The COURIER eads in Both News and Circulation. V ----

PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN.

THE COURIER.

ASHEBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, January 6, 1910.

No. 1

$1.00 Per zear

for three weeks, is very

The COURIER

Advertising Columns

Bring Results.

Many Interesting Items from Liberty

Troy, has been with her for several days.

to his he

of Greensh

last week.

is parents.

S. C. Cameron, of St. Paul, has returned

Dr. J. W. Long and daughter, Frances

Mr. and Mrs. Benson Kimery went to Greensboro last Monday." tartes Miss Dollie Moore, of Durham, is visiting

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Gregg. Clay Johnson returned home Monday from Asheboro, where he had been visiting

A. E. Dark visited his mother last Wednesday and Thursday near Ore Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Griffin, of Pittsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Coley Griffin, of Chapel Hill.

and families, spent Christmas with their mother, Mrs. Phosbe Griffin, who has been confined to her room for several months, We are sorrow to, know that Mrs. Griffin is

A. D. Jones, of Greensboro, was on our streets last Friday. Robert Fowler, of Sanford, returned

Dr. R. D. Patterson was called to the dside of his sister, M rs. Lola Smith, of Greensboro last week, who is critically ill foreinsboro last week, who is critically ill at St. Leo hospital. Master Lynn Ellis is confined to his bed with lagrippe. Rev. W. M. Pike was married in Greensboro December 20 to Miss Stella Stafford at the home of Mrs Sarah Stafford, on South

Forbis street. Immediately after the wed-ding they boarded the 3:55 train for their ome near Liberty, where they will reside. U. P. Smith, Sr., C. P., Jr., and Hubard

Smith, who have been away in the tree busi-ness since last August, came home last week to spend some time with their people. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. logram and son, of Spencer, are visiting Mrs. Ingram's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Euliss, Miss Nell Causey and her brothe-, Numa, of Greensboro, spent last Sunday and Monday with their parents. Misses Lizzie and Frances Cameron, Dr.

A Wagner sport Christmas day and France's Cameron, Dr. De Lacey Foust, Messrs, J. B. Kirkman and A. Wagner sport Christmas day and Sun-day in Greenaboro, rstarning on the after-uoon train, accompanied by the Missee-Wall, who spont several days with the Misses Cameron. Miss Vallie Jordan left Saturday for Burniles out of town. Herbert Steed, of Raleigh, was a welcome visitor in our city during the holidays. Miss Lizzie Coltrane returned to her home in Greensboro after spending soveral days in our city the guests of the Misses Cameron. Mrs. John Caveness, who was called hera on account of the illness of her daughter, re-turned home last week, accompanied by her two children, at Norfolk, Va. Rev. W. F. Kennette and wife returned :

from Greensboro Friday, where they spent Christmas with relatives.

Cedar Falls News.

Ther will be a play at the Cedar Falls

Academy next Saturday night, January 8th. The title is "Ye Skule Days of Long Ago."

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Parrish, of Greens boro, are visiting Mrs. Parrish's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jennings.

Mir and Ars. W. A. Jennings. Missee Mamie and Flets Force visited at Franklinville Sunday. Mrs. Myrtle Owen, of Bristol, Tenn., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E.

Everybody is cordially invited.

ington, where she is teaching school called to the home Friday after spending the with relatives and friends.

oro, visited relatives in our city

I saued Weekly.

VOL. XXXV

FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Laomi and Mrs. Sarah Craven Cele brate Their 40th Wedding Anniversary.

The relatives and friends spared ring no pains nor expense in preparing for this event and each took a bountiful basket of good things to eat and some beautiful presents.

After spending some time in please ant and animated conversation, din her was announced, it in the meantime having been spread by the indies of the party, and the table motually groaced under the weight of the bounteous supply of substanof the bounteous supply of substan-tials and delicacies. The partaking of the meal was preceded by a brief address by Mr. W. J. Edwards, whose remarks produced good feel-ings and good cheer among the guests present. Daring the evening there were songs, and some remarks from the older ones, which brought to their memories many incidents that oc-ourred while in their youthful days.

The following were some of the nests present: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. guests-present: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stout, W. J. Edwards and son, Os-car Stout, Missee Sthel and Stella Stout, of Ramseur; Mr. and Mrs. J. Stout, of Ramseur; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brower, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ves-tal, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Williams, Mr. N. Edwards. Misses Ida and Nanna Parker, Vallie and Sallie Brown, Etta Kivett, Sue and Mattie Edwards, Messrs. Carl and Vangha Edwards, Messrs. Carl and Vaughn Brower, James Edwards, Preston Brower, James Edwards, Preston Estridge, Russell Lumbert and othars, comprising about 60 in number. It was a very enjoyable occasion, long to be remembered by all pres-ent, and it is our best wishes for them, that they may enjoy many more anniversaries together, and when ithrough thy cares departed here in life, may they look to thy orown where there is evaluating C.

