NUMBER 42

VOLUME XXXXIV

Asheboro, North Carolina, Thursday, October 16, 1919

ASHEBORO STREETS TO BE ASPHALTED

Work will begin by the 1st of November, asphalting the streets of the city, by the Adams Evans Co., of New York City. This company has been for the past few weeks asphalting the streets of Thomasville, N. C. and they have the streets of Thomasville near completion, and will just as soon as they finish the work there, they will move to Asheboro, and commemnce work at once. They probably will reach Asheboro before November 1, but not later than that time.

MISS BLANCHE LUCILLE COX AND MR. JAMES OSCAR WALK-ER MARRIED LAST NIGHT AT SEVEN O'CLOCK.

One of the most brilliant weddings of the season was solemnized at the home of Mrs. O. R. Cox, Wednesday night at 7 o'clock, when her daughter, Blanche Lucille, became the bride of James Oscar Walker.

The entire first floor opened en suite and was heavitedly departed.

thing of the past. It is gratifying to the people of Asheboro and Randolph County, as a whole, to see that the town of Asheboro and respectively. boro is progressing so rapidly. We not only have let a contract for asphalting all the principal streets of the town, but have actually built, or have in the corse of construction nine different handsome residences. Quite a number of residences are to be built within the near future. The town is planning to increase the electric plant

The old Courier office has been sold and moved, and a modern two story brick building will be erected in the near future.

We are exceedingly glad to obeserve these different signs of progress, and and carrying a bouquet of roses. candidly believe that within the next five or six years, the population of Asheboro will double, what it is at present.

Ramseur News

A large crowd heard the great sermons of Evangelist Raymond Browning Sunday.

S. A. Caveness and family and E. H Marley of Greensboro were visitors here Sunday.

Mrs. J. P. Baldwin is visiting at San ford and Jonesboro this week. V. C. Marley and W. E. Free made a business trip to Sanford and Varina last week. We were to see a number of our Siler City friends here Sunday attending the revival. Lots of Ramseur folks attended th

Fair at Greensboro this week. Mrs. B. B. Bulla left Tuesday morning for Columbus Ohio with her mother Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor who lives there. Mrs. Taylor has been spending some time here with her daughter.

News From Old Trinity

Mis Blanch Farlow spent last Saturday in town the guest of Mrs. Parke the High School. Walter Crowson is out home for a few days.

meeting passed Quarterly Rev. Mr. Barnhardt the presiding elder was present.

Miss Malissa Welborn and Lula Marsh have positions in High Point. They go up every morning. Jim White came home from Gold Hill Sunday evening. Miss Lura Royals is no better at this writting.

We had a fine rain Sunday night. It was too late for fall gardens, they are dried up and dead.

Point.

A large number attended the corn husking at Mr. Cyrus Davis' Saturday night. All report a nice time.

Miss Ethel Cox, of Trrinity, spent the week end at home.

Mr. Frank Davis and Miss Nanie Davis attended the singing at Union Sunday.

Several attended the funeral of Mrs. Ada Frazier Swaim at Union Monday. The beroaved have our sympathy.

DIED IN ASHEBORO

W. B. Lassiter died at his home Wednesday morning at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. Lassiter had been in poor health for some time, but not until two weeks ago did his friends realize that his condition was serious. Since that time he gradually grew worse. Mr. Lassiter was a good man of industrious habits, was one of those men who could always be found on the side of right. He was a consistent member of the M. E. church, in Asheburo.

ASHEBORO SCENE OF A PRETTY HOME WEDDING

The entire first floor opened en suite The writer is sure that every one in the city is looking forward to the time, when the streets will be black on the top, and the dust and mud will be a

The yows were spoken amig a scene gates ajar, on either side of which were tail white cones of stately chrysanthemums and palms. Prior to the wedding Miss Alta Pickett, of High Point, accompanied by hiss Lucy Hadley, of Mt. Airy, at the piano, im-pressively sang, "All For You."

