

THE COURIER

TELEPHONE NUMBER 5

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Asheboro, N. C., October 30, 1919

Mrs. Walter Routh, of Randleman Route 3, is undergoing treatment in the Randleman Hospital, and is improving rapidly.

Miss Clara L. Cox, of High Point, North Carolina, spent Thursday of last week in the city, attending the Missionary Conference of the Friends Churches of Randolph county.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McGee, of Trinity Route 1, a son. Mr. Troy Redding, of Caraway, was in the city one day last week on business.

The material has arrived to asphalt the streets of the city with.

Mr. Z. V. Caviness and son, Wade, of Coleridge, were business visitors in the city Saturday of last week.

Mr. Sidney Wood, who is attending the A. E. College at Raleigh, was a week end visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker returned Friday of last week from their bridal tour to Washington and other Northern cities.

Mr. Bryan Cox, of Seagrove, was a business visitor in the city Saturday of last week. Mr. Cox is principal of Seagrove Graded School.

Mr. Clyde Cox, of Greensboro, was a week end visitor in the city last week.

Mr. E. O. York has recently moved his family from Central Falls to Asheboro.

Mr. Roy Cox, of Thomasville, North Carolina was a week end visitor in the city.

Miss Studie Brown attended the State Fair, which was held at Raleigh, the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Charlie Styres, accompanied by her daughter Mrs. Glenn Hendricks visited their son and brother in Raleigh the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Steed visited their son Lewis on Trinity Route One, the latter part of the week, returning home Sunday afternoon. Mr. Steed has closed out all his property in New Market Township, selling his plantation to Mr. Walter Farlow.

Mr. W. S. Crowson, of Asheboro Route was in the city one day last week.

Mr. Lewis N. Steed, and wife moved to the city last Tuesday, where they will make their future home.

Rev. W. J. Edwards, of Coleridge passed through the city last Monday, returning from his appointment in Randleman.

Mr. W. H. Mann, of Chatam County was a business visitor in the city last Monday. Mr. Mann is a very successful farmer of Chatam county.

Mr. Earl White, of Glenola, was a business visitor in the city last Monday.

Mr. Graham D. Monroe, of Lillington, sent his subscription to The Courier, for one year, and says that this is the only way that he can obtain news from Randolph county. Mr. Monroe is a former citizen of Randolph and was a member of Company K, and has many friends in this county.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Brady, 810 West Green Street, High Point, twin daughters.

The meeting which has been in progress at Level Cross, under the directions of Bro. Doiser, the pastor and Rev. Millaway doing the preaching through the week. The meeting was good, with several conversions.

The new church at Level Cross will be completed in the near future.

The New Salem church has a new coat of paint, recently and the same adds much to the beauty of the church.

There was a special dinner held at Tom Marley's, of Level Cross in honor of Arthur Marley, who recently returned from over seas.

Mr. Walter Farlow, of Edgar was in the city Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redding and Mrs. J. W. Black of Asheboro were visitors in Ramseur last Sunday.

Mr. Rufus Brady, of Coleridge was a business visitor in the city last Tuesday.

We regret very much to give up our pastor of the M. E. church. Rev. Ira Irwin.

The meeting at the Friend's church, which has been in progress for the past two weeks, closed Monday night. We are proud to note the good which has been accomplished during the series of this meeting.

Mr. Irvin Cox, of Worthville, was a visitor in the city the early part of this week.

Rev. S. M. Rankin, of Greensboro, preached for the Presbyterian congregation last Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

Miss May McAlister returned the last of the week from a visit to relatives in Greensboro.

Miss Mildred Hargraves will be at the Ramseur fair next Friday and Saturday and examine the babies of the county.

Mrs. C. T. Luck, of Seagrove Route 2, was in Asheboro Tuesday.

Miss Pearl Russell was in Asheboro Tuesday on her way to Spero, where she is teaching. Miss Russell had attended the marriage of her brother, Mr. Ernest G. Russell, to Miss Maggie Cagle, at Seagrove.

Mr. Robert Saunders, who has been at Montrose for the past few months, has returned to his home at Seagrove Route 2.

Mrs. C. B. Griffin spent Monday in High Point.

Mrs. Sparger left the latter part of last week for High Point, where she will undergo treatment in the High Point hospital.

