MEETING OF BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

At a meeting of the board of commissioners of Randolph county in the court house in Asheboro January 2nd, the following business was transacted: Accounts, etc., are recorded in Disbursement Register No. 4, pages 100 to 102 and 114 to 211 inclusive.

The following were released from 1921 county taxes account (error):

Mrs. J. S. Kinley, Trinity township, $2.85; John A. Curtis, Providence township, $8.50; W. G. and W. H. Cox, Coleridge township, $9.08; J. C. Cox, Liberty township, and B. I. Parham, Franklinville township, were released 1921 poll tax account physical infirmities. M. M. Bouldin, Trinity township, was released $6.66 school tax 1921 account same being and lying in Archdale school district. M. A. Brown, Randleman township, was released of $3.27 Randleman road bond tax, account same lying and being in Back Creek township. B. G. Campbell, of Liberty township, was released taxes on $2533 valuation account not being allowed 33 1-3 per cent reduction from last year's valuation, county tax $21.54. O. W. Vestal was released 1921 taxes on $833 valuation, account of not being allowed 33 1-3 per cent reduction from last year's valuation, county tax, $708. R. W. Haywood, Asheboro township, was released 1921 poll tax account of being in U. S. service. Sheriff J. A. Brady was released 1920 taxes on land being sold and bid in by the county of Randolph to amount of $408.09. J. L. Hollins, col. Grant township, was released taxes on $100 account same being listed and paid in name of John Holland, state and county tax 57c, to rost $2.50.

Upon petition of John F. White, ex-officio clerk to the board, it was ordered that he be allowed $4 per day for such services rendered in the future.

The following report from the grand jury was submitted:

His Honor, Walter E. Brock, Judge Presiding: The grand jury for the term have completed the business before them and have returned all submitted to us for action and made presentments of all matters which are within our knowledge, have examined the institutions of the county, either in body or by committee.

We found the court house well kept and its offices in good condition with the exception that the roof of the building needs plastering overhead and the chairman of the board of commissioners informed us that the necessary repairs would be done within a short while.

We found 13 prisoners in the jail, report they are well fed and cared for. We found the jail well kept in sanitary condition.

We found 19 inmates in the common, 7 white males, 8 white females, 1 colored male and 3 colored females, who appear to be as well cared for as the condition of the old jail would permit.

We also visited the new county jail which is now being constructed and find the work progressing well, the walls about complete and the roof being put on.

The chairman of the highway commission reports to us that they have a head of mules and horses, 10 wagons with road graders, tractors and necessary road machinery for the construction and maintenance of the county roads, which is worth from $20,000 to $25,000, and that they are doing all the road work possible with the funds available.

We wish to extend our thanks to our honor and the officers of the court for the courteous treatment and consideration we have received. Respectfully submitted, N. N. NEWLIN, Foreman of the Grand Jury.

The following application was presented:

The Board of Education presented the Board of County Commissioners Randolph, applications for Randolph's full quota of the Special Building Fund, provided by the Legislature Regular Session 1921. This Act provides for a $5,000,000.00 bond issue by the State, bearing interest at a rate of 5 per cent to be appropriated to the counties upon the basis of a school census. The Board of Education of Randolph County asked for full quota which is between $65,000 and $70,000.00.

After careful consideration the Board of Commissioners decided to approve the applications for a loan of $5,000,000.00 instead of the full quota, dividing the County Board of Education upon receipt of this money shall contribute 75 per cent of it to the city and 25 per cent to rural school.

Copies of the application are filed with the Secretary of the Board of Commissioners, and a copy mailed to the State Board of Education.

It was ordered that the following land should be sold at public auction during the month of February 1922:

NEWS IN BRIEF

Asheville, suffered considerable loss by fire on New Year's day. Five buildings caught and much damage was done in several cases. Among the buildings that burned were an apartment house, sanitarium and private residences.

A startling and bold robbery occurred at the home of Mrs. Joe M. Thomas at Sanford, last week, when Mrs. Thomas went out to see if the chicken house was locked securely. She had twelve hundred dollars hidden. She had 1,200 dollars in a hidden bag had just brought home to pay for some building. She was knocked down and robbed, and when her husband had started for a doctor, he was shot at. Bloodhounds were immediately put on the trail.

January was greeted in this part of the state with a drop of the mercury to 22 degrees, the coldest weather of the winter thus far. In a cold spell during October, the mercury fell to 24 degrees. A cutting wind also accompanied this drop.

The New Year's reception at the White House Monday given by President and Mrs. Harding was the first for nine years, and in spite of the biting cold and wind throngs gathered to greet the president and his wife. The number responding to the general invitation amounted to about 6,500 many of who stood in line for several hours waiting for the official section, which was headed by the Cabinet, diplomatic corps, members of congress, etc. to pass.

