Prominent Educator Believes That Vapomentha Is a Sure Preventive

Dr. R. M. Brame, discoverer of Brame's Vapomentha Salve, has a letter from C. C. Wright, Superintendent of the Wilkes County, N. C., Public Schools, in which he says: "We have used Brame's Vapomentha Salve for nearly all the ills for which it is prescribed and have always secured satisfactory results. If used in time it has never failed to break up colds, usually the forerunner of Grippe, Influenza and Pneumonia. . . . I speak from personal observation. I believe if this preparation is used in time it will prevent the development of pneumonia in every instance, if used according to directions."

These strong statements are fully justified by the remarkable recoveries that follow. Brame's Vapomentha Salve is applied freely over the chest and throat and inserted in each nostril. Brame's Vapomentha Salve penetrates the pores of the skin, relieving congestion, at the same time beating vapors arise and are breathed through the mouth and nose, loosening the phlegm and causing the patient to breathe freely. Its absolute reliability is evidenced by dozens of unsolicited testimonials. Brame's Vapomentha Salve will relieve pneumonia, influenza, grippe, pleurisy, bronchitis, whooping cough, catarrh, asthma, tonsillitis, hay fever and inflammation of the skin.

Vapomentha is applied externally, and it will not stain the clothes as other salves do. No home should ever be without it. Buy it from your druggist or direct from the Brame Drug Company, North Wilkesboro, N. C. A small bottle costs 30c.; a much larger one, containing six times as much, $1.20.—Adv.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT PLEASANT HILL

On last Sunday, October 12, there was conducted at Pleasant Hill church, Randolph county, a service in memory of Lieutenant Dalton E. Smith, who was killed in France, during the fight at the Hindenburg line. The service was conducted by the pastor in charge, Rev. T. B. Johnson, who preached an able sermon on the subject of "Service and Sacrifice." The music, which was made by a quartet from Thomasville; was very inspiring and beautiful.

After the sermon, United States Attorney Wm. C. Hammer, of Asheboro, who happened to be in the audience, was called and he made a very able and enthusiastic address. He laid stress upon the patriotism of young Smith and others who made the supreme sacrifice, that we might live in a land free from the rule of tyrants and Kings. Hammer emphasized the truth, that we can not do too much in honoring the memory of those dear boys who answered the roll call on the other side of the sea. The great war with all its dark clouds shook this old earth and threatened to take from us those long Christian liberties of a free Christian people. He urged upon his hearers that the war was now over, that we should all endeavor to aid the establishment of everlasting peace. That the honors of peace are no less renowned than those of war. That while our boys had favored and covered thousands with glory and brought lasting fame to our country, that we should see to it that the message of good will and harmony linger with us.

Biography
Lieutenant Dalton Edward Smith, a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith, was born July 11, 1895, and died October 1, 1918. Age 23 years, two months and 20 days. When a school boy he was popular and admired for his virtues and pleasant companionship. He was good natured, good hearted, cheerful, lively, liked fun and amusement on the play ground, but when study hours came he applied himself closely to his books and made rapid progress in them. He seemed ambitious in the school room and tried to master whatever he undertook. He was a boy of fine character and made friends wherever he went. At the age of sixteen he professed religion and joined the church at Pleasant Hill and continued a member until death.

Dalton entered school at Guilford College in the year 1916. While at college he was highly respected for his many excellent qualities by both the faculty and students. He early became leader in the student body and was very popular.

He left his studies at college and enlisted with the engineer corps at Greensboro, April 10, 1917. He went from there to Camp Sevier and was discharged from the engineering corps. From there he went to Camp Stanley, Texas, and was promoted to second lieutenant, from there back to Camp Sevier and on the 20th of April he sailed for France.

Lieutenant Smith was said to be a fine officer and a gentleman and his men thought a great deal of him, he was a gallant officer and it is said he knew no fear. On Sunday morning, September 29th, that awful bloody day, Lieutenant Smith, like others, led his men into the fight on the Hindenburg line and at 5:50 a. m. he was struck by a shell and fell on the battlefield mortally wounded and was carried to the casualty station and died October 1, 1918. His remains now lie beneath the sunny skies of France. Honor to his name and peace to his soul.

It is simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis.
