He purchased a fine male calf which he expects to keep for a stock cow. One of the best milk cows brought $305. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Austin Finch, of Thomasville, a son. Community Singing By Teachers. Members of the county summer school gave a community singing at the courthouse Monday evening and it was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. Following the singing Dr. Edward C. Perisho, of Guilford College, who is recognized as one of the foremost educators of the country, made an address on What a School is For. In this he strongly urged the importance of community pride in which every individual should be interested. Dr. Perisho appealed to the teachers to feel it a privilege as well as a duty to instill this into the citizens, the teachers' opportunity was great to perform a service of this kind, said the speaker. He urged the teachers to teach the children the value of high school and college education. Dr. Perisho also spoke briefly on consolidation of schools. The summer school will close Friday after having been in session six weeks. Mr. R. C. Cox and his assistants, Misses Mary G. Summerhill and Lois Workman, of Burlington, have done splendid work as have the teachers who have regularly attended. Mr. Griffin, of the State Board of Education, has been in Asheboro this week visiting the summer school. Page-Shelton. A marriage of interest in the state occurred at Boone Sunday, August 20th, when Miss Nancy Shelton, of Charlotte, and Mr. Reid Page, of Aberdeen, were quietly married. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Shelton and well known and liked throughout the entire state. Mr. Page is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Page, of Aberdeen. Only the mother and father of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony which was a complete surprise to the friends of both parties. Kills Two Rattlesnakes. George Lassiter, of Mechanic, while plowing in a field about 100 yards from the house last week turned under a rattlesnake measuring 4 1/2 inches. He also killed another one and has killed several more since.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL FRIENDS MEETING AT SPRINGFIELD The fifteenth annual meeting of the Friends memorial association was well attended at Springfield church near Archdale last Saturday. Dr. E. C. Perisho, of Guilford College, in his address, gave reasons why it is well to commemorate the lives of those who have led the forces of righteousness and progress, declaring the outstanding figures of old Springfield were leaders in religious work, movements for good government and for better and more scientific methods of agriculture. The address was full of timely information and of suggestions to persons now living how they might contribute to our day and generation as those who have gone before. He congratulated those present upon their ancestry and recounted the splendid activities in which many of them were engaged. A paper commemorating William and Amanda Richardson was read by their granddaughter, Sara Richardson Haworth. The paper was based upon authentic records and upon diaries and correspondence of these two well known Friends. Most interesting stories had been gathered from older members of the memorial association who are still living. The memorial paper of Jeremiah Pickett was prepared and read by his grandson, Cyrus P. Frazier. Mr. Frazier punctuated the reading with an anecdote and story, which lent interest and light on the period of reconstruction and hardships that followed the Civil war. It is the purpose of the association to have all such papers as those read Saturday edited and printed in book form as a means of preserving valuable historical data. It was reported by Jones Tomlinson, of Greensboro, that another thousand dollars had been raised by his committee to add to the endowment fund of the association. Mr. John Blair was elected president of the association, the following persons were elected to serve with him: Vice president O. E. Wilson; secretary, Miss Emma Blair; treasurer, Amanda Richardson Mattacks; treasurer of an endowment fund, Myrtle P. Tomlinson; recorder, Martha E. Blair; keeper of the grounds, Oliver Weaver. RANDOLPH CONTRIBUTED $1,445.50 FOR NEAR EAST RELIEF Randolph county raised $1,445.50 for Near East Relief this year, or 73 per cent of its quota, according to announcement from Raleigh by Col. Geo. H. Bellamy, state chairman. Randolph stood thirty-fourth in the list of counties in North Carolina in amounts raised. Mrs. Hal W. Walker, of Asheboro, was chairman for Randolph county, and her work was highly commended by Col. Bellamy in his annual report which has just been issued. Randolph sent in $454.75 in cash up to the close of the fiscal year on June 30. On that date there were $222 in unpaid pledges not yet due. Clothing to the value of $768.75 was sent in from the county. In thanking his chairmen and workers and the people who contributed this money, Col. Bellamy called attention to the fact that it will be necessary to put on a similar campaign this fiscal year, because the great powers of the world are allowing the Turks to continue their massacres in Armenia and destruction of all crops, homes and industries. "There have been twenty-two separate massacres since the armistice," declared Col. Bellamy, "which makes it impossible for these people to be self-supporting until France, England and Italy relinquish their protectorate over Turkey in their mad scramble for