MORTE POUR FRANCE

Spring has come again and tender grass covers the battle-scarred earth. Nature, the sovereign patroness, has already begun her work of restoration—flowers blossom over the graves of fallen heroes. Soon May will bring the poppies, "between the crosses, row on row," little gray crosses, each with its aluminum identification tag—and those that mark the graves of the men who are buried in French cemeteries inscribed with the words "Morte Pour France."

Sixty thousand Americans lie asleep in France, "Morte Pour France"—surely no other sentence could tell the story half so well. "Dead for France."

Probably the best known poem of the war is one quoted below, "In Flanders Fields," breathing the fine spirit of sacrifice for an ideal, "America's Answer" stifled all fear that the sacrifice was in vain, and now when victory in battle is won comes "America's Consecration," pledging a victory of right.

"Be it our task to save,
"In memory of the life you gave,
"Those rights for which your blood was shed
"In Flanders Fields!"

This is our task, in memory of those sixty thousand dead, to insure the victory they won, else they have died for naught.

To every citizen of the United States belongs this opportunity, the last opportunity to measure up to the standard set by the boys. The greatest victory of all must be won now, and the shots that will bring it about will be made of dollars. Lend yours to our 'the-war. Buy Victory Liberty Loan bonds.

By Lt. Col. John D. McRae.

(Written during the second battle of Ypres, 1915. The author, Dr. John D. McRae, of Montreal, Can., was killed in Flanders, January 28, 1918)
In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch. Be yours to hold it high!
If you break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

AMERICA'S ANSWER

By R. W. Lillard

(Written after the death of Lieut. Col. McRae, author of "In Flanders Fields," and printed in the New York Evening Post)

Rest ye in peace, ye Flanders dead,
The fight that ye so bravely led
We've taken up. And we will keep
True faith with you who lie asleep,
With each a cross to mark his bed,
And poppies blooming overhead,
Where once his own life blood ran
red;
So let your rest be sweet and deep
In Flanders fields.

Fear not that ye have died for naught.
The torch ye threw to use we caught,
Ten million hands will hold it high,
And freedom's light shall never die!
We've learned the lesson that ye taught
In Flanders fields.

AMERICA'S CONSECRATION.

By Charles Hall Davis, Petersburg, Va.

(Written on December 16, 1918, after the armistice was signed and Germany defeated)

The poppies' blooms now mark in red
Your resting place, ye gallant dead,
In Flanders fields. And as they wave
Above each cross-marked, Allied grave,
And breathe their opiates overhead
To ease each narrow, earthen bed,
Where you now rest—your spirit led—
Sleep peacefully, ye warriors brave
In Flanders fields!

The cause that you so boldly led
With dauntless spirit, unafraid,
Is won. Be it our task to save,
In memory of the life you gave,
Those rights for which your blood was shed
In Flanders fields!

FARMERS' SUPPORT URGED

All the farmers in the United States are urged to support the Victory Liberty Loan by Oliver Wilson, master of National Grange, who characterizes the loan as "our great national responsibility." Mr. Wilson's appeal follows:

"For the fifth time the government is appealing to the people for financial aid. On the four previous occasions money was needed to win the war and people of all classes liberally responded. Now comes the call for a Victory Liberty Loan, a loan which, now that the fight is won, is necessary to aid in finishing the great task of assuring to all peoples liberty and democracy, that our struggles and sacrifices of the last few years may not have been made in vain.

"I desire to appeal to our entire grange membership and farmers generally to maintain the proud record we have made in the previous loans. Not only subscribe what you can but give the active promotion at your grange meetings and encourage neighbors and friends to do their part toward helping this our great national responsibility.

THE EXPLANATION

Nature placed the growth-promoting "vitamins" in the oil of the cod-fish—this explains why Scott's Emulsion is so definite in its help to a child of any age. Latter-day science reveals that the "vitamins" are needful for normal growth. Scott's Emulsion will help any child grow.
