

The Courier.

Asheboro, N. C., December 23, 1915

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Bertha Cox is home from Salem College to spend the holidays.

Misses Janie and Corrie McLeod will spend the holidays in Carthage.

Miss Annie Asbury is the guest of relatives and friends in Star this week.

Mr. B. Frank Page, of Raleigh, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Frank Barnes, Sunday.

Miss Clara Pugh returned home Monday from an extended visit to Mrs. K. U. Willard at Elkin.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Cox, of Worthville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cox Sunday.

Miss Kate Shellem, of Lincolnton, is the guest of Misses Janie and Corrie McLeod.

Mr. Earl Barnes has returned to Hoffman after a visit to relatives and friends in Asheboro last week.

Miss Bera Scarborough is home from Greensboro where she has been spending a week with relatives and friends.

Mr. Jesse Frank died at his home at Handy Wednesday morning and was buried at Lineberry Thursday.

Prof. Henry Craven and family, of Franklinton, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moring during the holidays.

Mrs. M. Mc. L. McKeithen, who has several pecan trees growing in her orchard at Cameron has gathered from one tree 110 pounds of pecans.

The jitney from Asheboro to Star has been discontinued owing to the heavy cost of upkeep and the light travel.

Mrs. R. I. Dickens and daughter, Mrs. W. B. Allred, are home from Groomtown where they visited Mrs. A. D. Howell.

Col. W. P. Wood, State Auditor, of Raleigh, arrived Wednesday afternoon to be the guest of relatives here during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craven, of Norman, are visiting Mr. Craven's father, Mr. I. F. Craven, on Seagrove Route 2, this week.

Miss Media Harrell, aged 36 years, died at her home in High Point last Wednesday evening. She had been living in High Point about six years with relatives.

Miss Laura DeVane, of Yuma, Arizona, a student at Salem College, is expected in Asheboro Saturday to be the guest of Misses Blanche and Bertha Cox.

Mrs. E. E. Harris, of Denton, who has been confined to the hospital at High Point, has left the hospital and will spend a while with her daughter, Mrs. Hannah, before returning home.

Deputy Sheriff Steed brought Glenn McFarland from High Point Monday and placed him in jail here. McFarland was wanted on a "good behavior" bond at the last term of Superior Court, but failed to appear.

It is the intention of the C & Y. V. railroad that Thomasville shall have an electric car line in order that the factories may load their output at their doors and save the heavy cost of hauling to the railroad.

Revenue officers Hedrick and Johnson destroyed a complete 45-gallon still north of Alston's bridge in Chatham county Friday. Everything was in readiness to run and 200 gallons of beer were ready.

The Star City Girl warns the people to beware of a tricky contract with lightning rod agents and says that any one looks at the proposition it is a mighty good one to let alone.

T. A. "G" Brown, who was sentenced to be county roads for four months by Judge Dalton in the High Point municipal court, about six weeks ago, for having liquor in his possession for the purpose of sale was let off with a $500 bond and bond for good behavior in the Guilford county Superior Court last week.

The growing pecans is receiving considerable attention in certain sections of Moore county. It has been found that the trees there have yielded remarkably well and this with the good price they bring on the market is a great incentive to grow more. The fine pecan shell variety of pecans bring from 30 to 60 cents per pound.

The fire at the Dion Roller Mill at Denton Friday morning was the third fire Denton I. experienced within a few weeks. The first fire was an attempt to burn the pool building, the second was the burning of the new M. P. church. There is something suspicious about this multiplicity of fires and the Denton Herald expresses the opinion that though the fire which destroyed the church and the wood near the roller mill may have been accidental, the fire at the school building was not. It will be remembered that trash had been piled under the school building and set on fire.

Miss Sue Hoover is home from a visit to friends in Greensboro.

Mr. W. M. Lucac, of Seagrove, was in town last Saturday.

Mr. J. M. Pounds, of Cedar Falls, spent Tuesday in town.

Mr. Fletcher King and son, Emmett, went to Troy Monday morning.

Miss Massah Lambert, who is teaching school at Andrews, is home for the holidays.

Miss Ava Collett, teacher of Miller's school near Trinity, was in Asheboro Saturday.

Miss Uinah Rush has returned from Greensboro where she has been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Laura Faison, of Roanoke Rapids, N. C., is a visitor at the M. P. parsonage, Randleman.

Mrs. W. H. Pickard and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Randleman, were in Greensboro Wednesday.

Miss Lanta Winslow is home for the holidays from Rose Hill where she is teaching this year.

Mr. Gale Cresson, nephew of Mr. H. M. Worth, was here with relatives the latter part of last week; he remained over Sunday.

Asheboro seems her old self again, now that the young folks who have been away at the different colleges in the State are at home.

