RAMSEUR NEWS-

Mr. N. D. Martin Passes
Mr. E. J. Steed and others visited friends at Asheboro Sunday-afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Moffitt were business visitors at Greensboro Mon-

Mr. J. T. Lambert and Mr. and Mrs. House twelve o'clock April twenty-C. E. Baldwin spent Sunday afternoon fourth. with friends at Coleridge.

At 2:30 P. M. the meeting will be

Mr. Tom Stout, of Florence S. C. was a visitor here Sunday.

Anumber of Ramseur folks attendthe funeral service of Mr. J. M. Foust at MtVernon last Wednesday.

spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wadkins.

Mrs. I. F. Craven has been very ill the past week but we are glad to say is improving. The many friends of Mrs. N. D.

Martin are saddened over her death last Monday noon. She had been in poor health for some months and the end was not a surprise but very sad indeed. Mrs. Martin leaves a husband, mother and five children, three girls and two boys and a great number of relatives and friends.

Mrs. Martin became a christain and joined the church at Patterson Grove. $14.50. She lived a quiet and unassuming $17.50. Three new me christain life and none will leave a to our society. christain life and none to our society.

better record as a good, kind and help—to our society.

Following the business meeting we ful neighbor than Mrs. Martin leaves.

had an enjoyable evening of stungs.

Funeral services were held at White Chapel where enterment followed

Tuesday at one o'clock. Baptist church conducted the service, punch was served. Partners, for a The great throng of people who attended the service and the many magnificent floral designs was indicative of the love and high esteem in which this good woman was held by her neighbors and friends.

NEWS FROM TRINITY

Mr. David White, Sr., who has been quite ill with the flu, is recovering.

Mrs Sam English has returned from Columbia, where she has been spencing the winter with her son, Mr. Car-

Miss Eleanor English, of Hillsboro, is visiting her aunt, Miss Effic White, of South Trinity.

Rev. Mr. Elliott is back from Bessemer City, where he has been doing day in High Point. evangelistic work.

Mr. Hayes spent Sunday in town. Rev. Mr. Elliott held services in the school building Sunday night.

High school will continue three who is at the Sanatorium.
eeks longer. The graded school Mr. and Mrs. Thomas which closed last week has been one and family, of High Point, visited at of the best in the history of the school. Mr. D. W. Bulla's last Sunday.

church will soon be under way. I sup- and Mrs. G. H. Moore, of High Point, pose all will have a chance to put in visited at B. F. Snyder's Sundoy. memorial window to some loved o We have had so much rain little at Old Union Sunday.

gardening has been done yet. flu. Mrs. Clark is spending some time Susday afternoon. at Wheatmore with her sister, Mrs

Miss Sue Palmer, of Washington, Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. spent Sunday with Miss Jewel Parkin, and Mrs. June Hill.

Under the auspices of athletic asso. Mrs. Clark Small is suffering with ciation a minstrel was given last Sat- pleurisy. urday night, also a play, Good Morning, Judge. The receipts were $125. bore visited at D. W. Bulla's Sunday.

Miss Effic White was hostess to the book club last week. Miss Maude in Randleman.

Phillips assisted in serving.

Meeting of Woman's Club of Archdele Edwards Saturday. .

The meeting of the woman's club last Wednesday afterneon with Mra. Lee Andrews was well attended and much enjoyed. The room in which the members gathered was abloom with lovely apring flowers. President Tomlinson opened the President Tomlinson opened the while I drank it and told me about a meeting by reading the 1st Paarm plece she had been reading in the Rell was called and minutes read by Farm and Fireside about a new resp-

· Magus o

7

ULAH NEWS

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION AND MASS MEETING

The Democrats of Randolph county are hereby called to meet in the Court

At 2:30 P. M. the meeting will be addressed by Hon. Carter Glass, former Secretary of the Treasury, now United States Senator from Virginia.

The public is cordially invited, and Society met with Mrs. J S. Lewis, Friday evening April 16, 1920. In a former meeting the society decided to support an Armenian orphan for the year and at this meeting the first joined the church at Patterson Grove. collection was taken, amounting to Three new members were taken in-

First, a nod tea party was announced and slips of paper were given out. When the word nut was called all the boys arose and when goose was called Rev. J. F. Black Paster Ramseur all the girls arose. Then as a surprise very unique contest, were next found by imitating animal and bird calls. Mattie Hugnes won the prize, a bag of peanuts, while the booby prize, a red stick of candy, went to Ruth Amick.

