ASHEBORO NEWS

This Case Has a Hint for Many Corner Readers

An Asheboro woman has used Dean's Kidney Pills. She has found them as represented. She wishes her neighbors to know. She publicly recommends them. No need to look further for a tested kidney remedy.

The proof of merit is here and can be investigated.

From the statement of Mrs. D. E. Smith, 212 N. 2nd St.,

small of my back and through my kidneys, which caused me a lot of inconvenience. I had headaches, my kidneys didn't act properly and I always felt tired and languid. Hearing of Dean's Kidney Pills I got a box and only took a few doses before I felt better. I continued taking them and they relieved every symptom of this complaint. I always keep a box of Dean's on hand.

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Kidney Pills—the name that's on the box. Write to: Foster-McBride Co., Dept. 100, Buffalo, N. Y.

HUMAN RECONSTRUCTION

They come to us dulled by shell-shock—men with arms and legs gone—pitifully broken.

Is there a person in all this great Nation of ours who is not glad to stand up beside these boys in the Victory Liberty Loan? For, mark you, part of the debt we still owe is the debt to these fighting lads who now must stumble along unfamiliar paths. We must see them through.

Buy—with all the cash you can spare and with all you can pledge to save and be glad for the opportunity.

Letter from Miss Winingham
 Dijon, France
 April 8, 1919.

Dear Mrs. Hammer:
 I have been intending to drop you a few lines for quite awhile, but I have so many letters to write that I never seem to get around to it. You will see from the above that I am not in Paris now. I was loaned, with three or four others, to the Peace Commission, but we were so badly needed that the Red Cross recalled us. I was very glad to get away myself, for while the Peace Commission was interesting and we came in contact with some of the biggest men in the country, it was too much like the work I have done in Washington and I much prefer the Red Cross, especially the work outside of Paris, where one comes into close touch with the American boys. I am now secretary to our Red Cross district manager here in Dijon, which is one of our big distributing points. We have ten large warehouses here, filled to the tops with Red Cross supplies of every kind, which are going out all the time, so we have a pretty good idea of what the organization is really doing.

My aunt, Mrs. Steed, is also here engaged in recreation but work at the hospital, and she has certainly made herself much beloved by the boys. They all call her "Mother Steed." She found a boy in the hospital the other day from Asheboro so I went in to see him on Sunday and found him to be one of the Dugans, the son of Harvey Dugan, who lives about four miles north of Asheboro. He is convalescing from pneumonia and has been pretty sick, I imagine, but he is now doing nicely and I think is going to get all right. He is having good attention and the doctor who is looking after him is particularly good in cases of that kind. He says he hears from home regularly, but is rather worried because they do not seem to get his letters, so that is one reason I am writing to you, so you can communicate with his parents in some way, as I know they will be glad to hear. My aunt takes a great deal of interest in him and takes him some little dainties almost every day, I think.

Mamma sends me clippings from The Courier and it certainly seems as if Asheboro and Randolph had contributed their share to this war all right. Old Randolph always does her share, doesn't she?

This has certainly been a great experience for me and one I shall always look back on as the greatest thing I ever had the opportunity to do. I don't expect to come home before the end of the summer, unless something unforeseen comes up, as I am still needed and have promised to stay awhile longer, so I suppose by the time I get back all my war stories will be stale and there will be no one to listen to me.

Love to all your family as well as yourself.

Sincerely yours,
ALLIE M. WINNINGHAM,
 A. P. O. 721.

R. E. Patterson, Prominent Citizen of the County Died Last Friday

R. E. Patterson, for many years a prominent business man of Liberty, passed away Friday, May 2nd at noon at the age of 78 years. A little more than three weeks ago Mrs. Patterson died, since which time the husband has been in rapidly declining health. He was buried by her side in Fairview cemetery, Liberty, Saturday afternoon May 3rd, the service being conducted by Rev. Paul S. Kennett, of the Methodist Protestant church. Three children survive, C. Z. Patterson, of Jarrett, Pa.; R. E. Patterson, Jr., of Wilmington, and Mrs. T. R. Moffitt, Ramseur.

Mr. Patterson was one of the most substantial citizens of the county. There was no better man or citizen. For many years he was a traveling man.

He has been in poor health for several years and developed double pneumonia about two weeks ago and was unable to survive it.

A Hard Road for Violators of Liquor Laws

The war-time prohibition law which goes into effect and will be the law of the land until January 20, 1920, when prohibition will go into effect by amendment to the constitution of the United States.

