NEGROES PLOT TO MASSACRE RANDOLPH FAIR

THE WHITE POPULATION IN PHILLIPS COUNTY, ARKANSAS

Col. Young of Raleigh—Colored Gives The Negroes of North Carolina Sound Advice

Last Sunday in Phillips County, the negroes planned to wipe out the white population, when the investigators discovered over fifty thousand rounds of ammunition in the State Negro School at Pine Bluff. Facts relative to their intentions were discovered, which proved they had their courers instructed to sound the call to arms.

In other sections of the United States we find that the negroes are making efforts to raise up against the white population, but all of the negroes had better heed the words of Col. Young, colored Spanish-American war veteran. Let not only the negroes read and ponder over the words of Col. Young, but some few others. Col. Young can be compared with Booker T. Washington in his wisdom, and he insisted that negroes stand in racial friendship and co-operation.

Speaking directly to the colored soldiers in uniform, he said emphatically: "You soldiers don't deserve any special credit for fighting for the flag. It was your duty. I am an American citizen and when my flag is offended, it is my duty to defend it. We deserve no special credit for doing our duty."

"We don't want any such riots as those occurring at Omaha, Helena, Washington, and Chicago," he declared. "We don't want a single race riot in North Carolina. There's a few things we don't like for our race," he admitted, "but the leaders of the white people can say the same thing about their race," he said and he urged friendly adjustment of grievances. He likewise urged the colored men and women to stay on their side of the line in social matters, and to co-operate with them in business stating that the white men of the state are willing to assist them in building homes and bettering their economic conditions.

The fair is open to all people residing in the county and we earnestly hope that any one who has anything they would like to exhibit would write the secretary, Mr. H. T. Smith, Ramseur, or D. S. Coltrane, Asheboro. Mr. Smith can be seen at the Bank of Ramseur any day and Mr. Coltrane is always in the office on Saturday. We hope to make this a real fair but it is simply up to the people to make it what they will. Don't you go to the fair to see what the other fellow took but you take something yourself.

RED CROSS CHRISTMAS ROLL CALL NOVEMBER 2 TO 11

The National Red Cross Headquarters has set aside November 2 to 11 as roll call week. The Randolph County Chapter of the Red Cross has enrolled a nice membership. Each Auxiliary is asked to make a special campaign enlisting members during roll call week. One of the great benefits Randolph County is receiving from the Red Cross is the Red Cross nurse, Mrs. Mildred Hargrave, who is working under the auspices of the Randolph Red Cross and her work has been recorded at different times. Through the Home Service Department of which Mrs. S. L. Hayworth is chairman, much good has been done at very little expense. A part of the membership fees are used in this county for carrying on these phases of the work which pertain to the uplift and welfare of humanity. Many of the returned soldiers and their families have been aided and will be from time to time.

He was a Christian gentleman of the old type and life and strength of character have been a benediction to those with whom he came in contact. In early life he was married to Miss Sugg, a sister of Mr. L. O. Sugg of Erect. To this union three children were born; Messrs. T. H. and C. M. Tysor of Erect and Mrs. Cora Wrenn. Mr. Tysor was a Confederate veteran. He lost one arm in the Civil war and has gone through life carrying this badge of honor which serves as a token of the splendid service rendered to his fellow man during the war. He was a Mason in good standing and was buried with Masonic honors at Mt. Olivet on Tuesday. He was a member of the Camp of Confederate Veterans of Randolph county and has been faithful member of the Mount Olivet Methodist Episcopal church since early mahood. The principal item of business transacted was planning for the Chrysanthemum Show, which will be held November 7. ## ASHEBORO TO HAVE AMERICAN LEGION POST

The member ship campaign for the American Legion is on throughout the country. North Carolina's part is 18,000 members. It is planned to organize at least one post in each county. All World War veterans are eligible who served either at home or abroad in the Army or Navy of the United States at any time between the declaration of war and the armistice.

The Legion is non-partisan. It knows no politics but it will have policies. It has already gone on record against the alien slacker becoming a citizen of the United States. It is now fighting for a law to pay the wounded and crippled of the national Guard and National Army the same allowances received by the Regular Army. It stands for pure Americanism. It proposes also to help ex-service men in straightening out their allotment, their war insurance and other matters. The insignia of the Legion is an attractive Victory button, with the words "American Legion" in gold.

Call on Hal W. Walker, Asheboro, N. C.