IMt. Gilend Locals .-- E. Caule Avreated. A number of the girls and boys who spent the holidays at home re-turned to the different schools to-day (Monday.) Others will leave We hope for them a happy later. We hope for them a happy and successful spring. Tom Ingram, the druggist and son of Dr. U. B. Ingram, accompa-nied by Harris Stanback, left Tueshied by Harris Standact, left Thee day for Red Springs. Wednesday night M. Ingram and Miss Myrtle Cook wire happily married at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Imgram returned to Mt. Gilead Sat

Ingrau returned to at, ornead Sat urday, where they intend to make their future home. Miss Myrtle McRase spent Christ-has with her sister Miss Augusta, They left Thursday for their home J. Raeford, Reeford. Prof. R. C. Cox spent Christma succeeded in arresting the leader of the "Cagle gang" of distillers at Colman's mill, Ebb Cagle. He was arrested for disturbing the peace and carrying a concealed weapon. Fail-ing to give bond he was carried to Troy and placed in jail to await Troy and placed in jail to await further matters.

Trinity News--Many Comers and Goes Mrs. G. F. Kirby (nee Mable Heitman) who had an operation per-formed at St. Leo's hospital, Greens boro, is doing well and we hope will be out soon. Prof. Will Bivens, of Durham, and Mrs. Bivens and little son, who have been spending their holidays here, returned to Durham Saturday.

Prof. D. C. Johnson, who has been with his mother, Mrs. D. C. Johnson of this place, returned yes-terday to Bessemer City. Prof. Johnson is delighted with his school and patrons and the "City."

Prof. E. C. Willis, of Kinston, and Miss Bessie Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ellis of this place, were married at 6 o'clock p. m. Wednesday, December 29th, Rev. Dr. F. H. Wood officiatin z.

Miss lose Johnson who has been at home for the holidays, seems to think Coleridge has a monopoly of good homes, good schools and good things generally.

Mrs. C. N. Pepper has gone to Liberty to visit her son. "Uncle Ben" and Mrs. Packer spent Saturday in High Point as the

Mrs. 1000g, who the det and sick, is improving. Prof. Stacey, of Chapel Hill, and two brothers, who have been visiting their father, Rev. L. E. Stacey, of ther father, Rev. L. E. Stacey, of this place, have gone to Lenoir to spend a few days with their sister, drs. Chas. Weaver, of Davenport College. Miss Mary Stacey leaves today to resume her school duties. Mr. Dave White and wife are spending the week with the parents of Mis. White, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Paul. Their many friends are de-mains. Baxter Wool'en, of Thomasville, who was found in his room Monday morning hung by the n-ck until dead was biried at Si. Paul ceme-tery Tuesday. Rev. Mr. Holmes, of Thomasville, his pastor, and several of his friends from High Point and Thomasville, accompanied the re-mains. Baxter was a noble young m a with many Christian virtues.

ing the holidays. Earl Carpenter, who visited Anson ounty last week, returned Saturday. The high school resumed work this worming after a week's boliday. The Trinity subscribers all extend wishes for a happy and presperous New Year to The Courier and its Nil.

Julian Items,

Christmas passed off quietly here. The Christmas tree at Shiloh was fully decorated and well filled. The receipts were $30. Miss Mary Luther is visiting Miss Gertrade Overton for a while. Last Thursday through trying difficulties our brave and daring poloeman, Mr. Frank Hunsucker, snoceeded in arreating the leader of the "Cagle gaug" of distillers at Colman's mill, Ebb Cagle. He was arrested for disturbing the peace and marying a concealed weapon. Fail-to g to give bond he was carried postponed till Tnesday after Christ-mas on account of the weather be Randleman News. Miss Mable Lamb spent the holidays at Mooresville visting her brother, John W. Lamb.

Jesse Lamb made a trip to Salis-bury, Charlotte and Mooreaville last weel Ad Lamb came down from White Oak Christmas to visit his father, Z. N. Lamb.

John Vanwerry is recovering from the effects of a broken leg.

Charley Swaney who slipped on ice some time ago and hurt his ankle is still in doors. Mrs. George Sanders, who has b a sufferer for some time, is still ill. Another entertainment here Saturday night, January 8th.

Arthur Dean went to Central Falls this week to take pictures of landscapes. He says it is strange he can't take a pretty picture for himself. If any one knows why he can't, don't say so.

