Special correspondence of The Courser.

Mashington, D. C. June 4;—An analysis of the vote in all the Republican primaries in every State that has held a primary election where Roose elt has won, will show to the observant citizen that there has not been 30 per cent of that vote polled in any state. That absolutely proves that the greatest portion of the voters of the country who have hitherto been Republicans are thoroughly digusted with the manner of campaign that is being made by these two doughty warriors in the Republican ranks for the presidential nomination, and that they have tial nomination, and that they have studiously stayed at home. That means that they want neither Taft nor Roosevelt. They are sick and tired of this sort of politics, not only the weak-back-bone policies of l'aft but the strenuously radical policies of Rocsevelt, and that they prefer a Democrat with patriotism and b sins and decency to either of these men in the presidential chair.

in the presidential chair.

There are men offering to bet that Roosevelt will be nominated and if he is nominated, it will make me out a bad prophet because I have aid all along in this correspondence that Mr. Tait would be nominated. Now then, Taft may not be sole to hold all of his delegates that have been instructed or pladged to him and the Roosevelt forces, adopting the same strong arm methods us us. the same strong arm methods used by their chief, they may go to Chi-cago and bulldoze through the nomi-nation of Reosevelt, but I do not believe it.

The leaders of the Republican The leaders of the Republican party, that is the old-festioned Republican leaders, who are still in control of the National Committee, do not intend to allow Theodore Roosevelt and ... hand full of Republican insurgents to take control of the Republican party so long as they can help it and I believe they can, They pass on all these contests be-tween Taft and Roosevelt, and it is seafe bet that they will run the steam roller over every contest ig Roosevelt delegation that comes be-fore them. That means that the Taft people will control the tempo organization of that conventi n that temporary organization will appoint the committee on ore-dentials and that committee will follow the National committee's recommendations and seat the same recommendations and seat the same delegates, thereby giving Taft the nomination on the first ballot. That means further, that Roosevelt's people will cry fraud, with draw from the Convention, hold a convention of their own, nominate Roosevelt on an independent ticket on the ground that he has been wifully defrauded of the nomination after he was the people's choice.

The Regublican leaders are firmly convinced that this will happen, also that this spells defeat for the Republican ticket next November. Nevertheless and notwithstanding, they prefer defeat and Democratic success to the success of Roosevelt which means anarchy and disintegration of the Republican party. They would rather take defeat at the hands of a patriotic Dem c. at than hands of a patriotic Dem c. at than success with Roosevelt under the name of the Republican party which does not mean the Republican party as they have been taught and believed all their lives because the Republ can party they believe in is the Republican party of public plunder through a protective tar if. The talk of a third man or a dark

The talk of a third man or a dark horse winning the nomination is subsiding very materially. The reason is there is no able or self-respecting Republican willing to take the nomination with the conditions facing them after this campaign of vituperation between Taft and Rousevelt. They know they would be defeated and they are not hankering to become a vicarious sacrifice simply to pull the chestnata of a few standpat Republicans out of the fire. So it does not make any difference to the Democrats of this country who is nominated on the Republican ticket, they will beat that candidate to a frazzle.

There is so much difference in the

There is so much difference in the campaign being made by the Democratic aspirants for the Presidential nomination and that of the Republicans that it is almost sacrilege to mention both contests in the same letter. Nearly everybody in the political world in Washington is contrasting the decency and dignity of the Democratic candidates with that of the Republicans. When any patriotic citizen sits down quietly and figures on the vituperative, disgusting and abhorent campaign made by the Republicans and the quiet, decent and statesmanlike attitude of the Democratic candidates, they can but come to one conclusion; they can but come to one conclusion; that is, there is not a Democratic candidate who would not make opetter President than either of the indidates on the Republican ticket.

Wilbur Wright, the noted avi-or, died of typhoid fever at his upe in Dayton, On o, last Thurs-

LEAST IN THE KINGDOM. Matthew xi, 2-19—June 16.

'Amongst them that are born of somes there is none greater than John; yet the least in the Kingdam of God is greater than he."—Luke si, 25.

