

THE COURIER

NUMBER 5

PARAGRAPHS

Asheboro, N. C., December 11, 1919

Rev. L. W. Gerringer is in Raleigh this week attending the National Missionary.

Miss Hallie Ross, who has been suffering from an attack of bronchial pneumonia at Salem College, is improving.

Various cities throughout the South are raising money to aid the flood-stricken people many of whom are homeless.

Mr. Eugene Morris underwent an operation for appendicitis at the High Point Hospital Saturday morning.

Mr. Morris was stricken with appendicitis while in Salisbury about three weeks ago. He tried treatment rather than have an operation in the beginning, but decided that the only safe thing to do was to undergo an operation. He is improving and will no doubt be home for within a short time.

Miss Annie Fox who has been at Creed more returned Monday.

Mr. J. H. McCain, who was stricken with apoplexy more than a week ago was taken to the High Point Hospital Monday. Mr. McCain's condition has been serious from the time he was stricken. His many friends hope that he will soon recover.

Miss Mary Bulla leaves tomorrow for Sanatorium, where she goes for treatment.

There was no disturbance on Tuesday among the sun, stars and moon as was predicted by superstitious persons, some of whom were American Indians.

The young people at the various colleges in the State are expected to arrive within the next few days for the holidays.

The Courier is this week appearing in its Christmas edition. Next week we will only issue a small paper on account of legal advertising.

A number of the citizens of the town have been killing large hogs during the cool weather.

Nora Irene Allred the six months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allred of Cedar Falls died yesterday.

Mr. W. M. Dorsett, of Ramsour Rt. Two was in Asheboro on business this morning.

Rev. J. A. Ledbetter who has moved from Randleman to Albemarle was in Asheboro yesterday Mr. Ledbetter was driving through. He has accepted the pastorate of the M. P. church at Albemarle.

Mr. J. H. Hill of Worthville, was a visitor in Asheboro today. Mr. Hill says he has not been without the Courier in his home for thirty seven years. He is now living with his son at Worthville.

Christmas brings joy to all, to the children undecidable joy over gifts and the fascination of Santa Claus. To the older people a second joy over the celebration of the birth of our Savior.

Mr. J. C. Loflin, pastor at Fullers, was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Mr. Wilbert Kinney of Asheboro Route One is suffering from an attack of appendicitis at the home of his sister Mrs. Will Berry in North Asheboro.

A beautiful bunch of mistletoe is on exhibition in the window of the Old Hickory Cafe. It was brought there by Mr. Zell Brown, of Asheboro No. 1, who says that it has been growing for a number of years.

Mrs. and Mrs. W. P. Patton who have been in Asheboro for the past few weeks expects to sail for England the first of the year. Mr. Patton is a master mechanic and has been assigned to work in England.

Mr. E. S. Walker, of Asheboro No. 2 was in town Tuesday and paid the Courier a pleasant call.

Mr. T. H. Elder, who has been with the Courier for the past few months has accepted a position as shipping clerk with the High Point Silk Mills. Mr. Elder had applied for this position before he accepted a position with the Courier, and his application had been on file until this week, when he was notified that he could have the position at any time.

Miss Nannie Lambert, who holds a responsible position with the Agricultural Department of the Federal Government in Washington, arrived in Asheboro Tuesday for Christmas holidays.

Misses Annie Page Keith and Mary Small, of Salisbury spent Saturday with Miss Fleta Lewallen.

Mrs. T. W. Wilhem, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lewis, and Mrs. D. J. Johnson and Mary McCain spent Tuesday in Greensboro.

Mr. O. L. Elder, and family of Siler City passed through Asheboro today en-route to their new home, near Springfield, about one half mile south of High Point, on Route 3. Mr. Elder bought his father's home place, and is going to make his future home there.

Reids, a little town on the Yadkin, isolated from any near by town, has installed the Delco lighting system, and makes their own lights, and power.

Mrs. C. B. Griffin and Miss Allie Vestal were in Greensboro Tuesday.

Mrs. G. R. Bonkemyer who has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Clyde Stires in South Asheboro left Tuesday for a few days visit to friends at Glenora.