Then to the strains of the stately march from Lohengrin, Miss Ruth so that they can not only furnish cur-so that they can not only furnish cur-rent for eluminary purposes, but for descended the stairs which were en-motorpower as well. Plans are being twined with smilax. Following came perfected at present to organize and Miss Pansy Wimbish, of Winston-Sa-establish in Asheboro another hosiery lem. The bridesmaids were dresses of lem. The bridesmaids wore dresses of silver cloth and pink tulle and carried bouquets of Russell roses.

Next came the dame of honor, Mrs. T. V. Rochelle of High Point sister of the bride, wearing her wedding gown of white taffeta embroidered in silver

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of duchess satin, trimmed with real lace, her train being embroidered in pearls. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms. She ascended the stairs with her brother J. Clyde Cox, of High Point, carying a shower bouquet of bride's roses and vailey lilies, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Hal W. Walker The impressive ring ceremony was used, Rev. C. L. Whitaker officiating, assisted by Rev. Ira Erwin, during which the piano was softly played.

The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. O. R. Cox and is a graduate of Salem College. Mr. Walker is a son of the late Dr. J. O. Walker, and a grandson of Col. and Mrs. J. E. Walker, of Asheboro. He is a successful young business man, being prominently connected with the New York Life Insurance Company.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held. The bridal party headed by the mother of the Mess Farlow taught here last year in table decoration was an enormous basket of Russell roses, showered from which were pink bonbon dishes hold-church. ing mints. A delicious ice course was plesantly last Saturday and Sunday, served by Misses Lillie Philips, Alice Black and H. S. Edwards spent Satur Planning to take the multi-Burkhead, Ethel Cox, Virginia and Frances Barker, Sarah Carson and Virginia Redding. From here the guests were directed across the hall to the gift room where Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wood were receiving. The guests then passed into the punch room where they were served by Miss Adelaide Armfield and Charles McCrary. Miss Catherine Burns then bid the and Eastern Star home at Greensboro guests good night.

Sophia Route I News

The drouth has been broken by the recent rains.

Mr. R. L. Allred filled his regular appointment at High Point Sunday.

Mr. James C. Davis spent the week end with home folks.

A large crowd attended the closing exercises of Union Singing Sunday.

Misses Althes Farlow and Cora Edwards spent one day recently in High Point.

A large crowd attended the closing exercises of Union Singing Sunday.

Misses Althes Farlow and Cora Edwards spent one day recently in High Point.

Brown-Williams

A large number attended the corn husking at Mr. Cyrus Davis' Saturday night. All report a nice time.

Miss Ethel Cox, of Trrinity, spent the week end at home.

Mr. Frank Davis and Miss Nanie Davis attended the singing at Union Sunday.

Mariboro school will open October 26 with Mr. Bryan Cox as principal and Mrs. Dora Davis as assistant.

Mr. Thomas Connor raised 90 gallons of molasses on one-third of an acre of land.

Several attended the funeral of Mrs. Ada Frazier Swaim at Union Monday. throve on to Mr. John Brown's, of Kemp's Mills, the father of the bride, where another feast was awaiting

> The bride is a cultured young lady of many graces of mind and person, and numbers her friends by the score, and has successfully taught several schools in the county and now holds a prominent position with the Gilmer Brothers Company, of Greensboro. Mr. Williams is a painter by trade. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

Three Naval Men Killed

Thursday of last week, three naval viators were instantly killed near ensacola. Fla., when an H. S. type ying buggy turned turtle and fell ver 500 feet in the bay. The men tere Charles E. Seibold, of Pensacola,

AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

Hunger, disease and exposure were not all that Belgian children were subjected to, for enemy shells constantly droppd into what little of their country the invader did not hold. In this picture Red Cross nurses are seen taking some of the fifty babies from the American Red Cross pursery at La Panne into a bomb-proof structure as the Germans opened are from the sea.