Mr. Everett Winslow, of Oklahoma City, arrived last night to be the guest a few days of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Winslow.

Miss Bon Phillips, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Phillips, is improving slowly from a serious attack of pneumonia.

Rev. G. W. Gallahan, former pastor of the Randleman M. E. church died at the home of his son-in-law, Rev. J. A. B. Fry, at Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 12.

Miss Mary Wade Bulla, who is teaching at Welch school house near Pisgah, will come home Friday to spend the holidays.

Postmaster R. R. Ross has sent Representative and Mrs. R. N. Page a large turkey for Christmas. There will be a reunion of the Page family in Washington Christmas.

The following young people of Randleman were in Asheboro Sunday: Messrs. A. B. Beasley and Robert Bulla and Misses Mary Allen Bulla, Gwen Wall and Lucy Bowden.

Rev. A. E. Bell and family have arrived in Randleman to make their home. Rev. Mr. Bell was appointed to the pastorate of St. Paul and Naomi churches at the last conference.

Of the Asheboro graded school faculty Prof. C. R. Wharton is spending the holidays in Dallas, Texas; Miss Lambe at Guilford College; Miss Bulla at her home near Sophia; Miss Melver at Cheraw, S. C.; and Misses Kelly and McLeod at Carthage.

Deputy Sheriff Steed conveyed W. H. Ledwell, W. C. Rowe, and Ernest Smitherman, all convicted and sentenced at the last term of Superior Court, to the convict camp near Sophia Monday.

The fact is, the magazines we sell with The Courier for 26 cents extra represents the biggest reading value ever offered the public. Have you sent us your order? If not, send it or phone us today.

Dr. F. A. Henley's family moved to High Point last week. Dr. Henley has been practicing dentistry in High Point and the family moved there to be with him. Asheboro regrets to give up this interesting family.

The ordinance regarding the shooting of fire crackers and fire works will be waived from 7 p. m. Friday the 24th, until midnight, Saturday the 25th. Before and after that time the ordinance will be in regular force.

Last Saturday evening the Worthville school children rendered the play, "Aunt Dinah's Quilting Party" to a large audience. The play was a great success, reflecting credit on the teachers of the school, one of whom is Miss Lizzie Phillips, of Asheboro.

Rev. G. H. Christenberry, former pastor of the St. Paul and Naomi churches, but now pastor of Silva church in western North Carolina and Miss Fannie Fogelman, of Asheville, were married in the M. E. parsonage at Asheville last Tuesday evening.

Misses Lillian and Elizabeth Bunch are with friends and relatives during the Christmas holidays. Miss Lillian has been visiting her aunt in Mt. Airy and Miss Elizabeth has been teaching in the graded school at Rocky Mount.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, of McColl, S. C., will arrive the 23rd to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jno M. Neely on Sunset avenue. Mrs. Adams will be most pleasantly remembered here as Miss Mattie Blanche Hunsucker, of Gibson, N. C., who visited Mrs. Neely about a year ago.

We certainly appreciate the way our subscribers are renewing their subscriptions since we have been offering a special magazine club with The Courier. If you haven't sent us your renewal, do it now and get four magazines for one year.

Mrs. L. C. Phillips is improving from a several week's illness.

Buy your magazines of us. We can give you four magazines one year with The Courier for only $1.18.

Mr. T. Fletcher Slack, of Exmore, Va., is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Slack, at Seagrove.

Mr. W. L. Welborne, of Worthville, was in town yesterday.

The foundation has been laid in the construction of a residence for Mr. Chas. M. Fox, on Church street.

Miss Maude Kearns, of Danville, Va., will arrive Thursday to visit her grandmother, Mrs. E. B. Kearns.

Mrs. E. T. Ammons, of Jackson Springs, is in Asheboro the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shube Laughlin, during the holidays.

Mrs. H. M. Worth returned Saturday afternoon from Greensboro where she has been visiting for the past two weeks.

Mr. C. E. Teague, formerly principal of the Asheboro graded school, but now an attorney of Sanford, was in Asheboro a few days the first of the week.

Mr. Jesse Garner passed through Asheboro Wednesday afternoon en route home from Guilford College to spend the holidays.

Mr. Fred Connor, formerly of Randleman and Worthville, who has been in the real estate business at Hopewell, Va., and has cleared $15,000 in the last year, lost a large brick store in the fire which destroyed Hopewell, Va., about ten days ago.

Mr. Numa Thornburg, of Hill's Store, is in St. Leo's hospital, Greensboro, suffering from appendicitis. Mr. Thornburg became ill Thursday night and was taken to the hospital early Saturday morning where the operation was immediately performed. He is getting along nicely.

