

USUALLY ONE DOSE ENDS INDIGESTION

Dispepsia, Heartburn, Gas and All Stomach Distress Vanishes

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or you feel bloated after eating, and you believe it is the food which fills you; if what little you eat lies like a lump of lead on your stomach; if there is difficulty in breathing after eating, eructations of sour, undigested food and acid, heartburn, brass or a belching of gas, you can make up your mind that you need something to stop food fermentation and cure indigestion.

To make every bite of food you eat aid in the nourishment and strength of your body, you must rid your stomach of poisons, excessive acid and stomach gas, which sour your entire meal—interferes with digestion and causes so many sufferers of Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Bloating, Constipation, Griping, etc. Your case is no different—you are a stomach sufferer, though you may call it by some other name; your real and only trouble is that which you eat does not digest, but quickly ferments and sours, producing almost any unhealthy condition.

A case of Pape's Dispepsin will cost fifty cents at any Pharmacy here, and will convince any stomach sufferer five minutes after taking a single dose that Fermentation and Sour Stomach are causing the misery of indigestion.

No matter if you call your trouble Catarrh of the Stomach, Nervousness or Gastritis, or by any other name—always remember that a certain cure is waiting at any drug store the moment you decide to begin its use.

Pape's Dispepsin will regulate any out-of-order stomach within five minutes, and digest promptly, without any fuss or discomfort, all of any kind of food you eat.

Appointments of the Greensboro District of M. E. Conference.

The first quarterly meeting for the charges named will be held as follows: Randolph circuit at Mt. Vernon, December 3 and 4th; Denton circuit at Pleasant Grove, December 9th and 10th; Uwharrie circuit at Mt. Lebanon, December 10 and 11th.

W. R. Ware, presiding elder.

30 BEST EARS IN UNITED STATES.

W. H. Davis of Clover, Va., won $1,000 cup for 30 Best Ears of Corn.

For growing the best 30 ears of corn exhibits from any portion of United States, W. H. Dorin of Clover, Va., has been awarded the $1,000 silver cup offered by the International Harvester Company at the American Land and Irrigation Exposition, now in progress at Madison Square Garden, Mr. Dorin winning over exhibitors from every section of the country, among them L. D. Clore, the famous Indiana Corn King, hitherto undefeated in a contest of this nature. Mr. Dorin's corn is now on exhibition at the Southern Railway's booth and is attracting great attention. Farmers from all sections are showing extraordinary interest in the award since it is the first time such a prize has been won by a Southern corn grower.

Mr. Dorin ploughed land ten inches and subsoiled 12 inches more. He used 200 pounds of phosphate, his only fertilizer outside of clover turned under. His seed was carefully selected from an acre on which he made a splendid yield in 1910 and the corn which took the prize was from an acre cultivated under the methods of the U. S. Farm Demonstration bureau, the yield from this acre being 137 bushels. The soil is the ordinary type of Southern Virginia, a gray sandy loam about eight inches deep with a good clay subsoil.

Mr. Dorin's success shows what can be accomplished on Southern land and is more remarkable since he is a former resident of a Michigan city and knew practically nothing about farming until six years ago when he purchased 561 acres in Halifax county, Va., on the Southern Railway's Richmond and Danville line, paying eight dollars per acre. The award of this prize to Mr. Dorin will prove a valuable advertisement for the Southeast as a growing land. It was with the purpose of showing the agricultural possibilities of the Southeast that the Southern Railway Company placed an extensive exhibit at this exposition and did everything possible to encourage individual exhibits on the part of the farmers throughout the territory served by its lines.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our thanks to our many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the sickness and death of our little boy, May God bless and reward them all. Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Douth.

School Boy Jokes.

Among the old-time rhymes our fathers used to recite to us several are recalled about recalcitrant boy while off at college. One of these youths upon his return home for vacation found his fond father in the horse lot carting out manure.

"John, said the father, 'how have you been getting along with your Latin?'"

"First rate, father, first rate, I've finished the Reader and am in Caesar now."

Holding up the spade he was using, the father asked:

"What is this in Latin, John?"

"That in Latin is 'spadibus,' father."

"And what is manure in Latin?"

"Manuribus," promptly responded the brazen young rascal.

"And what's the Latin name for cart, my son?"

"Cartibus," father, 'cartibus'."

The old gentleman didn't think it necessary to catch John any further, so handing him the spade with ceremonial dignity, he said:

"Johnibus, my sonibus, grasp this spadibus and load this cartibus with this horribus manuribus. Now do good workitus, my dear Johnibus, or I'll thrash you like helibus."

The old farmer didn't send "Johnibus" back to college any more, as he decided he could give him a good "practical" Latin education at home.

It seems that "Johnibus" had two chums who had studied Latin just about as he had done, but who succeeded better in their efforts at deceiving their parents. One of these boys, while walking home from the railroad station, took a "bear cut" a field. An old negro had built a tar kiln upon the bank of a ditch that crossed the young man's pathway, and had a half-filled keg sitting beside it. As the young linguist leaped the ditch he tore his trousers upon a projecting piece of sap-iron. After a hearty welcome from the home folks his father asked him for a sample of Latin.