Mrs. J. T. Bostick has returned to her home in Sanford after visiting Mrs. J. C. Hannah.

Mr. J. M. Scarboro, of Greensboro, was a business visitor in the city last Tuesday.

Miss Julia Thorns left Tuesday for Charlotte to accept a position there. Sergeant E. A. Russell, of the first division, Company L, 18th Infantry, is at home on a furlough. He spent last Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. J. C. Hannah.

A number of Asheboro people attended the conference at Greensboro last Sunday and heard Bishop Darrington and Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels.

Misses Flossie and Florence Marley and Mrs. Bertha Pool, of Franklinville, were in Asheboro Saturday. Mrs. J. E. Carson left Saturday for Greensboro where she will be joined by Mr. Carson and from there they will go to Fayetteville for a ten days visit to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McAlister.

Miss Irma Whitfield left yesterday for her home in Lumberton. Miss Whitfield has accepted a position with the register of deeds of Robeson county.

Mrs. Henry Robins and little Margaret Erwin have returned from a visit to Kock Hill and Darlington, S. C. Mrs. Allie Worth, who has been visiting relatives in Asheboro, left yesterday for her home in Durham.

Rev. G. R. Underwood preached his farewell sermon to the Christian congregation on last Sunday morning.

Mr. John K. Wood's bungalow on Worth Street is nearing completion.

Mr. Roy Newsome, who has been conducting the signing at the Friends meeting, left Monday for Pilot Mountain where he will conduct the singing in an evangelistic meeting.

Major Leonard James and his brother, of Lexington, were in Asheboro Monday on their way to Ramseur, where they went to make arrangements for some of the free attractions at the Ramseur fair.

Miss Mamie Russell has returned to her home in Troy after visiting friends in Salisbury last week.

Miss Clarice Albright, accompanied by Miss Virginia Eskridge, passed through Asheboro Friday on their way home to spend the week end. They returned Monday to Elon College.

Miss Lucile Scarboro, who is teaching in the Troy graded school, spent the week end at home.

Mrs. T. G. Bonkemeyer is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Burrow, at Troy, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Walker have returned from their bridal trip and are at home with Mrs. O. R. Cox.

The women all over the country are forming organizations against purchasing any clothing and unnecessary food until prices are reduced. One of the church societies in Atlanta, Ga., has adopted resolutions to this effect and the women belonging to this organization are adhering to it.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Lassiter have moved into their new home on Cedar Avenue, formerly called Academy St.

Mr. J. W. Cornelison, of Montgomery county, who for several years lived in Salisbury, went to California several years ago and has returned and expects to locate in some business in Troy.

Miss Annie Yow, who since her return from France in the summer has been at Thomasville with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Yow, has gone to High Point, to act as superintendent of a sanatorium at that place.

Miss Lois Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller, of Thomasville was married at the reformed parsonage in Thomasville, on Wednesday evening of last week to Mr. John F. Hyatt, Rev. J. A. Palmer officiating.

Mr. Walter Davis and family, of Glenola, spent Sunday in Asheboro with Mr. L. C. Phillips' family.

"These Rats Wouldn't Eat My Best Grain," Says Fred Lamb.

"It's hard to keep rats out of a feed store. Tried for years. A neighboring store sold me some RAT-SNAP. It worked wonders. Gathered up dead rats every morning. Bought more RAT-SNAP. Haven't a rat now. They wouldn't eat my best grain when I threw RAT-SNAP around." Three sizes, 25c, 50c., $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by Cox-Lewis Hardware Co. and Asheboro Drug Co., Asheboro, N. C.

JOYLAND Friday TAYLOR HOLMES IN "IT'S A BEAR" A Comedy Feature. Saturday VIOLA DANA IN "SOME BRIDE" A daring Comedy beautifully played. TUESDAY, NOV. 4 BILLIE BURKE IN "THE MAKE-BELIEVE WIFE" Admission, 11c. and 22c.

Announcement Grocery Changes Hands

I have sold my stock of groceries to Mr. C. E. Allen, who has moved in and taken charge.

I thank my former patrons and trust they will extend the same courtesies to Mr. Allen they have to me.

All accounts to October 28 are due me.

I will continue in Cross Tie and Fertilizer business and will still have office at same place.