One thousand cases of whiskey was found on board the British auxiliary schooner Messenger of Fence December 31st, by the Coast Guard at Portsmouth, N. C. The vessel being an old one, it was sighted by the Coast Guard and signaled for assistance which immediately went. Finding the ships cargo to consist entirely of liquor, she was detained and an investigation begun. It is not known what disposition will be made of the Captain and his crew until after the investigation.

SENATOR PENROSE DIES SUDDENLY IN WASHINGTON

Senator Boise Penrose, of Pennsylvania, died suddenly at his hotel in Washington, January 1st, after having been in declining health for over a year. For a quarter of a century Senator Penrose has been an outstanding figure in Republican councils. The body was taken to his home at Philadelphia the following day accompanied by his brother, Dr. Charles B. Penrose, and his secretary. The funeral was a private one at the Senators home.

Both Houses of Congress will honor memorial services at an early date. It was the request of Senator Penrose that no undue pomp nor ceremony be displayed upon his death, the deceased having led a quiet and retiring life.

CAR STOLEN IN LIBERTY SUNDAY NIGHT

On Sunday evening while Mr. Boyd Register was attending church in the Methodist Episcopal church at Liberty his Ford Coupe was stolen. There is no clue as to who the thief was, up to the present. Mr. Register had a brand new lock on his car but had neither used it nor removed the switch key.

E. Brown. The bride is a charming and attractive young woman. Mr. Cagle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cagle. He has for a number of years been engaged in farming in Kansas. He came home for the Christmas holidays where he will remain until February at which time he will with his bride, return to Kansas.

RAMSEUR NEWS

The readers of The Courier and Ramseur News will have to bear with me for my failure to get news in last week and the week before. The first excuse came as a result of rush of business that caused me to neglect the letter till it was too late. The trouble last week was all on account of a turkey hunt, which had just as well not have happened, for Mr. Turkey went the other way that day, however, rambling over the hills gave me a fine appetite for the good dinner I had with Mr. Wm. Luck and family a few miles south of Asheboro. I will make a New Year's resolution to furnish the news this year better than I have been doing.

This has been a great Christmas season. It seems to me that nearer everybody had the real Christmas spirit than ever before. The New Year beginning with bright prospects for the people of the county and we all seem to be facing it with hope and a determination to make the best we can of this good year 1922.

Ramseur has a new postmaster, Mr. G. H. Hodgins, the office having been turned over to him last Saturday night.

The visiting school teachers all spent the holidays with their friends and relatives at their several homes. School will open again in a few days for the last half of the year.

Mrs. J. S. Wylie and Mrs. Bennett Kidd and their children went to Greensboro one day last week.

Mr. D. C. Holt and family spent Christmas with their children at Greensboro.

Misses Ruth and Nellie Craven, of Coleridge spent some time with their sister Mrs. C. E. Baldwin and others.

Mr. Clyde Allred and family, of Greensboro, spent a few days here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chappel and children, of Washington, D. C., spent some time with Mr. G. M. Whitehead and family.

A fine 22 pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Brady Jr., last week.

Several members of the school board and building force attended the banquet given by the contractors, J. W. Scott and Company, one night last week at Sanford.

Mr. Wm. Gardner, of Route 1 killed a champion hog of this year to the best of our knowledge, 730 pounds.

Another one that weighed 449. The Enterprise Manufacturing Co. suffered quite a loss and great inconvenience when one day last week their warehouse near Ramseur station fell.

It was, or partly so, contents being wheat and goods. Most of the wheat was saved after a great deal of work.

W. E. and V. C. Marley went to Greensboro Monday on business.

Mr. James Riverbarke, of Wake Forest spent Sunday in town with friends.

Paul Whitehead spent part of this week with friends at Greensboro.

Many were the visitors here Xmas from other sections, we fail to get them all but their presence was appreciated just the same.

The young folks who are in school away from Ramseur all spent the holidays here and are returning to their work this week.

It was not through lack of appreciation of so important event in the life of our community that report was not written last week of the elaborate and fitting celebration of Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Tate's Silver Wedding which occurred on the evening of December 23. Rather it was because the correspondent was informed that one who attended was to write it up and also owing to the Xmas rush all round. The occasion merited the most minute report in detail, however at this late hour I will only say that the scores of guests were most cordially received, royally entertained, bountifully served with refreshments, shown a most wonderful collection of silver, given a splendid program of music. Everybody extends most hearty congratulations to the good Doctor and wife and hope they will celebrate again twenty-five years hence.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Crazier of T. M. and Mrs. Rufus Crazier entertained thirty-five members of his family at his home Christmas day.

