Car Load of Beef Cattle Received and Distributed by the County Commissioners Through the Farm Demonstrator. The county agricultural agent, D. S. Coltrane, has received and distributed to the farmers of Randolph county a car load of Hereford heifers. The cattle came from the drought-stricken regions of Texas and were expected to be in real fine condition, but considering the fact that they had been on the road a week they were in good condition. The car consisted of 53 very uniform heifers that averaged 375 pounds.

Many farmers were interested in these cattle and there could have been at least thirty more head sold if they had been here. There has been so much interest manifested in these cattle that Mr. Coltrane has already wired to Texas to know if they can ship him another car load.

The purchasers of this car load were: J. A. Holder and S. A. Pickett, 6; Chas. Redding, Trinity, 6; Clay Dorsett, Trinity, 6; C. M. Kennedy, Trinity, 7; W. L. Auberson, Trinity, 7; J. A. English, Glenola, 1; J. T. Winslow, Asheboro, 10; D. B. McCrary, Asheboro, 2; W. L. Ward, Asheboro, 2; W. B. Lowe, Edgar, 1; Madison Hammond, Farmer, 4.

As stated before the county tried to distribute these cattle at actual cost and if had been sold 35 cents on the head cheaper they would have lost. Since they ranged in price from $30 to $45 ahead it is readily seen that they were figured very closely. The itemized cost of these heifers follows: Draft, which was cost f. o. b. Texas, $1,846.30; freight, $148.17; feed bill, $19.63; telegrams, $4.77; labor for feeding and catching one cow, $2.15, total $2,021.02.

Receipts of the sale $2,036.60; net profit, $15.60.

The commissioners at once ordered the county agent to use this small sum which was the profit in purchasing some tools such as a saw, hammer, and some soil testing equipment which he is in need of.

The Coward (From "Echoes and Realities," by Walter Prichard Eaton) They say that character results from this, That we have lived misfortune down, grown grey In breeding hopes for hopeless time to slay, Greeted calamity with a kiss, And on the lone grave of our cherished bliss, When we have laid our poor dead dreams away, Have only paused a moment there, to pray, And then passed on, nor deemed the world amiss, A strong man takes his strokes, waxing more and more strong; The coward heart demands immunity, Nor dares to lay his dead beneath the sod, Nor craves to live when life has lost its song, If this be so there is no strength in me, I cringe a coward at the feet of God.

I doctored him and used various cough medicines but nothing did him much good until I began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He then improved rapidly and in a few days was over his cold."

Careful mothers know that Cascarets in the home mean less sickness, less trouble, less worry, less cost. When one of the kiddies has a white tongue, feverish breath, sour stomach or a cold, a Cascaret quickly and harmlessly "works" the poisons from the liver and bowels and all is well again—only 10 cents a box.

TO MOTHERS! While all children detest castor oil, calomel, pills and laxatives, they really love to take Cascarets because they taste like candy. Cascarets "work" the nasty bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison from the child's tender stomach, liver and bowels without pain or griping. Cascarets never disappoint the worried mother. Each ten cent box contains directions for children aged one year old and upwards.
