THE FAMOUS PREACHER OF THE CITY OF CHURCHES.

Pastor Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle---America's Ubiquitous Preacher---His Remarkable Foreign Tour and His Return.
Comments of Foreign Journals on His Work.

(From the London (England) Christian Globe, May 9, 1910.)

SINCE the days of Henry Ward Beecher and Dr. Talmage no preacher has occupied so prominent a position in the United States of America as Pastor Russell of strength and his great powers of oratory to the molding of public thought "with malice toward none, with charity for all." Above all, the pastor may be described as strictly orthodox. Although Pastor Russell holds to the Bible tenaciously, he claims to have speaker at the meetings of the International Bible Students' association's meetings, which are to be held at the Albert hall on the evening of Sunday next and the two following Sundays. He will in addition visit during the next three weeks the principal cities

PASTOR RUSSELL SPEAKING IN ROYAL ALBERT HALL.

The Royal Albert hall, London, England, is the largest and finest auditorium in the world. It was here that Pastor Russell delivered his now famous remarks of consolation and comfort to the bereaved royal family of the late King Edward VII. Pastor Russell was the principal speaker in the three Royal Albert hall 1910 Sunday May meetings of the International Bible Students' Association held May 8, 15 and 22 respectively. His opening remarks on the Sunday evening following the death of King Edward VII, were well received by the British public, being carried to and published by the various leading papers in New York city. During his European tour the principal London and New York newspapers made very favorable comments concerning Pastor Russell and his work.

Brooklyn Tabernacle holds today. Now we on this side of the Atlantic are to be privileged to listen to the man the announcement of whose name fills in overflowing the largest halls in the United States.

Pastor Russell will be the principal and towns in England, Scotland and Ireland.

Like Beecher and Talmage, both of the same City of Churches, Pastor Russell is an independent teacher, not allied to any particular denominational organization, giving his time, his proved that on some points it has been misunderstood by both friends and foes.

In his search for a basis upon which to build his hope for future bliss he undertook a lengthy investigation of the claims of Confucius, Mohammed, Buddha and other founders of religion. These he found to be unsatisfactory to either heart or head. Almost without hope, he took up the systematic study of the question of the punishment for sin. His findings were such as to restore perfect confidence in the Bible as God's inspired word and revelation.

Over 600 leading American newspapers now publish Pastor Russell's sermons weekly, reaching approximately 10,000,000 homes. He is also author of works entitled "Studies in the Scriptures," over 5,000,000 volumes being in the hands of readers. The sixth million is now in the press. This is a remarkable testimony to the popularity of his writings. Pastor Russell is now on his way to London, having just revisited the pyramids and Palestine. It is expected that his recent investigations will have much to do in still further unsealing the mysteries which for centuries have been kept secret by that "Stone Witness," The Great Pyramid is the subject of an important chapter in one of his books, in which he makes some most interesting applications of the published measurements made by the late Piazzi Smyth, formerly astronomer royal for Scotland. Dr. John Edgar within the last year has verified all of Professor Smyth's measurements, which have been used by Mr. Russell. The return of the Jews to their promised land, as prophesied in the Scriptures, has been elaborately treated by Mr. Russell, and he will now be in position to speak with added knowledge regarding the work of the Zionists.

Have You Tried It?

There is a bottle of Cardui waiting for you at the drug store. Have you tried it? If not, we urge you to do so, before your troubles have obtained such a hold on you, that nothing will drive them out.

Even now, it may be nearly too late. But try it anyhow. If anything can help you, Cardui will. It has helped in thousands of cases, where other medicines had been tried in vain. Why should it not do the same for you?

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"My daughter, Octava, would have been in her grave today, had it not been for that fine medicine, Cardui," writes Mrs. Laura Lawrence, of Drennon Springs, Ky. "Nothing I tried helped my daughter, until she had taken Cardui. I had sent for the doctor, when I thought of your medicine and got a $1 bottle. When she had taken four doses she became all right. I often recommend Cardui to my friends."
 Your druggist sells Cardui with full instructions for use on the bottle.

