She COURIER Loads in Both News and Circulation. *

ISSUED WEEKLY

VOL. XXXVII

RANDOLPH COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA plus being $40,000 and the capital $21,000. Deposits average $200,000

Brief Sketch of This Famous Old County and Its Resources-Wheat-Growing and Fruit Section-Asheboro, the County Seat, Has Population of 2,500 and Many Important Manufacturing Plants-A Splendid County for New Farmers-Good Schools, Good Climate, Good People.

D. P. Waters in Carolina Democrat

unied near the geographical cen-tre of North Carolina. Its assessed property valuation, including all built, and its general aspect procorporations, is placed at $8,127,- duces upon strangers a very favor-442, and it has no bonded debt. uble impression. A good water and The total acreage is 479,605, and sewer system is in operation, also of this amount 465.323 acres are as up-to-date electric l owned by white men and $14,282 all owned by the city. most equal especially concerning county Semocrats, however, have been holding the balance of power in four mills, two chair factories, a recent years.

This section of the state is rich in historical associations, and older families are to the be many notable characters of bydays. Here at Asheboro is jone where Andrew Jackson was examfned in law, and granted a license to practice on December 11, 1787. year or two beremained a Educational work in the county school system now prevails. There terland R. R., and a depot site are now 100 white schools (35 bewhite and 22 colored teachers are employed. High school grades are taught in 11 localities, including Asheboro. The present county su-perintendent, S. T. Lassiter, has displayed marked ability and zeal in promoting the welfare of the Having had 10 years experience as a teacher, and possess ing a natural fitness for the work, izens of the county.

The climate of Randolph county unusually healthful as compared with some portions of the state and pure water may be found in all localities. Malaria and ague are practically unknown. The temperature and climatic conditions have been exceptionally favorable to the growing of wheat and other cereals, Randolph being at the head of wheat growing countles in this state Orchards. whether cultivated for apples, peaches, pears, apricots, or fruits common to our sone, without exception, thrived have while the smaller fruits and berries grow in abundance. Truck farming, though still in its infnacy, prehighly profitable field of sents a work as no better land for that pur pose can be found anywhere in the In fact, the county as a whole may be regarded in its possibilities of development as agricultural, and home seeking farmers will, find plenty of good and availble lands at reasonable prices if Lands are especially good and pro-ductive in Trinity township, and me than doubled, the daily output nov being 600 sold to dealers throughout the coun Randolph county has a popula-tion of about 40,000 and is sit-its commercial and industrial activitry and have proved highly satis factory in quality and price. About ties. It has a population of about 75 persons are employed. The Com 2,500, is substantially and compactly pany is regularly incorporated and has a capital of $20,000. The offi-COTE ATO: able impression. A good water and dent; W. J. Miller, vice-president; J. O. Redding, secretary and treasan up-to-date electric light planturer. Two com by the colored race. Politically, the modous hotels, a handsome court crats and Republicans are al-equal in number, and elec- valks add much to its air of com-000, $18,000 of which has been paid in The mill has no superior in furt and prosperity. Two banks affairs are somewhat exciting. The and a trust company indicate its fithe whole country in the matter of nancial importance, while three equipmeent. brick wheelbarrow factory, building mate is rial mill and hosiery mill-all in successful operation-represent the growth of manufacturing enterpress. y notable characters of by- of the leading weeksy papers is a noteworthy feature.

THE

Asheboro has good railroad conare great favorites. nections to the South and North by means of the Aberdeen & Asheborg R. R., and Southern Railway. Outfors taking up his residence in lets to the East and West have ocen planned, and bonds voted by the towns most concerned, for the Davis, president; L. F. Ross, vice has been active and a splendid building of the Randolph & Cum-has been purchased here by the Rafre now 100 white schools and 21 leigh, Charlotte & Southern R. R. colored; and in these schools 134 When these lines are completed Asheboro will grow rapidly; and present indications are favorable to the completion of these new trans-portation facilities before the expiration of another year.

Farms and Town Lots

The fine farming lands of the county are still much cheaper than in many loss favored localities than his two years as superintendent have Eandolph county, and property valbeen warmly approved by the cit- ues in town are very reasonable. A complete list of farms and improved lands throughout the county is kept by Mr. John M. Hammer of Asheboro, who makes a specialty of real estate deals. He is a life-long resident and a gentleman of strict responsibility and integrity, and will be pleased to furnish information as to property locations and values.

Asheboro Trust Co.

