WELL-LAID

It Becometh and Behooveth Mr. Wadsworth, Mr. Lodge, Mr. Chamberlain.
Mr. Roosevelt, and all Their PhonoMr. Roosevelt, and all Their Ph graphic Cult to Chirp Like a Cricket, Not Roar Like a Lion.

can be divided into two camps.

Those who wanted war at any price.

while the great majority of those who again stood for peace while peace spelled honor are upholding the President's hands as Aaron and Hur upheld the hands of Moses in his battle with feils to set on the storage liver and the course of time. The same proportion accusations, the exaggerations, the exaggerations, the fabrications of super-fabrications of super-fabrications in the county commissioners appointed a Republican liver and county about the same proportion.

The present volcanic attack against the war policies of President Wilson is "California Syrup of Figs," which has no haphazard incident. It is a well-full directions for babies, children of laid plot, nicely trained and strate-gically timed. Its purpose, no matter how secretive its sponsors, how insin-terfeits sold here. Get the genuine uating its methods, how seductive its made by "California Fig Syrup Comthe do maintain that its efforts have been party a majority in the party and its accomplishments beautiful the party and its accomplishments and its accomp party a majority in the next House of contempt. Representatives and to pave the way for a Republican President in 1920. ist, said was of more worth to the aim lay the slightest obstacle in the out this Federal reserve bank today way of the happy consummation of the United States would be grinding this business, clothe themselves in a and pounding on the rocks of disasdiabolical livery and surround their ter. political machinations with a brimstone scent, a sulphurous odor offensive to people who revere patriotism in politics, but abhor politics in patriotism.

Nor is this all.

From a vision almost prophetic came the Federal revenue bill, which wrung a lordly portion of governmensism.

injecting politics into the war through der the baneful influence of war dwininjecting politics into the war through his articles in the Kansas City Star and Metropolitan Magazine. With craft and caution he has planted a bomb, intended to blow President Wilson out of political existence, and in this "Guy Fawkes" plot he has had the unctious assistance of Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, and the crafty supof Massachusetts, and the crafty sup-port of Senator Wadsworth, of New York. But cunning and unctiousness ineffable debt of gratitude to the wis-have been trivial and not worthy of York. But cunning and unctiousness ineffable debt of gratitude to the wiscan not win a contest like this. The dom and statesmanship of Woodrow mountain of truth is too big to be dis- Wilson. facts too potent to be minimized to impish dissimulation or distorted by impish dissimulation or distorted by cunning castigation.

Great as our Navy is today, it would be far greater still if the policy of ed by the autocratic dogmatism of Cleveland had prevailed and the plans Germany disregarding treaties and the surface of the pool of comment, sources of all officers and teachers to of Roosevelt buried in the bottom of the sea. And as it was with the Navy so was it with the Army for Theodore Roosevelt left the Army of the United States weaker than he had found the set of the se it seven years before.

Wilson, with his panoramnic view of not equip a million men overnight and the history of the world in peace time nut them in the trenches of France in and in war time, his thorough knowledge of democratic aspirations and economic possibilities, his sympathy with the masses and his consideration lect of our martial strength; they forcome President of the United States got everything but their own personal than the wheels of progress were set in motion to equip this Nation as years advancement.

before she should have been equipped for the solution of pressing national sprang full at before she should have been equipped for the solution of pressing national problems and the beautiful for the solution of pressing national problems and the beautiful for the solution of pressing national functions and despite the fort t in the annals of statesmanship. It is the unmistakable triumph of the democratic yearning with which the heart of mankind throbs and pulses teday. And it carried Woodrow Wilson heart of mankind throbs and pulses in 16 days. The wind listeth in the son to wonderful with the democratic years and pulses in 16 days. The wind listeth in the son to wonderful with the democratic pulses.

THICK. GLOSSY, WAVY
THICK. GLOSSY, WAVY
This! All Dandruff Disappears
And Hair Stops Coming Out
urely try a "Danderine Hair unel' if you wish to immediately ble the beauty of your hair. Just sten a cloth with Danderine and w it carefully through your hair, ing one small strand at a time;
will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt may excessive oil—in a few minutes yell be smared. Your hair will any fluffy and abundant and pos-

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF TONGUE 18-COATED

and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, And those who hoped for peace, if stomach ache or diarrhoea. Listen, peace could be maintained without the sacrifice of national homor.