For Coughs and Colds

Troubled with a cough? A hard cold, bronchitis, or some chronic lung trouble? There is a medicine made for just these cases—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Your doctor knows all about it. Ask him what he thinks of it. No medicine can ever take the place of your doctor. Keep in close touch with him, consult him frequently, trust him fully. No alcohol in this cough medicine. J.C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Ayer's Pills. Sugar-coated. All vegetable. Act directly on the liver. Gently laxative. Dose, only one pill. Sold for nearly sixty years. Ask your doctor about them.

A Plea For More Head.

In that so-called great convention They left their best man Duncan dead, Because the radicals were howlin' More head, more head, give us more head.

Then forward came that old-time traitor, Who's known so well by ev'ry man, To give that surging mob an answer: The mob then shouted, "Mary Ann"

And stretching up to her full height, That old, old widow truly said, "If this mad rabble wins a fight 'Twill sure need—must have more head."

"Out of this State you once kicked me Because I then most truly said, Your leaders all from brains are free, You'll never win without more head."

"Relying not on brains, but pie, That all your heelsers might be fed, At public trough, with living high, You stood in need of much more head."

"With Duncan all your brains have gone, And who can tell where you'll be led, By this new man who's nothing done? And still I think you need more head."

"And still as I now look at you, I see no man without a knob; But it takes brains to put you through, And give each radicle a job."

"But what's a head, such as you have? You've had the same ones all along; And though you claim that you've been brave, You never sing the victor's song."

"Then if I urge you more and more, Repeating what I've often said, I hope none of you will be sore If I insist you need more head."

"Yes, that's the very thing you need, And we are glad that Duncan's dead; For while he tried this mob to lead I would not let you have more head."

"But now you have the widow's mite, And by the widow you'll be led; For I shall lead you in this fight, 'Tis I that gives to you more head."

"Success to you I once did bring, And gave the doodles meat and bread; And now my glory you must sing Because I giv' to you more head."

"And since those Reconstruction days, No nigger ever raised his head To sit among us as his peers Until my fusion brought more head."

"For I am she, what'er you say, Who mottled heats to victory led; 'Twas I who led you on that day, 'Twas I that brought to you more head."

"'Twas for my State I gave my youth, It was my State I freely bled, For it I've never told the truth Until I said I brought more head!"

"When called upon to vote for me Your help has always been so scanty; For my new man I hope you'll see That he shall always get a plenty."

"Now stop your quarrels and your spats; You've been in such an awful flurry As to forget the Democrats Who soon will all our vain hopes bury."

"Unless you take me at my word, And in my tracks forever tread, For I can lead this mottled herd For my old man Morehead."

Death of a Friend.

On August 25th, Mrs. Rachel Jarrett wife of Arthur A. Jarrett, died from a short illness of typhoid fever, and the remains were laid to rest in Suggs Creek cemetery on Friday, August 26th. Rachel was only about 27 years of age. She leaves a husband, one child, father, two brothers and six sisters to mourn their loss. May the Lord bless and comfort each one of them.

A Surprise Birthday Dinner.

On Sunday September 4th, a number of relatives and intimate friends spent a very pleasant day at the home of Lewis Millikan, celebrating his 32nd birthday. The most important feature of the day was the sumptuous dinner which contained everything possible to tempt the appetite. In the afternoon the guests were highly entertained by taking in the sights of Brooklaw's Park. Last, but by no means least, was the watermelon feast given by J. H. Millikan. At the close of the day, the guests very reluctantly departed, wishing Mr. Millikan many happy returns of the day.

Saved a Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold" he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 175 pounds." For Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough and lung troubles, it's supreme. 50c. $1.50. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by J. T. Underwood, next door to Bank of Randolph.