Unusual powers are invested in this corporation. It began business in January, 1912, under a special man of wide experinc, being well brothers and sisters survive. act of the legislature and is empowered to deal in real estate, stocks, commercial men travelling in this bonds, and securities of other states, state. municipalities, corporations, etc. Other functions also are of much importance: To receive deposits of money for savings or investments: the right to become executor, guar-dian, or trustee for estates whether for corporations or individuals. The progress of the company has thus far been highly encouraging and The been highly encouraging and its sphere of action is being stead: ity enlarged. The officers are: R. C. Kelly, president; W. C. Ham-elected to the same office. Mr. R. C. Kelly, president; W. C. Ham-Murdock is a son of A. G. Murdock, tested, 201 mer, vice-president; Hal M. Worth, Murdock is a son of A. G. Murdock, tested, 201

PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

ASHEBORO, N. C., JUNE 13, 1912

the state in its surplus fund com Train Delayed The train from High Point du pared to its capital stock, the sur in Asheboro about 9:30 Saturday night did not arrive until 3:35 Sun and a yearly dividend of 12 per day morning. When passing Frazier's siding below Trinity the en cent has been regularly declared ine broke down, and the train coul since the bank was established. The officers are: D. B. McCrary, pres-itent; W. J. Armfield, Jr., cashier otmove until an engine came from Greensboro. J. D. Ross, assistant cashier. 1

Asheboro Chair Co.

he capacity of this plant has mor

Since it was established in 1903

chairs. These goods ar

Southern Milling Co.

A solid three-story

while

building contains the mos

In August, 1911, this company wa

ncorporated with a capital of $25, uodern machinery employed in the manufacture of flour and meal. The brands turned out are winning the ery highest praise from all good bousekeepers in the territory where

Randolph Chair Co.

is in a prosperous condition.

The Ashlyn Hotel

of education, resigning that position

straight flour brands, Clever and treasurer.

The passengers were rather tired and sleepy when they at last reachcd Asheboro

COURIER

Richeson's Life Insured

The heirs of Clarence V. T. Rich son will collect on an insurance pol icy carried by him in an Illinois insurance company $2.000.

"That policy will be paid," said Vice President Stevens. "I undertand that we could avoid payment D. B. McCrary, presi but we shall not take advantage of a technicality."

The Southern Railway has given five hundred dollars for the betterment of the Spencer graded bool.

The Armour Fertilizer Company of Chicago, will establish a large plant near Greensboro in the near future

Senator George S. Nixon, of Ne oda, died of spinal menengitis at hospital in Washington, one day ast week they ar sold. In patent flour, the A sprained ankle may as a rule be cured in from three to four days ay applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle. For sale by all dealers. Slue Ribon and Southern Delight the Leaf and Bob White, also have a large sale. The daily capacity of the mill

There is no real need of anyone eing troubled with constipation. hamberlain's Tablets will cause an is 100barrels of flour and 400 bushels of meal. The officers are: S. L. spresable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect. Give them a trial. For sale by all dealpresident; C. L. Cranford, secretary

Fire damaged the Nokimis Cot-

This comany was established, sav Mills, at Lexington, last Suueral years ago, and manufactures iny morning to the amount of eight cooden rockers and double cane leaf o ten thousand dollars. chairs for ordinary use. The presof warehouse containing 295 bales ent capacity is 60 for each working of cotton was burned. day, but during the present year new factory is to be built which will

The United Fruit steamer, Carilla, double the amount of product. These off Cape Hatteras, last Sunday morn goods are sold throughout the couning, rescued seven men who had try and the business of the company lung to the one remaining mast of Virtheir water logged and dismantled gli Presnell is president, and C. C. ship, the Captain Chase, or abou Cranford secretary and treasurer. 36 hours

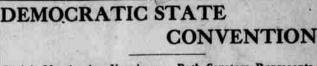

> Mrs. Will Lamb died at the home f her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Allred, in West Asheboro one

She had suffered vears. of age. from the dread disease, consump-tion, for several mouths. The hus-Land, father, mother, and several known and popular, especially among

Roosevelt 411 to Taft's 201 The Associated Press has com

County Officials ered "reasonably dependable" fig-Geo. T. Mudock, register of ures on the delegates to the Chicadeeds, was born in Randolph county in 1868. His early life was spent to convention. According to this ta ble Taft is given 201 votes and on the farm, and later on he was in the morcantile business. He serv-Roosevelt 411 od three years on the county board

Instructed for Roosevelt and unontested, 411

tives and State Officers Endorsed-Wilson Endorsed by Great Majority-Wilson Delegates to, Baltimore-The Lamented Aycock Honored.

The Ticket State officers named: Governor, Locke Craig, of Bun-

Lieutenant Governor, E. 11 Daughtridge, of Edgecombe. Secretary of State, J. Bryan Grimes, of Pitt.