Here is the "sample":

"Commum homum fromum townum Jumpum ditchum vomum vomum; Tarum kegum heppum dappum; Torum holum in his breechum."

When asked the name of the "beautiful Latin poem," the youngster said it was entitled "The School Boy's Return;" but evaded the request for a translation into English.

The third of this trio of hopeful Latin "scholars," when asked to recite a sample of his learning, said:

"I will give you a short quotation from 'The Love of Adonis,' which I'm sure will please you, and it did. The 'quotation' given ran thus:

"Boyibus kissibus sweetus girlo-rum; Girlibus likibus wantum somor-um"

These short stories from our ancestors' traditional stores of anecdotes show that the old-time boys were just about as tricky as the average American "kid" today.

The three "Latin scholars" were no worse nor better than the more modern college boy, who, after squandering a number of his father's hard-earned dollars in frivolity and dissipation, sent an impudent request to his parent, reading:

"Dear Father: 'The rose is red, the violet's blue, Send me a fifty P. D. Q.'"

The reply from the long-suffering old gentleman was prompt and to the point. He said:

"Dear Son: 'Some roses are red, while others are pink; I'll send you that fifty—I don't think.'—Exchange."

Card of Thanks

We take this method of thanking our friends for their kindness during the sickness and death of our brother, Eli Yuncannon, May the Great Giver richly reward them in our prayer. Mrs. John M. Preenell, Mrs. John S. East.

A man isn't necessarily polished just because you see his finish.

$3.50 RECIPE FREE FOR WEAK MEN

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, falling memory and lame back, brought on by excessive (unnatural) strain, or the tolls of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and vitality, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of man and I am convinced it is the most correct combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man, anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop dragging himself with harmful potent medicines, learn what I believe is the quickest acting restorative, upbuilding, STRENGTHENING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. R. Robinson, 422 East Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $1.00 to $2.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send mine free.

THE TESTAMENT TIMES BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDIES

THE VALUE OF PRAYER.

Nehemiah's Petition For Israel. Nehemiah—Nov. 26

"The effectual, fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much."—James 5, 16.

TWENTY years after Ezra's company returned to Jerusalem, Nehemiah went thither with an escort and full authority from the king of Persia to rebuild the wall of Jerusalem and to restore its gates. It would appear that Ezra's reformation, while very helpful to the people, brought against them the violent opposition of their neighbors, as was to have been expected. The Jews, now considerable in numbers, were despised by their neighbors, who wished to drive them out of the land. The wall of the city was poor and did not withstand the attack.

Josephus says that Nehemiah, wealthy and favored of the king of Persia, and his friends, the king's palace at Shushan. He was a pious man and deeply interested in his fellowmen.

While walking one day he overheard two men talking in the Hebrew tongue, and overheard them.

They had been to Jerusalem and had returned, the gloomy inquired respecting the holy land, the holy city, and concerning the Jews who had returned from Babylon. The sad story of their trials and the decimation of the city and its exposure to enemies touched his heart and led him to prayer. "That prayer is the subject of this lesson."

Undoubtedly the recorded prayer of Nehemiah is merely an epitomized statement, for we read that he made the matter a subject of earnest prayer for four months before he reached the place of his work where God used him in the fulfillment of his own petition.

The Lord's Sincere Desire. The Lord has well defined prayer as being the soul's sincere desire, uttered or unexpressed. Another has well declared that it is "the Christian's vital breath"; that is to say, Christian character cannot be maintained without prayer any more than a human life could be maintained without breathing. Who has not noticed that all the great Bible characters used of the Almighty were accustomed to go to Him regularly in prayer and to seek for guidance from Him in respect to every matter? Even the great Redeemer, holy, harmless, undefiled and separate from sinners, needed to pray to the Father—needed His fellowship and communion—needed to be in touch with the Infinite One. Several of His prayers are recorded, and we are told that He spent the entire night in prayer on some occasions.

Some may ask, Would the Almighty change His plans in answer to our petitions? Assuredly He would not. Indeed, on the contrary, we are cautioned in the Scriptures to ask only according to His will. We are warned that if we ask amiss our petitions will not be answered. Hence the necessity for studying God's Word and being enlightened thereby.

The Redeemer gave us the keynote to this, saying, "If ye abide in Me and My words abide in you, ye may ask what ye will and it shall be done unto you." (John xv, 7.) Alas! how few seem to note the two limitations of this promise!

(1) The one asking must be in Christ—abiding in Him. This means that the petitioner has turned from sin, has accepted Christ and the terms of discipleship. It implies that he has made a full consecration of his life to the Lord and become a new creature in Christ Jesus. Such a bidding in Christ may pray to the Father.

(2) After having come into membership and fellowship with the Head, the Messiah, these must ask in harmony with God's Word and promises; in order to know what things to ask for they must search the Scriptures, which are sufficient, "that the man of God may be thoroughly furnished."

God is pleased to make use of the little talents possessed by His consecrated people. Those who pray for opportunities to serve the Lord and His cause and who watch for the fulfillment of their prayers in the open doors of opportunity will surely have them. "He that seeketh God, shall find Him." (He that seeketh Godeth.)

