

Thoughtful Business Men

ESPECIALLY, during the past two years, have used more care in making permanent and fixed incomes for their dependant ones than ever before. As a result more annuity Policies are being sold each day. THE ANNUITY POLICY PROVIDES AN INCOME FOR OLD AGE. IT MAKES SURE AND PERMANENT AN INCOME FOR THE FAMILY.

It's the best form of insurance---best for the insured; best for the beneficiary. Write today for leaflet.

The Security Life and Annuity Co., of Greensboro.

JOHN M. HAMMER, District manager, ASHEBORO, N. C.

RAMSEUR ITEMS.

Red Men Elect Officers--Personals and Brief News Notes.

Miss Swanson Lehman, of Greensboro, is visiting in town.
J. B. Covington, of the East Stan Co., is taking a few days vacation at the home of his parents.
Miss Nina Campbell left last night to visit relatives at Clarkton. She was accompanied by her little niece, Miss Mary Tate.
A number of our people went up to Greensboro Saturday to celebrate the fourth--some at the Battle Ground and some at Proximity.
Mrs. J. B. Meiton, of Meiton, Ga., is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Allred.
Mr. John King, of Why Not, is spending a few days in town with relatives.
Mr. William Durrett, living near Ramseur, had the misfortune to lose his barn and nearly all the contents by lightning on last Saturday evening. Over 100 bushels of wheat was lost.
Mr. O. T. Leonard, of Greensboro, was a visitor in town Monday.
On Friday night the following officers of the M. E. Church No. 34 were elected: M. E. Johnson, Proprietor; J. C. Whitehead, Sachem; V. O. Marley, Sr., Sargant; H. B. Moore, Jr., Sargant; J. T. Whitehead, 1st Sargant; T. H. Ellis, 2nd Sargant; C. B. Smith, C. of Records; J. I. Lambeth, K. of W. G. W.; J. M. McAllister, G. of W.; E. H. Marley, G. of F.
A delightful banquet was held after these exercises were finished and the evening was a most delightful one. This tribe is in a prosperous and flourishing condition.

MT. OLIVET ITEMS.

Death of Mrs. Owen--Other News in Brief.

We are having fine rains and the farmers are busy with their corn and wheat crops.
C. W. Trogan went to Thomasville last week to see his son, Louis Trogan. His daughter, Mrs. C. M. Taylor, accompanied him.
Mrs. Nancy Owen, widow of John C. Owen, died Sunday night, June 27, and was buried Monday. She was a good woman and we sympathize with the children in their bereavement. They are J. L. Owen, Mrs. Jas. King and Mrs. J. S. Ritter.
L. O. Sugg and T. M. Tyeer attended the Masonic picnic at Franklinville held there on June 26 and report a nice time.
T. B. Tyeer attended the Sunday School convention at Mt. Zion on Sunday, June 27. There was a Masonic picnic or annual gathering of the Measons at Mr. T. B. Leach's last Sunday.
Miss Emma Mann visited her sister, Mrs. Laura Tyeer, last week.

Cedar Falls News.

Quite a number of our people attended the celebration at Worthville Saturday.
Mrs. J. V. Frye has returned home after having spent several days with her mother, who has been quite sick at her home at Worthville. We are glad to note she is convalescing.
The Children's Day service which was held at the M. E. church of this place Sunday night, was quite a success and very much enjoyed by all who attended.
Dr. A. H. Redding and family spent last Saturday in Asheboro with their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Miller.
B. Allred's children, of Gibsonville, are visiting friends here.
There will be an ice cream supper held on the lawn at J. E. Free's the third Saturday night, the proceeds of which will go to the general improvement fund of the M. E. Church. Everybody cordially invited, and we hope everybody who possibly can will attend, as we are sure you will enjoy it. Besides, the money will be used for good purposes.

Edgar Items.

Mrs. Milner Angel will conduct a series of meetings at 4 day square, beginning Friday night, July 11th.
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Coltrane visited at the home of A. W. Davis last Sunday.
Mrs. Beuhama Stanton, widow of George Stanton, visited her niece, Mrs. A. W. Davis. She is 83 years old.
Several of our young people celebrated the fourth at High Point Saturday.
Misses Vadie and Lillie Spencer visited Misses Rose and Ocie Bradley Sunday.

Randleman R. F. D. No. 2 Items.

Balfour Curtis, of Cincinnati, Ohio, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Curtis, this week.
Ted C. Wood, of Asheboro, spent Sunday at home.
Miss Flora York, who has been visiting friends in Charlotte, Lexington and High Point, is expected home this week.
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cox, of Staley, and Gurney Fugh, of Franklinville, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wood Sunday.

The Best Regulator.