Treasurer, B. R. Lacy, of Wake.-Attorney General, T. W. Bickit, of Franklin.

Commissioner of Labor and Printng, M. L. Shipman, of Henderson. Commissioner of Agriculture, W. A. Graham, of Lincoln.

Superintendent of Public Instrucion, J. Y. Joyner, of Guilford. Associate Justices of the Su-preme Court, W. A. Hoke, of Linoln and George H. Brown, of Beauort Corporation Commissioner, short erm, E. L. Travis, of Halifax.

Presidential Electors at Large Winston, of Bertie, F. D. ton. nd Hon. G. Ellis Gardner, of Yancy Just as it did twelve years ago, Carolina Democracy met in North Raleigh, last Thursday, and nominated without one dissenting voice distinguished son for the highest Then the in the state. ffice . chosen one was the beloved Ayock, now gone to his reward; now Democratic champion of the he nountains, the Hon. Locke Craig.

The enovention was called to rder at twelve o'clock by Hon. A. by all people of our common coun-H. Eller, chairman of the State Executive Committee. He introduce Rev. H. M. North, pastor of Eden-Street Methodist Church, who on made the opening prayer. Chairman iller then introduced Mayor James Johnson, of Raleigh, who in beialf of the city, gave the contran-lien a most hearty welcome. Dur-Mayor Johnson's address exl ig Governor T. J. Jarvis entered the suditorium. All eyes were for a oment turned and round upon rou of applause greeted the venerable and distinguished Carolinian. Then followed a further welcome in a happy speech by Mr. James H. Poe, told how North Carolina was prog ressing under Democratic rule, and also eulogized Hon. Locke Craig the pext governor. He closed by wishing blessings on Carolina, and then declared that business would be taken up, and the first resolution would be by the "State's beloved ox-Governor and distinguished tatesman, Thomas J. Jarvis."

There was great applause as Govrnor Jarvis appeared at the front of the platform. He asked for ab-solute silence and full attention, and . Graham, of Lincoln. Auditor, W. P. Wood, of Randolph or Charles Brantley Aycock, and giving support to the movement to erect a statue in his honor, and some further memorial in line with the work which had made him known as "The Educational Gov-ernor." The resolutions were then ead-as follows:

Whereas, since the meeting of the last Democratic state convention a man who loved his fellowman, Charles Brantley Aycock, a De crat as broad as the nation, and a true exponent of the best things in North Carolina life and character, has passed to his reward, be it resolved,

That this convention feels and expresses its deep some of loss herein, it glories in his life of selfsacrifice and his unspeakable pride In the recognition of his greatme try.

Resolved, further. That we do eartily evidence the patriotic efforts of the Aycock Memorial Assomation to raise funds not only to perpetuate his noble form lineament in bronze, but also to erect some other suitable memorial of his suceasful efforts in behalf of universal ducation, which won for him the name of the Educational Governor of North Carolina.

The resolutions were adopted by a rising vote.

By Unanimous Vote

Governor Jarvis moved the adoption of the resolutions and Governor Glann, the chairman, said these would be seconded by every delegate and visitor rising. The call for this was made, and as one person the vast assemblage arose in silence, and pold tribute to the state's best beloved son, gone to the beyond-

Committees and Officer

Names of members of committees and officers of the convention were then read and sent forward as followa:

The First District

Credentials and Appeals-T. W.

Costen, of Gates. Permanent Organization-Albion Dunn, of Pitt.

Vica-President-William Badham

of Chowan. Assistant Secretary-D. J. Whichard. of, Pitt.

Resolutions and Platform-R. S. Neal, of Beaufort,

State Executive Committee-C. S.

Died This hotel was opened for business in September, 1911. The new building is of handsome appearance and solidly constructed of brick, having 25 rooms besides the spacious of day last week, and was buried in he M. E. cometery fice and dining room. Furnishings and fittings are also new throughout Mrs. Lamb was about twenty-four the hotel, and the excellent food and service are gaining much favor with the travelling public. J. Bart Webster, manager and issee, is a hotel piled and sent out what is consid-

The 1,078 votes in the convention are assigned as follows:

Unstructed for Taft and uncon-

Craig's Nomination Unanimous-Both Senators, Representa-

TYEAR ONE DOLL .

The COURIER

Advertising Columns Bring Results.

