depot, two box cars and a large lot of lumber and shingles were burned. The stores and other Western depot, one large lot of lumber and shingles were burned. The stores and other buildings were saved by the heroic work of the fire fighters.

April 1 to 5.7.

Sec. 2. When any pointer or and the voting of sector dog shall be found ranging maintain better schools antimozaled in the field or woods it growing in public favor.

Last y ar Randolph ranging antimozaled in the field or woods it in the hat of countries he in the hat of countries he is the hat of countries he had been heat of the hat of

An Enthusiastic Meeting.

The Farmers' Union of Rundolph county held an interesting meeting at the court house last week. The following officers were elected:

President—W. H. Redding.
Vice President—Thomas Farlow. Vice Freadent—Thomas Farlow Secretary—Wm R. Julian. Chaplain—W. R. Lassiter. Door-Keeper—C. A. Garner. Conductor—Joe Wall. Assis ant Conductor—M. Macor Executive Committee J. J. December. A. R. Coltenna. J. T.

Thoraburg, A. B. Coltrane, J. T. Redding.

Redding.

Much good feeling prevailed.

The Union is gaining rapidly.

PASTOR OF CARAWAY CHURCH

Rev. S. T. Lassiter Goes to Gre ensbe -To Take Conference Work,

Rev. S. T. Lassiter, principal of Farmer High School for the past two years, was in Ashehoro yesterday enroute to Greensooro. Mr. Lassiter goes at the request of Presiding Elder Ware, who has appointed him to serve the Caraway Memorial Church, at Greensboro, as paster succeeding Rev. W. O. pastor succeeding Rev. W. O. Davis, who resigned on account of his health.

Mr. Lassiter hopes to take regular work in the Western North Carolina Gonference this fall, giving up teaching. He expects to join the conference at the next meeting in November.

Government Investigating Water

Z. F Rush Z. A. Cranford Mr. Reid Whitford, of the U. S. Department of Engineering, who is making an investigation of the water courses in North and South Dougan Brower A. o. Rush E. J. Coltrane water courses in North and South Carolina with a view to assertaining the effect of deforestation upon the atreams, was in Asheboro Tuesday securing some data regarding Randolph County. His estimate shows J. T. Penn. that 35 per cent of the land in the county is cultivated against 20 per cent twenty years ago. There is cent twenty years ago. There is only 5 per cent of the original timcent twenty year, only 5 per cent of the original timber standing today that was stunding 20 years ago; the estimate that 40 J. H. Spencer per cent of the roads of the county could be count d good and 60 per J. W. Steed cent had 20 years ago is reversed, E. H. Morris E. E. Moffitt cent had 20 years ago is reversed, E. H. Morris Mrs. H. B. Martin of 1 O. Redding. giving 60 per cent good today; and that on account of the cutting of timber the water courses in this, as well as in other counties in this section, are being rapidly filled up.

B. H. Morris (E. H. Morris)

Mrz. H. B. Martin

J. O. Redding.

Priend

J. T. Unlerwood Friend
J. T. Underwood
B. F. Hilliard
W. W. Jones

Death of Mrs. Kennedy.

Mrs. Annie Robins visited relaves and friends at Mc Gilead this years died hast Wednesday evening at the home of her grand wording the R. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand wording the R. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand wording the R. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand wording the R. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand wording the R. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand wording the R. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand wording the R. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand was considered to the W. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand wording the W. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand was considered to the W. W. Jones W. W. Jones W. H. W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand with the W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand with the W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand with the W. Jackson wording at the home of her grand was considered for two weeks before her death from heart trouble. She is survived by two sons, S. J. W. D. Stedman and W. L. Kennedy, of Thomasville, W. C. Hammond wording at the home of her grand was considered to the wording at Mrs. M. L. Davis left Tuesday for Gnilford College to attend the commencement exercises.

Mrs. J. M. Rowland, who has been visiting her mother, gMrs. C. H. Lewis, returned to her home at Manchester, Va., Tuesday.

Mrs. Ellen Vuncannon, of Ether, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. T. Russell, left for home this week.

The recital by the music Commissioners of Asbeboro held aud W. L. Kennedy, of Thomasville, R. F. D. 4. The funeral was conducted Thursday afternoon at 3 college. B. Hatch.

J. A. Odell.
J. A. Odell.
O. V. Wooslev.
J. W. Hadley.
J. W. Hadley.
J. G. Miller.
Mac Lamb.
Rev. H. A. Albright.
O. R. Fox.

Mrs. Geo. T. Russell, left for home this week.

At the meeting of the Board of Commissioners of Asbeboro held.

The recital by the music Commissioners of Asbeboro held.

The recital by the music Commissioners of Asbeboro held classes of Miss Nannie Bulla and last Thursday night Mayor H. M. WF Hugbes.