We promise to return every cent paid us for Rexall Orderlies if they fail to satisfactorily relieve constipation. They are eaten like candy, are particularly good for delicate persons and children, do not gripe or cause nausea, and may be taken at any time of day or night without any inconvenience whatever. We want you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk because we are positive they will do as we claim. Two sizes, 10c and 25c. J. T. Underwood, The Rexall Store.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to thank the many friends in Asheboro for their kindness to me during the recent illness of my wife, who is rapidly returning to health again.

Sincerely,
Elmer Rich.

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS.

Rev. J. E. Woolley spent Sunday and Sunday night in town and delivered two of his best sermons in his pulpit at the M. E. church to large and appreciative congregations.
W. B. Fields has sold his residence and truck farm on Buffalo street to L. M. Curtis and has moved his family to Greensboro.
Miss Minnie Tippet is visiting Mrs. Jesse Dickens at Portsmouth, Va., this week.
John Freeman, of Guilf, spent Saturday night with Chas. I. Brady.
Joe Buie attended service at Pleasant Ridge Sunday.
Rosie Tippet and Master Ray, of White Oak are visiting his father, J. M. Tippet.
Burgess Leonard, of Ramseur, has moved to the Marley residence on Railroad Avenue, and has accepted a position in the building room of Randolph Manufacturing Co.
Mr. and Mrs. T. Leonard, of Greensboro, spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Caroline Graves.
Herbert Maurer, of Proximity, was in the city Saturday and Sunday.
Clyde King, of Greensboro, and his sister, Mrs. Mamie, of near Randleman, are visiting in this community this week.
M. M. Fentress, one of the Christian Advocate's employees, of Greensboro, spent Saturday night and Sunday in the city with relatives.
Eddie Barker, of Greensboro, spent some time last week with Mrs. Lizzie Jobs, who has been quite ill for some time at the home of her sister, Miss Mary Jane Cox.
W. C. Jones has purchased a fine horse and drag wagon, and expects to run a drive in connection with his grocery and dry goods store.
Her James Jordan, who has been seriously ill for some time, appears to have improved slightly in some respects, but his recovery is doubtful.
Rufus Brookbanks and Miss Ella Jones were married at Cedar Falls Sunday. Mr. Brookbanks is one of Mr. Peck's section hands on the Southern Railroad, and Miss Jones is one of Mr. W. L. Jones' pretty and accomplished daughters. They will probably make their future home at Stokesdale.

Glenola Items.

R. L. White threshed 500 bushels and Luther Spencer 450 bushels of wheat this week.
Miss Lula Davis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Hilliard, of Asheboro.
The boys all spent Saturday in High Point celebrating the 4th.
R. L. Seurlock and little son and daughter spent Saturday and Sunday in Greensboro.
G. E. Davis, of Randleman, spent Sunday in Glenola.
John Brewer spent Saturday in Greensboro.

Mersey and Joe White spent Saturday night and Sunday at Trinity.
Tilden Barreton is visiting friends at Spero.

Cool Spring Items.

C. H. Walker, of Millboro, visited relatives here last Thursday and Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Atwell, of Burnett Chapel, attended Quarterly Conference here last Saturday.
Rev. Matney was a welcome visitor at A. B. Walker's last Saturday night.
J. S. Wilkerson, of Climax, visited in the community last Sunday.
Clyde Allred attended the picnic at the White Oak last Saturday.
Prayer meeting was held at A. B. Walker's last Saturday night.
Mrs. Rufus Neer, of Providence, visited her mother, Mrs. Malinda Foster, last Sunday.
Rev. and Mrs. James Webster visited at George Cagle's last Sunday.

Providence News.

Mrs. Mary Warren, of Staley, and Mrs. Rachel Frazier, of Asheboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Barker the other week.
Miss Lelia Harris, of Snow Camp, who has been visiting Mrs. Victoria Reynolds, returned home last Sunday. We are glad to hear that Miss Harris will fill the assistant teacher's place in Providence Graded School again this winter.
There was an ice cream supper at L. L. Chommeson's last Saturday night. All report a fine time.
G. P. Barker is having a new barn built. Messrs. A. J. Chommeson and D. G. Kozay are the carpenters. When finished the barn will be the largest and best arranged barn in this part of the county. It is estimated Mr. Barker will thresh 650 bushels of wheat.

Dewey Items.

The Flag Spring Sunday School is progressing nicely.
Mrs. S. G. Spoon has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. B. W. Williams this week.
Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Allen visited Mr. Allen's father, Alvis Allen, Sunday.
There will be an ice cream supper at S. G. Spoon's July 17th.
Miss Leola King, of Ralph, and John Yow, of Seagrave, were married at the home of the bride last Friday.

A Surprise Birthday Dinner.

