CHICKEN THIEVES

Mr. Editor:

Please allow me space in your good paper to ask the farmers of this county to watch their henhouses for chicken thieves. A great many chickens have been stolen in this neighborhood during the last two weeks. Mr. J. P. Bailey lost seven nice hens and tracked the thieves to where they got in their car. Mr. D. B. Hinshaw had fifteen fine hens stolen; and Mrs. Hodges a widow woman, lost three. I have had six stolen that were worth a dollar apiece. I will give ten dollars for the arrest of the thief.

Watch your chickens and arrest thieves, but don't shoot unless it is for the good of your country. Work is easily had, and wages are higher than they have been known for 30 years. There is no excuse for men to steal.

A Business Getter

A REO "SPEED WAGON" is more than a mere adjunct to your business.

IT DOES MORE than merely supplant the old-time, slow, expensive, uncertain horse equipment.

IT DOES MORE than merely hold the trade you have.

IT IS A SALESMAN in its own way, for in these days when "time is the essence" of every contract, and the one big consideration in every transaction between men, the speedy service performed by this Reo brings the trade to you.

IT DOESN'T MATTER whether you are a farmer, or a truck gardener dealing in perishable articles; or a merchant—either wholesale or retail—competing for trade with alert rivals—

HOURS COUNT—yes and minutes!—and the difference between profit and loss frequently depends upon your delivery system.

HE WHO HAS the best delivery service—the quickest and the most dependable—has the call.

NOT SPEED ALONE—though its speed possibilities have proven its greatest advantage, hence the reason—

BUT RELIABILITY—that reliability that is Reo—

THESE QUALITIES have so thoroughly demonstrated themselves that our one problem is to obtain enough "Speed Wagons" to supply all those who want Reos.

FOR REMEMBER THIS: you can't always get a Reo on the minute. Demand is tremendous—always has been for Reos.

SO ONLY WAY is to place your order at once—then we can give you a definite delivery date.

BUT DON'T DELAY—there are not, can not be, enough Reos to go 'round.
