Work of Woman's Club of Asheboro.

The Mayaz ne Committee from the Betierment Department of the Woman's Club is co-operat ing with the North Carolina Library Commission through t e W.man's Federated Clubs of North Carolina. S me time a o the Library Commission conceiv ed the idea of collecting magazines for the benefit of the pub-tic school chi dren of North Carlic school chi dren of North Carolina. The plan is for the Clubs throughout North Car lina to collect magazines and periodicals and send them to the State Li hrarian, Miss Leatherman, who will make into package libraries, articles referring to the same currect topics. These package libraries may be obtained by any school boy or girl by writing Miss Leatherman and enclosing postage: for instance, a person wantor peliteness, is genial and good natured, sympathetic and tender in his disposition, hospitable in his