J. A. HOLDER

Auction Sale of Personal Property

I WILL SELL MY PERSONAL PROPERTY ON

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH

Beginning at 10 O'clock

One Kingsbury upright piano, practically new; Household and Kitchen Furniture, Wagon and farming tools, one bred pure bred Duroc sow, one pure bred Berkshire boar, five stands of bees in hives, with honey.

Charles Shamburger MECHANIC, N. C.

Mr. Frank Steed, of Steeds, was in Asheboro on business Monday.

Mrs. Rufus Betts spent Tuesday in High Point.

Misses Lizzie Phillips and Katherine Burns spent last Saturday in High Point shopping.

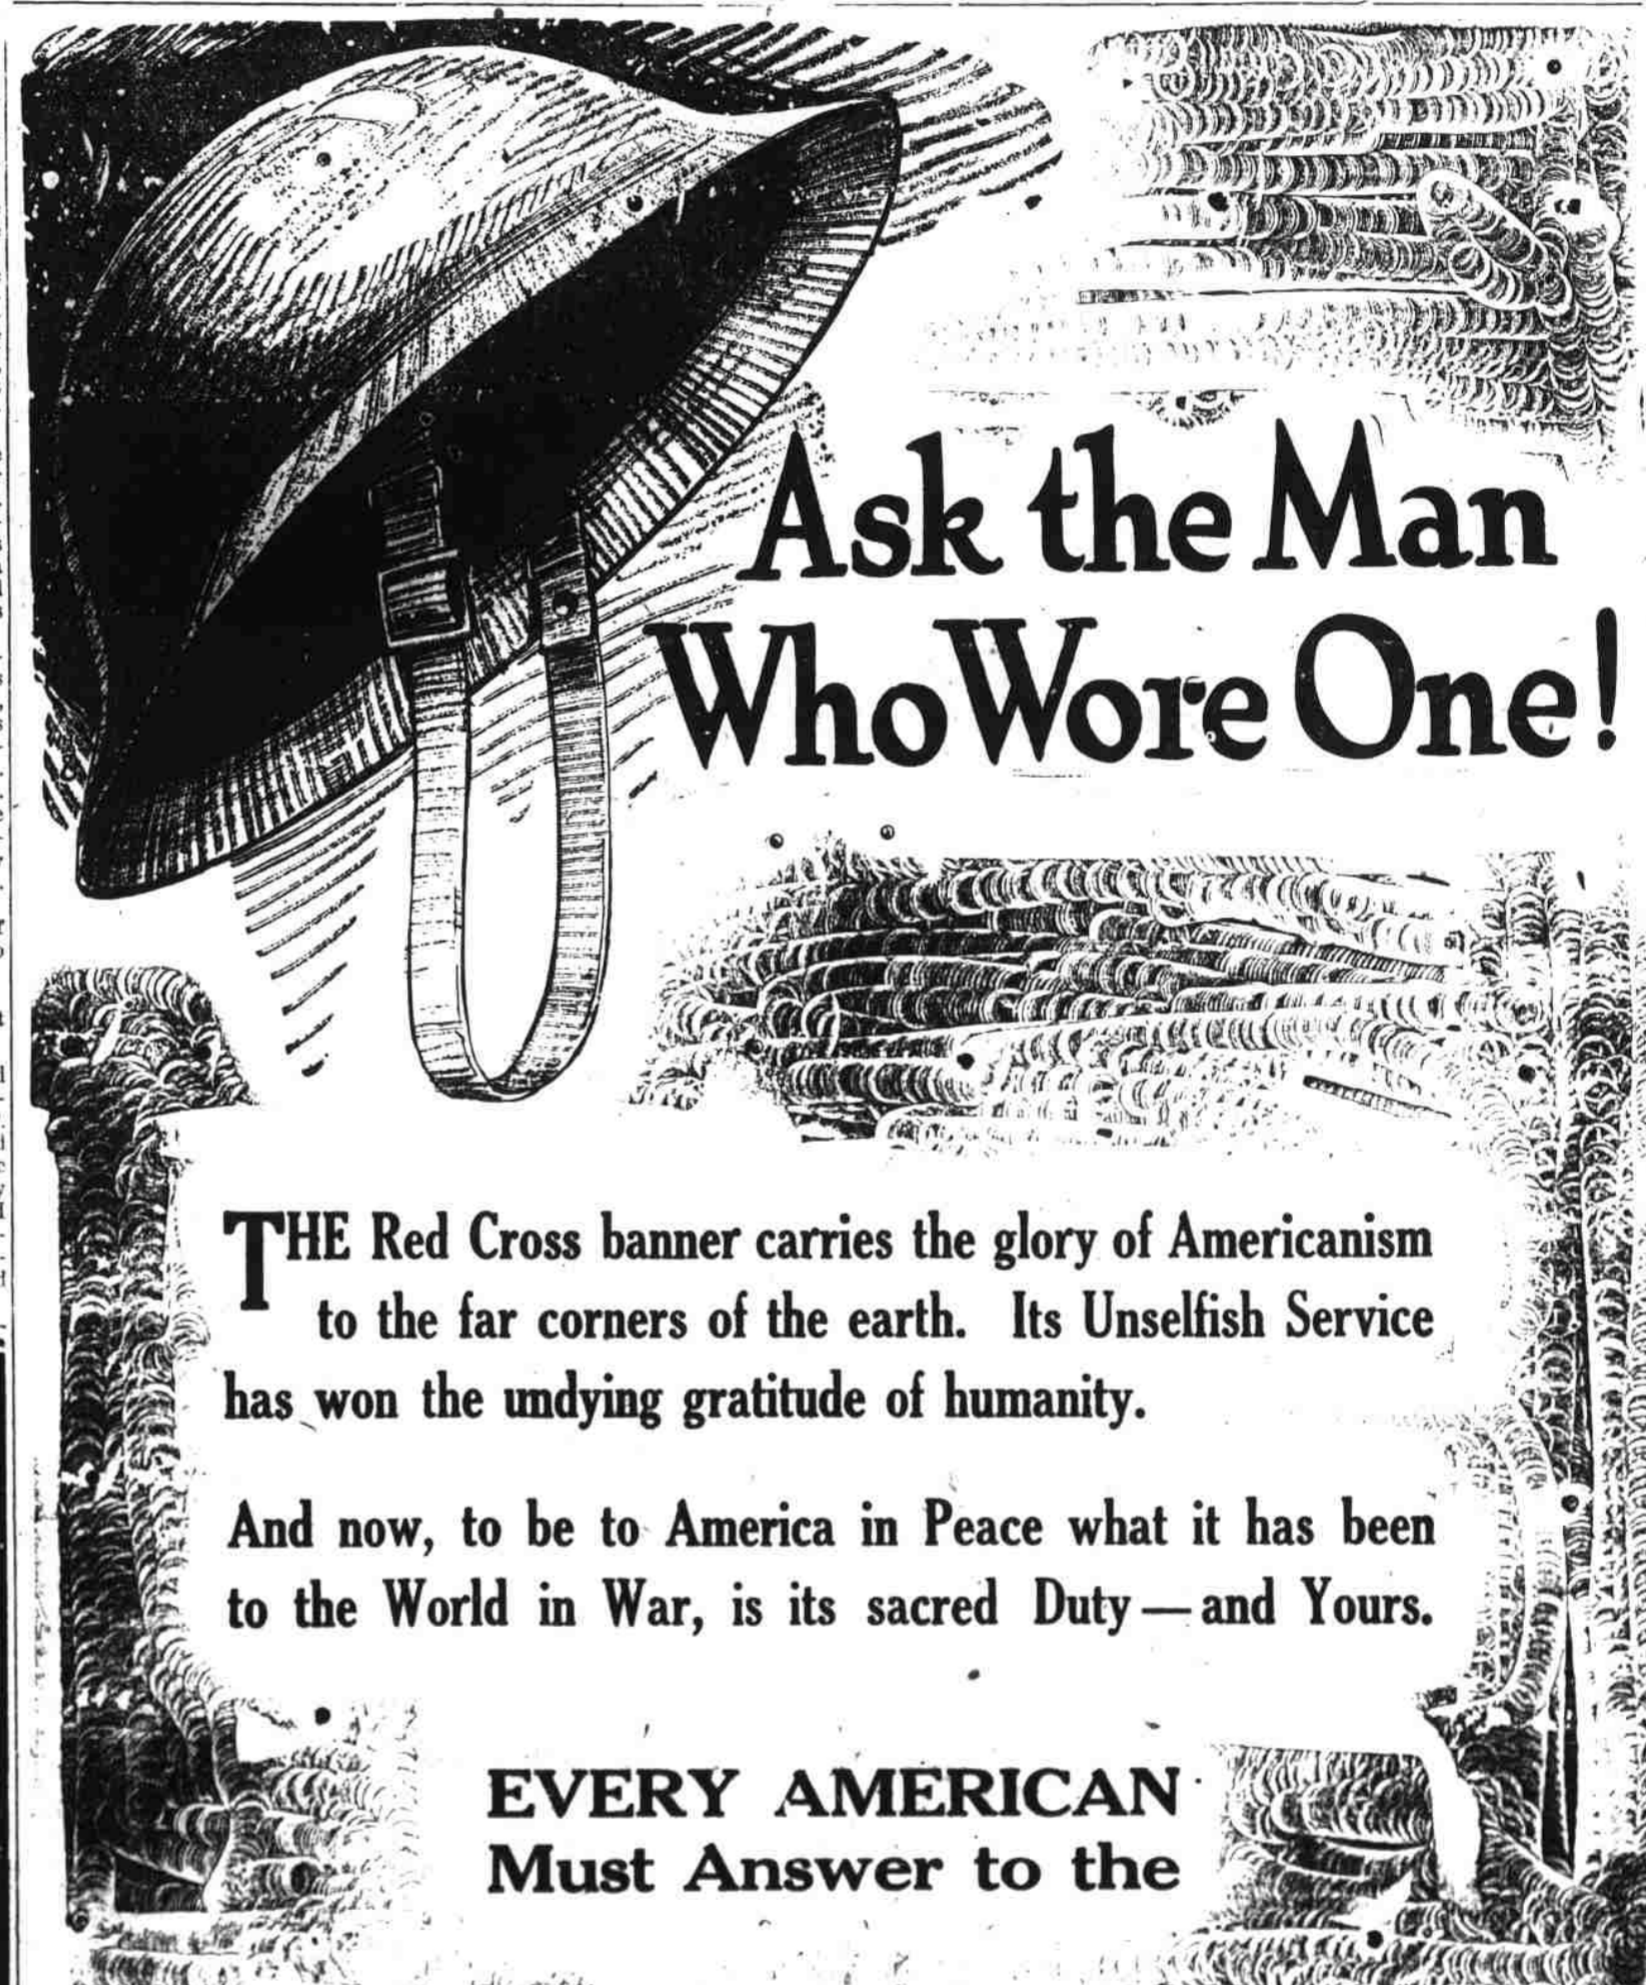

Sour Stomach

Eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, abstain from meat for a few days, and in most cases the sour stomach will disappear. If it does not, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. Red meats are most likely to cause sour stomach and you may find it best to cut them out.