Franklinville News

A special feature of Franklinville Baptist Sunday School last Sunday, was a state massionary entertainment and wearing apparel profiteering which consisted of songs, recitations, and wearing apparel profiteering. and an address by the paster, Rev. The Attorney General has called a Rivanbark, the program was interesting and instructive. There was 201 cost of living under advisement hearly students present and the collection three months ago, and the meeting amounted to $165.00, including col- held Monday of this week after relection from missionery society son 25 view of the programs and better re-day at Greensboro.

the Moffitt place.

Buie and family visited the Masonic New York state officials. last Sunday and were much impressed with the beautiful home for the aged and infirm members of the orders,

S. O. Pugh has moved from his fa-roundings.

ther's farm to Ramseur. John McDaniel last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Liles and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Liles, of Ether, spent some time in town last week.

DEATH OF MYRTLE A. BROWER

Myrtle Annie Brower, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Browher face for every one, and was all brought suit for divorce. A motion the time ready to do what she could for alimony will be heard before for her parents. She leaves her father Judge Bryson tomorrow.

J. M. Rhodes has accepted the man-

Our prayer is that all may be boun-

Campaigning Against Profiteering To Be Continued

amounted to $165.00, including collection from missionary society $30.25 and sunbeams $8.40. The school has a mittee, which was said to be very gratigood attendance and is doing splendid Tying, considering that none of the work. Mr. H. E. Edwards is superintendent and is a good worker.

Several of our people went to Ramseur Sunday evening to hear Pay Ma. Several of our people went to kam-seur Sunday evening to hear Rev. Mr. conference discussed new steps to be seur Sunday evening to hear Rev. Mr. taken when the 'real campaign' of the Browning's sermon to men only taken when the real campaign of the government is started. Officials decline Chas. Cox and family, of Revolution to indicate what they had in mind, but Cotton Mills, were in town Sunday. it is known that Attorney General Pal-Mrs. Hugh Parks gave an enta tain- mer is prepared to proceed vigorously ment Saturday evening at his some in a number of individual cases, involve to the members of the Ladies' Aid ing both foodstuff and clothing as soon Society. Ice cream and cake was serv- as the food control law amendment to Each member carried a chicken include the latter and provide a crimiwhich was sold for the benefit of the nal penalty for violations, becomes a society. About twenty dollars was law. The amendment has been passed realized. This society is composed of by both houses of Congress.

some of the best and most enthusias- Another conference is to be held late lic workers. They expect in the near in the week, probably Thursday or Fribride, formed the receiving line. The future to cover the aisles of the M. day, at which time Secretaries Baker gusts were directed to the dining E. church with matting or carpet. room by Miss Frances Walker and Mr. We have with us this week Mrs. to advise concerning the release of sur-r. Charles Bradford, of Fayetteville. The Hargraves, who will examine the plus foodstuffs still held by the milischool children at the academy and tary departements of the government. lecture at night to emergency class Secretary Baker today cancelled inthe chandilier with pink tulle, around at the Baraca room of the M. E. stuctions for the distribution of sugar held by the army,learning that the Misses Thelma Steele and Mattie supply was available for only two and > Planning to take the public into his Mr. M. D. Strider has moved into the cost of living, Attorney General confidence concerning action against his home on Academy street, known as Palmer will make a numbr of trips Into adjoining states, beginning the lat-Mr. J. L. Phillips, of Sanford, was ter part of this month. It was said a visitor in town one day last week. the trips would be similar to his jour-J. H. Fentress and family and J. T. ney to Albany for conference with

Mrs. B. F. Brown of Erect Dead

Tn last Wendesday morning, October 15, 1919, the "Death Angel" came their wives, daughters, mothers and and took from the people, of Erect, sisters, who all speak in the highest North Carolina, one of their best and terms of their treatment and sur-most useful women. Mrs. B. F. Brown. most useful women, Mrs. B. F. Brown. Mrs. Brown had lived her three score H. Teague, at Hocman, last week, rehave to suffer the pains of sickness but turning home Monday. pectedly to her friends and kindred. She was a devout christian, a constant Mr. McDaniel, of Burlington, visited wife, and a true sincre, loving mother. She leaves to mourn her absence husband ten children, one sister and four brothers. May God's blessing be and abide with the ones she leaves behind. (By report)