Dr. T. M. McConnell, of Greensboro, will fill his regular appointment at the Presbyterian church, next Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock, and in the evening at the regular hour.

Rev. and Mrs. G. R. Underwood, of Bennett No. 1 were visitors in Asheboro yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Cranford, of New Hope Academy spent yesterday in the city shopping.

Misses Elizabeth Skeen and Foy Ingram were week end visitors of Mrs. Jack Weiborn, of Trinity.

Mr. W. C. Richardson who has a position in High Point is spending a few days at home.

Miss C. C. Cranford returned Monday from High Point where she underwent the treatment for the treatment of A hunting party of unusual interest was enjoyed recently by John P. F. C. and C. A. Garner, J. W. Morgan, M. F. Skeen. The party hunted in Lee, C. Rush, E. F. Walker, Hal Kears, and in Columbus county. They came home with four foxes, two coons, one hundred and nine birds, one owl, and three ducks.

Miss Lucile Scarborough, who is teaching in Troy this year was at home Saturday for the day.

Mr. G. W. Worefield, of Lexington, was in town the first of the week.

Mr. Elbert Moffitt, of Cerro Gordo, is visiting his mother Mrs. Cora Moffitt. Mr. Rufus Tilly, of Brim, who owns the old Hunsucker place, near Asheboro was in town this week and expects to move to Randolph in the spring.

Mr. J. E. McDowell is in a Bigden county buying and shipping furs. Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Caviness and Mrs. Ora Poole, of Coleridge township were in Asheboro shopping today. Mr. Caviness says he cannot get along without the Courier and his subscription as a proof has moved up to Dec. 1, 1927.

Mrs. A. S. Jackson of Lawrenceville, Virginia, has accepted a position as watch repairer with the Empire Store Company. Mr. Jackson comes highly recommended.

Mrs. A. A. Carter, of Columbia, South Carolina, is in Asheboro having been called to the bed side of her mother Mrs. P. H. Morris who is seriously sick.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Steed of Candor were in Asheboro the latter part of last week on their way to Liberty to attend the marriage of Mrs. Steed's sister, Miss Blanch Trogdon to Rev. Paul Kennatt.

Mrs. S. S. Cox, and son Carl of Asheboro Star Route were in the city Saturday.

Mr. Ralph Andrews, who has been visiting homefolks for the past week returned to Albemarle, N. C., where he will resume his position as Linotype operator, of the Albemarle News.

Wedding bells may be heard in and around Asheboro during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Myrtle H. Moffitt returned last week from Florida, where she has been visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. C. M. Hayworth returned last week from St. Leo's Hospital in Greensboro, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Hayworth's two brothers, Dr. R. W. and C. A. Hayworth performed the operation. This is rather an unusual occurrence, but it was by the request of Mr. Hayworth that his brothers do the operation. He is now at home and getting along nicely.

Mr. C. F. Birkhead who has accepted a position as agent of the Southern Railway office at Asheboro, has moved his family from Spencer. They are occupying the new cottage on the Alliance Real Estate and Trust Co.

A number of honor rolls for the various schools will be published January 1.

On last Sunday week no less than six Lexington men were injured in an automobile accident, but fortunately only one of the them was seriously injured, and that was Mr. Bob Sharp, a 73-year-old Confederate veteran, who is suffering from a broken leg. He was run over by a motorcycle ridden by Dr. J. E. Younts.

The high cost of living does not seem to interfere with Christmas buyers. People seem to want to buy expensive goods. It is to be hoped that everybody will buy as little as possible and reduce the cost of living. School teachers, preachers, mayors of towns, and everybody should use their best efforts to induce people to buy as little as possible until the high cost of living decreases.

Mrs. Eliza Baldwin died at her home in Franklinville last week.

Mr. J. M. Lucas, of Cagle's Mill, was a business visitor in the city Friday.

Mr. C. York, of Randleman Route 3, was in the city on business Friday.

It is believed that there will be plenty of coal within the next few days.