The law going into effect July 1, requires manufacturers of stills to pay special tax of $50 in addition to $20 for each worm manufactured. Each manufacturer is required to notify the Collector of Internal Revenue in the district in which he lives the name of the purchaser, its capacity and the time it is to be removed or shipped to the consignee. The person making a mash is guilty of distilling and the penalty for violation of this is $500 nor more than $1,000, and imprisonment of not less than six months.

If a manufacturer or operator of a still (blockader) fails to list his still with the revenue department, he is subject to a penalty of $500, a fine of between $100 and $1,000 and imprisonment of between one month and two years.

TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

Perhaps one of the most successful commencements for many years ended at Trinity Tuesday night of last week. The fact that the teachers have had it doubly hard, owing to the change of management of the school beginning with the spring term, also the cutting down of the school term on short notice, makes us feel prouder of both the teachers and pupils and appreciate their efforts. The closing as the whole term was good.

The whole commencement was very good from the girls' recitation contest on Saturday night, including the "wee tote" on Monday night and the close game of ball with Asheboro on Monday afternoon, to the class day exercises on Tuesday night. The latter being the first of its kind for several years at Trinity. The commencement was pronounced a success by all who witnessed it.

The school management was fortunate in securing Mr. Frank Wood to take up the work of our beloved Prof. Johnson, who was forced to resign on account of ill health. Mr. Wood has carried on the work of his predecessor wonderfully well, and it is a joy to the Trinity people that Mr. Wood has been re-elected to carry on the work of the school for another year. We so hope that he accepts.

Mr. Wood and his corps of teachers have "filled the bill," and we are glad. It is believed that the people of Trinity township will stand more solidly behind the school than ever before. And Trinity high school is going to build up!

From Private Joseph W. Vickory to Mrs. L. W. Vickory, of Ramseur:
 Bessy La Pierre, France.
 March 18, 1919.

My Dearest Mother:
 Will write you a few lines tonight to let you know I am well and enjoying life. I received a letter from Frances a few days ago. I was glad to hear from you all.

I have just been back to the company a few days, was on a furlough for seven days. Went down in the southern part of France. Sure had a nice time and saw some beautiful scenery. There was only eight went from this company, Bob Lambert went with us, but we left him there in the hospital, with the mumps. He has had the mumps about six times since in France. The truth is, he has had them only one time, but he is so fat that the doctors will pick him up and tell him that he has the mumps and send him to the hospital. I tell him that he is lucky.

Well, Mamma, don't guess we will get home before August or September, but don't worry about me, I am having a good time. I don't have any drilling to do. I am orderly for two lieutenants. All I have to do is to make up their beds and shine their shoes and press their clothes.

Well, Mamma, you asked me if I was in a battle. I was never in a real battle. I was in the front trenches about fifteen days. The only battle we had there was at night. The Germans would come over to our lines and we would have a little fun. We only had four wounded on that front. I will tell you more about it when I get home. We went in the trenches again on the 3rd of November, near Verdun. The company went over the top November the 9th, but I was lucky enough to be left behind. I was left to take care of the lieutenants' clothes, but I was where I could see the battle.

Well Mamma, in regard to getting the dog for papa it will be impossible for me to get a pass to England. If I should be able to get a dog, I would not be allowed to take it on the boat with me. I will explain when I get home.

Say mamma, why don't you write more often and tell me all the news. Don't worry because I don't write more than I do. It is like this, I can't think of much to write that would interest you, but can tell you a let when I get home.

Say I heard Sam Hodgins was killed. Do you know whether he was or not? Are the Toomes boys in the army yet? Do you know anything about Jim Riley? You know he came across before I did. Did Lester Kimrey go back and also Dob Johnson? Well, I will close. Answer soon.

GREAT FRENCH SACRIFICE CALLS FOR WORLD'S GRATITUDE

The French have suffered and bled more than any other nation at war. Of her 36 million population, 6 million were placed in the trenches and have poured out their blood on the altar of Liberty. America will ever remember this heroic sacrifice. It is likewise not unkind of the great service to the world rendered by the French peasants who have given it a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal disorders, which is reported to have relieved incalculable suffering, saved thousands of lives and prevented innumerable surgical operations. Geo. H. Mayr, prominent Chicago chemist imports and sells it in this country under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which cause practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.

Sold by Standard Drug Companies and druggists everywhere.