On July 4th Mrs. Daisy Sumner and Miss Edna Sumner, of Trinity R. F. D., gave a surprise birthday dinner at the home of Riley Sumner in honor of his 39th birthday. At 12 o'clock a table 24 feet long was arranged in the yard, and it was loaded with nice things to eat. After a prayer and thank service, conducted by M. U. Wall, a delightful dinner was served to 75 or 80 people.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to express through the columns of the Courier my sincere thanks to the good people of Franklinville, and especially Mrs. M. G. Tull and Mrs. Peter Allred for the very kind assistance shown me during the illness and death of my daughter, Mary Ann, and while I will never be able to repay them in 100-fold, may they be blessed in all things well, and abundantly bless them on the Great Beyond. Mrs. Jane Elliott.

Asheboro No. 3.

The Sunday School at Hopewell is progressing nicely under the management of Elwood Cox.
Mrs. Milner Angel preached an interesting sermon at Hopewell Sunday to a large and attentive congregation.
Mrs. Will Newman visited Mrs. Winfield Rosh a part of last week.
Master James Dawson is sick.
There will be a Sunday School celebration at Hopewell Saturday before the 4th Sunday in July.
John Rosh and Miss Roella Lowdermilk visited Misses Mary and Sallie Branson last Sunday evening.
The ice cream supper at Winfield Rosh's Saturday night given in honor of Misses Milner Angel and Roella Lowdermilk, was very much enjoyed by all present.
Mrs. Winfield Rosh and Miss Roella Lowdermilk visited their mother, Mrs. N. J. Lowdermilk, near Deary Tuesday.

Michfield News.

Several of our young people attended the ice cream supper at Lillian Pressnell's Saturday night.
Clyde King, of Greensboro, and his sister, Miss Myrtle King spent Saturday night with her cousin, Miss Ethel King.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McLeod and children spent Saturday night with M. J. Pressnell.
Aster King made a business trip to Star Saturday.
Mrs. Martha Vanamont, of Trinity R. F. D., who has been visiting relatives in this community, has returned home.
John King and son, Carl, went to Ramseur Saturday.
M. J. Pressnell, merchant, has just received a nice lot of dress goods. Girls, treat yourself to a new dress.
Misses Gertha and Allie Bean visited their sister, Mrs. Samuel Graves, Saturday night.

Why Not News.

Mrs. J. D. Lilly and children, of Denton, who have been visiting her parents, have returned home.
Mrs. J. H. Spencer is visiting her son, J. L. Spencer, at Aberdeen.
Mrs. J. A. Monroe and children spent a part of last week with relatives at Elise.
Messrs. J. Q. Seawell, of Carthage, and J. F. Morgan, of Elm College, spent a few days here recently.
Mrs. Catherine Monroe, of Elsie, is spending a few days with her son, J. A. Monroe.
The Sunday School convention will be held here the 3rd Sunday in July.
Miss Myrtle Lawrence is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. R. R. Auman, of Stokesdale.
Mrs. D. Auman, of Asheboro, spent Saturday night at M. A. Eagle's on her way to Bowers Mill.
George Yow is right sick.

New Hope News.

New Hope is on a boom. The new telephone line from Farmer is nearing completion.
J. M. Varner, who has been on the sick list for some time, does not improve.
Jesse Lydon will accept a position with C. J. Seabolt in the near future.
Benard Varner, who has been spending the past six months at A. C. Lydon's visited home folks Sunday evening.
Sam Cranford, who is engaged in the saw mill business at Carthage, was in this community Sunday. Also Priscilla Hill, of Farmer, visited friends here Sunday evening.
Frank Shaw's baby has been very sick for a few days.

Mt. Glend Items.

Mrs. Stanback, of Tennessee, is visiting relatives here.
Miss Elizabeth Stanback, who has been visiting in Mississippi and Tennessee, has returned home.
Dr. Oscar Haywood, of New York City, is at his mother's home, near Mt. Glend.
Most of the young people attended Children's Day at Zion Church Sunday.
A. S. McEhee and family have returned from Jackson Springs where they have been for two weeks.
Mrs. R. L. Luther and Miss Luna Cox, of High Point, are visiting at J. A. Scarborough's.

Wanted By the Commissioners of Randolph County.

Bids for taking up and rebuilding the collapsed iron bridge, formerly across Uwharrie River at Pearce's mill, near L. C. Parrish's. The county to supply all material for properly replacing said bridge.
Bids to be considered on the afternoon of the first Monday in August by the Commissioners at the meeting of the Board on said date.
The County Commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all bids.
J. W. COX, Chm'n.
Geo. T. MURKOCK, Clerk.
This July 5, 1909. iy 8-3t

Wanted By the Commissioners of Randolph County.

Bids for the erection of an open wooden bridge across Little River at Mrs. Mariah Lewis' ford, as per plans and specifications a file in the office of the Register of Deeds. The piers for the above bridge are already erected. Bids to be considered on the afternoon of the first Monday in August, 1909, by the Commissioners at the meeting of the Board on said date.
The County Commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all bids.
J. W. COX, Chm'n.
G. T. MURKOCK, Clerk.
This July 5, 1909. iy 8-3t

Notice.