MR. TOM FOX OF ASHEBORO MARRIED

A marriage of interest to his many friends in Asheboro was that which occurred at China Grove on December 28th, when Mr. Tom Fox was married to Miss Edith Ketter. Mr. Fox left Asheboro to spend the holidays with friends but told one of his best friends that he intended to launch upon life's matrimonial sea. He went to China Grove where he spent the holidays with his fiancée, and they were married the 28th at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Fox are deaf and dumb. They met each other during their school days and have been lovers ever since. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Ketter, who is a substantial farmer in the China Grove section. The groom is a son of Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Fox. He has many friends in Asheboro who extend congratulations and good wishes.

Mr. Charles Parkin, Trinity, Married The announcement of the marriage of Mr. Charles Parkin, eldest son of Captain and Mrs. Charles Parkin, of Trinity, to Miss Flossie Benton, of Evergreen, was received this week in Asheboro with much interest. The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents Monday, Dec. 28.

WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

Randolph Book Club Meets

The Randolph Book Club met with Mrs. John T. Moffitt Friday afternoon and was one of the most attractive meetings of the season. After all the members had arrived, the meeting was called to order and the chapter was read from the life of Edward Bok by Mrs. J. O. Redding. Mrs. J. D. Ross read an interesting paper on Harold Bell Wright. After the current events, there was a knock at the door and Miss Mary Moffitt invited the ladies to the dining room. In the center of the table was a "Christmas Pie" containing the gifts made by each Club member. A few weeks ago it was suggested that each member make one gift. The ladies were each given a number as they entered the dining room; these numbers corresponded with those attached to red ribbons coming from the "Pie" at the end of which a tiny silver Christmas bell. In this way each club member received a gift with from some member. The hostess, assisted by Miss Mary Moffitt served grape fruit with a red cherry in the center, this was followed by chicken salad, with beaten biscuits, pickles, wafers, and coffee. On each plate was a red paper basket filled with mints.

In Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Broadfoot

Complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Broadfoot, of Fayetteville, Mrs. Hal W. Walker entertained a few friends at Bridge Friday evening. The game was played at two tables for an hour. Later the hostess assisted by Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer served red and green gelatine with whipped cream, coffee, and a large platter of home made cake was passed. Mints were on each table during the games. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Broadfoot, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ferguson, Misses Bera Scarborough, Annie Fox and Kate Hammer.

Dance Tuesday Night

The Carolina Club gave a dance last Tuesday night complimentary to the young women of the town at the Ashlyn Hotel. Cards were also issued to a number of the people in surrounding towns and many young people from High Point, Greensboro, Carthage and Pinehurst were present. The "Harmony Hounds" of Greensboro, who are considered among the best musicians in the state furnished the music for the occasion.

Miss Vivian Cranford Hostess

Miss Vivian Cranford entertained Wednesday night of last week, honoring her guests, Misses Lula Daley, Celeste Hayden and Helen Reynolds. The guests were met at the door by Mrs. Cranford, then shown to the receiving line and up stairs by Mrs. Ed Cranford.

A watch contest was one interesting feature of the evening, the prize being won by Miss Elizabeth Skeen and Claude Newlin. A stunt game was then played and for the best stunt a prize was given to Miss Reynolds and Tom Wiles.

The hostess served an ice course with mints and salted nuts to the following: Misses Helen Reynolds, Lula Daley, Celeste Hayden, Alberta and Foye Ingram, Golda Hayworth, Clarabel Morris, Adelaide Armfield, Mae Pressnell, Etta Reid Wood, Virginia Redding, Nan Lewis, Julia Ross, Ethel Cox, Elyer Richardson, Carrie Brittain, Elizabeth Skeen, Lucille Cavness, and Polly Brown, of Greensboro; and Messrs. Eugene Morris, Hobart Richardson, Howard Hilliard, Dan Burns, Stanton Skeen, June Frazier, Tom Wiles, Charles McCrary, Frank Foster, Edwin Morris, William Underwood, John Birkhead, Neely Hunter, Carl Page, Elton Stout, of Siler City, Tommy Monroe, Greensboro, Claud Newlin, Randleman, and John Foshee, of Greensboro.

Honors House Guest

Miss Etta Reid Wood entertained a dozen young people at her home Tuesday afternoon complimenting her house guest Miss Emma Page Wilder of Aberdeen. Rook was played at three tables in the living room after which the hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. John K. Wood served grape fruit with red cherries, fancy sliced sandwiches and hot tea.

Miss Wilder Honoree

Miss Emma Page Wilder was again honoree at a party given by Miss Ethel Cox Tuesday evening. The young people enjoyed games of various kinds. Later in the evening an ice course was served.