Mr. Orville Pritchard and Miss Fannie Hinshaw were married at the home of Rev. J. W. Pugh at Worthville Sunday. Mr. Pritchard is a promising young farmer residing near Asheboro. Miss Hinshaw is a young lady of splendid accomplishments. Immediately after the ceremony they left for South Carolina on their honeymoon. They will make their home in Asheboro.

Beulah Evelyn Presnell, the four month old baby of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Presnell, died at the home of her parents in Asheboro Saturday night from a complication of troubles. Funeral was conducted by Rev. J. E. Thompson, pastor of Asheboro M. E. church, at West Bend, on Sunday at 2 p. m., after which body was laid to rest there in the cemetery. The little one had been comfort and cheer in the home and its going away leaves aching hearts.

Mr. H. M. Scarborough, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. T. Bolton, at Troy, Dec. 13, aged 88 years, was a most useful and influential citizen of Montgomery county. He had been a member of the M. E. church for 71 years and a Mason 53 years. He is survived by a widow, now 85 years of age, and four children as follows: Mrs. H. T. Bolton, Troy; Mr. W. W. Scarborough, Mt. Gilead; Mr. H. D. Scarborough, of Randolph county; and Mr. Joseph Scarborough, who lives in the west.

The Chatham Record states that among the old deeds registered in Chatham county is one executed by Herman Husband to John Bray on the 4th of March, 1784, for 100 acres of land, and being a part of the tract conveyed to Husband by the Earl of Granville on Dec. 11, 1766. Husband was one of the most prominent of the Regulators before the Revolution and took an active part in those troublous times. He afterwards moved to Pennsylvania.

C. A. Hoover, a brakeman in the employ of the Southern railway, is confined to his home on West Lee street as a result of injuries sustained on Tuesday evening in the Moore yards. Mr. Hoover was thrown to the ground with considerable force and sustained painful bruises on his back and arms.—Greensboro News. Mr. Hoover is a son of Mr. T. J. Hoover, of Asheboro, and his many friends who will regret to learn of his misfortune.

The Ladies Aid Society of Mt. Lebanon church, Randleman, have been busy since conference. They have put additional furniture in the parsonage in the way of a heater and dresser and have had the house wired and lighted by electricity. The pastor and his wife have been remembered in many ways for all of which they are very grateful.

Do you know you can get four magazines in combination with The Courier by paying only 18 cents extra? Send order by mail, or phone us.

Let us forget—we say it yet—you can get four magazines for one year by renewing your subscription to The Courier. We want all of our old subscribers to get these magazines. We are selling The Courier with four magazines all one year for only $1.18.

Miss Lizzie Phillips is home for the holidays from Worthville where she is teaching this winter.

Mrs. J. D. Ross and son, Master Joe, and Mrs. P. H. Morris returned Saturday from a visit to Mr. Claude Morris at Salisbury.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Davis, who lives on Randleman Route 1, is improving slowly from a severe illness of several weeks.

All barber shops of the town will close Friday night at 12 o'clock before Christmas and will not reopen until Monday morning following.

There will be a Christmas tree for the Sunday school in Farmer school building Friday night. A short program of reading, songs, and recitations will be rendered.

Mrs. R. B. Terry, of High Point, is suffering from a severe attack of grippe. Mrs. Terry before her marriage was Miss Mabel Heitman, of Trinity.

Up to yesterday afternoon 51 marriage licenses had been issued by the Register of Deeds for the month of December. Eight certificates were issued Saturday making this a record-breaking day for the county.

Clerk of the Court Wright has mailed out a total of 135 pension checks aggregating $4,500 to the Confederate veterans of the county. 65 widows of Confederate veterans received checks aggregating $2,200.

Mr. Nathan Sheffield, of Randleman, has recently become heir to the estate of his brother who died recently in Sheffield township, Moore county. The estate is valued at $30,000.

The Asheboro Wheelbarrow Company shipped a big lot of wheelbarrows yesterday to a company of railroad contractors in South America. The wheelbarrows will be shipped by rail to New York and transported by steamer from there to South America.

Farmer public high school closed Tuesday afternoon for the Christmas holidays. Of the faculty Misses Linnie Shamburger and Hope Hubbard live in the community and will spend Christmas at home, Miss Adna Lambe will be at her home at Guilford College for the holidays and Miss Callie Vuncannon will spend the holidays at her home on Asheboro Route 3.

Mrs. M. F. Briles, an aged lady living with her daughter, Mrs. I. T. Johnson, at Thomasville, died Monday morning. She formerly resided in Randolph county near Trinity, having moved to Thomasville about two years ago. She is survived by three children: Prof. Chas. Briles, who is president of a normal college in one of the western states; Mrs. L. R. Fuller, of Fullers; and Mrs. I. T. Johnson, of Thomasville. She was an aunt of Mr. D. B. McCrary, of Asheboro.

