VOTE FOR THE MAN FOR CONGRESS WHOSE HANDS ARE NOT TIED BY ANY SPECIAL INTERESTS BUT BELIEVES IN A SQUARE DEAL FOR ALL.

WILLIAM C. HAMMER
Candidate for Congress

There are thirteen counties in the Seventh Congressional District. Randolph is one of them and more Democratic votes have been cast at every election in this county than any other in the district. The next county having the largest Democratic vote in every general election is the County of Davidson. Then comes Union, Wilkes and Anson, Wilkes giving more than Anson last election. Randolph has a candidate for Congress this year, and all who have looked into the situation concede that he will carry eight counties, and possibly nine of the thirteen counties. The counties that he will carry are Davis, Davidson, Hoke, Lee, Montgomery, Randolph, Wilkes and Yadkin. Practically all the votes in these counties will be for Mr. Hammer, and his friends claim that he will get a good vote in Moore. The most important thing now is to get out the vote in the upper end of the district. There are in Randolph county nearly three thousand Democratic votes. More than twenty-eight hundred Democratic votes have been cast in the general election. If Randolph will give anything like the full percentage of its Democratic votes for its candidate for Congress in the primary on next Saturday, there is not a possibility of a second primary.

There is an advantage to any county in having a representative in Congress. It is gratifying to know that while there is some division as to other candidates, the voters are almost a unit for their home candidate.

Several articles have been submitted for publication in this newspaper this week, appealing to the voters of the county to support Mr. Hammer, but there is not space sufficient, and it is not necessary to publish them. The one thing that is necessary is for his friends to be active in a systematic, persistent effort to get out the voters who are known to be for Mr. Hammer.

Let the Democrats in the upper part of the district break their record and turn out to the primary in full strength and nominate a member of Congress from the county which has more Democratic voters than any other county in the district. Let every Democrat attend and urge his neighbor to do likewise.