Now, we are at war, and we have the uy of Figs," and in a few hours all the stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, command of necessity. astonishing anomaly of the leaders of constipated waste, sour bile and undithe "war buzzards" trying to gnaw the gested food passes out of the system, vitals out of our Commander in Chief, and you have a well, playful child hands of Moses in his battle with fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of

From a political point of view this world than the Panama Canal, saved We have not whipped the Kaiser may be tolerable; from a patriotic aspect, in a national crisis like this, it war, from the most stupendous panic ating critics do not dampen the fires of enthusiasm or grease the tracks is odious and detestable.

The business of the Nation today is to win the war, and the political leaders, who for party gain or personal and the political leaders, who for party gain or personal and the political leaders, who for party gain or personal and the political leaders, who for party gain or personal and the political leaders with hardly a squeak or a tremor of our old ship of state. With Theodore Roosevelt may indulge The Bible says he who draws the sword shall perish by the sword. Well, Roosevelt and his followers first drew the political sword in this dispute, and with their assumptive valor they should not cry for quarter before the blade of their own rapier.

himself in all the weird juggling of language that pleases his fancy; he may insensate himself to such inspirational riot of emotional frenzy as may give fire to his tongue and flare to his imagination; but the fact remains undeniable, ineffaceable, irremovable, blade of their own rapier.

deemed expedient or politic.

Suddenly, however, conditions creatyears, the men whose policies had seven years before.

No sooner, however, had Woodrow weakened the Army and stunted the Navy, began to howl because we could a day. They forgot the experience of lect of our martial strength; they for-problems and the handling of contin-gencies of an international nature.

The release of the pressing national Jupiter, and despite the fact that the age for mythological miracles has. The rehearsal of all the legislation passed, these acrimonious critics deof President Wilson to carry out this progressive program would be superfluous here. The world knows it by heart. It insures him a splendid place in the annals of states were believed to the single of states were believed. today. And it carried Woodrow Wilson to wonderful victory in 1916 against an avalanche of money and a labyrinth of intrigue.

His Federal reserve bank law, which Mulhall, the famous English economical only an embryonic stalk snuggled in the grass. This is the kind of marvel, this the kind of impossible legendemain that Col. Roosevelt and his school demand should be duplicated in our military world. They demand that so today we reap.

Gen. Winfield Scott, one of the world's greatest soldiers, compressed an historic situation in a nutshell when Children love this "fruit laxative", the business of autocracies is war. Children love this "fruit laxative", the business of autocracies is war. and nothing else cleanses the tender tomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing the Great said so; Frederick himself find that down in Cedar Grove town-true; from this genesis republics de- against their consent. system full of cold, has sore throat, part only at the call of honor or the Hence it is, though critics may forcontemners of the Wilsonian policies wear such a flimsy gossamer coverall its naked hideousness.

We make no claim that the administration has created sunbeams out of cucumbers or performed feats beyond amazing, its accomplishments beyond compare in the history of modern warating critics do not dampen the fires ple's business uninvited, a least I was of enthusiasm or grease the tracks whereon must ride our national chariots of war. We have more men in France today than Roosevelt knows or Germany suspects, and a million more are waiting for the ships.

We have an Army so well cared for that the death rate in our ranks for the four months ending January 1, 1918, averaged only 7.5 per thousand liver trouble, never being able to get -a death rate, mind you, less than the death rate for men of a like age Now that Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for months Col. Roosevelt has been stead of from tariff imposts, which unjecting politics into the war through don't be harded to be been stead of from tariff imposts, which unper thousand under the large age has entirely cured me, I am anxious to pare this with the death rate of 20.14 get a wife." It is a simple, harmless, per thousand under the good old Republican rule of the days of the Spanish-American War. Compare these and allays the inflammation which figures, and then applaud the Roose-causes practically all stomach, liver velt charges, if you can!

True, we have made some mistakes, but in the magnitude of our undertaking some mistakes were inevitable, unthe attention of the men who minim-ize their talents by trying to magnify executive committee of the county as-

And, furthermore, unlike the Spanish-American War, in which Mr. Roosevelt was a king-pin: We have no Army contract scan-ful people these critics make no in-delible impression. They may ruffle The hot weather will tax the refire, fed by the tissues of ambitious misrepresentation, fanned by the sinister winds of political oratory, there stalks forth from memory's closet the skeleton of Alger's embalmed beef with its concomitant stench; there looms into view the commander of the United States forces in Cuba, too fat to ride a horse, going into battle in a carriage, and lolloping in a portable June.