Mr. Parker R. Anderson has the Wilmington Dispatch to Mr. R. S.

agement of the Greensboro Hotel, on sistes to mourn her loss. May God's agement of the Greensboro Hotel, on sistes to mourn her loss. May God's agement of the Greensboro Hotel, on bountiful blessings go with them all, on 602 South Elm Street, Mr. Rhodes — A FRIEND. Gallery President of Littleton

Card of Thanks

College.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner, the former State Superintendent of Schools decided after he retired from his office, that columns of The Courier our sincere there was more money to be made and heartfelt thanks to our many farming, than in teaching, cleared up friends and neighbors for their help one of his 1,000 acre farms, in Lenoir and kindness shown us during the ill-county, and during the past summer, ness and death of our best friend, with the help of tenants, and form companion and mother.

Our prayer is that all may be boundfully blessed with the many good hings of life.

S. C. CRANFORD and Children.

Louisana Sugar Short

There will be ever 145,512 tons of augar minus this year compared with mat, according to the reports of the control of the country have excelled the first estimation, and especially corn, which has gone 43,000,000 bushels over the forecast. The last report from the Department of Agriculture forecasts a risid of corn.

The last correts ship launched on the country have excelled the first estimation, and especially corn, which has gone 43,000,000 bushels over the forecast a risid of corn.

The last correts ship launched on the country have excelled the first estimation, and especially corn, which has gone 43,000,000 bushels over the forecast a risid of corn.

The last correts ship launched on the country have excelled the first estimation, and especially corn, which has gone 43,000,000 bushels over the forecast a risid of corn.

The last correts ship launched on the country have excelled the first estimation, and especially corn, which has gone 43,000,000 bushels over the forecast a risid of corn.

The last correts ship launched on the country have excelled the first estimation, and especially corn, which has gone 43,000,000 bushels over the forecast a risid of corn.

The last report from the Department of Agriculture forecasts a risid of corn.

The last correts ship launched on the country have excelled the first estimation, and especially corn.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS IN ANNUAL REUNION

PEOPLE OF ATLANTA CHEER AND WEEP AS THE MEN IN GRAY MARCH THROUGH THE

Remains of Lee's Immortal Army, Eight Thousand Strong Parade-Some in Civilian Clothes and Some in Uniforms

The Confederate veterans reunion of 1919, which was held in Atlanta, Ga., came to a close Friday night, Oct. 10, with a grand ball at the auditorium armory, but the principal features of the occasion was the old soldiers parad-marched Friday, was little more than 100 feet in length. The first floor on 8,000 strong, some in uniform of the old Confederate gray, and others in grocery store, while the first floor on civillian clothes. The streets, gaily Depot Street will be used for a cafe by decorated for the occasion, were literally crowded with spectators who Chisolm, both of whom were members cheered and wept and laughed as the of Co. K, who returned from overseas heroes of the sixties passed many of last spring. This building is placed on followed in the wake of the various building, with a second story office in divisions, but few of those who started out to march would accept a ride even by Mr. J. W. Wolff, and the other by though overcome. Here and there vet Mr. Presnell from Mr. E. G. Morris, erans dropped out of line and rested real estate dealer, who acquired the on the curb; then joined the next division that came along

The parade took nearly two hours to pass the reviewing stand, the old soldiers themselves being almost outnumbered by their escorts of honor, and members of bands that accompanied them. The bands and the machine gun battalion of the Fifth division of regulars, stationed at Camp Gordon, was one of the escorts. Local military schools sent their cadets and various civic and fraternal organizations also building will be the front columns were in the line. There were also a pillars made of negro head rocks. few representatives of Confederate navy, headed by Admiral Wright, of

Jacksonville, Fla. General K. M. Van Sandt, command-er-in-chief of the veterans, headed the parade, accompanied by Brigadier General Lewis, commandant at Camp Gordon. As a token of esteem for the veterans the regulars on suggestion of their officers, saluted the Confederate flags, especially the score or more of builet torn battle flags that were brought forth again and carried at the head of companies.

