

THE COURIER

TELEPHONE NUMBER 5

Asheboro, N. C., May 16, 1918

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. O. T. Leonard, of Greensboro, has accepted a position with the Cox Lumber Company.

Mr. Charles Cole who is with the Coast Artillery located at Fort Caswell is on a furlough and is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cole at Seagrave.

Mr. O. T. Macon, a prosperous farmer at Climax Route 1, was in Asheboro yesterday on business. Mr. Macon says the wheat crop in his section is fine.

The Courier is in receipt of a very attractive invitation from Mr. J. A. Campbell, principal of Buie's Creek Academy, Buie's Cree. The commencement will be May 11, 12, 15 and 16th.

Mrs. Lucy Parks, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Asheboro and Millboro for several days left Wednesday for Portsmouth, Va., where she goes to stay some time with her husband Mr. Lucy Parks.

Mr. B. F. Newby is a business visitor in Richmond, Va., this week.

Mr. Rowland Kearns, of Asheboro Route 2, was a business visitor in Asheboro Wednesday.

Dr. K. M. Yokley was a week end visitor to relatives in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Nate Lowe, of Asheboro Route 2, was in town yesterday.

A letter from Edna Hill who is in France, says they are located back of the lines nursing medical cases, and old wounds. We are all anxious to get up nearer where it is more exciting, am on night duty; two orderlies and myself have charge of one hundred patients. It is amazing the huge amount of American supplies that are here shows how much good is done, by our denial at home, etc. All the girls are well, and seem to be satisfied. The Asheboro Courier came trailing across the ocean after me. I was real glad to get it if it was three weeks old.

Miss Iola Lowdermilk, of Asheboro Star Route, was in Seagrave last Sunday visiting relatives.

Mr. P. H. Henley, of Duke, was a business visitor in Asheboro the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McAlister and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McAlister, of Greensboro, were visitors in Asheboro yesterday.

The town has been disturbed over attempted thefts twice recently. That of Cox-Lewis Hardware Company first and next the Asheboro Motor-Car Co. The latter occurring on Tuesday night when a citizen of the town appeared and saw the enemy flee.

Richard Lassiter who has been promoted from the grammar school to the high school with diploma, has a certificate for not being tardy nor absent during the term. This is a splendid record.

Mr. Robert Hanner, of Randleman Route 1, was a business visitor on our streets Monday.

Miss Lillie Parrish and little Miss Elizabeth Ross are spending the week at Jackson Springs.

The various teachers in the Asheboro graded school have returned to their respective homes.

Mrs. Dave Sumner, of Franklinville, died Tuesday afternoon and was buried yesterday in the Franklinville cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Ross returned Sunday from Jackson Springs where they had been visiting their son Mr. George Ross.

Messrs. Walter Smith, Cyrus Schoffner and Howard McPherson, of Liberty, were visitors in Asheboro yesterday.

The Bank of Liberty moved yesterday in their new building, which has just been completed.

Mr. J. E. Carson, of Greensboro, came in yesterday to meet his son, McAlister Carson, who has been at Fort Sill for some time.

Mrs. G. M. Whitfield and Mrs. E. M. Norment, Jr., of Lumberton, spent the week end with Mrs. W. C. Hammond.

Mr. Jack Fout has accepted a position in High Point.

Lieutenant Henry Ingram, of Asheboro, was on the train which was wrecked near Columbia last week. Lieutenant Ingram notified his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Ingram at once that he had suffered no injury.

Mrs. Bessie Auman, who has been at Greenville for some time with her husband who is a member of Co. K, has returned to Asheboro.

Company K is no longer at Camp Sevier. Messages have during the past few days been received from Camp Merritt, New Jersey, which announced their safe arrival and a most pleasant trip.

Mr. Thad Lewallen, of a machine gun company at Camp Jackson, has been in Asheboro on a furlough this week. He expects to be transferred to Camp Sevier soon.

Mrs. Alton Auman, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Lovett, returned to her home in Goldsboro yesterday.

Miss Faye Ferree has returned from the State Normal College where she completed a business course. Miss Ferree has accepted a position with Mr. J. A. Spence.

Miss Mary Reid Hobbs, of Rockingham, returned to her home after visiting her aunt Mrs. John K. Wood.

Mrs. Hal W. Walker has returned to Asheboro from Greenville, S. C., where she has been with her husband Lieutenant H. W. Walker of Company E, 10th Cavalry, who is a member of the 10th Cavalry.

Mrs. Margaret McAlister, of Winston-Salem, was the guest of relatives in Asheboro yesterday.

Don't forget to send your day's savings to the captain of the Red Cross in Asheboro.

Mrs. Samuel Spoon sustained painful if not serious injuries about a week ago when she fell from her back porch steps to the ground hitting her head on a post near the wall. Mrs. Spoon seemed to have lost her balance and fell. Her condition has not improved as her family had hoped.

