Miss Ollie Maner has accepted a position with the Randolph Manufacturing Company. Again the death angel visited this community on last Wednesday and claimed for its victim one of our noblest young men, Mr. W. E. Patterson, who died at the home of his father, J. A. Patterson, a short distance northeast of this place, and was tenderly laid to rest with Masonic honors Thursday evening by the Masonic fraternity of this place at Patterson Grove. Mr. Patterson was about 24 years old and had lived in this community most of his life, having received most of his education in the school here and also learned the rail-road business in the depot in this place, and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, his father, mother, one brother and sister.

T. C. JULIAN DEAD.

One of Randolph's Oldest Citizens Passes Away at Millboro.

Tobias C. Julian died at his home near Millboro N. C., February 25, 1910. He had been in feeble health for the past four years. He was the youngest son of Bohan Julian. Uncle Tobias, as he was generally called, was born August 26, 1825, being at his death 84 years, 5 months and 29 days old.

In the year 1845, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Osborne, sister of Mr. Frank Osborne, now living near Asheboro. Into this union, two sons were born, Clarkson Julian now residing in Webb City, Mo., and W. M. Julian, of Millboro, R. F. D. No. 1. About the year 1854, to Miss Phoebe E. Jester, who survives him. Into this union seven children were born and all lived to be grown except one, which died while young. The children are John Julian, of Dallas, Tex.; G. S., J. G. and I. A. Julian, of Millboro, N. C.; Mrs. John A. Gray, of High Point, N. C. and the late Mrs. Jas. R. Brown, of Millboro, N. C.

He leaves a widow 75 years old, seven living children, 39 living grand children and 15 great grand children. He professes faith in Christ early in life and united with the M. P. Church at Grays Chapel. Later he and wife with S. T. Redding and wife and others withdrew from Grays Chapel and organized Bethany M. P. Church, of which he was a consistent member until death called him to that home not made with hands. His remains were tenderly laid to rest in the cemetery at Bethany on the afternoon of February 26th in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

The wife has lost a devoted husband, the children a kind and loving and obliging father, and the community one of its most loved and respected citizens.

To know him was to love him. His life has been a great blessing to the community in which he has lived for over three quarters of a century. The burial services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. Matthews. The family has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community and may the Lord's richest blessings sustain them in this sad hour. May we all be inspired by the example Uncle Tobias has left us, to live better and higher lives, so when the summons shall come to us, we will be prepared to meet him in a better world than this.

Sinking Spells Every Few Days

"At the time I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I was having sinking spells every few days. My hands and feet would get cold; I could scarcely breathe, and could feel myself gradually sinking away until I would be unconscious. Those about me could not tell there was life in me. After these spells I would be very weak and nervous, sleepless and without appetite; had neuralgia in my head and heart. After taking the remedy a short time all this disappeared and in a few weeks all the heart trouble was gone."

The soft southern breeze with which March has been ushered in reminds us of the old housewife saying, "Come in like a lamb, go out like a lion," but we are optimistic, and hope that at least the lion's strength will be sapped by the lack of palatable food from which we all suffer just now, before he reaches us, and that thus he may fail to show the fierceness of that kindly beast.

Death of Mr. Wiley Andrews.

Wiley W. Andrews, of Trinity Township, died Friday March 4, 1910, supposed to be about 84 years old. He had been an invalid for quite a number of years, and the real cause of his long illness was attributable to the constant watchful care over his health which he never lost sight of. Mr. Andrews was a prominent citizen in the township in which he lived. He had read much and his mental acumen seemed to be always clear on any subject that came up and he could give reason for the faith that was in him.

The deceased was a son of Richard Andrews, and the youngest child of the family, and the last to cross over the "chilly waters." He leaves four living children, R. S. Andrews, of Montana; Z. B. Andrews, of Kewaunee, Wis.; Mrs. E. Estelle Redding and L. C. Andrews, of Trinity.