A general meeting of Friends (Conservative) is to be held at New Hope meeting house, near Edgar, Randolph county, beginning on the 24th instant, at 11 o'clock a. m. Ministers and other Friends from a distance are expected to be in attendance. The public is invited.

Notice.

Having qualified as administrators on the estate of J. S. Cox, deceased, before W. C. Hammond Clerk Superior Court of Randolph county, all persons having claims against said estate are notified to present them to the undersigned duly verified, on or before the 5th day of July, 1910, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons owing said estate will come forward and make immediate settlement.
This 5th day of July, 1909.
R. C. Cox,
B. J. Stover,
Administrators.

Plague Items.

Mrs. Lehan Slack, who has been sick for some time is improving.
The singing at J. J. Webb's Sunday evening was enjoyed by all present.
Several of our young people attended the ice cream supper at Lela Treglon's Saturday night.
The baseball game played on the local diamond here Saturday evening between Elsie and Ulah teams resulted in a score of 9 to 3 in favor of Elsie.
Master Guy Slack is improving from an attack of scarlet fever.

LAND SALE.

By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Randolph county in the special proceedings entitled Hawke Rejoice vs. Rejoice et al. I will sell at the court house, High Point, N. C. at 12 o'clock M. for cash on the 8th day of August 1909, the following real estate, to-wit:
A tract of land in said county, containing the lands of Riley, Seabolt and A. W. Mason, beginning at a hickory tree, the original corner and running North 12 1/2 degrees and 32 1/2 degrees to a stake, thence West 75 degrees 15 minutes to a stake, thence South 80 degrees 20 minutes and 12 1/2 inches to a stake in the Northham's line, thence bounded by his line to the beginning, containing 39 1/2 acres more or less.
This 5th day of July, 1909.
J. A. Spence, Commissioner.

FRIEND STOP, THINK

We have just figured it out for you. What a little systematic saving will do. You will never notice in the end. The following shows what you used to spend.

What you actually save in five years at 5% per week	$ 60.00
What we add in interest	15.00
Total to your credit in five years	75.00
What you actually save in five years at 10% per week	120.00
What we add in interest	30.00
Total to your credit in five years	150.00
What you actually save in five years at $1.00 per week	300.00
What we add in interest	60.00
Total to your credit in five years	360.00

Get one of our Savings Books and start an account AT ONCE.

The Bank of Ramseur
Ramseur, N. C.

THE STAR Meat Market.

Has begun early morning delivery of beef to its customers. Persons giving orders the evening before or giving a standing order for morning delivery will have fresh meat delivered from our large refrigerator between 5:30 and 6:30 o'clock. Give us your order.

THE STAR MEAT MARKET,
T. B. McPHERSON, Prop.

High-Grade Photos Penny Pictures and Post Cards

If you have a kodak let me make post cards of your pictures to send your friends. I make this and developing kodak pictures a specialty.

Films Developed 15c.
Pictures 2 1/4 x 3 1/4, 3c. each.

C. H. ELLISON, Photographer
Franklinville, N. C.

Ladies' Shirt Waists Prices Reduced.

Why worry over material and design for making shirt waists and then spend your time working over a machine or pay a big price to the dressmaker?

We will on Friday, Saturday, and Monday, June 25th, 26th and 28th offer special prices on all Ready-Made Shirt Waists.

They are made in the latest style in net, lace and embroidery. We have a large line of high-priced Waists at about one third off.

75c. Ladies' Waists at 49c.

Baby Caps worth 15c. at 8c.

Baby Caps worth 25c. at 18c.

We have caps worth up to $2.50 which will be reduced in the same proportion, nearly half cost.

Will sell on the same date Children's Suits

Worth $4.50 for $3.50

Suits Worth $5.00 for $3.98

G. W. ELLIOTT'S.

The Big Store, Randleman, N. C.

WATCH THIS SPACE NEXT WEEK.

GLEA RANGE Latest Novelties

I will offer my entire stock of Dry Goods and Ladies' Dress Goods at cost. These goods are fresh and new, selected and good values even at regular retail figures.

Entire Balance of Spring and Summer Goods to Go Into This Sale.

Terms will be strictly cash on all marked-down articles. No such chance to save money has been offered you before. Come and be convinced.

J. W. STEED,
Steeds, N. Caro.

DR. A. C. JONES.

Veterinary Surgeon and Dentist.
Bell 141 North State 141.
129 Franklin St., High Point, N. C.

Littleton Female College

One of the most successful and best equipped boarding schools in the South with hot water heat, electric lights and other modern improvements. 25th annual session will begin September 15, 1909. For catalogue address J. M. RHODES, President, Littleton, N. C.