After this came an impromptu concert of stunts by several of the members of the society. Following this Mrs. Lewis served delicious candy. Reporter.

SOPHIA ROUTE 1 NEWS

Miss Charity Connor has returned hime after spending several days with relatives near Asheboro.

Miss Althea Farlow spent Tuesday

Mr. John Brookshire has purchased a new Ford.

Mr. Robert Bulla spent Thursday at Montrose with his brother, Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brookshire

We understand our new Methodist Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Burgess and Mr.

Misses Flora Berry and Stella and Mrs. Crissie Clark we learn has the Allene Nance visited Miss Ila Snyder

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spencer and little daughter, of Asheboro, spent

Mises Altnea Parity of Miss Cora

SOMETHING TO DO

Well Susan, what is up? Nance came out to the field this morning and brouht me a bucket of nice cool fresh buttermilk and stood and talked to me Rell was called and minutes read by Secretary Andrews. Treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Herbert Tominson. Different committees reported interesting work done. Many plans for the coming months were made.

The club members were delighted to have with them Miss Clara I. Cox, of High Point, who made an extremery interesting talk on the "Rights of Citizenship." She spoke at some length on the two kinds of rights, civil and political. Miss Cox also gave a brief explanation of tre constitution. explanation of tre constitution.

At the close of this splendid talk, and Nance and I thought we'd start the hostess assisted by Mrs. Jonathan White, served ice cream, cake and cof-philathea Class! Levis us go to Sunday School next Sunday Susan and the served ice cream, cake and cof-philathea Class! Levis us go to Sunday School next Sunday Susan and the served ice cream, cake and cof-philathea Class! Levis us go to Sunday School next Sunday Susan and the served ice cream, cake and cof-philathea Class! see if there's anything good for us .-

Mrs. Jonas Vuncannes, who spenty personal properties as the surface of the winter with her parents; has returned to Opelifia, Alabama.

Mrs. L. A. Frye is spending the week in Asheboro with relatives.

Mrs. B. A. Frye is spending the week in Asheboro with relatives.

Mrs. B. A. Frye is spending the week in Asheboro with relatives.

Mrs. B. A. Frye is spending the week in Asheboro with relatives.

Mrs. B. A. Frye is spending the week in Asheboro with relatives.

Mrs. B. A. Frye is spending the week in Asheboro with relatives.

Mrs. B. A. Frye is spending the week in Asheboro at the courty will meet in Asheboro of Burlington, Frye will be discounted in the court house. In Asheboro at the court house in the court house. In Asheboro at the court house and help.

Mrs. Hancek Hestess

Mrs. L. P. Asae, Carelling after coult was all the brothers and the week end gueste Dr. and Mrs. J. W. The Carelling after the hest

PAY YOUR POLL TAX ON OR BEFORE MAY FIRST

if you expect to exercise your privilege of voting in primary or general election this year.

A number of boys were in the service and away from convention met last Saturday. Dr. J. Mr. J. S. Lewis, Republican, organized home at listing time last year. You have the privilege of the convention. Considerable excite chairman and Mr. S. W. Presne'l as listing to C. L. Amick, clerk to the board, during this ment arose over the election of a per-secretary. The board appointed regmonth. Do not put off this important matter.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS

Judge W. P. Stacy is candidate for weather of March 1st that followed the warm wet weather. The former Empress of Germany,

Auguste Victoris, is reported to be critically ill, and an annoucement of a characteristic and the control of t

The slayer first gave his name as North Carolina Vote May Be Needed Thomas Shelly, and latter as Thomas North Carolina Vote May Be Needed W. Simpkin. Shelly after killing Dr. The vote of North Carolina may to get it.

the near future.

is due to ar effort of Carranza in tr ing to control the vote. Another ion is scheduled for this Fall. Th feel justified in raising a revolution.

half of which had expired. Evangelist Burke Culpepper is conducting a revival in Winston-Salem. The meeting began Sunday night, and is being held in a ware-

Officers in

County Piano Contest Held in Ashebore Last Saturday THE GENESIS OF

A musical contest was held in Asheboro last Saturday when representatives from the various music classes tives from the various music classes of the county were present. Miss Clyde Kearns, of Farmer Miss Ellen Barker, ting on the deck of his vessel smoking of Randleman and Miss Elisabeth a pipe sad thus he soliloquised:

Smith of Ramseur had musical pupils to enter the contest. Miss Ethel Johnson who is a member of Miss Nannie son w and an interesting program was ren-dered. Mrs. J. O. Redding and Mrs. W. C. Hammer read articles concern-ing the war from the Bayview Magazine. After the current events, the hostess assisted by Misses Julia Ross and Margaret Morris servec care and block cream.