T WOULD BE difficult to express a higher tribute to John the Baptist than Jesus paid him in our text. If John was so great our text. If John was so great a man, from the Divine standpoint, why did our Lord declare that the least in the Kingdom of Heaven would be greater than John?

When we turn on the light contained in the word "Kingdom," the entire subject becomes clear. God had promised a Messianic Kingdom, and Jesus came that He might be the Head of that Kingdom. The steps leading to its honors were steps of obedience to God, unto death, and these steps Jesus God, unto death, and these steps Jesus began to take. On the cross He finish-ed the work of proving Himself loyal. Jesus thus became the Great Conqueror, the great King of Glory, being exalted to the Heavenly state in His resurrection. But He was to have as-sociated with Him in His Throne, His Bride chaps: as the Great Priest, He was to have an under-priesthood, a "Royal Priesthood;" as the Great Judge of the world. He was to have assoof the world. He was to have associates; as St. Paul declares, "Know ye not that the saints shall judge the world?"—I Corinthians vi. 2.

In the Divine I ian this company of associates of Jeths were as much foreordained as was seen as the control of the corinthians vi. 2.

He. As it was necessars for the control of the

He. As it was necessary for Him to undergo trials and testings, so with those called to be His associates—"He was tempted in all points like as we are." T us His sit with Me in My Throne, even as overcame and am set down with M. Pather in Ele Throne." These must be followers in His footsteps; some could precede Hilm.

"Some Botter Thing For Us." "Some Earter Thing For Us."
We are not to taler that these glorious characters who lived before Christ's time were less faithful than the Gospel Church, but merely that God promised them the earthly perfection, while He has promised the Bride of Christ the heavenly perfection. tion. They will not, the the remainler of mankind, come forth to attain per-fection gradually during the thousand years of Messiah's reign; the record is that they will come forth perfect human belogs. That will be the re-ward of their faithfulness.

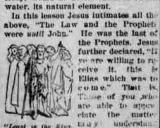

ward of their faithfulness.

St. Paul explains the entire matter in Hebrews, the 11th chapter. He declares, "All these died in faith, not having received the (earthly) things promised to them, God having provided some better thing for us (the Cluwch), that they, without us, should not be made perfect." The glorification of the Church her resurrection to perfection must be accomplished before the bessings through them can proceed to the natural seed of Abraham, and through Israel to all nations.—Heb. xi, 38-40. Not the Bride but the Friend.

John the Bride is the Bridegroom, but the friend of the Bridesresia, her His voke, tribiteth 175, 177, 25, 30 joy therefore is ruinited." (both 18, 22, He perceived that in totals providence

He perceived that in tools provided to be had a very hardened rule live a station and work is account by he had? was to be neither the Bridegroom no a member of the Bride chass.

And the other An the Workles vi. not be disripatined when they explore the Bride chass accepted to a higher plan. than theirs. On the contrary, their cu; of blessing being full, and never hav-ing been begotten to a spirit nature. they will not be able to comprehen they will not be able to comprehend any blessings higher than their own. Just, for instance, as a fish in the wa-ter, seeing a bird flying in the sir, would not be jealous of the bird and its greater freedom, but, on the con-trary, would be better satisfied in the water, its natural element.

PAPER BAG

Great System Perfected by M. Soyer, Famous London Chef.

THE BACHELOR'S BLESSING

By Nicholas Soyer, Chef of Brooks Club, London.

Club, London.

He came in with a most gloomy expression, and sat down close, too close, to my desk, where I was up to my eyes in "paper bag" correspondence, and in no mood for confidences.

"Whatever is the matter?" I queried, crossly, divided between curl-osity and a desire to get on with my osity and a desire to get on with my work without interruption.

"Baxter has gone," he said, mournfully. Baxter is his housekeeper, and, according to him, one of the greatest treasures that ever fell to the lot of a bachelor. "Only for a day or two," he went on. "But I've got"—and he named a very eminent lawyer indeed." "coming to supper." And he sighed deeply.

