

THE COURIER

ISSUED WEEKLY

PRINCIPLES, NOT MEN

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

VOLUME XXXV

Asheboro, North Carolina, Thursday, March 18, 1920

NUMBER 12

LIST OF PRIZES FOR CRYSTHEMUM SHOW IN ASHEBORO, N. C. MARCH 4, 1920

Largest single compact bloom or potted plant, any color five dollar gold piece given by Bank of Randolph.
Second largest compact bloom on potted plant, any color, $3.00 given by Mrs. J. S. Lewis.
Best plant, Betsy Ross, with from 6 to 10 blooms, 1 pedestal given by Home Building and Material Co. No. 1.
Best plant, Betsy Ross, with from 3 to 5 blooms, 1 load of wood given by Home Building and Material Co. No. 2.
Best plant, Wm. Turner, with from 6 to 10 blooms, 1 rocking chair given by Asheboro Chair Co.
Best plant, Wm. Turner, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by Miss Evelyn Beaver.
Best plant, Silver King, with from 6 to 10 blooms, 1 piece of aluminum ware given by McCrary Redding Hdw. Co.
Best plant, Silver King, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by C. Bowman.
Best plant, Christy Matheson, with from 6 to 10 blooms, $2.00 given by J. M. Caviness.
Best plant, Christy Matheson, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by C. L. Amick.
Best plant, Ben Wells, with from 6 to 10 blooms — Asheboro Grocery Co.
Best plant, Ben Wells, with from 3 to 5 blooms prize given by Mrs. J. K. Wood.
Best plant, Col. D. Appleton, with from 6 to 10 blooms, 1 rocking chair given by Southern Brokerage Co.
Best plant, Col. D. Appleton, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by F. M. Wright.
Best plant, yellow Turner, with from 6 to 10 blooms, prize given by Mrs. H. M. Worth.
Best plant, yellow Turner, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by T. F. Bulla.
Best plant, Odessa, with from 6 to 10 blooms $5.00 gold piece given by Mrs. W. J. Armfield.
Best plant, Odessa, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by D. S. Coltrane.
Best plant, R. C. Pulling, with from 6 to 10 blooms, $2.00 given by Mrs. C. L. Cranford.
Best plant, R. C. Pulling, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by Mrs. S. Skeen.
Best plant, Daily Mail, with from 6 to 10 blooms, 1 casserole given by Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer.
Best plant, Daily Mail, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by Mrs. U. C. Richardson.
Best plant, Golden Wedding, with from 6 to 10 blooms, piece of aluminum ware given by Cox Lewis Hdw. Co.
Best plant, Golden Wedding, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by Mrs. J. W. Haddley.
Best plant, Mendon, with from 6 to 10 blooms, prize given by Wood and Moring.
Best plant, Mendon, with from 3 to 5 blooms, prize fancy work given by Mrs. L. M. Fox.
Best plant, Morristown, with from 6 to 10 blooms, 2 dining chairs given by Bentwood Chair Co.
Best plant, Morristown, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by Mrs. W. J. Scarborough.
Best plant, Mrs. J. Gibson, with from 6 to 10 blooms, piece of fancy work given by Mrs. E. G. Morris.
Best plant, Mrs. J. Gibson, with from 3 to 5 blooms, prize given by Mrs. J. D. Rees.
Best plant, Dr. Eugenehard, with from 6 to 10 blooms, 48 lb. bag flour given by Southern Crown Mill.
Best plant, Dr. Eugenehard, with from 3 to 5 blooms, $1.00 given by Mrs. J. M. Caviness.
Best plant, Maud Deap, with from 6 to 10 blooms, 1 wheelbarrow given by Asheboro Wheelbarrow Co.
Best plant, Maud Deap, with from 3 to 5 blooms, prize given by Wood Cash Clothing Co.
Finest specimen plant, Silver King, prize given by W. D. Steadman and Son.
Finest specimen plant, Nakota, with largest number of fine blooms, $5.00 gold piece given by National Bank.
Finest specimen plant, Black Hawk, with largest number of fine blooms, 1 year subscription to the Courier.
Finest specimen plant, Nerissa, with largest number of fine blooms prize given by O. R. Fox.
Finest specimen plant, Anemone, with white largest number of blooms $2.00 given by J. A. York.
Finest specimen plant, pink Anemone with largest number of blooms, prize given by R. C. Johnson.
Best table, 6 vases, $5.00 given by The Woman's Club.
Second best table, 6 vases prize given by Lexington Grocery Co.
Best vase of white, not over 6 blooms 24lb. bag flour, given by Asheboro Roller Mills.
Second best vase of white blooms, bottle of toilet water given by Standard Drug Co.
Best vase yellow, not over 6 blooms, 1 rocking chair given by Piedmont Chair Co.
Second best vase yellow, 1/2 doz. pairs hose given by Acme Hosiery Mills.
Best vase pink, not over 6 blooms, 1 pr. bed room slippers given by Coffin and Scarborough.
Second best vase pink, prize given by Mrs. C. C. Carnford.
Best vase yellow, 3 blooms, 1 rocking chair, Randolph Chair Co.
Best vase white, 3 blooms, 1/2 dozen pens, given by Mrs. W. J. Moore.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. T. C. Russell, of the Denton, Marble Company, has been in Asheboro this week erecting a monument at the grave of Dr. Charles Hamlin.