The Randelph Book Club Resumes

Miss Lovett Hostess

and split. The next meeting will be if you have barns to cure, use charwith Mrs. J. A. Spence Friday after coal! Use charcoal!"

CHAUTAUQUA GUARAN-

TORS MEET A. B. Coltrane, who was elected by a Benderatic judge, and the third is made in the Supreme court bench. Judge Stacy

Which will be held in Asheboro May Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Phillips were visitors

Mr. Earnest Phillips were visitors

Mr. Earnest Phillips were visitors

Mr. L. C. Watkins, of Greensboro, speaker.

The public is cordially invited, and the third is the Supreme court bench. Judge Stacy
the Court bench Judge Stacy
the Court bench Judge Stacy
the Supreme court bench Judge Stacy
the Supreme court bench Judge Stacy
the Court bench Judge Stacy
the Court bench Judge Stacy
the Supreme court bench Judge Stacy
the Court bench Judge Stacy
The guaranters for the Chautauqua
the Supreme court bench Judge Stacy
the Supreme court bench Judge Stacy
The guaranters for the Chautauqua
the Supreme court bench Judge Stacy
The guaranters for the Chautauqua
the Supreme Court bench Judge Stacy
The guaranters for the Chautauqua
the Supreme Court bench Judge Stacy
The Guaranters for the Chautauqua
the Supreme Court bench Judge Stacy
The Guaranters for the Chautauqua
the Supreme Court bench Judge S speaker.

Respectfully,

L. F. ROSS, Chairman,
Randolph County Dem. Ex. Com.

CHRISTAIN ENDEAVOR SOCIAL,
DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

The monthly business and social meeting of the Christain Endeavor and social meeting of the Christain Endeavor Society met with Mrs. J. S. Lewis.

Carolina.

Cox, vice president, C. G. Somers, sectors, c. L. Governments at retary, J. S. Lewis, treasurer, C. L. Elon College was robbed, and $15, and the Boy Scouts in charge of local advertising. W. J. Armfield was made state superintendent of public instruction, browner—R. E. Baldwin, registrar; and the Boy Scouts in charge of local advertising. W. J. Armfield was made state superintendent of public instruction.

The did division will hold the 2nd annual rangements for extensive advertising. The Chautauqua promises to be the best ever held in the County. Mr. Society met with Mrs. J. S. Lewis.

The monthly business and social reunion in Asheville September 28 and 29th.

Thousands of peach trees in Geor-Amick asks that guarantors call for state executive committee, was intro
West Columbia—John A. Ward reg-

TORNADO SWEEPS

SOUTHERN STATES

A tornado sweeping over Missippi, Alabama and Tennesee last Tuesday strated. Dr. James Markoe, a well known night did great damage to prop- Miss Circe Coble, of Liberty, filed he surgeon of New York, while taking up erty, and more than 160 lives were notice of candidacy to the board a collection at St. George's Protestant lost. The storm also hit parts of North elections. This was the first announce the church New York, was shet and killed Carolina, parts of it striking Randolph ment filed. Mr. J. A. Brady later file by a lunatic who escaped from an incounty, but no appreciable damage his notice for sheriff of the county.

The slaver first raws his new York was done.

The vote of North Carolina may Markoe fired other shots into the con-gregation before he was overpowered. He freely admitted the killing, and frage amendment, I Deleware should ratify the amendment, a fight is on said there were others who were going the supreme court relative to the legthe supreme court relative to the leg-Plans are under way for a new ibility of the Ohio omendment, and school building at Pleasant Garden in North Carolina may yet have to ratify to make suffrage a sure thing.

The trouble now brewing in Mexico High School Debaters Meet at Chapel Mr. A. O. Ferree.

people of Mexico generally want which won both sides of the debate in fair election and when a man like Carrecent state-wide campaign of school ranza trys to control the vote they debating union are sending their On April 17th, at a road camp ness annual rounds contending for the state Elon College, Richard Gilbert was that championship and Aycock Memorial and killed by a guard when he cup. Eight of the winning schools are tempted to make his freedom. Gilbert being represented by girls. The query was a young man who was serving a is "Resolved, That the United States sentence of two and one-half years, Should Adopt a Policy of Further Material Restriction of Immigration."