Gaily decorated automobiles bearthe former Contederate states, and from others where the United Daughters of the Confederacy were represented, added a touch of color and represented as was West Virginia, color bearer holding up a frame from which floated small banners typifying every nation that went to war, with the central powers.

At the head of the Gate City Guard of Atlanta, marched two young girls dressed in the hoop skirts, and pantalettes of the antebellum days.

Two contingents of veterans, "comany A," from Memphis, and a Nashville company, were fully equipped, carrying their rifles, with the old time bayonets fixed.

The scene was not entirely military, for the yeterans yielded to the spirit of the day and shouted and threw kisses at pretty girls. Others stopped to dance jigs to show that they were not as old as they might seem Every one among them seemed to be having the most enjoyable time of his life.

A BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN

day wishes were written and read. Several other amusements were participated in by the ones present, but the principal feature of the occasion was a nation contest, in which Ben of corn. Bulla won the prize, it being a box of The in stationery. Next the guests were invitdaugnter of Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Browler, was born January 30, 1914, and devote his entire time to the Greenstele of Last fully arranged, so as to carry out the pink and white color scheme.

Was loved by all who she came in contact with. She always had a smile on her face for a few forces. The manufacture of the color scheme of E. W. Cates, of Thomasville, has the color scheme of E. W. Cates, of Thomasville, has the color scheme of E. W. Cates, of Thomasville, has the color scheme of E. W. Cates, of Thomasville, has the color scheme of E. W. Cates, of Thomasville, has the color scheme of E. W. Cates, of Thomasville, has the color scheme of E. W. Cates, of Thomasville, has the cate of the color of the color of the cate present were Misses Jessie Wood, Edna Cavenss, Wilma Russell, Ade-laide Armfield, Mary Loflin, Janie Wood, Maie Pressnell, Vivian Cranford, Elyer Richardson, Golda worth, Nan Lewis, Poss. Kennedf, Alberta Ingram, Fay Ingram, Elizabeth Skeen, Nina Hilliard, Mattie Hughes, Ethel Johnson and Lucile Caveness, Alexander Burns, Nolan Allen, Charles McCrary, John Birkhead, Wilmer Pres-nell, Neely Hunter, Robert Jones, Mack Ridge, Gorrell Sugg, Herman Burrow, Shelton Birkhead, Britt Green, Fred Fuing, Kenneth Badgett, Vernon Johnson and John Hadley.

DISORDERS IN BALTIC STATES

Allies Blockade German Ports
The allies ordered a blockade of the German ports, and not permit food to be imported, because the German troops emphatically refused to leave the Baltic regions. The total number wint of German soldiers in the region of the Haltic States is estimated to be identification.

MANY BUILDINGS GOING UP IN ASHEBORO

Material is being placed on the old courthouse lot for the erection of a dwelling by Mr. Clyde Hendricks.
Mr. J. A. Spence will soon begin the erection of a building on the lot east of the Presbyterian church. It will be built of tiling. Mr. Kemp Alexander's new home on Sunset Avenue is nearing completion The Alamance Real Estate Com-pany's new building on South Fayetteville street will soon be completed.

A new house is being erected by W. F. Redding on a let near his home. Mr. J. M. Caviness has completed ing the streets, in their annual parade. a new two story brick building extend-The remnant of Lee's armies that ing from Depot Street to Trade Street

Trade street will be used for a the for the last time.