Those who have orders for food and other merchandise from the government supply house at Charleston, S. C., should be patient, as it is impossible to fill these orders as rapidly as they are received. People can afford a little delay when they are getting things as cheap as they are from these government supplies.

One of the joys that Christmas brings is the manifestation of the thoughts of friends.

Little Miss Noda Hinshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hinshaw died at her home at Central Falls last Sunday.

Mrs. Rosa Brown, of Randleman, was in the city this morning and paid The Courier a substantial visit.

Mr. Harris C. Andrews, who is with the United States army and stationed at Camp Taylor, Kentucky, is on a thirty days furlough and is visiting his father, Mr. C. Andrews of Randleman Route No. 1. Mr. Andrews has been with the first division and on his return paraded in New York and Washington. He was on the battle front eighteen months.

A number of the Asheboro children have written letters to Santa Claus expressing their wants. The Courier sincerely trusts that each girl and boy may be well remembered by dear old Santa Claus and that each of them will be pleased with their gifts.

Mr. J. M. Yates, The Courier's Mechanic correspondent, was in Asheboro this morning. Mr. Yates is interested in gathering news in his community and says he wants news real news instead of "surely personals". Mr. Yates is going into the mercantile business at Mechanic.

Miss Flossie Harris, a popular teacher in Dr. George H. Atkins' school for girls at Salisbury is to be married December 31, 1919, to Mr. J. Frank Spruill, a prominent and well known successful young attorney at Lexington. Miss Harris is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Harris and formerly lived near Farmer, Concord township. She is a beautiful young woman of the brunette type, is highly cultured and is greatly admired by a host of friends for her charming disposition and ready wit.

NOTICE OF LAND SALE

By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Randolph County in a special proceeding entitled, Alvin Owen Chruscoe, guardian for Newton Owen et al and A. J. Rensler of full age I will on the 31st day of December 1919 sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the court-house door in Asheboro, N. C. the following described tract of timber, the merchantable timber all pine timber eight inches in diameter and ten inches from the ground, and the oak timber seven inches in diameter the measurement of said timber to be ten inches from the ground.

Beginning at a stone Southeast corner of lot No. 2 runs East 20 chains and 60 links to a stone; thence South 39 chains and 50 links to a stone; thence East 12 chains and 86 links to a stone; thence South 1 chain and 50 links to a post oak; thence East 19 chains and 60 links to a pine knot near a large pine; thence North 29 chains and 59 links to a stake; thence West 19 chains and 50 links to a black bush; thence South 14 chains and 10 links to a white oak; thence East 11 chains and 80 links to a stone thence North 44 chains and 6 links to a post oak; thence East 25 chains and 80 links to a stone; thence South 17 chains and 25 links to the Beginning, it being lot No. 3, plot No. 3 containing 11 acres more or less. Terms of sale cash.

This sale is made on the account of an advance bid having been placed on the former bid. Said sale is accordingly made.

This the 15th day of December 1919. JOHN T. BRITTIAN, Commissioner 2t 12-18

WHITE GIFT SERVICE AT THE M. P. CHURCH CHRISTMAS NIGHT

The M. P. Sunday school will hold, on Christmas night a white gift service. An interesting program is being arranged and every one will have an opportunity to bring white gifts to the King.

NOTICE OF RESALE OF LAND.

Under and by virtue of an order of resale made by the Clerk of the Court of Randolph County, North Carolina, in a certain special proceeding entitled Jean Rush et al against Margaret Rush et al, the undersigned commissioner will, on the 27th day of December, 1919, at 12 o'clock M., at the court-house door in Asheboro sell at public auction those certain tracts or parcels of land situate and being in the county aforesaid, and more fully described and defined as follows, to-wit:

Tract No. 1. The home place of Wiley Rush, deceased, in Asheboro, containing 3 7-8 acres more or less. See book 90 page 429, Register's office, Randolph County.

Tract No. 2. Known as the Tucker land, adjoining the lands of William C. Hammer, Frank Newby and others, and containing 50 acres more or less.

Tract No. 4. Known as the Cindy Worth tract on Sycamore Street, containing about One-half acre more or less.

