Brush Cree's Items

A surprise dinner that was a total surprise was given to Mrs. W. N. Bristow last week on her 50th birthday. The friends had been busy planning for a week and never once let an inkling of their purpose get to the ears of Mrs. Bristow.

When the large table was erected in the grove and loaded down with good things to eat, the good lady was indeed astonished.

Many relatives and friends were present from various sections. The occasion was begun with song and prayer, after which everyone laid to enjoying the eatables and enjoying in social converse.

Miss Winnie Bristow, who is attending school at Franklinville, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Bristow.

M. F. Pugh is on the sick list, but we hope to see him out again soon.

Canan Allred spent last Saturday and Sunday in Ramseur.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nelson, a fine daughter, weighing 11 pounds.

Jim Allred, of Franklinville, was a business visitor in this section last Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Pounds, of Cedar Falls, is doing some repair work on her house in this section where she expects to move in the near future.

Isaac Allred went to Asheboro on business one day last week.

Married

At the residence of W. A. Presnell, the officiating Justice of Peace, Shirley Cole was married to Miss Estelle Auman. Mr. Cole is a son of Mr. John Cole, Miss Auman a daughter of Mr. Pearson Auman, both of Seagraves.

$3.50 RECIPE FREE FOR WEAK MEN

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excessive, unnatural strains, or the follies of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the "recipe" free of charge, in a plain, ordinary envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of man and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop dragging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest acting restorative, upbuilding, STRENGTHENING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe. In a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $5.00 to $10.00 for merely writing me a prescription like this—but I send entirely free.

Resolutions of Respect

Whereas, our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom, has taken from among us, on October 30th, 1911, our friend and brother, William Bean, therefore be it resolved by the members of this Sunday School:

First, That in the death of brother William Bean, our Sunday School has lost one of its most loyal, devoted and consecrated members, the state and good citizen, and the community in which he resided a kind and devoted friend.

Second, That in his life we have a model worthy of emulation, and a character whose influence will be an inspiration to us to live and do our Master's will.

Third, That we extend to the bereaved relations, our most heartfelt sympathy, and share with them in their sorrow.

Fourth, That a copy of these resolutions be placed upon our Sunday School record and that they be published in the Asheboro Courier and the Randolph Bulletin.

A protracted meeting will begin at Marlboro church the 19th of this month.

The school at Marlboro opened the 6th with a good crowd. Mr. Johnson, of Guilford, is principal, and Miss Ida Ridge, of this place, assistant.

Alva Laughlin got his hand cut badly last Saturday evening while working at a saw mill.

Owing to the recent rain, some of our people are not through sowing wheat.

Charlie Bristow attended prayer meeting at Mt. Vernon last Sunday night.

Mrs. Addison Davis spent last Sunday evening with Mrs. Sue Steed.

Mrs. Sue Steed, who has been ill for the past few weeks, is slowly improving, we are glad to note.

Mr and Mrs. Solomon Parker, who have attended yearly meeting in the eastern part of the State, have returned home.

According to a writer in The Youth's Companion, folks who dislike mosquito bites should wear yellow. "The mosquito shuns yellow on all occasions," and as its vision is keen by night, one should sleep in a yellow bed, in a yellow room, with yellow apparences.

Fuller News

The people of this section are nearly through sowing wheat.

Mr and Mrs. Jeff Brookshire, of Caraway visited Mr and Mrs. Bert Hunt Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Martha and Chloe Nance visited at Mrs. James Hunt's Sunday.

Misses Ethel and Lola Allred visited Mrs. O. M. Andrews at her parent's home one day last week.

Harmless Thoughts

One good laugh is worth a dozen frowns.

A man is no wiser than he acts, no matter how he brags.

It is better to assume than to presume greatness.

The wedding invitation does not declare so but it implies that it "is more blessed to give than to receive."

Love before and after marriage is often just like jelly going through the congealing process. It's first mushy, and then hard and shaky.