"Take him to a restaurant," I replied unfeelingly.

plied unfeelingly.

"He won't go to restaurants," said Baxter's master with bitterness. "Says they upset his digestion, gastric trouble, and all that. He can only eat white foods, and must have a fruit salad at every meal. Talk of fade!"

"Cook the supper yourself," I suggested. "You've got an electric stove, you know."

"Cook it myself! Oh, come, you might show a little feeling and inter-you know.

est when you see me in such a fix."
"Paper-bag it," I went on calmly, holding one up for inspection.
His face lit up. "De you thick I could? I've never cooked since my could? I've never cooked since my schoolboy camping days."

"Now, look here," I said severely.
"If I give you the paper bags and tell you what to do, will you go away and do it and let me get on with my

He gave me a most unforensic wink, "You bet! What a lark!" I proceeded to give him the following

Filleted Soles, fines herbes Sweetbreads au naturel Green Peas Roast Fowl ast Fowl Savory Crumbs New Potatoes Balad Asparagus Fruit Salad

I gave him full instructions, and late that night he rang me up on the

"Was it a success?" I asked, al-though I knew the answer beforehand. "A success? I should just think so, The old boy was delighted. Helped himself twice to everything, and asked who my cook was! I'm thinking of giving a little supper party next week; I suppose you could let me have one or two more recipes, eh?"

So for the convenience of bachelors repeatable. I give the following generally, I give the following

Filleted Soles Fines Herbesfour or six fillets of sole, dust lightly with salt and white pepper, and sprinkle also lightly with finely mined parsiey, chopped mushrooms and a very little minced shallot. Add the timest possible squeeze of strained lemon juica. Put a bit of butter on each fillet and skip them gently into a well greased bag, add quarter of a glass of sherry. Bake in a moderately hot oven for 15 to 18 minutes. Cut open the bag very carefully with a pair of clean seissors, and slip the fish and the sauce which will have formed during the cooking on to a very hot dish. Send to table at once.

Sweetbreads au Naturel—Take four four or six fillets of sole, dust lightly sweetbread a tablespooniul of cream.

Slip the sweetbreads into the greased bag, cook in an only moderately hot oven slowly for 40 minutes. Open
bag. Slip out gently on to hot dish.
Surround with border of green peas

Surround with border of green peas and serve.

Green Peas—stutter a bag well.
Put in the peas, a pint to the four sweetbreads, three or four leaves of mint, a teaspoonful of powdered sugar and salt to taste, a sprinkling of flour, and a small tumbler of water, or, bet-ter still, if to hand, good white veal or minutes.

Fowl—Savory Crumbs. Wash the fowl out well inside with plenty of cold water. Dry well, put the liver and a small shallot inside the bird. for ther declared, "It is for the receive it. this is Ellins which was to come." That is It Ellins which was to come in a y understanded in the first sound as a reformation of finely minced chives, and minced tarragon. Mix all together and put into the bag with the bird. Cook gently for 65 minutes. Open bag. Slip bird and crumbs out gently on to a hot dish and send to table with new potatoes and salad.

Addressing the mutititudes the Great Tencher inquired. Why did you go out to see John? Was it because Gospoke through him as a Prophet as the wind makes music through the reeds. Or did you go out to see a man in fine clothing and of kingly state?

What really drew to John's tenching was that he was God's Prophet; as it is written, "Behold, I send My messen ger before Thy face, who shall prepare the way before. Thee." This preparation for Jesus John made with the Jewish nation. His message was that the Kingdom of Heaven was to be offered to them, and that only the holy would be tendy to receive it.

Company and the limits of the course it.

The Bridge at Worthville

The Bridge at Worthville

The county commissioners are to meet on Saturday, June 15th, to consider the question of the bridge at Worthville. They will on that day consider plans and specifications for a steel bridge across the mill pond and also below the dam, Bids will be received for steel bridges at both locations.

Bids will be received for steel bridges at both locations and also for covered wooden bridges at both locations.

