

The Courier Welcomes all Randolph County Visitors Saturday.

Dr. J. Wesley Long, lieutenant colonel U. S. medical reserve corps, was for several months with the E. F., will be the speaker at the memorial exercises to be held in the town hall cemetery, Greensboro, Saturday.

Mr. E. L. Presnell, of Ellerbe, was business visitor in Asheboro Monday. Wilson Kearns and daughter, Clotus, of Back Creek township, in Asheboro shopping Saturday. Miss Nannie Hoover spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hoover, of Asheboro Route 2. June Scarborough, of Stas, spent day in Asheboro with relatives. Son Richardson, of Randleman, was a visitor in town Saturday. Maggie Nance, of Asheboro, passed through town Saturday on her way to High Point to visit her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Free, of Cedar Grove, were visitors in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. J. P. Lamb, of New Market, was in the city one day the part of last week. Mr. Lamb there are a number of tobacco being erected in his township. Martha Evelyn Morris, a junior Greensboro College for Women, a musical recital last night. Her Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Morris, and Mrs. E. L. Moffitt and several Asheboro friends were present the recital.

Mr. D. C. Holt and Mr. J. L. Harlow, of Liberty, were visitors in Asheboro Monday, having come here on business connected with the Liberty

Thomas Tucker, a former Asheboro citizen, who for the past few years has been operating moving picture shows in different towns was in Asheboro the first of the week. He is returning to St. Pauls from Salisbury, where he has been visiting his Ellis Tucker, and daughter, Mrs. E. Cates, of Spencer. Mr. Tucker also been visiting his daughter, Arthur Parks in High Point. Tucker's son, Ellis Tucker, is conductor on the main line of the Southwestern railway from Charlotte to Washington.

The Bank of Randolph has received $500 check for purchase of Victory Bonds from Mr. Jim Rich, a former Asheboro citizen. Mr. Rich had invested in Liberty Bonds in Washington, but he wanted his county to have credit for $500 worth of Liberty bonds which he was buying. Mr. Rich has many friends in Asheboro who will appreciate his interest in his home county. It will be remembered that he operated a store while in Asheboro. Mr. Rich returned from Asheboro to Camp Sevier, where he ran a car for hire from Greenville to Camp Sevier. He has been well in business and has returned to Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Moffitt who have been in Greensboro for the past few weeks will be in Asheboro while Moffitt will have his vacation. We are glad to say his health is gradually improving.

Prof. N. C. English and Messrs. W. Wood and T. S. Bouldin, of Trinity, were in Asheboro Monday. They had notified by the State Board of Education that the County Board of Education would be in session Monday and had come on business concerning Trinity school.

Chief of police A. S. Barker, of Randleman, was in Asheboro Monday on business.

Mr. J. Johnson, of Seagrave, was business visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. F. Wood, who was superintendent of Trinity high school since he was in Asheboro Monday. During the fall took the Y. M. C. training course for service at Blue Ridge, but after the outbreak of the armistice General Pershing found he could release some of the workers in France and allow them to take up their work in this country. Consequently the work of many of the men on this side was not needed. Mr. Wood meantime Prof. Johnson, who about a month ago resigned as principal in the Trinity school and Mr. Wood consented to complete the school. The High Point people are much interested now in establishing a creamery. They are trying to enlist the interest of several Randolph county citizens who live near High Point.

Mr. L. D. Ballis, who underwent an operation at the High Point hospital last week is improving rapidly.

Mr. Charles Cameron, of Denton, who recently returned from overseas was a visitor in Asheboro Saturday. Mr. Cameron spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Ben Morgan at Caraway. Randolph county will have veterans of three wars present on Saturday to participate in the 10th of May celebration.

While next Saturday is Confederate Memorial day and will be celebrated as such, this occasion is not to be left on the program a memorial service for our soldiers who died overseas. That exercise will be held at a later date.

Misses Maude and Louise Whitley have returned to their home at Urah from the Brooks Farm Life School where they have been students for the past year. Miss Maude Whitley received the $10 prize which was offered last year during the year-end contest. Miss Louise Whitley was the recipient of a $5 prize for leading the nearest room during the year-end contest.

Mrs. J. F. Dixon, mother of Captain Dixon will be in Asheboro Saturday for the 10th of May celebration. Mrs. Dixon has expressed much interest in Randolph county people since her son came to Asheboro to take charge of Company K. In all probability other members of the Captain's family will be present for the celebration.

Mr. J. F. South, of Millboro, has recently drawn a map of Randolph county in which he pictures all the good roads of the county. It is a most unique map.

Mr. E. K. Brown, of Ramseur, goes on record as being the crack potato farmer of the county. He served some new Irish potatoes on April 27th. Mr. Brown put his potatoes in a hole and on account of the warm winter some of the potatoes sprouted and grew. He took the potatoes from the hole and found nearly a peck of new potatoes almost as large as an egg.