We have no embalmed-beef horrors. charges from easy rocking chairs.

bathtup while our soldiers had no meditate. icines to conquer tropic ills; there looms into view this self-same commander of the United States forces in Cuba fighting his battles from the Bensuous folds of a soporific hammock, while through the stupidity and care-lessness of an inefficient military med-ical force our soldier boys found ty-phoid fever more deadly than bullets

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is working fourteen hours a day in a Y. M. C. A. canteen at Aix, France from the Spaish guns. And so, in view of these verities which no political manipulation can snatch from history's page; in view of the official funereal-hued glories and the official scarlet-tinged scandals and the official scarlet-tinged scandals of the Spanish-American War; in view of Algor's embalmed beef of odoriferous memory; in view of inferior ships purchased by the Government at superior prices; in view of the stigma and disgrace that typhoid fever killed more of our soldiers than Spanish bullets sent to their graves; in view of the cable which Dewey cut to save the Navy from the In-

CALOMEL SALIVATES AND MAKES YOU SICK

Attending to Other Men's Bu Yesterday there were some Republicans talking in a kind of a braggadocio way, that their party had the business of Randolph county in their hands, and, were going to hold it. So I went home and commenced ruminat-(An editorial by former Gov. Martin A child simply will not stop playing the Great said so; Frederick himself the Great sa 28, 1918.)

Today the people of this country cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, public. To this genesis republics are the property in the township, and at

In New Hope township the Demo crats pay three-fourths of the taxes, and yet have a Republican to assess get, the people remember, that in eight months of war the United States, under the leadership of Woodrow Wilson, has done twice as much, and even Republican to assess, and list the propmore, than England and France did in erty. And in Tabernacle about the the corresponding period of time. The same. The other townships of the every township in the county. In Cedar Grove, New Hope, Coning as to expose this political plot in cord, and Tabernacle there are only a few Republicans whose real estate is assessed at $2,000. Ditto as to the county officers who occupy rooms in the courthouse, that was built with Democrat money principally. It is true however the Republicans have more business to attend to in the courthouse and jail than the Democrats, especially the jail.

To be courteous to other people, one should not try to attend to other peo-

RICH ASHEBORO BACH-FIOR WANTS WIFE

"Many people have blamed me for not getting married. Since childhood I have suffered from stomach and tarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

For sale by Standard Drug Co.

PRICES 25c AND 50c PER BOTTLE. Sunday School Association Notes Next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock sociation held at the Presbyterian church. This committee is now composed of all the officers of the association. Every member of this committee is urged to be present on time. Immediately after the committee meeting, the board of religious education will should not cry for quarter before the blade of their own rapier.

For 16 years before the present Democratic administration the Republican party was the custodian of the welfage of this nation, and in all these welfage of this nation, and in all these that but little to put this country on a basis of adequate preparation for war. Grover Cleveland started the American Navy on its way to imperial strength, but Theodore Roosevelt, as President of the Cleveland policy, that curtailed the Cleveland policy, Great as our Navy is today, it would be contained as a standard of the sensibilities of th In a number of the townships the them. On the estimation of thought- should be kept of all receipts and ex-

Suffer Terribly With Corns Because Of High Heels, But Why Care Now

Women wear high heels which buck-le up their toes and they suffer terri-bly from corns. Women then proceed to trim these pests, seeking relief, but they hardly-realize the terrible danger from infection, says a Cincinnati su-

This handy, home rem-dy will save you doctor bills and serious illness, if used in time. It drives out the poison germs and makes the bowels, bidneys and liver active. Ideals from here's only. Satisfaction Guaranteed and if the result is not satisfication and we refund you the money uine HERDATONE can be had at STANDARD DRUG CO. Asheboro, N. C.

Why Not Items Mrs. O. D. Lawrence visited Dr. and

Mrs. J. W. Austin in High Point re cently. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Auman attende Elon College commencement last week. Their son, Rev. J. Clyde Auman, is one

Mr. and Mrs. Carl King have re-turned from Hot Springs, Ark., where they spent a month. Mr. Emery Slack has gone to Virginia.

Pick up the plow where it stands in the furrow—patriotism is the practical doing of the next job.