NOTICE OF LAND SALE

By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Randolph County in Special Proceeding entitled W. V. ... on the 15th day of November 1919 at 12 o'clock noon, offer for sale at the court house door in Asheboro N. C. the following described real estate. Tract No. 1 described in the petition in this cause, more particularly described as follows: TRACT NO. 1 BEGINNING at a Stake Clark Fentress corner thence north 80 degrees west on Fentress line 22.25 chains to a stake in said line; thence South on the dividing line 36.50 chains to a stake in Small's line; thence North of Small's and Fentress line 32.50 chains to the beginning containing Seventy Nine acres more or less. TRACT NO. 2 Beginning at a stone in the middle of the road; running thence South 37 degrees West 10 chains to a stone thence North 53 degrees West 20 chains to a stone in the original line; thence South of said line 29.46 chains to a stone Kency's corner; thence East on said line 23.06 chains to a stone thence North 2g.50 chains to the Beginning containing Fifty Six acres more or less. This sale is made on the account of an advance bid having been placed upon the same after the former sale in this cause with accordance with the law of 1913. This the 28th day of October 1919. W. V. SMITH Commissioner.

Ask the Man Who Wore One!

THE Red Cross banner carries the glory of Americanism to the far corners of the earth. Its Unselfish Service has won the undying gratitude of humanity.

And now, to be to America in Peace what it has been to the World in War, is its sacred Duty—and Yours.

EVERY AMERICAN Must Answer to the

THIRD RED CROSS ROLL CALL

November 2 to 11, 1919

This space contributed by

McCrary-Redding Hardware Co. Cox-Lewis Hardware Co.