Mrs. Wirth Honoree

Mrs. J. V. Hunter gave her house guest Mrs. Hal M. Worth, of Charlotte, a most pleasant neighborhood surprise party Tuesday evening. Needle work and conversation furnished entertainment for the guests. Later in the evening the hostess served grape fruit salad with cherries, to the following: Mesdames Joe D. Ross, D. B. McCrary, Henry Robbins, E. H. Morris, and John Wood.

Mrs. Parrish Hostess

Mrs. Albert Parrish delightfully entertained a bevy of friends Tuesday evening. Music and contests of unique character afforded much amusement. After a merry half hour of matching wits, the first contest prizes went to Miss Mildred Birkhead and Albert Parrish. In the second Mrs. Bessie Rice and Miss R. G. Rush were the winners. Other prizes went to Miss

EX-GOVERNOR BICKETT LAID TO REST

The entire State was saddened last Wednesday when the death of her former governor was announced. If one word could sum up a man's character the word "loyalty" would fit our former beloved governor, for his love and loyalty to his state and home county made him foremost in the hearts of his friends.

Governor Bickett's death came a scant twelve hours after a stroke of paralysis which he suffered Tuesday evening, December 27th, at his home in Raleigh. Mrs. Bickett had been ill for a few days, and besides confined to her room, Governor Bickett had carried her supper tray to her. He complained of a severe headache and went to his room to lie down, but shortly returned to his wife's room in a frenzy of pain. He fell across her bed and was found to be unconscious. From this he never rallied, and his death occurred next morning at 9:00 o'clock. His entire right side was paralyzed.

Thomas Walter Bickett was born at Monroe in 1869, the son of T. W. and Mary A. Covington Bickett. He graduated from Wake Forest College, taught school for a short while, studied law at the University, practiced for a year at Danbury, then moving to Louisburg, where he married Miss Frances Yarborough. To their union was born one son, William, who survives, and two children who died in early life.

In 1907 the former governor was elected to the legislature, where he quickly took a commanding position. He came into prominence before the state in 1908 when he nominated Ashley Horne for governor at the famous Charlotte convention. Horne did not get the nomination but Bickett's nominating speech made him the choice of the convention for attorney general. In 1916 he defeated E. L. Doughtride for the Democratic nomination for governor and was elected in November over Frank A. Linney, Republican nominee.

During his term as governor he rendered great service for the state in fostering a notable program of legislation which was enacted into law and paved the way for six months school term good roads and more support for higher education. As a war governor his services were notable and were in demand throughout the state and in many other states.

The funeral and burial took place at his home, which is in Louisburg, where he loved and was beloved as a member. In the death of Governor Bickett the state has not only lost one of her most loyal and most beloved sons but one of her most noted orators as well.

MR. G. H. KING WINS IN $100,000 INSURANCE CLUB

Mr. G. H. King, of Asheboro, was one of the successful contestants in the $100,000 club of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company. Mr. King will leave Sunday night for Miami, Fla., where he will attend the meeting of the agents of the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company. This trip is given to him as one of the winners in the contest. Mr. King expects to visit his brother, Rev. F. D. King, while he is away.

Change in Daily News Staff

Everett A. Houser, for the past year and a half reportorial editor of the Greensboro Daily News, has resigned and will leave this week for his home in Shelby, where he will read law preparatory to entering the University next fall. Mr. Houser made many friends while with the Daily News. He is succeeded by J. Worth Bacon, who has been in newspaper work for some time. He goes to Greensboro from High Point, where he was city editor of the High Point Enterprise.

Amie Fox and Mr. Goode. The dining room was tastefully decorated in Christmas colors.

Miss Ross Hostess

Miss Hallie Ross entertained the members of the Two Table Bridge Club and a few other guests at her home on Sunset Avenue Friday afternoon. The games were enjoyed until late in the afternoon, and when the score was counted, the club prize went to Miss Mary Moffitt and the visitors prize to Miss Bera Scarborough. The prizes were daintily hand made handkerchiefs. The hostess, assisted by Miss Julia Ross served chicken salad, wafers, stuffed celery, hot coffee and mints.

Mrs. Lewis Entertains Junior Choir

Mrs. J. S. Lewis and Miss Nan Lewis entertained the members of the junior choir of the M. P. church at their home on Sunset Avenue Tuesday evening. The young folks were entertained by games, contests and music. In the contest, which was guessing the contents of eight bottles containing things used in the kitchen by sense of smell, Miss Mabel Wright and Thomas Redding won the prizes, the prizes being a bottle of perfume and a box of candy. After the contest the hostesses served ice cream fruit cake and wafers. The contestants were assisted in entertain by Mesdames W. F. Redding, Hal W. Walker and Misses Kate Brittain and Josephine Smith.