Mrs. A. D. Howell, of Badin, spent a part of last week in Asheboro, the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Dickens.

Miss Clara Bell Morris, a student of the Greensboro College for women was a week end visitor to homefolks.

Mrs. J. S. Lilly, of Raleigh is visiting her father Mr. W. W. Jones.

Mr. Alfred Nance, of Back Creek Township was a business visitor in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Thornboro, of Winston-Salem are in Asheboro this Friday with Mrs. D. B. McCrary at 3 man of Asheboro but now manager of the meat deficit for the Dillen-Ball Co. of Winston-Salem, N. C.

Mr. M. F. Vuncannon, of Star, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

The Randolph Book Club meets Friday with Mrs. D. B. McCrary at 3 P. M.

Mr. W. R. Hamlin celebrated his 60th birthday last Sunday. He gave The Courier a call on Saturday and brought his first pair of shoes. The leather in the shoes showed to be of superior quality. The shoes were No. 1 and laced. Mr. Hamlin has twelve children and says that every one of them have worn the shoes. They were purchased at Dr. J. M. Worth's store in Asheboro.

Messrs. H. C. Patterson and C. H. Linebery, of Ramsey No. 2, were business visitors in Asheboro Saturday. On the way up they had the misfortune of being in an auto accident in Ramsey where Mr. Thos. Green's son was driving out and the cars ran together. No serious damage was done.

Miss Bettie B. Bulla has returned to her home in Spero, after spending the past week with her friends, Misses Treva and Naomi Conrad, in Winston-Salem.

Mrs. E. B. Johnson, who has been critically ill at her home near Farmer, is improving.

Miss Alice Phillips is in Asheville this week attending federal court.

Mr. W. N. Bray, of High Point, was a business visitor in Asheboro Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Maness, of Candor, were week end guests of Mrs. W. K. Dickens.

Mrs. H. T. Caviness spent last week in Mechanic with her sister, Mrs. E. N. Howard.

Messrs. W. D. Stedman and W. A. Underwood left Monday for a business trip south.

Mrs. L. C. Phillips returned Saturday from Winston-Salem, where she had been with her daughter, Miss Kate, who was stricken with appendicitis. Miss Phillips' condition is improving.

Mr. Harris Birkhead spent Saturday in Eagle Springs on business.

Mrs. E. T. Poole, of Asheboro Route 2, who has been ill for several days, is improving.

Rev. Lewis McFarland, of High Point, was a visitor in Asheboro Sunday.

Mr. Sam Walker, of Asheboro Route 2, was a business visitor in town Monday.

Mrs. John Foster continues very ill at her home in North Asheboro.

Mr. Ernest E. Bunting has purchased of Mr. C. D. Hardin the Coca-Cola Bottling plant at Randleman and has assumed charge. Mr. Hardin has moved his family to Florida.

Mr. M. G. Maner, of Franklinville, was a business visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. R. G. Gordon, who recently moved to a farm which he purchased near Carthage in Moore county, was at his old home at Randleman Route 2 last week. Mr. Gordon was accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. A. W. Lambert, of Carthage. He is preparing to sell his property on March 20th. His sale was advertised some time ago in The Courier, but owing to the illness of Mr. Gordon the sale was postponed.

Mr. C. B. Smith, of Ramsey, was in the city on business Monday morning.