The latest thing in bridges is The latest thing in bridges is made of steel and concrete, but for a long bridge like the Worthville ir dge, concrete is quite expensive, but experience has demonstrated that the so called steel bridge is not a good investment. The wooden covered bridge is far superior and chearer and will without repair or expense when properly constructed last exwhen properly constructed, last sev-eral times as long as the so-called obeap steel bridge.

It is to be hoped that contractors will submit plans and specifications for covered wooden bridges at prices so that the commis-sioners will award the contract to bome people who can and will build a better bridge for less money than any steel bridge ever built in this

B. B. B.

The Best Blood Purifier. Test It Free!

The following is the program of Brower ownship Sunday School convention which convenes as Mt. Olivet, the third Sunday in une.

10.00 a. m. Song, prayer, enrollement of report of delegates, Election of efficers, Address of we'ceme. T. B. Ty on. Response, L. E. Brady.

Save the children, Rev. H. A. Albright.

11 B. F. Kearns.

12 W. D. Modite,
Preaching 11 s. m. Rev. R. L. Melton.

Lutermissing.

Intermission. 1:30 p. m. Address, Miss Lula Andrew Co. Secy. Sanday School Efficiency, Prof. F. M.

right,
Address, Hon. Bruce Craven,
8 R. Richardson, Pres.
B. F. Brown, Secy.

very little minced shallot. Add the tiniest possible squeeze of strained lemon juica. Put a bit of butter on each fillet and ship them gently into a well greased bas, add quarter of a glass of sherry. Bake in a moderately hot oven for 15 to 18 minutes. Cut open the bag very carefully with a pair of clean seizeors, and slip the fish and the sauce which will have formed during the cooking on to a very hot dish. Send to table at once.

Sweetbreads: nathell them. Take four sweetbreads: nathell them. Take off the skins. Greans a bag thickly. Dust each sweetbread with salt and pepper very lightly, and pour over each sweetbread a tablespoonful of cream. Slip the sweetbread into the greased bag, cook in an only moderately hot oven slowly for 40 minutes. Oven

Repair Shop

The best of satisfaction or gas froller. Cook gently for 60 in all kinds of repair work.

> High-grade Horse-Shoeing a specialty. A trial is all we ask.

> J. E. & H. M. PRESNELL South Fayetteville St.,

ASHEBORO, - - N.C.

Carry a general line of Heavy at d Pancy Groceries, Dry Goods, No. tions and Shoes. If you want goods cheap it will be 10 your interest to call and examine our stock.

Miss Janie Smith

 IN THE SPRING TIME

In the spring when the young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love is a good time to begin that coveted home of yours that you have planned and desired so long.

We have many beautiful home sites that we will sell you

We have many beautiful nome sites that we will sell you on terms to suit.

We have one elegant little cottage, beautifully situated on Salisbury street in the western part of Asheboro that would suit you, and we will sell it at a bargain and on terms that will meet your approval.

Start now; its better than paying rent. See us and we will help you to become independent and own your own home.

HAMMER & CO., Real Estate ASHEBORO, N. C.

WHY NOT HAVE A

CLEANING DAY?

Each town is having one. Why not have one for your teeth?

I can not only clean, but extract by a painless method.

F. A. HENLEY

Office over Postoffice Building, Asheboro.

Office Hours:

8:00 A. M. to 12:00 M. 1:00 P. M. to 5:00 P. M.

Buy Your FRUIT JARS PAROWAX

(For Sealing Fruit Jars, Jelly Glasses, Etc.) and

GROCERIES

Moffit Grocery Comp'y

Asheboro, N. C.

The North Carolina Board of Health is seeking to have the Legislature abolish the common drinking cup, thereby endeavoring to prevent the spread of contagious diseases.

The Standard Drug Co. are NOT seeking but ARE PRE-VENTING any possible chance of disease contagion at their Soda Fountain by using the Sanitary cup system for serving the daily throng of patrons with their delicious drinks. Come by and enjoy the use of a new, clean individual container. One for each customer.

The Standard Drug Co. THE REXALL STORE.