Jesse Lamb went down the river last week canvassing he said, but we know.

W. H. Pickard made many a glad heart Christmas by helping those who needed help. He also realized that it was more blessed to give than to receive.

The holidays are all over and exerybody has gone to work. The mills are all running and all other enterprises are going with a vim. Baxter Wool'en, of Thomaaville, spending the week with the parents of Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Paul. Their many friends are de-lighted to see them again. Mr. George Hill and wife who have been visiting at his father's sistent Ghristian life, but why and Ced Hyrs's Saturday to take charge to whe came to this end his H-aven-of Mr. Fleer's dury.

y Father only knows. May God in all His great mercy come to console Ceed Hirs's staturing to take charge how he came to this end his H-aven-of Mr. Fleer's duiry. Mr. Robbins and son of Durham are visiting their son, Frank Wood. Miss Effic and Spurgeon White have been visiting relatives here dur-ling the holidares.

Luther Burgess has moved his family to Newlin town, just west of Randleman.

L. M. Caudle has come again from labor to reward. He has open-Vernon Hayworth, of near High Point, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wal-ton and others this week. Rev. G. E. Eaves will commence a revival at Nsomi M. E. church Sun-Asy, January 9. Prof. Fisher will conduct the singing. At the home of the bride in Randleman on Saturday night, Jan-uary 1st, 1910, Mr. John F. Lamb and Miss Moselle Graves were united. After the corremony the game france After the ceremony the many friends and relatives repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous supper awaited them. Mr. Lamb is one of our good, quiet boys, son of our townsman J. R. Lamb. Miss Graves is the accomplished daughter of Mr. John F. Graves, one of our successful merchants.

Bamseur News. Capt. E. E. Maynard, a former resident of Ramseur bont now of Hamlet was a visitor in town last week. T. W. Moore, of Fayettville, visited RARMER NOTES. ASHEBORO R.F. D. NO. 2 ITEMS. J. F. Horney and B. F. Parish Dead-Mr. J. F Horney. one of the best titizens of this community, was buried at Concord cometery Monday. He had been very ill with pneumonia for more than a week, and died on Sonday morning last. The fungral services were held at the home of the deceased, ou account of the illness of Mrs. Horney, who was unable to go to the church. Rev. J. A. Sharp conducted the course, new, or a sump conducted the services, and a very large number of people were in sitendance. Mr. Horney leaves a wife and sight children, all of whom are at home. They have the sympathy of the entire community in their sorrow Farmer High School opened Tuesday with s new teacher, Mins Mamie Edwards, addec to the faculty. Several new pu pils have en tered and we expect the schol to continu to grow better during the spring term as it has done during the term which closed at Christman, Mr. Bradshaw expects to have during the latter part of the term, a special surely pay the young teachers of this section of the county in take this Nornal Course for teachers, and it will

f the county to take this course after their chools have closed for the year. A number of our neighborhood young folks his writing.

A number of our neighborhood young folks who have been away either teaching or going to school, were at home doring the holidays; among them we noticed Masses Emma Dor-sett, Kate Nance, Maggie Parrish, Emma Ridge, and Linnis Shamberger, and S. T. Lassiter, Ernest Ridge, fai Lassiter, and Herbert Howard. Bob Dorsett and Lewis Dorsett and wife do a spint se veral days in the commute D. L.

he community. Misses Lamb and Marshall left for their nomes December 25sd, but Mr. Bradshaw remained at Farmer 100 last week when be attended the cancational meeting at Charlotte,

Mr. Franklin Parch, who has been suf fering for a number of months with cancer died laft week, and as taken to Pleasant Grove church in Thermacle township for John T. Lowe, Ann Cooper and Ro ert Walker, living between Farmer and Ashe-boro, have been qui sick recently, but are non-coperating. It was reported by week that there was measles in the Farner section, but it is a mistake. There has not been a single case near here, but there is pleaty of it in the vicinity of Gray's X-Roads. Nobody seem to be having a very hard into of it, ho wever Some people are much after of measies they would be of yellow fever, and they get schred if they hear it is inside the county. The Christmas tree at Concord Church was largly attended, and was much enjoyed etarning 31st.

urial.

by the little folks,

Trinity Notes.

The week before Christmas wes mark The week bolde Christmas we market by asveral events of interest to our people. On Thursday night in the High Schoo chapel the boys' literary society gave a pub-lic debate. The query was, "Shall we en-large our Navy?" The affirmative won. On the evening of the 18th Mr. Sam Riddled at Miss Modily. and Miss Mary Modlin were married at th residence of L. C. Payne, by Rav. W. L. Stacey, and on the svening of the 23rd Mr. C. C. Low and Miss Dora Riddick were married at the residence of Dr. F. H. Wood We beartily congratalate our good citizen W. N. Elder visited North Wilkesho last week with his son, Julian.