Mr. William M. Stevenson, probably the oldest Confederate veteran in the county, was in Asheboro for the Confederate reunion Friday. Mr. Stevenson entertained the Daughters of the Confederacy and a large number of other people, by chanting geography. While in Asheboro Mr. Stevenson visited his daughter Mrs. Thomas Foster. Mr. Stevenson is one of the early educators of the county. He is a man who has the high esteem of many of the citizens of the county.

Miss Ethel Lovett has returned to Asheboro after having successfully completed the business course at the State Normal College.

Last Thursday night James Williams, of Caraway, and Beatrice Bell, of Asheboro Route 2, colored, were married by R. L. Jordan.

Mr. Walter Smith, of Liberty, was a business visitor in Asheboro last Thursday.

Dr. C. C. Hubbard, of Farmer, was a business visitor in Asheboro Thursday.

Mr. Bob Lamb, of Charlotte, was a business visitor in town last Friday.

Miss Jessie Cox, who has been visiting her brother Roy Cox, at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., returned last Thursday.

Mr. W. H. Parks, of Ramseur Route 2, was in Asheboro on business last Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Pugh spent last Saturday and Sunday with relatives on Asheboro Route 1.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spoon, of Archdale, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Burns, of Greensboro, were in Asheboro last Saturday to see Mr. Spoon's mother, Mrs. Samuel Spoon, who fell a few days ago, and was badly hurt.

Mr. Everett Nance, of Asheboro Route 3, spent Sunday in Asheboro.

Mr. Pearl Tysinger, of Mayberry, was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday.

Misses Maggie, Sarah and Fannie Ellison spent the week end with their parents on Asheboro Route 1.

Mr. Causey Cox is confined to his room with pneumonia.

Mr. Fess Newsom, who is ill with fever, was taken to the High Point hospital last Friday.

Mr. J. B. Gardner, of Ramseur, Route 1, was a business visitor in Asheboro Monday. Mr. Gardner says wheat in his section is looking fine.

Mrs. C. T. Luck, of Ulah, was in town Sunday on her way home from Greensboro and High Point where she had been on a short business trip.

Mrs. E. J. Luck and children returned Sunday from Greenville. Mrs. Luck will make her home in Asheboro.

Mr. F. C. Brooks, of Brush Creek, was in town on legal business in connection with settling up his father's estate Monday.

Dalton E. Smith, of Trinity; James W. Swain, formerly of Asheboro, son of Rev. W. E. Swain, and Grady Yarborough, of Lexington, are second lieutenants from the third officers' training camp at Camp Stanley, Texas.

Mr. James Johnson was in Asheboro the latter part of last week visiting relatives.

Mr. Fuller Russell, of Randleman, was in town Monday.

Mr. A. N. Bulla, of Randleman, was in Asheboro on business Monday.

Mr. C. M. Dawkins, of Badin, was in Asheboro the first of the week on business. Mr. Dawkins is engaged in carpenters work.

Miss Jessie Cox returned to her home at Pisgah after visiting relatives in Asheboro. Miss Cox spent several days at Camp Sevier last week with her brother Sergeant Roy Cox, before his departure.

Mrs. Alison Auman, of Goldsboro, is visiting relatives in the county. Mrs. Auman has been with her mother Mrs. Reynolds who has been ill with pneumonia at her home near Star.

Mrs. Sarah Cornelison, of Seagrave Route 1, has had new Irish potatoes from her garden. These are the first new potatoes we have heard of raised in the county.

Mr. W. F. Redding, Jr., has accepted a position with the Acme Hosiery Mills in the mechanical department.

Mr. R. W. Prevost is out after having undergone mesial.

Every citizen in the county should respond to the Red Cross call next week which asks that each citizen of this county contribute the sum equal to one day's earnings.

Mr. C. T. Luck, of Seagrave Route 2, was a business visitor on our streets yesterday.

Mr. C. C. Granford who is chairman of the Red Cross drive from May 20 to 27 asks the parents of the soldiers to make note of it in sending in donations next week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. McAlister, of Fayetteville, are guests of Mrs. A. C. McAlister.

Col. W. P. Wood, of Raleigh, was in Asheboro for reunion of the Confederate veterans last Friday. Col. Wood spent Sunday with his son and daughters and returned to Raleigh Tuesday.

Lieutenant and Mrs. McAlister Carson are visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Carson. Lieutenant Carson has just finished a special course at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, in aerial direction of artillery fire and will soon return to his regiment at Fort Pike, Arkansas.

The 11th grade, with Misses White and Pierce and Messrs. D. I. McKethan and Henry Rich, went on a picnic to mineral springs last Friday afternoon.

