Miss Julia Cooke, of Mt. Gillead, and Mr. J. Frank Perkins, of Concord, visited their cousin, Miss Carolyn Kime, during the holidays.

No Great Act of Heroism Required

If some great act of heroism were necessary to protect a child from croup, no mother would hesitate to protect her offspring, but when it is only necessary to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and give it as soon as the first indication of croup appears, there are many who neglect it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is within the reach of all and is prompt and effectual.

Miss Jerona Craven Weds Mr. Millard Lowdermilk of Bennett

Mr. Millard Lowdermilk, of Bennett, and Miss Jerona Craven, of Ramseur, were married December 25, at the home of the bride's parents.

Both are popular young people and many friends wish them happiness.

The Best Cough Medicine

When a druggist finds that his customers all speak well of a certain preparation, he forms a good opinion of it and when in need of such a medicine is almost certain to use it himself and in his family. That is why so many druggists use and recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. J. B. Jones, a well known druggist of Cubrun, Ky., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for the past seven years, and have found it to be the best cough medicine I have ever known."

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Asbury Entertain in Honor of Guests

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Asbury gave a social hour on Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Asbury's nieces, Miss Mildred Curtis and Miss Frances Gregg, of Greensboro. Those present were: Ruth Hadley, Lucile Caviness, Nellie Fox and her guest, Miss Lottie Newby, of Greensboro, Vivian Cranford, Golda Hayworth, Alberta Ingram, Elizabeth Skeen and Virginia Redding. Fruits and candies were served.

To the Dyspeptic

Would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles are over, that you can eat any kind of food, that you crave? Consider then the fact that Chamberlain's Tablets have cured others—why not you. There are many who have been restored to health by taking these tablets and can now eat any kind of food that they crave.

Don't You Forget It

Bear in mind that Chamberlain's Tablets not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They contain no poison or other digestive ferment, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally.

BOX PARTY

Everybody is invited. Where? Marlboro school house, Friday night, January 9th, 1920. String band of noted musicians, handsome boxes with lots of good eats.

Come, bring a girl and buy her a box. All young, old, one and all, come, you will have a good time. Proceeds will go to enlarge the school library.

DORA B. DAVIS, EDITH JULIAN, Teachers.

STOP THAT ACHE!

Don't worry and complain about a bad back, get rid of that pain and lameness. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Many Asheboro people have used them and know how effective they are. Here's an Asheboro case.

Mrs. J. C. Ingold, North Fayetteville Street, says: "About a year ago I had a tired feeling in the small of my back and severe headaches. My kidneys didn't act properly and I was tired and languid. Getting of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box of the Standard Drug store and they brought me wonderful relief. I take a few doses occasionally and they keep me feeling fine."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Ingold had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

ASHEBORO ROUTE 2 ITEMS

Mr. I. W. Kearns recently lost two good milk cows.

Mr. R. W. Kearns killed four hogs a few days ago that weighed 1430 pounds. The largest one weighed 490 pounds.

WOMAN THINKS SHE CAN'T TALK ENOUGH

"I had gall stones for 14 years and suffered severely from gas, colic and indigestion. Doctors wanted me to go to the hospital, but I took May's Wonderful Remedy instead, and am now feeling fine and better than I ever did. I can't talk enough about this remedy." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Sold by Standard Drug Co., and druggists everywhere.

TIPS FOR MOTHERS

It's all too true that many children have a dislike for animal fats, yet the same children will readily take and relish

SCOTT'S EMULSION

This choice is instinctive and is linked up with the fact that Scott's is assimilated when other forms of fat are a disturbing element. Give your boy and girl plenty of energizing and warmth-imparting Scott's Emulsion. It will build them up!

The Norwegian cod-liver oil used in Scott's Emulsion is super-refined in our own American Laboratories. Its purity and quality is unsurpassed. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J., 19-20

DON'T FIGHT THE BOWELS

Use Gentle Remedy to End Constipation

Some "physicians" fight the bowels. They send their way through the laxative and cathartic medicines. They guarantee. They claim to be doing it, but they don't fight the bowels. Other physicians use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. They know it will move the bowels, and they know it will not hurt the stomach. They know it will not cause any other trouble. They know it will not cause any other trouble. They know it will not cause any other trouble.

CONSTIPATION

And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved.

Meadowville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before. I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and not bad to swallow. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape. I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."