666 GIVES QUICK RELIEF FOR COLDS and LAGRIPPE

Notice of Sale of Land North Carolina,

Randolph County. By virtue of power given in the last will and testament of E. J. Strider, late deceased of Randolph county North Carolina, we the undersigned will on the 16th day of July, 1918 We have no fat, old generals going meet in the association office over the to war in carriages and leading battle Bank of Randolph. lina, offer for sale to the highest bid then S. on his line 40 chains to a pile of rocks in his line then E. 20 chains The hot weather will tax the resources of all officers and teachers to keep up the attendance during the summer months. One school makes the classes of the school responsible for a surprise feature in the opening or closing each Sunday. Variety will help in keeping up interest.

There will be a Children's Day and rally at Brown's Grove Sunday School, near Sophia, next Sunday, all day. An interesting program is being prepared. The Brower township Sunday School of the Brower township Sunday in Interesting program is being prepared. The Brower township Sunday School of the Brower township Sunday School of the Brower township Sunday in Interesting program is being prepared. The Brower township Sunday in Interesting program is being prepared. The Brower township Sunday School of the Brower township Sunday in Interesting program is being prepared. The Brower township Sunday School of the Brower township Sunday Interest at Mt. Clivet Mt. E. Church on the third Sunday in June.

The officers of the New Hope township association held a conference last Sunday afternoon to prevare for the convention on the fifth Sunday in June.

Mrs. Theodore Rocsevelt, Jr., is working fourteen hours a day in a Y. M. C. A. canteen at Aix, France.

WOMEN TORTURED!

Suffer Terribly With Corns Because Of High Heels, But Why Care

Now

Notice

S. Luther corner sour wood, then with Luther's and Sarah Hall's line to the bottom the will be a state of the state of the state of the state of will be pleaded in but of the undersigned on or before the 28th day of June, 1919, or this notice will be pleaded in but of the undersigned on or before the 28th day of June, 1919, or this notice will be pleaded in but of the undersigned on or before the state of the undersigned on or before the 28th day of June, 1919, or this notice will be added in a state of the undersigned on or before the state of the undersigned on or before the 28th day of June, 1919, or this notice will be added in a state of the undersigned on or before the state of the undersigned on or before the state of

DR. K. M. YOKLEY

G. H. KING Practice in all courts, collect an just claims, wind up estates, All ness entrusted in my care shall prompt and painstaking attention

E. C. SHAW Jeweler Next door to Hoover & McCain's Furniture Store

C. S. TATE. MD.

Physician and Surge

- North Carolin DR. JOHN SWAIM Office over First National Bank one 192 — — Ashebere, N. C.

Wm. C. HAMMER I. C. MOSER HAMMER & MOSER Attorneys at Law Offices in Law Building, Asheboro

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Auman attended Elon College commencement last week. Their son, Rev. J. Clyde Auman, is one of this year's graduates from Elon College.

Mr. J. A. King attended Ramseur commencement.

Mrs. Peter Vuncannon and grand-daughter, Annie Grace, of Star, spent several days here recently.

Mr. Euclid Auman attended Elon College commencement.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl King have re-

NORFOLK SOUTHERN RAILROAD SHORT LINE BETWEEN
Western North Carolina and Eastern
North Carolina, Norfolk, and Points
East

(As information, not guaranteed.) Leave Asheboro daily except Sunday 6:40 a. m., connecting at Star with through train for Charlotte at 11:25 a. m., with through train for Raleigh at 9:85 a. m., arriving Raleigh 1:20 p. m., connecting at Raleigh with through sleeper leaving Raleigh daily at 9:20 p. m. for Wilson, Greenville, Washington and Norfolk.

Leave Asheboro 4:10 p. m. daily except

Leave Asheboro 4:10 p. m. daily ex-cept Sunday for Star, Jackson Springs, Pinehurst and Aberdeen and points

Trains arrive Asheboro 10:50 a. m. and 6:50 p. m. daily, except Sunday.

For information call on or write:

L. D. BURKHEAD,

Agent, Asheboro, N. C. W. J. WILLIAMS
Gommercial Agent, Raleigh, N. C. G. B. UNDERWOOD, Commercial Agent, Charlotte, N. C. J. F. DALTON, General Passenger Agent, Norfolk, Va.

Administrator's Notice

This the 22nd day of April, 1918. SAMUEL LOFLIN, Administrator. Jackson Creek, N. C.

Administrator's Notice Having qualified as administrator of the estate of Jefferson Brookshire, deceased, late of Randolph county, North Carolina, this is to notify all