NUMBER 25

MR. HAMMER WON CONG'L NOMINATION

MR. BROCK NOT TO TRY IT OVER Hammer's Lead the Longest of Any In the State.

The lead of Mr. Hammer for Congress in this district was nearly two thousand over his highest opponent, Mr. Brock, the exact number of votes which Mr. Hammer received more than Mr. Brock being 1868.

Mr. Hammer received notice from Mr. Brock while in Conference with his friends at Sanford Thursday night of his veek that he would not ask for a second primary. The Chairman or the State Board of Elections having called upon Mr. Brock to know whethor not, he replied that he would not, and issued the following statement to the public:

"I have decided not to enter the second p. 1.nary as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district. To my friends throughout the district who stood so loyally by me in the primary June 5th and veted for me, I wish to say that I a... deeply grateful to you and thank each one most sincerely. I hope that the opportunity may sometime come so that I may render some service that will justify the confidence expressed by your votes. My campaign has been conducted by those in charge on a high plane and we therefore have no regrets. I hope that every Democrat will make it his business to see that the majority in the November election is the greatest in the history of our party in this state dent of the state college of that state, for I am fully convinced as a result for I am fully convinced as a result delivered an able address to an ap- the platform on which he is making dren of the State, the future men and of history, that the richest benefits to preciative audience at the Friends the race. be derived from the administration of church last Sunday at 11 o'clock. our government must come through the instrumentality of the Democratic