Mr. Gayle, State distributor of the Southern Oakland Company, was in Asheboro Tuesday on business.

Mr. J. C. Bean, of Salisbury, was in Asheboro Tuesday on her way to visit her father, Mr. S. A. Cox.

Mr. Carl Brown, a son of D. F. Brown, of Eroct, was in Asheboro Tuesday. Mr. Brown left Randolph county with Co. K and went to Camp Sevier. He was from there transferred to the military police department of the 90th division. He relates some interesting experiences which occurred overseas. Among the duties of the military police was carrying the German prisoners to the German cages after they were captured. He said in every instance German prisoners expressed gratification over having been captured, and that they said the war would not last long on account of food conditions and other conditions in Germany. Mr. Brown has accepted a position with the Home Building and Material Co.

Mr. Eugene Chisholm, of Carthage, has been visiting Mr. Reid Hannah. Both of them left Tuesday for Carthage and will return to Asheboro Saturday for the celebration.

Miss Litra Frazier, of Liberty, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Dr. Swaim. Miss Frazier has recently been in training at Little Washington.

Mr. Alton Bunting, a citizen of Cedar Grove township, died at his home Friday, following a three-months' illness of heart trouble. Mr. Bunting leaves a wife and several children. He was buried at Cedar Grove cemetery on Saturday.

Miss Mattie Hughes, a student at Jamestown high school, was a weekend visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hughes.

Mrs. Cyrus Allred, who lives two miles north of Asheboro was in town on Tuesday.

Rev. J. O. Atkinson, D. D., of Elon College, will deliver an address on missions at the Presbyterian church next Sunday night, 7:30 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

A play is staged at Trinity for Friday night, May 9th. It is a rich comedy in three acts, entitled, "Her Honor, the Mayor," and is given by the local talent of Trinity. The length of the drama is two hours and two hours of entertainment of the highest type is guaranteed. The proceeds will go to support a Belgian orphan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bost returned last week from Chatham, Va., where they have been visiting relatives. Mrs. Bost's mother has been ill, but is improving.

Mrs. W. H. Moring is spending some time at Jackson Springs.

Mr. Curtis Wrike, of Burlington, who recently returned with the 30th division from overseas, spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Baxter Wrike.

Mrs. L. D. Perkins, of Spencer, was the weekend guest of Mrs. R. I. Dickens.

Mr. C. B. Griffin is moving into the first floor of the hospital. Mrs. J. W. Steed lived there until recently when she returned to her home at Steeds. Mrs. E. J. Luck will move into the house formerly occupied by Mr. Griffin.

Mr. Elwood Stanton, of Randleman Route 1, was in Asheboro on business Monday. Mr. Stanton says he recently saw in The Courier that one of the subscribers said he had been taking The Courier for 45 years. Mr. Stanton says that his father came to Asheboro in June 1876, and that Mr. M. S. Robins had just established The Courier which was then the Randolph Regulator, and he asked Mr. Stanton for his subscription. He says his father had never heard of the paper before, but he subscribed to it and was a subscriber the balance of his lifetime. He died in 1902. Mr. Stanton said that Mr. Robins and Dr. Worth were preparing to go to the State Democratic convention in Raleigh the day his father first subscribed for The Courier and that they drove to High Point to take the train. Trinity College commencement at old Trinity was in progress and they stopped there on the way. Dr. Worth was a candidate for State Treasurer and was nominated at the convention and elected that fall. Mr. Stanton says his father and the two Asheboro citizens were about the same age and good friends. Mr. Elwood Stanton has had The Courier in his home since the death of his father. According to Mr. Stanton's figures The Courier is 43 years old.

Miss Donna Spoon has returned home from a week's visit to her brother Mr. Phelt Spoon of Archdale. She also visited relatives in High Point.

Mr. U. C. Richardson, of High Point, spent Sunday with his family in Asheboro.

Dr. C. C. Poindexter, of Randleman, was in the city Saturday. Dr. Poindexter is a brother of Mr. Poindexter, of Rutherfordton, who was a member of Company K, and who recently visited his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Nance were in Asheboro Saturday, returning from Chatham county where they had attended the burial of Miss Hudson, Mrs. Nance's sister, who was accidentally killed last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. C. R. Asman, of Midway, was in town on business Tuesday.

Mr. J. L. Gray, of Cedar Falls, was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday.

Mr. Charles Brown, Asheboro Route 1, was in town the first of the week. Mr. Jefferson D. Welch, of Seagrave, was a business visitor in Asheboro

Mr. E. M. Yoder spent the week

Let's not fall down on the Home Stretch

Under the Wire, a WINNER

Come on, you Victory Loan! America never yet rode a loser! You've got a record of four straight - make it five! Help ride the Victory Loan to victory by buying your bonds today. You'll find it the best winner you ever backed! Go in to your limit.