What to Pray For. Those in Christ may pray for earthly necessities, as in the Lord's prayer, "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests."

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

These are the things which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for. "Give us this day our daily bread;" but we are not to pray for more than the bread and water which the Lord has authorized His people to pray for.

The true Christian, instead of thinking about what he shall eat, what he shall drink, and whereof he shall be clothed—instead of making earthly things the subject of his prayers, will be thinking of and praying about his father, his heavenly interests.

B. B. B. The Best Blood Purifier. Test It Free!

If you are run down or nervous, see spots floating before the eyes, aching back, blood thin or skin itches. It is a sure sign of impure blood. Take B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). It will purify and enrich your blood and build up your weakened, broken, rheumatic system. B. B. B. is guaranteed to cure all blood diseases and skin B. B. B. humors, such as Rheumatism, Ulcers, Eczema, Scabies, Syphilitic Blood Poison, Catarrh, Eczema, Itching, Humors, Ringworm, and Bumps, Bone Pain, Pimples, Old Sores, Scrofula of Kernels, Suppurating Sores, Bells, Carbuncles, etc.

B. B. B. cures all these blood troubles by killing the poison in the humor and expelling it from the system. B. B. B. is the only blood-cleansing remedy that can do this. It is made by Dr. J. C. B. B. and is guaranteed to cure all blood troubles when all else fails. Thoroughly tested for 30 years—composed of Pure Botanic Ingredients. Drug stores $1 per large bottle with directions for home cure.

FREE SAMPLE BY WRITING BLOOD BALM CO., ATLANTA, GA. Describe trouble and free medical advice given.

The Guilford Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy last week presented to the Greensboro High School a steel engraved portrait of Robert E. Lee.

A Burglar's Awful Deed may not paralyze a home so completely as a mother's long illness. But Dr. King's New Life Pills are a splendid remedy for women. "They gave me wonderful benefit in constipation and female trouble," writes Mrs. M. U. Dinslip, of Leadhill, Tenn. If ailing, try them. 25c at Retail Store and Ash-boro Drug Co.

Craven county is having a fair and aviation meet this week, which is about the biggest event held in Eastern Carolina in years.

"It is a pleasure to tell you that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best cough medicine I have ever used," writes Mrs. Hugh Campbell, of Lenoira, Ga. "I have used it with all my children and the results have been highly satisfactory." For sale by all dealers.

Farmer Notes Rev. W. E. Searin will preach a Thanksgiving sermon at Concord Church on Sunday, December 3rd, at 11 o'clock, this being a service intended especially for the members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. Sunday school selected instead of Thanksgiving Day because a much larger attendance of Junior members had on that day. Everybody is invited, but a special invitation is extended to all members of this Order.

The entire teaching force of Farmer High School, Mr. Bradshaw and Misses Davis, Horney and Byerly, spent the week end at Wily Not visiting the family of C. E. Stuart.

Blanche Bingham, the little nine-year old daughter of Webb Bingham, on Sunday last, underwent an operation for appendicitis. Drs. Hubbard and Austin doing the work. Blanche has had typhoid fever and the appendicitis was a complication of that disease. Roscoe Myers, of Tabernacle township entered school here Monday.

ECZEMA CURED Pimples Disappear and Complexion Cleared Over-night

New York.—Thousands are taking advantage of the generous offer made by The Woodworth Co. 1161 Broadway, New York City, requesting an experimental package of Lemola the new skin discovery, which is mailed free of charge to all who write for it. It alone is sufficient to clear the complexion over night and rid the face of pimples in a few hours. On the first application of Lemola the itching will stop. It has cured thousands afflicted with Eczema, Tetter, Rash, Itching, Irritations, Acnes, Scalings and Crusting of skin, scalps of infants, children and adults. It is good for the preservation and purification of the skin, scalp, hair and hands for the prevention of the clogging of the pores the usual cause of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness and also the treatment of burns, scalds, wounds, sores, chappings as well as the toilet and nursery.

Julian Grove News Miss Anna King is visiting relatives in Roanoke, Va.

Page Routh, who was seriously hurt last week while possum hunting, is slowly recovering.

Edgar Underwood, who broke his leg some time ago, is now out on crutches.

Bub Pugh and family visited at Page Routh's the first of the week.

The school here is the largest yet on record. Kenneth Gray is again teacher.

Hussel, the six-months-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Routh, died on Wednesday of last week and was buried at Bethany on Friday.

THE HALL OF FAME. ELI WHITNEY—Inventor of the cotton gin. Born Westborough, Mass., Dec. 8, 1765; died New Haven, Conn., Jan. 8, 1825. Graduated from Yale and went to Georgia as a teacher, where he found a generous patron in the widow of General Nathaniel Greene. While here he was asked to devise a means to separate cotton from the seed and set to work making his own tools. His gin revolutionized the cotton industry.

Charge For This service is based on our circulation.

WE BRING RESULTS

The Courier

A Plainly Principled Paper Printed Weekly for Plainly Principled People—with a Subscription Price of $1 per Year.

JOB PRINTING

At reasonable prices delivered when you want it.