No. 22

	also in the vicinity of Coloridge and Liberty. Ramsour, a thriving town twelve miles east of Asheboro.	secretary and trensurer.	a native of Randolph county, who served in the Confederate army as lieutenant of Co. H, 38th N. C. regi	contested, 36.	in behalf of the chamber of com- merce and people of Raleigh, Mr. Pos closed by inviting the militant	Martin; E. F. Aydlett, of Pasquo-
19	is steadily growing and is situated	In 1905 the company was incor-	ment, and now a prosperous farmer	contested, 10.	Democracy to meet again in Raleigh	Daniel, of Beaufort; L. W. Tucker, in the middle of a fine agricultural section, besides being a railroad ter-	porated with a capital of $6,500. Since that year the business has	of New Hope township. John W. Birkhead, sheriff, was		Novambre 12th to celebrate a vic- tory for the ticket to be named and	of Pitt. The Second District minal.	steadily prospered and the capital	born in Randolph county in 1858,	Contested, 254-	a Democratic president. Next the
	Some noted country estates have	has been increased to $13,000. All	son of Milton Birkhead, who was		roll of counties was called and	Kerr, of Warren.
	account of the splendid facilities for	ings are manufactured, and the pro-	died while serving as a soldier in	the schools of the county about 1	be represented.	Permanent Orgoanization-John E hunting, and the magnilcent tracts	duct finds a ready market in North	the Confederate army. Mr. Birk-	years. He is one of Randolph coun-	State Chairman Eller then ad-	Vice-President-George Turner, of 10	of timber lands. The Brokaws and	Carolina and Virginia. The compa-	head was for many years engaged	ty's prominent farmers and a citizen	dressed the convention, and brief-	Lenoir.
	Goulds of New York have already	ny operates a branch plant near Soa	in farming, milling and mercantile	of sterling worth. In November,	ly reviewed the record of the Dem-	Resolutions and Platform-Claude spent large sums in improvements	grove where 15 men are employed	business. He taught school about	1910, he was elected to his present	ocracy. He contrasted the harmony	Kitchin, of Halifar.
1	on their fine properties. / Randleman is also a town of	in sawing and preparing lumber for the finishing plant at Asbeboro	five years in the county, is a mem-	office, and has performed the re-	among Democrats as shown by the determination to nominate Locke	State Executive Committee-W. O. Howard, of Edgecombe; E. L. Travis importance, having an electric pow-	where 25 men are employed. The	tion and has long held the office	care and efficiency. The popular	Craig with the many dissentions	of Halifax; W. D. haRokus, of Lo-er plant, a bank and soveral indus-	officers of the company are: W. J.	of magistrate in New Hope town-	seatiment is in favor of his re-elec-	in the Republican party, Mr. Eller	noir; D. J. Macon, of Warren; W. A.
	tries.	Millior, president; J. D. Ross, vice-	ship. From 1900 to 1904 he sorv-	tion this year.	called ex-Governor R. B. Glenn to	Finch of Wilson: F D Winston of
	The Deep River Chair Company	president; Arthur Ross, secretary	e.' as register of deeds for coun-	W. C. Hammond, clerk of the su-	1406 chair temporarily, Govern-	Bertie
	(incorporated) was established six	and treasurer. The plant has a	ty, and was reelected to his present	perior court, is a native of Ran-	or Glenn came forward and deliver-	The Tuint District
10	years ago and is doing a prospe-	fine equipment in machinery, and	office in 1910. He has proved him-	dolph county, born in 1873. He wa	led the key-note speech. During his
	ous business under the management	the business is conducted with unus-	self a very capable and courteous	educated at Trinity and Guilfo	address the various Democratic pre-	Bell, of Jones
1	of C. W. PettyRockers and din-	ual enterprise and skill.	official, and in quite likely to be	colleges, graduating from the lay	fidential candidates Wilson, Clark,	Permanent Organization_P At
	ing chairs are manufactured, the capacity being 360 daily, and furn-	Bank of Dandolph			Harmon and Underwood each re-	Pearsall, of Graven.
	ishing employment to about 40 men.		J. P. Phillips, county treasurer,	and receiving the degree of B-che-	ceiving applause, but none so great the Hank of Randolph has standly	was born in Moore county in 1848	lor of Science. After one year	as that which greeted the New	Tanks and Count and ASHEBORO	spined nationage since its opening	but has been a resident of Randolph	spont as a teacher in Catawba Col-	Jersey governor. The name of W.	Assistant Secretary-Owen G.
an	-\ As the capital of Randolph county	tion in 1897, and ranks second in	today moto no was eight years of	tens he was nominated and elected	J. Bryan, also, brought forth re-	The second state of the second state of the second state
	1	THE TRACE OF THE	and an runne has served as	to me present office-1902.	isounding applause. Governor Glenn	(Continued on fourth pare)
			E Conta Conta Conta			