Victory Liberty Loan Committee

This space contributed by

Wood-Cash Clothing Co.

AUCTION SALE OF SHOES

We will sell at Public Auction Saturday May 17th. One Hundred Pairs Ladies, Gents and Childrens Shoes.

SAPONA STORE CO.

Cedar Falls, N. C.

Welcome, Yes, A Real

WELCOME

TO ALL RANDOLPH SOLDIERS Saturday, May 10th.

We will serve Cold Drinks to all Men in Uniform FREE of charge Saturday.

Asheboro Drug Co.

Miss Donna Spoon has returned home from a week's visit to her brother Mr. Phelt Spoon of Archdale. She also visited relatives in High Point.

Mr. U. C. Richardson, of High Point, spent Sunday with his family in Asheboro.

Dr. C. C. Poindexter, of Randleman, was in the city Saturday. Dr. Poindexter is a brother of Mr. Poindexter, of Rutherfordton, who was a member of Company K, and who recently visited his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Nance were in Asheboro Saturday, returning from Chatham county where they had attended the burial of Miss Hudson, Mrs. Nance's sister, who was accidentally killed last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. C. R. Asman, of Midway, was in town on business Tuesday.

Mr. J. L. Gray, of Cedar Falls, was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday.

Mr. Charles Brown, Asheboro Route 1, was in town the first of the week. Mr. Jefferson D. Welch, of Seagrave, was a business visitor in Asheboro

Miss Fannie Newby of this city, is visiting friends in Burlington.

Mr. Everett Newby, of Greensboro, was a visitor in town yesterday.

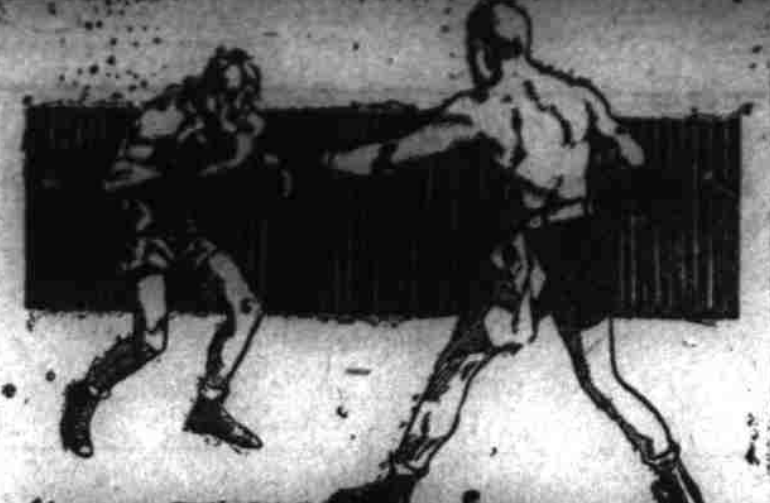

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hammer, of Lynchburg, Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weber, of Clover, S. C., attended the burial of their mother, Mrs. S. S. Winslow, at Charlotte church Tuesday.

Miss Vivian Crawford was hostess last week to the members of the senior class of Asheboro high school.

The primary department of the Asheboro graded school gave a beautiful pageant Saturday night under the directions of Misses Brooks, Pritchard, Wallace and Cavness.

Mrs. S. B. Stedman, director of the Asheboro orchestra, accompanied the pageant with a very interesting program.

Mrs. Leo Barker was hostess Wednesday to the members of the Daughters of the Confederacy. The subject of the evening was contrasting work of the women of the civil war with that of the present war. Mrs. Barker

'TIME!' - the Last Round

The good's time for the last round in the fight. Now is the time to buy your Victory Liberty Loan. It's a winner - not only for the fight, but for all time to come!

Right on the point of the jaw - today - with the Victory Liberty Loan.

Finish the job!

Victory Liberty Loan Committee

This space contributed by

E WHATLEY General Merchandise ULAH, N. C.

PUTTING it ACROSS

All together now - a long heave, a strong heave - a heave that'll put the Loan far past the mark that Uncle Sam has set.

Get under it now. With every penny you can take and scrape, put it across!

Victory Liberty Loan Committee

This space contributed by

Presnell & York Dealers in Horses and Mules Asheboro, N. C.

We have handled 12 carloads of horses and mules from the different government camps this season and now have some good ones on hand.

J. A. HOLDER

Extends Cordial Welcome to all Randolph County Citizens

ON

Saturday, May 10th.

And solicits Country Produce.

J. A. HOLDER

GROCER

Cross Tie and Fertilizer Dealer