Mr. M. L. Davis, formerly of Asheboro, and whose home is now in High Point, has been in business at Hopewell, Va., several months. He operates a planing mill and lumber plant. Recently he moved his family from High Point to Hopewell temporarily to conduct a boarding house. Although in the recent fire the homes of more than 25,000 people were destroyed, neither the home nor the mills belonging to Mr. Davis were affected by the fire.

The young people of Asheboro who are home from school for the holidays are: From the State University, Ray Hayworth; State Normal, Misses Katherine Burns, Lucile Scarborough, Nannie Lambert, and Kate Brytain; Greensboro College for Women, Misses Edna and Virtie Cavness; Wake Forest, Idol Free; Guilford, Miss Beatrice Lewallen and Wayne Miller and Ollie Preamell; Staunton Military Academy, Clyde Cox; Shenandoah Institute, Currie Loflin, Wiley Rush; Bingham, Lacy Lewis; Elon College, Misses Ethel Birkhead and Lela Hayworth; Whitsett, Clarence Lovett; Southern Conservatory of Music, Durham, Misses Gertrude Free and Lucile Rush.

TWO GREAT OFFERS

The Courier is offering a great combination of farm sense, farm help, fiction, fashion, fancy work, and good cheer for the entire family at bargain prices in connection with your subscription to The Courier one year. The first offer includes the Courier, one year, 52 issues; the Progressive Farmer, one year, 52 issues; the Housewife, one year, 12 issues, all for $1.60, only 8 cents a week. A subscription to these papers separately would cost you a total of $2.50 for the three, but by taking advantage of this splendid clubbing offer you can get them for $1.60, a big saving.

There is another good clubbing proposition advertised in another column. This offer includes The Courier, Woman's World, Household, Home Life, and Farm Life, all one year for $1.18. Just think a whole winter's reading for $1.18.

These two clubbing propositions are good. Decide which you will take advantage of and send in your subscription today. Here is an opportunity of saving money on your papers, one that is worthy of your consideration.

IF YOU ARE IN DOUBT

As to what to buy her for Christmas DON'T WORRY about it any longer—just buy HER a box of

Nunnally's Chocolates

Assorted—in beautiful and artistic holiday boxes. SHE will appreciate this more than anything you could buy.

Every Woman Wants to Remain Young.

Our Phoebe Snow Toilet Articles are the best aid to a good complexion. Fresh new line, unexcelled in quality.

Why Not Get Stationery?

A box of nice stationery in one of our attractive boxes is one of the nicest gifts imaginable. Try it and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that your gift is appreciated.

PLEASE BEAR IN MIND

We have a full line of drugs—fresh stock. Our service is prompt. This store appreciates your trade.

The Standard Drug Co.

J. T. Underwood, Mgr.

Asheboro, N. C.

Christmas Is Coming!

Now is the time to decide what you want to buy. You can find it here. In addition to my regular line of General Merchandise you will find here: Books, Stationery, Ware, Pictures, Novelties and Toys; in fact something for every member of the family. We sell the Famous Hunt Club Shoes and Vector Brand Clothing.

R. C. JOHNSON - - The W. J. Miller Store.

Good Service Good Music

TWENTY YEARS EXPERIENCE in supplying teachers, schools, churches, and the general public with music and musical instruments. gives a real meaning to our well known watchword, "Any Pupil, Any Age, Anywhere." Our specialty is filling orders directly from the factory, thereby saving the cost of handling, house rent, clerks, etc.

Only dealing with first class factories, the large territory we cover and the instruments of the better grade we handle, make this specialty possible. We have recently taken charge of a Piano Sale here in Asheboro where you may secure an Organ or Piano. Contract or on time at very low prices. This Piano holds a high place among the most distinguished pianos manufactured, and is noted among leading vocalists for its responsive touch and perfect tonal qualities, that are seldom found in pianos made today.

The public may call and examine at any time if interested. Also an Organ of wonderful volume and carrying power. Ministers and teachers desiring Organs for churches and schools might call and examine same. We will supply your homes and churches with Pianos and Organs of the better grade direct from the factory to home. If interested write us.

A. N. CULLOM : Asheboro, N. C.

Miss Bessie Love is dead and Miss Leitha Davis and Mr. John Baucom are fatally injured as a result of a collision between an automobile and a Seaboard train near Moore Friday night.

Dr. Walter Murphy, who was arrested in Washington about a week ago for performing a criminal operation on Estelle Crawford, of Washington, and causing her death, was released on a $6,000 bail last Thursday.