Col. W. P. Wood, State Auditor, was a week end visitor to his home town. Col. Wood is looking better than he has for a number of years. He seems to have found the fabled fountain of eternal youth.

Mr. G. C. Brown, who purchased the B. F. Miller farm in Tabernacle township last year, was in the city Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Brown moved to Randolph county from Indianapolis, Ind., where they had made their home for a number of years. Mr. Brown formerly traveled for the E. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, of Winston-Salem. His health gave way and he went West. He has seen service in the recent wars. In 1915 he accepted a position with the British government and has made eighteen trips across the Atlantic Ocean. When the United States entered the World War Mr. Brown enlisted in an officers' training camp and was sent to Fort Benjamin Harrison where he served as instructor. He expects to raise tobacco in Randolph county.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. P. Church met with Mrs. R. R. Ross on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. J. B. Slack is very ill at her home at Seagrave Route 1. She is suffering from cancer.

GERMANY IN THROES OF REVOLUTION

A revolution arose in Germany on March 13 and as a consequence the Ebert government at Berlin was thrown out and a new administration was established. President Ebert and his cabinet established a seat of government at Dresden later moving to Stuttgart. Dr. Wolfgang Kapp established a new government at Berlin. Both governments have been locked in a struggle for supremacy. The latest reports say that Kapp has resigned in favor of President Ebert and that President Ebert is expected back in Berlin at an early date. Severe fighting has broken out in several sections of Germany. Four hundred persons are reported to have been killed and many persons injured in a bombardment at Kiel by a German cruiser. The cruiser is said to have directed its fire especially against the quarters of workmen who are opposed to the Kapp government. Conditions all over Germany seem to be very unsettled.

Miss Moleta Yow Bride

of R. T. Baynes
Wednesday, March 10, at the home of Rev. R. C. Stubbins, in Greensboro, the officiating minister, Miss Moleta C. Yow was married to Mr. Bascom T. Baynes. Mrs. Baynes is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Yow, of Central Falls but has made Greensboro her home for the past three years. Mr. Baynes is a successful business man of Greensboro, holding a position with the Odell Hardware Company. After the ceremony the young couple left for Tampa and St. Petersburg, Fla., on their honeymoon. They will make their home in Greensboro.

James Davis Formerly of Asheboro Is Seriously Injured

James Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Davis, who formerly lived in Asheboro was seriously injured in Greensboro Monday when he fell from the framework of a house on which he was working, striking his head against a piece of timber. He lay unconscious for three hours before he was discovered. Physicians were unable to express an opinion regarding Mr. Davis' condition yesterday.

Mr. M. B. Rumbley, of Stokesdale, has purchased the Graves farm near Spero of Mr. Charles R. Lambett. Mr. Rumbley expects to move his family to Randolph in the fall.

Mrs. J. A. Monroe, of Seagrave Route 1, and son G. D. Monroe, of Lillington, were visitors in Asheboro Monday. Mr. Monroe has held a position with the Norfolk Southern Railroad at Lillington since his return from overseas. He has recently accepted a position in the Lillington Bank.

Rev. T. J. Green and family have recently moved from Asheboro to their farm at Ramsey Route 1. Mr. Green was in the city Monday and said The Courier a pleasant call.

Mr. Ernest Slack, who has had a position with an automobile factory in Akron, Ohio, has returned to his home at Seagrave.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Kearns, of Farmer, were in the city Monday.

Miss Ethel Lovett, of Guilford College, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. E. Lovett, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Roy Cox, of Thomasville, spent Sunday in Asheboro with relatives.

Dr. George R. Brown, of the M. P. Church of High Point, will do the preaching at the evangelistic services at the M. P. Church beginning next Sunday.

Mrs. L. W. Geringer and children, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. W. R. Oliver, at Kernersville, for the past two weeks, have returned home.

Mr. Hoff has purchased the Lambere old home on Elm Street in the Eastern part of Asheboro and will probably move his family to Asheboro in the near future. Mr. Hoff is a brother of Mr. J. W. Wolf.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Frazier on last Saturday a daughter, Alice Rachel.

Mrs. Nannis Walker, of High Point was in Asheboro Wednesday on business.

Miss Allie Vestal was a visitor in High Point the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Woodell and little son John, accompanied by Rev. Arrowood all of Greensboro, were visitors here the first of the week.