When the Auditorium Friday night.

At the threeting of the Localett Footstain Fronce is Asreolo Drug Co.

Footstain WF Hugbes.

Fronce is Asreolo Drug Co.

Footstain

WF Hugbes.

I F Craven.

committees: Street & Health—A Mrs C A Wood

PROGRESS SCHOOL

This Is The Breeding Season For Quail Randolph Fast Advancing Toward Higher Education. This is the breeding season for quail and we to the bird-dog that is caught running at large. The law, which was passed by the recent Legislature, is as follows: "Section."

CREDITABLE SHOWING IN SPE-CIAL TAX DISTRICTS

Last Year She Ranked Sixth in the Counties of the State-Ten New Dis-tricts to Be Added This Spring-Elections Held Tuesday

Rapid progress is being made along educational lines in Randolph district county. In every school greater enthusiasm in the work of s:hool improvement is noticeable and the voting of special tax to maintain better schools is steadily shall be prima facie evidence that the owner of such pointer or setter dog has violated the provisions of this act, and upon conviction such owner or his agent shall be deemed Last y ar Randolph ranked sixth in the last of countries having local tax school districts, and this spring promises to advance her much nearer the head of the list. Elections were teld in four dis guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than lifty dollars riots Tuesday. Three of them re-sulted in the establishment of the special tax while one was lost. Those who voted the tax were Dis-Sec. 3. This act shall apply ouly to the counties of Guilford, Forsyth, Iredell, Moore, Yancy, Trausylvanis, Davidson, Durham, Green and Johnston. trict No 2, Blacks school, in Liberty township; District No 3, known as Flut Hill, in Back Creek Township and District No 5, known as Shep-herd, in Tabernacle township.

Sec. 4. All laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed." In District No 1, Belvidere

In District No 1, Belvidere school district, in Grant township the election was lost by a large majority. In the districts where the tax was voted new school houses will be erected and the schools will run six months. At Flint Hill, a new teacher will be added.

Elections will be held in seven other districts in the county on June Contributions to Monument Fund Re The Daughters of the Confederacy are gratified at the progress made in raising the monument fund. A neet sum is added to the amount other districts in the county on June

A nect sum is added to the amount received this week. Persons will confer a favor by sending names of persons who may contribute to Mrs J. D. Ross, Asheboro, N. C., in or-der that a personal appeal from he Daughters can be sent to them by 5th. Nearly 30 per cent of the districts Nearly 30 per cent of the distribe in Randolph county have voted a special tax for school improvements and there are few counties that can make a better report.

NEW TRAIN ON A. & A.

Local Preight to Be Operated between Asheboro & Aberdeen.

The Asheboro & Aberdeen Railway Company put on a new local freight train between Asbeboro and freight train between Asheboro and Aberdeen Monday. The train eaves Asheboro every merning at 7:45 arri ing at Aberdeen at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Beturning it leaves Aberdeen at 2 o'clock p. m., arriving at Asheboro at 7:45 p. m. At Biscos close connection will be made for Mt. Gilead. The local also goes to Jackson Springs. This train makes it possible to spend several hours at any point on the road, returning to Asheboro in the evening.

DR. J. E. GRIMSLEY DEAD.

1.00

1,00

.25

1 00

5 00

Well-Known Greenaboro Physician Passes Away at St. Leo's Hospital.

Dr. Joseph E. Grimsley, who had been critically ill since Wednesday, died Saturday afternoon at St. Leo's Hospital at Greensboro.

Dr. Grimsley was a native of Greene county and 49 years old, hav-ing been a son of the late Dr. William P. Grimaley, a prominent phy-sician and planter. He was mar-ried to M'ss Annie Laurie McDougal, ried to M'ss Annie Laurie McDougal, of Greene county, who survives him, together with six children. He was a brother of Mr. George A. Grims-ley, secretary of the Security Life and Annuity Jompany. The funeral was held Monday af-1.00 ternoon from St. Barnabas church, of which Dr. Grimsley was a mem-50,00 ber.

Pallure to List Poll Tax.

In Forsyth there were 1,200 per

5.00 In Forsyth there were 1,200 per10.00
10.00
5.00
5.00
They are to be indicted in the superior Court.
There are a number of persons in Randolph County who did not list their poll tax last year, but 1.00
10.00
c nty commissioners and no recommendations made by them to the 1.00 mendations made by them to the

Married

Fred C. Blair and Miss Esther C. Hayden were married in High Point on May 11. The groom is a son of Addison Blair, of Trinity township. The bride is an English 1,00

Easley-Flow.

Dr. P. S. Easley of Thomasville, A Friend 5.00 was married yesterday evening to Miss Annie Hall Flow, of Davidson. Hanging is indeed a terrible and After their tour of Northern cities they will be at bome at Thomasville.