Wonders of Burbank, Plant Wizard, Theme of Chautauqua Lecture

The marvelous achievements of Luther Burbank, the plant wizard, will be related to Redpath Chautauqua audiences this season. Mr. Burbank is so busy with his plants that he is unable to leave them to tell about the things he has accomplished, but his co-worker and friend, Henry A. Adrian, educator and lecturer, has consented to do so.

Mr. Adrian will carry with him and show to his audiences specimens of the new plants and improved varieties that Mr. Burbank has produced and will tell of the wonders accomplished and to be accomplished.

Mr. Adrian uses the development of plant life as a plea for the development of child life as well.

The Overall Club Movement

Strikingly similar to the once popular "buy a bale cotton movement" in 1914 is the new "overall club" fad. If all those who buy the overalls would wear them until they get the full benefits to be derived thereby then a lowering of price of clothing may be looked forward to with a great degree of certainty.

If all those, before buying, firmly resolve that they will wear the overalls and get them aside as soon as the "novelty wears off" the movement will be a success, even though it may cause the price of overalls to advance 100 per cent.

The "wear old clothes movement" is gaining popularity and may well be worked in with the overall idea since both have the same common good.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

The great benefit derived from use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been gratefully acknowledged by many. Mrs. Benjamin F. Blakeway, Decatur, Ill. writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is by far the best medicine for colds and coughs we have ever used in our family. I gave it to my children when small for croup and have taken it myself."

Scene from Rollicking Comedy, "Nothing But The Truth," Sixth Night of Chautauqua

"Nothing But The Truth" is one of the most widely known comedy comedies.

As a novel by Frederick S. Isham, it was read by millions of people, and later as a play it ran more than a season on Broadway.

It is the ingenious, entertaining story of a young society idler who wants that he can tell the absolute truth for one whole day.

A complete production of "Nothing But The Truth" will be given on the sixth night of the Redpath Chautauqua here, by a New York company of nine people.