Mr. David Holliday, of Greensboro was here Monday.

IN YOUR HURRY PAUSE A MOMENT

You are BUSY. Busy chasing the elusive dollar—some times holding it for a while, then letting it go.

You are in a hurry—so much so that you have no time to think seriously of your soul life.

You may say: "There's no money in that."

Jesus Christ said: "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" How about that proposition? Think it over. NOW! Read Matthew 6:33; John 3:16; Hebrews 2:1-3. Easter is "Join the Church Sunday." You are cordially invited to attend the revival meeting at the Methodist Protestant Church, beginning Sunday, March 21st.

RAMSEUR NEWS

DEEP RIVER BROOM COMPANY SOLD TO A CHARLOTTE COMPANY.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church held a very profitable and enjoyable meeting with Mrs. J. O. Forrester last Wednesday after the regular business of the Society was conducted the guests were served with delightful cream, cake and fruits by the hostess. The Society always rejoices when an invitation is extended by Mrs. Forrester.

Miss Elizabeth Smith entertained the Philathea class of the M. E. Sunday school last Wednesday night. The business of the class was attended to after which refreshments were served to the delight of all.

Mr. A. H. Thomas returned Saturday from an extended trip in interest of Ramsey Broom Works.

Rev. W. M. Smith preached to a good congregation here Sunday. He preached good sermon as usual in his convincing way.

Mrs. Fred Warren, of Greensboro, spent a day or two with her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. H. King of our city.

Messrs. E. J. Steed, R. J. Kearns and others went to Charlotte Monday and drove "a conveyance" of Maxwell cars through for Ramsey Motor Company.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Leonard went to High Point last week. Mrs. Leonard is spending a few days there with her sister Mrs. J. A. Marsh.

Mrs. I. F. Craven and son Jessie and Mr. J. C. Watkins visited Mr. and Mrs. A. W. E. Capel of Troy Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Marley returned Saturday from an extended stay at Greensboro.

Mr. Jas. Clapp, of Greensboro visited Mr. Charles Williams and family here Sunday.

Mrs. Charles H. Craven, of Cole-ridge, spent last week here with her brother J. I. Lambert and her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Baldwin.

The Deep River Broom Co. of this place sold out last week to a Broom company of Charlotte and will soon move the entire equipment to that place. Mr. B. E. Smith will hold the same position for the new company at Charlotte we understand.

Mr. Fowler, of Burlington, recently purchased the business of Manley Barker and has opened a first class cafe and cold drink business.

Mrs. Ruth Kemp, of this place went to Troy Sunday where she will spend some time with Mr. A. W. E. Capel and family.

A party of Glee Club folks attended the great play "The Wanderer" at Greensboro last Monday night. Those who composed the party were Misses Lois, Blanche and Grizzelle Moore, Sarah Steed, Madge Moffitt, Lizza Smith, Jess Whitehead, Fieta Tate, Maud Lee Spoon, Ova Scott, and Mr. Herbert Smith.

They represented the play wanderful.

Mr. S. B. Black, of Lynnhburg Va., and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Black, of Raleigh were visitors in town recently.

ROBBERS IN RANDELMAN LAST WEEK

The town of Randleman has not escaped the hands of the robbers, who seem to have practiced diligently in this section of the State for the past few months. On Wednesday night of last week the garage at Randleman was broken into and considerable equipment was stolen. The store of Wagger and Co. was robbed on Tuesday night and ten or twelve suits of clothes, jewelry and other valuable articles. The total loss to the Wagger's was estimated to be near five hundred dollars.

On the same night a new gasoline tank which had been put in at the store across the road from Mr. Douglon James' two miles north of Asheboro was tampered with and considerable gasoline was stolen or wasted.

Mrs. B. C. Floyd of Trinity Passes

Mrs. B. C. Floyd of near Trinity died March 12, 1920. Funeral services were held at Hope Well Sunday by Rev. A. S. Raper interment following in Hope Well cemetery. She has been in ill health for several months. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Tina Biles. Besides her husband she is survived by seven children, Ernest, Charlie and Cicero Floyd of near Trinity and Mrs. Mary Hayworth, of High Point, Mrs. Daisy English, of Archdale, and Mrs. Clara Vickery and Miss Myrtle Floyd, of Pleasant Garden. Her death comes as a distinct shock to a large circle of friends.