Mrs. Emma Heitman returned for ham after an extended visit there.

Sallie Hix, of near Lassiter, pas Minnes Bees Parkin, Polly Heitm through town Sanday, the 26th, returnin from Denton, where she spent Christm with har sister, Mrs. M. Russell. and Emma Lombeth are at home from Trinity College

Guy Phillips and Lane Elder are spen ing the holidays here with their parents. Rev. G. F. Kirby and family are he The Apron Party at Wade Bend starday night was enjoyed by all. for a visit of soveral weeks. On last Wednesday nig ing to give bond he was carried to Troy and placed in jail to await further matters. Teachers' Meeting at Trinity Jan. 15. 'Che await a Byrde. He likes bird better 'the chicken business as he has taken in a Byrde. He likes bird better 'the chicken. 'the await a bond decided to quit the chicken business as he has taken in a Byrde. He likes bird better 'the await a bond decided to quit the chicken business as he has taken in a Byrde. He likes bird better 'the await a bond decided to quit the chicken business as he has taken in a Byrde. He likes bird better week. 'the await await a bond wording, only near week. 'the await a

Misses Hassie and Minnie Jones of Greens Christmas Tree at Mt Lebanon a Grea oro, are visiting friends in town this week. Mrs. M. J. Reitzel, who has been in uccess and the Sunday School Prospers. People of this community would like to see deep soow so that they might hant rabbits. The little daughter of Geo. Hoover is Greensboro for the last three or four weeks returned home last Monday. Mrs. Jane Troy, who has been serio Il with pneumonia for three weeks, is ve much improved. Her son, Dr. Thadde lowly inproving. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Andrews ha urned home from an extended visit to Flo rida. We are all glad to welco back as rural carrier on Route No. 2.

The Christmas tree at Mt Lebanon was well attended by people far and near. The tree was well filled with presents of all kinds. Miss Cors Lamb, of Randleman, who is teaching at Belvidere opened her school Medan of Ust web vider far a far

Monday of last week after a few days VACA tion for Christmas. The Sunday school at Mt Lebanon is pro ressing finely under the managment of aron Tillman. Norman Narce who has been sick with evere cold is able to be out again. The people of Farmer report a nic Ohristuas Asheboro No. 1.

We have had some very cold weather dur-ing Christmas holidays. Mrs. Reuben Brown who was stricken with varalysis some time ago, is very low at Many persons in this community strended e exercises at Union Crove last Sunday and report good exercises. Smith and daughter Miss Berth risited at Timothy Cox's Funday. Miss Essie Cox and brother Carl were vis tors at D. L. Smith's Saturday night. D. A. Healay and Miss Boulah Brow oro.

High Pine

isital at D. C. Browns Sunday. Misses Zada and Ruth Smith visited Miss Ethel Brown Sunday evening. Cole Cox and family visited Yancey

Cox during Christmas returned to Asheville n last Saturday. Mrs. Mary Cox of High Point is visiting elatives in this community. Fletcher Humble and wife uests at D. L. Smiths Sunday eve. Casper Cox,of Asheville High School, wa the guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Yancy Cox during vacation. He returned to Asheville on last Saturday. F. L. Brooks and Miss M. L. Bird wer united in marriage on 25, of December Charlie Brown officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks have the beat wishes of the people in this community. Wishing the Courier and its many res a happy new year.

Uak Grove Locals. Rev. J. A. Sharpe preached an excellen ermon at the Oak Grove Sunday evening.

Among the young people of this communit that were married during Ohristmas are

Mr. Wade Bingham, of this place, and Miss Nellie Thompson of Lilac; Miss Dara Loffin to a "sewing machine fixer" from Green

cheol at Guilford College, spent Ch with home folks. Eulah Cranford is on the sick list, erry to note. Best and Leander Loflin, who have engaged in the lumber business in South Carolina, are at home for a few days.

Cleveland Skeen is a frequent visitor in his community. Levi Loftin, our U.S. mail carrier, went to see his wife Suzzlay, who is teaching at Fairview News.

