The women of the country confidently expect the extending of suffrage to women will operate as a great cleansing force in politics. They will bring with them a brand new broom when they will exercise. It is also expected that women will become more broadened by participating in politics as well as bringing a cleansing force with them.

Red Buck Bryant in his Washington correspondence to the Charlotte Observer says the South is still loyal to Wilson. That while some are making trouble the President is still unbiased with the solid people of the country. There has been a great noise because he was in bad with some of the politicians, but the folks are still with him, not only in the South, but elsewhere.

Attorney Hubert Olive has gone from Clayton to Lexington to practice law. He recently obtained his license, being a graduate of Wake Forest School of Law and a young man of intelligence and aggressive bearing. He is the son of the late A. J. Olive who lived for several years at Randleman, moving there from Wake County and afterwards moved to Thomasville where he died.

Bion H. Buttler writes in the News and Observer, telling of the effort at Southern Pines to put the colored men on the road to thrift and home building. The colored people of Southern Pines are buying land and beginning the job of acquiring homes. They show a lively interest in the undertaking. The leaders of the race are using their best energies to economize in every way possible and lay up for a rainy day by inducing as many as possible to buy land, and this will act as an incentive for each one to have so as to be able to build a home.

A BIG NAVY IF WE DO NOT ENTER THE LEAGUE

Secretary Daniels is perfectly justified in insisting on a larger navy if we do not enter the League of Nations. That League would lead to liberal disarmament, but if we are not in the League we have got to take care of our selves and of the Western Hemisphere without the prospect of any assistance. Of course we can do it, but it entails a large expense, which we might just as well save as not. Henry Cabot Lodge is one of the most expensive luxuries the United States ever paid for.—Philadelphia Record.

FALSIFIED TAX RETURNS

Some of the newspapers are calling attention to the fact that the Government is uncovering falsified tax returns. Little has been said about this, because the Government moves slowly, yet, it does so with unerring certainty, as a rule, when it comes to investigation of taxes. Few investigations have been made as to inaccuracy, falsification or efforts to dodge payment of taxes, because it usually takes from two years or more for the inspectors to get matters in shape to get back to the people after the alleged occurrences.

In all probability there will be more falsification of tax reports this year than last year for the reason that those who made false reports last year have not been investigated, and they think they can do so again this year without being molested. In this they are mistaken, for every individual and every tax return that is padded or otherwise made incorrect or falsified, there will be a hereafter.

HARDING AND JOHNSON ON EACH OTHER

The Philadelphia Record call attention to the fact that Senator Harding, now a Presidential candidate referred to Senator Hiram Johnson, another Presidential candidate in the campaign of 1912 as a "faker" and a "blackguard" and spoke of him as "Such braying asses as this egotistical Johnson who prates of 'deals wallows in the gutters of American politics'".

He also made a very pleasant little allusion as to Theodore Roosevelt, referring to him as pathetic figure of Roosevelt, lost to gratitude, blind to traditions, inconsiderate of the truth, mad for power and willing to wreck the republic to get it.

No doubt Senator Harding would be glad to have the files of the Ohio newspaper, the Marion Star, which contained this speech, destroyed, but they had been put in the State Library and other public libraries in the state of Ohio, to which the public had access.

Much could be said about what Nicholas Mary Butler, also a Presidential aspirant, thought of Roosevelt in 1912, and something could be told of what Johnson told Penrose, all of which will come out later.

The Winston-Salem Journal calls attention to the "Hugging Match" at the Republican Convention, and says "In Unity there are spoils".

The platform adopted at Greensboro has been praised by some things for some things it says and condemned by others for things it does not say. It straddles the revaluation act, but practically endorses it, although its candidate for governor wants it repealed, but not a word is said in condemnation or praise of the act itself. Silence reigns supreme from one end of it to another, so far as the constitutional amendment relating to taxation is concerned.

The Winston-Salem Journal calls attention to the fact that if the Republicans had expected to carry the State they would have nominated quite a different ticket. There would have been a Morehead, Duncan, McKins, Holt, Butler, Britt, Bynum or some of the leaders of the old crowd who could have placed themselves on the ticket if they desired.

The Republican State platform rings like a bell in the denunciation of Wilson administration, but not a word does it say, definite or cleancut about any live issue. It wants the women to vote after everybody knows the suffrage amendment will be adopted in the near future. It gets on the band wagon after it reaches its destination.

RENEWED TESTIMONY

No one in Asheboro who suffers backaches, headaches, or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this Asheboro woman's twice-told story. It is confirmed testimony that no Asheboro resident can doubt.

Mrs. A. F. Parrish, Wainman Street, says: "I suffered more or less with kidney trouble for several years. I tried different remedies but never found them to help me as much as Doan's Kidney Pills. Occasionally I take a box of this medicine and they keep my kidneys in good condition." The above statement was given January 5, 1915, and on July 24, 1918, Mrs. Parrish added: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as highly now as I did before. I am now enjoying fine health and am glad to tell others of this medicine."

Price 60c., at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Parrish had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Department of Justice in Effort To Save Money on Meat

Beginning Monday, March 15th, the Department of Justice will make an effort to reduce the cost of meat by advising cuts that will be as nutritious as the now high priced cuts of beef, pork and lamb that the American people are prone to eat. It the people will take advantage of the cuts that are equally as nutritious and heretofore have been practically uncalled for, the saving will be immense. Under the present conditions the price of the choicest cuts in many instances fifty or sixty cents higher than the price of other good wholesome meat from the same animal.

DISCARDED AS DANGEROUS

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.