Aged Citizen of Level Cross Passes

Mr. G. V. Lamb, aged 83 years, died at his home at Level Cross last week. Winston-Salem last Mr. Lamb is survived by the following Officers in Winston-Salem last sons and daughters: Two sons, Vance We are glad to report of Luther Harris, age 18 years, Young Lamb, of Lynchburg, Va.; and E. V. Martin who was ill set Harris had his throat cut, and as yet Lamb, of Jamestown; also three week much improved. The evidence as to the muder is known. daughters, Mrs. T. T. Adams, of Randaughters are children.

(By William Laurie Hill)

sentative from Randolph County to This old captain voices are compets in the State contest which of thousands of the human race—and will be held in Greenshore May 7the while tobacco has many enemies, it Randolph is the 17th county to enter har host of friends and we cannot the State contest.

| Content |

the human race.

In Caswell county, North Carolina, there lived along about the forties of After having been suspended for there lived along about the forties of several weeks, the Randolph Boob club the last century three brothers, Billy held its first meeting last Friday with Thomas and Abisha Slade. They were Mrs. J. D. Ross. A number of visitall good farmers and all cultivated toors were present. The home was attractively decorated in spring flowers. Slades came to his father and said, and interesting presents are several flowers. Father, I am about to fire a harp of "Father, I am about to fire a barn of tobacco, and I am told that charcoal is the best thing, that it cures the leaf very yellow.

The old gentleman replied, "My son, you are curing that tobacco. Go to the blacksmith's shop and get some charcoal. Try it."

That was the first barn of bright to-bacco cured in North Carolina that we ever heard of. Abisha Slade was a Miss Mittie Lovett was hostess to very enthusiastic man and was County to as the Friday afternoon clab at her Court Clerk. He mounted his horse, moni home on Park Street. The members filled his big overcoat pockets with pract took their needlework. After sewing bundles of bright tobacco and rode life, for an hour Miss Lovett served ban-through the country, saying, "Boys, ing.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Met Last Saturday-Two Lady Speak-

their choice strenuously. Attorney C. November. N. Cox led the fight for Cephas Bow- The following is the list. The first man, Charles H. Redding the fight for named is the registrar, the second is A. B. Coltrane, who was elected by a a Democratic judge, and the third is

Thousands of peach trees in Geor- Amick asks that guaranters call for state executive committee, was intro- West Columbia—John A. Ward gia were killed outright by the cond their tickets immediately.

Speeches were also made by istrar; C. E. Baldwin, judge; J. Ward duced. duced. Speeches were also made by istrar; C. E. B. J. M. Burrow, of Asheboro, and Dr. J. Hollady, judge. D. Gregg, of Liberty, both of whom East Columbia—W. L. Scotten, regwere complimentary to the women. istrar; C. M. Staley, judge; Everette That some of the women were willing Thompson, judge. to enter politics was clearly demonstrated. Following the convention C. Ridge, judge; Thomas G. Bingham, Miss Circe Coble, of Liberty, filed her judge.

notice of candidacy to the board of East Franklinville—C. H. Julian, elections. This was the first announce- registrar; W. C. Jones, judge; John B. elections. This was the first announcement filed. Mr. J. A. Brady later filed Trogdon, judge.

West Franklinville—F. L. York,

Miss Elizabeth Poole Weds Mr. Zell
Brown

Thursday morning at the Methodist Protestant parsonage Miss Elizabeth
Poole was united in marrige to Mr. Zell Brown, by Rev. L. W. Gerringer.

Mr. Brown is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Miles T. Poole, of Norman. She has been in Asheboro for some time where trar; P. O. Shaw, judge; J. R. Johnshe held a responsible position with son, judge. she held a responsible position with son, judge.

Mr. A. O. Ferree.

New Market—Walter Coltrane, regMr. Brown is a very progressive istrar; John M. Furr, judge; N. E. Da-

The 46 high schools of the state son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown. | Pleasant Grove—J. M. Brown, registrich won both sides of the debate in They will make their home on Ashe—trar; M. E. Seawell, judge; J. T. Pow-recent state-wide campaign of school boro Route 1. Both Mr. and Mrs. ers, judge. debating union are sending their Brown have a host of friend who wish Providence—O. T. Macon, registrar; teams to Chapel Hill today for the them much joy and a life of great G. W Pugh, judge; W. R. Neece,

CAPALSIE NEWS

Miss Gladys Routh, of Troy, spent Saturday afternoon with her cousin trar; L. C. Smith, judge; B. E. Swan-Jewel Faulkenbery. ey, judge. ewel Faulkenbery.

Mr. R. O. Green went to Troy on Trinity—W. C. Massey, registrar; C. W. Redding, judge; J. P. Collett, business Saturday.