PROGRESS NEWS

People around here are anxious to see spring now as nearly everybody is expecting to raise tobacco.

Mr. Addison Blair was stricken with paralysis not long ago and continues very ill. He is a well respected citizen and we wish for him a speedy recovery.

Miss Beatrice Hunt, who is in the High Point Hospital, is improving we are glad to note.

Mrs. Hayes Hedgecock, who has been ill, is improving.

Little Irene, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Spencer, is convalescing after an attack of scarlet fever.

Allen, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Jones, has recovered from a serious illness.

Mr. J. W. Peace has purchased a

HIGHWAY ROBBERY AND ASSAULT NEAR RANDELMAN SEEMS TRUE

The Courier last week gave an account of an assault and highway robbery which was reported to have occurred near Randleman last week as being a fake story. It now turns out that the report was true. Two young men bearing the names of Gibson and Sisk were arrested in Madison last week and placed in jail at Wentworth. According to the best information it seems that Gibson and Sisk persuaded Allen to come with to Randolph county to purchase some land on which they claimed to have had an option. As was announced last week, Allen had several thousand dollars on his person, and was persuaded by the two young men to let them carry a part of the money for safe keeping. When they were near Randleman Allen was assaulted by Gibson and Sisk while they were pretending to be fixing their car. Allen ran off and escaped several shots which were fired at him. He then hired a horse and buggy and went to Randleman and got car and returned to his home. His two assailants also went back to Madison and were promptly arrested and placed in jail. All of Mr. Allen's money was recovered but about two hundred dollars.

SERIES OF MEETING TO BEGIN IN BOTH METHODIST CHURCHES SUNDAY

On next Sunday protracted services will begin in both of the Methodist churches in Asheboro and last for two weeks. The pastors of the two churches had decided to begin their meeting on March 21st without knowing the plans of the other, and they have decided it would probably be just as well for both meetings to be in progress at the same time. If the people of Asheboro will attend these services there will be plenty to fill both churches at every service. A cordial invitation is extended the people to attend the services at both churches and cooperate in having a revival in the town.

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS

Rev. Mr. Black, of Albermarle preached two able sermons at the Baptist Church Sunday.

Mr. John Pugh, who has been at work at White Oak for some time came home Saturday evening and has accepted a position with the Franklinville Roller Mill.

Misses Estella Payne and Fannie Jones, went to Greensboro Saturday.

Mr. R. I. Booth and son Robert and Frelley McConicade left Saturday for Ameta, Va., where Mr. Booth will probably locate.

Mr. H. P. Baldwin, of Sanford, was the guest of E. A. Routh one day last week.

Mr. Joe Tinnett has gone to Greensboro where he has contracted for painting.

Missionary will speak in the interest died at the home of her father last Friday night and the remains were laid to rest in the family cemetery near Yow's Mill. Rev. W. M. Smith, of Ramsey, conducted the funeral. She was the youngest daughter of Orlando Brown. Our people extend their sympathy to the bereaved ones.

OLD TRINITY NEWS

Frank Maness lost a barn by fire Sunday evening.

A cow and calf perished, also a lot of provender and etc. We lean there was some insurance.

Mr. David White and family have moved to the Pine place.

Mr. and Mrs. Libball have moved to Mechanicsville, North High Point.

Mrs. Mattie White went to High Point Saturday.

Mrs. Carpenter was visiting friends in the community Sunday afternoon.

The Misses Farlow went home for the week-end. They live at Flint Hill.

From all appearances there will be a good deal of tobacco planted around here.

Mrs. J. L. Phillips, who has been ill at her home for several days is improving.

David White Jr., who has been very ill with influenza is improving.

Mrs. Lula Carr, has returned from Cuba.

The Methodist Missionary society met with Mrs. M. J. Weeks Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Lula Carr gave a splendid talk on "The Mary Elizabeth Inn" in San Francisco.

Miss Annie L. Forrest, Returned Missionary To Visit Randleman charge

Miss Annie L. Forrest a returned Miss Dora Brower, aged 5 years of missions of the following times and places on this charge: Bethany at 3 P. M. Sunday March 28th. Worthville same day and night. Randleman, Monday March the 29th at night.

A full attendance is much desired at all of the appointments.

E. G. LOWDERMILK

Closing Exercises of Oak Hill School