Tract No. 5. Adjoining the lands of Eli Brown, W. F. Redding and others, containing 85 acres, more or less. See deed from J. W. Birkhead to Wiley Rush and Wm. C. Hammer, book 72, page 434.

Tract No. 6. Beginning on the land granted by the State of North Carolina to George C. Mendenhall, April 10, 1854, registered in book 23, page 191, Register's office, Randolph County and other lands described in deed from Judith Mendenhall, executor.

Terms of sale: One third cash, upon confirmation of sale and the balance to be paid in two equal deferred payments of three and six months each, said deferred payments to bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the date of confirmation of said sale until payment is made.

This the 12th day of December, 1919. I. C. MOSER, Commissioner.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears the Signature of J. C. Atkinson

NOTICE.

A Good Home for Some One. My mother is getting old and feeble and needs a good reliable woman to stay with her, one that can take full charge of the cooking and housekeeping. The work is not hard as there is only two to cook for, the right person can get good wages and at the same time have a good home. Phone, write or come to see us on once.

E. G. MORRIS, Asheboro, N. C. P. S.—Should anyone see the above notice that can recommend a woman to fill the bill the family will appreciate it very much.

USEFUL GIFTS Buy Your Christmas Meats From Wright Brothers Market Merry Christmas to all

JOYLAND

SATURDAY MAY ALLISON

IN "CASTLES IN THE AIR"

A delightful comedy in which May Allison, the golden girl of the screen, is seen as Fortuna, a romantic little usher in a fashionable theatre. One day she meets a millionaire. See what happens. The story is one where flashes of brilliant humor blend with stirring heart appeals.

FRIDAY TOM MIX

IN "ACE HIGH"

A tale of adventure in the service of the Canadian North West Mounted Police.

FRIDAY and SATURDAY, December 26 and 27 DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS

IN "His Majesty the American"

A tremendously big and highly entertaining picture where time, brains and money have been used lavishly to produce a one hundred per cent attraction. Big from every standpoint. We have secured this picture for a two-day run affording an unusual opportunity for the people of Asheboro and surrounding country to see such a high class attraction at a moderate price.

Admission, 20 cents and 30 cents. THURSDAY, DEC. 25 BESSIE LOVE

IN "The Enchanted Barn" Also WILLIAM DUNCAN

IN "SMASHING BARRIERS"

A feature and serial. A double program. With no advance in prices. TUESDAY, 24TH BERT LYTELL

IN "THE LION'S DEN"

A picture possessing the qualities of satisfying entertainment.

Last Word in Croup Remedies is

PAGE'S CRU-MO SALVE

FORMULA CAMPHOR OIL WINTERGREEN OIL EUCALYPTUS MENTHOL LANUM OIL TURPENTINE

A mother can't get into a child's chest or nostrils to relieve restricted breathing. Cru-mo can and does—goes farther and faster than any external remedy.

Some salves are messy; not Page's Cru-mo which doesn't stain.

PRICE 50 CENTS

Costs more; Worth more! If your Druggist hasn't it ask him why

MANUFACTURED BY W. H. KING DRUG CO. RALEIGH, N. C.

Old Hickory Cafe Extends Greetings and Good Wishes For Christmas We thank our patrons for their support and solicit future patronage and co-operation

Jewelry For Christmas EVER SHARP PENCILS FOUNTAIN PENS XMAS LINE OF JEWELRY PINS RINGS BRACELETS LAVALIERS WATCHES CLOCKS E. C. SHAW JEWELER

Hasty Cafe Girls, Girls! Surprise your best friend with a nice box of cigars for Christmas. Can be bought at Hasty's Cafe. Nice Candy and Christmas Cakes at Hasty's Cafe. Fancy Candies and Fruits of all kinds at Hasty's Cafe. Nice Box Candy, the kind the young ladies enjoy, at Hasty's Cafe. Hasty Cafe NEXT DOOR TO BANK OF RANDOLPH

Buy your Christmas Turkeys and Chickens At Randolph Feed & Produce Co.

The Empire Store Announces arrival of Mr. A. S. Jackson, watch and jewelry repairer. Bring us your work. THE EMPIRE STORE