Ernest and I.ey Cranford, who are in

| | The regular teachers' meeting for the northern district will be held at Trinity Saturday, Jaonary 15, 1910. The usual program will be followed. Dr. Stephen B. Weeks will lead a discuss on in "The Recitation." Matters of considerable import- ance to teachers will be presented. All teachers in the northwestern district are expected to be present. E. J. Coltrane, County Supt. of Schools. Died. On Monday morning, January 3rd, Mre, Sarah (Bonkemeyer, widow of the late G. Bonkemeyer, died at her home near Central Falls, aged 74 years October 13th last. The de- coment was conducted by Rev. R. L. Melton. DIM. W. R. WAKEFIELD of Charlos, will be in Asheboro at the out of the internet of the angle of the set of the set of the set of the method of the in Asheboro at the out of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the set of the M. P. church at Giles' ohapel, The function, will be in Asheboro at the out of the set of the s | W. H. Hardin, our chicken and egg buyer, has about decided to quit the chicken business as he has taken in a Byrde. He likes bird better than chicken. Ernest Hardin, of Asheville, vis- ited his parents, Mr, and Mrs. C. H. Hardin, and also attended the mar- riage of his brother, Walter H. Har- din, and Miss Byrde Cameron at Liberty. Prof. I. P. Farlow closed the singing at Julian M. P. church De- cember 31, 1909. Miss Nellie Staley visited her friend, Miss Mary Pickett, Sunday. Will Henderson was a welcome visitor at Zebedee Hinshaw's last Sanday evening. Miss Mand Jerdan visited her friend, Miss Lonella Underwood, last Sunday. A happy and prosperous New Year to The Courier and its many readers Thomas J. Lassiter, of Greens- bore, field a voluntary petition in bankrmptoy, the Habilities being $5,455 and the assets $6,379. Chas. Barter, at Gibsonville, | here last week. Miss Lura Hobson, of Eanford, was the guest of friends here last week. Miss Rose Moffit, of Greensboro, spent a part of the holidays with Miss Flossie Brady. Janet Lednum of Guilford Col- lege visited relatives here the past week. Ramseur Graded School opened Monday with a full corpse of steach- ers and a large number if students. Our merchants had good business during the holidays. Mrs. W. H. Watkins has the champion laying turkey in our com- munity. So far she has laid 75 oggs and we don't believe she has stopped yet. Mrs. Spoon and little daughter, of Greenaboro, visited at Mrs. H. W. Soott's during the holidays. W. H. Finison was called to Mont- gomery county Monday to attend the funeral of his brother. Measure Thomas Whitehead, Guy Leouard and after spending the hol- idays at home returned to Mars Hill College Monday. | Willis and Miss Bessie Ellis were married by Rov. F. H. Wood, grandlather of the bride. It was a home wolding, only near relatives present. They left at once for Kinston, where Prof. Willis is principal of the High School. Gray's Chapel. Christmas passed off quietly in this com- manity. The Christmas tree here and at the Baptiet church assar here were each attended by a large crowd. W. M. Routh is seriously sick with kid- ney trouble. J. A. Routh, who has been sick so long, continues about the same. Herry Evans, who has supposed cancer, does not improve. Drs. Wilkerson and For each made pro- fessional calls in the community last week. Mrs. Duck Bagby, of Charlotte, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Snider, last week. Charley and Ery Routh, of Concord, are visiting their parents near here. W. A. Blair, of Greenboro, spent a day crates in the neighborhood last week rabbit isoning principally. Bones way that last Thursday morning was the coldent for ten years. Our ther- monater registered seven. We have of | The state of the s | Hicks, of Worthville, last week. Miss Mande Ferres visited at Ramseur last week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, of Greensboro, visited A. L. Laughlin last week. Edgar Items. Christmas time that many of us look for- ward to, is past and we are making plans for a New Year. On Christmas eve a very delightful enter- tainment was given at Marlboro school. Elmer Beeson and Missen Mamie Coltrane and Clara Davis came home from Guilford Oollege, where they have been in school for the past few months. A number of our young people attended the Christmas tree at Old Union is pro- gressing well. Wietor Coltrane, who has been in school at Elon College, is at home. The wedding bells have been ringing in this vicinity. Miss Ids Ridge has returned from the State Normal to spend the holidays at home. Talmadge Rochelle.of High Point, |
|-----|---|---|---|--|--|--|
| | of Charlotte, will be in Asheboro at the Quetral Hotel on Wednesday, January 17th, one day only. His previoe is limited to | Chas. Baxter, at Gibsonville, while drunk, recently, shot a color- | days at home returned to Mars Hill College Monday, | Boose say that last Thursday morning was the coldest for ten years. Our ther- momenter registered seven. We hear of | cost between $8,000 and $10,000. The church will be balls on the lot recently purchased just below the | State Normal to spend the holidays at home. |
| 1.1 | | | | | all all | |