Mr. Jesse Pugh and Miss Eric Hardin, both of Millboro, were quietly married last Sunday.

The Courier is in receipt of a very attractive invitation from the Denton high school. Their commencement will begin May 20.

Mr. J. R. Lamb, of Charlotte, was a business visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Misses Nell Nance and Margaret Craven spent the week end with friends and relatives of Asheboro.

YOUR RED CROSS FIGHTING DOLLARS

Your army and navy fights to make the "World Safe for Democracy." Your Red Cross fights to make it FIT for Democracy.

We Supply You With a Good Line of Furniture.

HOOVER & McCAIN

THE RANDOLPH COUNTY BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

Enables people in the county to own their own homes.

G. H. KING, Secretary.

Don't Forget Red Cross Week—May 20th to 27.

ASHEBORO FEDERAL FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION

Is an organization through which every farmer in Randolph county can secure a home.

This organization urges the farmers of the county to co-operate with the Red Cross movement.

G. H. KING, Sec. & Treas. H. D. SMITH, Pres.

Farmers, send your contributions to Mr. D. S. Coltrane, Asheboro, N. C., Captain of Farmers' Committee of the Red Cross.

THE PEOPLES BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION

Is an organization which has enabled many of the citizens of Asheboro to own homes.

This organization endorses the Red Cross Movement and urges the people of Randolph to co-operate with it.

THE ASHEBORO BARGAIN HOUSE

Reserves this space and recommends the Red Cross Society as an organization through which the parents of the Randolph soldiers may aid their sons.

BARGAINS IN SHOES.

ARE YOU DOING YOUR UTMOST FOR THE AMERICAN RED CROSS?

It is your opportunity to aid the men of Randolph county who are on the battlefields.

Space Donated By
PIEDMONT CHAIR COMPANY

Home Service of Red Cross
May be done by the citizenship of the county co-operating with the Red Cross next week, May 20-27.

Space reserved by J. A. Holder.

A. O. FERREE
Up-to-Date Grocer
Endorses Red Cross

We Have a Most Beautiful Line of summer goods, including Hot Weather Silks, Voiles, and Organdies.

Wood & Moring
Don't forget Red Cross Week
May 20-27

Mrs. C. E. Burgess, of Randleman, was in town Monday.

Mrs. J. A. Moore and daughter Miss Ada, of Seagrave Route 1, were in Asheboro shopping yesterday. Mrs. Moore had a message from her son, Captain Moore who is a member of Camp Merritt, New Jersey.

Mrs. Allie H. Worth, of Durham, is visiting relatives in Asheboro.

.... A Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends for their kindness during our brother's sickness and death.

W. R. and M. J. HARNELL.

Stop, Look and Listen

FACIAL Upholsterer and Designer of Features. Whiskers trimmed in all languages. Automatic hair cut and hydraulic shampoo. Hospital in connection. Undertaker on same street. No charge for ambulance. Gas free. Chloroform used when desired.

R. L. Hilliard

BARBER SHOP

Your Pressing Troubles

will soon be over if you send your clothes to me. I specialize on women's suits and give every job special attention.

The Asheboro Pressing & Tailoring Company

W. P. Royster, Prop.

Phone 137

The Red Cross Spirit Speaks

Space Donated by
ASHEBORO WHEELBARROW CO.

I kneel behind the soldiers' trench
I walk with shambles' smear and stench
The dead I mourn.
I bear the stretcher and I bend
O'er Sammy, Pierre and Jack and mend
What shells have torn.

I go wherever men may dare,
I go wherever woman's care
And love can live.
Wherever strength and skill can bring
Surcease to human suffering
Or solace give.

I am your pennies and your pounds;
I am your bodies on their rounds of pain afar.
I am you, doing what you would
If you were only where you could—
Your avatar.

The cross which on my arm I wear,
The flag which o'r my breast I bear,
Is but the sign
Of what you'd sacrifice for him
Who suffers on the hellish rim
Of war's red line.

Oshkosh B'Gosh
and other brands of Overalls.
General line suits for men and boys. Cravats, ties, dress shirts, underwear and hosiery.

Wood Cash Clothing Co.

Red Cross Week, May 20-27
Give one day's earnings.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS

Fights for our soldiers—yours and your allies—in trench, canteen and hospital.

Fights for the little children, to save them for the nation's upbuildings of tomorrow.

WILL YOU FURNISH ONE DAY'S INCOME:

Space Donated By

R. C. JOHNSON

DEALER IN LADIES' AND MEN'S CLOTHING

E. R. YOW, DEALER IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE,
Advocates Co-operating With the Red Cross Society.

The Red Cross gives you the opportunity to lay cool fingers on the burning brow of the wounded, and your contribution will help furnish stout hearts and strong arms to carry some mother's son beyond the range and roar of belching cannon.