We are glad to report Master James judge. Martin who was ill several days last Union—C. H. Lucas, registrar; H. week much improved. L. Parks, judge; W. M. Coble, Jr., Mrs. Mach Lemonds, of Laurel Hill, judge.

two sons and four daughters who retrar; H. L. Andrews, judge; W. B. side in Capelsie.

Sheriff Stewart captured a whisker Coleridge C. H. Caveness, regis-BRIGHT TOBACCO still not far from here one day last trar; T. A. Cox, judge; L. B. Gardner, Wadeville Sunday. Little Miss Katherine Underwood Has ment of the State Firemen, that meets in Fayetteville the coming summer. Narrow Escape | Captain McNeill in addition to hav-had a narrow escape last Saturday years, has just retired from his 6th when a piece of bread lodged in her term as mayor of that historic city windpipe, almost causing death by and is also serving his 25th term as strangulation. Physicians were sum president of the state association, an moned and the little stall was a companient to the state association, and moned and the little girl was rushed organization that is composed of all to the Memorial Hospital where the of the fire departments in the state Drs. Hayworth opened the wind pipe except Asheboro, and it was t oput and inserted a tube. Life had almost them in line and touch with all of the specialist, was called from Greensboro to assist in a second operation. Pneumonia developed and for several hours practically no hope was given for her rode life, but the patient is now convalesc-

While the hospital has already been a great benefit to a number of people in the county, there is not a doubt that the life of this little girl was saved on account of the fact that she day night at the Central Hotel in non-ment Governor Bickett has had a letter from a traveling saleaman who heard a sixteen year old boy tell Dr. Hennessee on the train that "The Pittees are watining for you." The letter indicates that the writer thought Wiseman was innocent.

In an exciting seven inning contest on the local diamond yesterday Asheboro won from Trinity by a score of 1 to 0.

A spectacular catch by W. Cox in the sixth inning was the reature or the game.

RANDOLPH COUNTY ELECTION OFFICERS ARE NAMED

The board of elections of Randolph The Randolph county Republican Mr. S. W. Presnell, Democrats, and tions each pushing the candidacy of primay June 5, and general election in

West Columbia—John A. Ward reg-

East Columbia-W. L. Scotten, reg-

Concord-S. M. Lewis, registrar; C.

judge. Randleman—B. F. Henley, registrar; J. H. Frazier, judge; Wiley F. Tally,

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cole, of Kichland—A. C. Lowdermilk, regis-Thomas sille, is risiting at George Mc-trar; W. A. Craven, judge; Arthur E. Davis, judge.
Tabernacle—L. E. Hoover, regis-dolph county; Mrs. R. C. Murrow and is visiting her children here she has Back Creek-Talmage Bulla, regis-

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin also Mr.

W. A. Martin attended church at Troy
Baptist church Sunday night.

The Capelsie public school closed wile, was a visitor in the city the latthe capelsie public school closed wile, was a visitor in the city the lat-The Capelsie public school closed wille, was a visitor in the city the latteristing closing ter part of last week. Captain Monight A large crowd attended and every one seemed to enjoy the exercise.

Miss Annie Burroughs returned home Sunday. Miss Burroughs was testing in the primary grades here. It was representing the state fireman's association. He was very much interested in Asheboro, which he claims as his birth plate. He is a son of the late George McNeill, a Presbyteman church was testing in the primary grades here.

teaching in the primary grades here. hablished the first Presbyterian church Mr. Clyde Burroughs, of Allreds in this section.

Mr. Barl Haywood who has been cials and the first chief to discuss with visiting his grandmether Mrs. Nettie them the importance of having the Grant returned to his home near Green returned to his home near fire department properly represented at the annual convention and toruna-

Little Miss Katherine Underwood ing been fire chief of Fayetteville for become extinct when the operation other departments so that they could was performed. Later Dr. Banner, a receive the benefits accruing to them from the privilege state tax upon fire insurance premiums paid upon proper-ty in Asheboro, that was the real cause of his visit to us at this time, He was assured by Chief Rush that Asheboro would be on hand at the convention at Fayetteville.

could have immediate and efficient attention right in Asheboro.

Aaron Wiseman's Sentence Commuted
Aaron Wiseman, who was con icted of the murder of Dr. Hennessee at Copenhaver, Messrs. Ramsey, Patton, Glen Alpine last fall, and who was sentenced to be electrocuted last week, Staley. Staley.

Asheboro Wins From Trinity