Boy scouts carried water for the old to Mr. Caveness. The two lots are to oldiers and the Red Cross ambulances have erected on them a modern store it. One of these lots was purchased property from Mr. Hammer. Mr. Presnell recently sold his lot to Mr. Allen and Mr. Cox.

The new dwelling of Mr. Joe Ross on Worth Street has been completed, while the residence of Mr. John K. Wood will soon be completed.

Mr. Calvin Ferree is remodeling the old B. F. Newby residence, which he recently bought.

Mr. Millard Allred is building a modern bungalow. The novelty of the building will be the front columns and Mr. A. E. Burns is building an addition to one of his houses in north Asheboro. Mr. Walter Bunch also has a handome new residence near completion. The handsome bungalow of Mr. T. Lassiter will soon be completed.

ENTERTAINMENT AT TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL

An enjoyable entertainment was given at Trinity High School on last inursday night. The auditorium was beautifully decorated with autumn ing maids and sponsors from each of leaves and paper lanterns. The gueses were met at the door by Misses Berta Welborn and Cornelia Cottrane. Miss Ina Bulta and Nerius English won the prizes in the interesting puzzle which life to the occasion. California was was a part of the program. The prizes were cod liver pills. After this Grace Colorado and others. The cars flew Swiggett passed a tray laden with ne stars and stripes and the stars many odd articles among the guests. and bars together and many veterans Each person began to write the names carried both flags. Flags of the allied of as many articles as they rememnations were also represented. One bered on the tray, and Miss Carrie company of veterans was headed by a Erwin, of Asheboro, and Mr. Joseph Reddick had the largest list.

There were two strings hanging with red and white ears of corn, cut from cardboard. On the red ones were fortunes written for the boys. Each boy was given trials to hit one of the red ears with a rubber ball. On the strings with the white ears was one red ear which was the lucky number. The girls were blindfolded and threw for their ears also.

'After every one had won an ear of corn the president of the class, Henry Kersey, had the boys and girls to read their fortunes. The prizes for the fortunate boy and girl winning the lucky number were two small kittens. These were won by Miss Dorothy Wood and Hugh Phillips.

The girls of the class passed red and white trays, laden with appetiz-ing sandwiches. Following this the on Monday night of last week the boys passed trays of delicious grapes. Triends of Miss Ruth Hadley gathered at her home and gave he a birthday party honoring her 16th birthday. After the guests had assembled, birthday wishes were written and triedles. A prize was also given to est girl. The prizes were presented to Professor Wood and Miss Erwin. The prizes were red and white candy ears

The invited guests were: Miss Erwin, Miss Brunson, Miss Starnes, Miss Parkin, Miss Chandler, Dorothy Wood, Ellaouise Johnson, Beatrice Hunt, Lucile Hanner, Ina Bulla, Lastie Cagle, Melissa Welborn, Ruth Swiggett, Frances Wood, Sadie Residick, and Nellie White, Frank Wood, Joe Reddick, Hugh Phillips, Hamer Coltrane. Charlie Croker, Joe Wel-Coltrane, Charlie Croker, Joe Wel-born, Tom English, Frank Wood, Ne-rius English, Clifford Cagle, Ralph Marsh, Roy Burge, Clifton Davis, Doak Marsh and Euclid Omen.

The members of the senior class are: Misses Cornelia Coltrane, Berta Wel-Peg Leach, Grace Johnson and Eunice Miller, Henry Kersey, Roy Welborn, and Paul Swiggett.

Mr. Charles Thomas, of Thomasville, Gets Tar on His Hous

Mr. Charles Thomas painted the ton Mr. Charles Thomas painted the top of his front fence with a mixture of tar on the night before Everybody's Day, and placed a sign, "Fresh Paint" on trees inside his yard. This was to keep people from leaning or sitting of his fence. Unknown persons smeared a mixture of the same kind on the windows of Mr. Thomas' drug storm, and threw coal and stones at his residence, breaking many of the window panes.