the Mohammedan calico trade. "The recent British refusal to allow the Greek army to stop massacres of its own people was one of the most astounding and sordid chapters in history, and until such conditions as this disappear and England becomes a Christian nation, the American people are the only thing that stands between Armenia and the entire starvation of its outstanding population." Changes Mind About Suicide. Greensboro did not accord a very warm welcome to R. W. Pearce, a man apparently about 60 years old, who was caught peddling morphine in the city. The man has been in the city lock-up since Friday and declared that he would kill himself some time during the day Monday. As the warden came around to count how many boarders he had for dinner, he discovered Pearce in a critical condition and position. He had attempted to hang himself with a sheet which he had torn in strips, hung to a hook in the ceiling and the other end around his neck. He then intended to lie on his bunk and roll off, thus ending his career, but as he started to roll, he changed his mind before his feet got off the bunk and clung violently with his toes. Had the warden delayed his trip for 15 minutes, he would have choked, stated the physician in attendance. Pearce has spent at least one term in the federal prison, and now awaits trial again in the city jail in Greensboro. Upon being asked where he is from, he answered, "I'm from nowhere." Officers say the old man is from Columbia, or some other place in South Carolina. Dies from Apoplexy. After eating a hearty dinner, Daniel R. Jessup, a prominent Guilford county farmer and his wife, living near the Guilford Battleground, walked out to the tobacco barn to see how the tobacco was curing. Mr. Jessup climbed up on the ladder to look at it, and when he came down sat down beside a large oak tree and died before medical aid could reach him. His death was due to apoplexy. The deceased was fifty-three years old, and a popular man in his community. He was a great lover of base ball and played whenever he had the opportunity. The funeral and burial were conducted from Pleasant Ridge church near Summerfield Wednesday. Funeral of Ruth Elizabeth Langley. The funeral of Ruth Elizabeth Langley, the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Langley was held from Cedar Grove church Saturday afternoon. The little girl died at the home of her parents at Glenwood following a brief illness.

WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS Monday Evening Club. The Monday Evening Club met this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Walker on South Fayetteville street. Games were played at two tables until the cards were collected at a late hour, when the hostess served a congealed salad with sandwiches, sweet apple rider, followed by candies. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ferguson, Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer, Messrs. Kirby A. Page, W. A. Rousseau, and Tom Wiles. Mr. Pritchard Host. In response to invitations reading, "Garland Pritchard, at Garland Lake, Monday, August 21, 1922, 6:00 p. m. Misses Lula and Ethel Pritchard, (Boys bring girls; girls bring lunch), about fifty young people of the town enjoyed a most delightful picnic at Garland Lake. The party motored to the lake about 6:00 in the afternoon and enjoyed swimming and boating until the picnic supper was served on the screened veranda. After supper a party dance was enjoyed, Mr. Pritchard adding to the pleasure of his guests by providing serpentine and noise makers. The party disbanded at a late hour after a most pleasant evening. Notice to School Children. Some time ago I sent notices to the parents of individuals in the high school who failed on some work during the past year in which I called their attention to the necessity of passing this work before school opens in the fall. I am now ready to do my part towards giving you a chance to advance with your regular grade. On Wednesday and Thursday of next week, August 30 and 31, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., I will give these examinations in the school building. Please take your books, pencils and tablets with you. Be certain to meet me on one of these days, for after this time I simply will not have time to give examinations. School opens for the fall term in the courthouse on Wednesday, September 6, at 9 o'clock in the courthouse. Get ready with books and all supplies. Take all books studied last year to school on opening day. Last of faculty will be published next week. Very truly, D. W. MADDOX. MRS. SARAH BURROW CURTIS DIES AT SILER CITY Mrs. Sarah Burrow Curtis died at the home of her son in Siler City Monday, August 21, following an illness of several years ill health. Her extreme illness was of three weeks' duration, pellagra being the cause of her death. Mrs. Curtis was the daughter of the late William Burrow, who lived five miles east of Asheboro. She married John Curtis more than thirty years ago and for a number of years lived in Randolph but moved to Chatham more than twenty years ago. After the death of Mr. Curtis two years ago Mrs. Curtis has resided with her son Lee Otis Curtis of Siler City. Deceased was 49 years of age. She is survived by two sons, L. O. and Sam Curtis, of Siler City, and one daughter, Mrs. Clem Goodman, of Cameron. Mrs. Curtis is also survived by three brothers, Nathan Burrow, of Asheboro; John Burrow, of Franklinville, and Orlando Burrow, of Asheboro route 1. Funeral was conducted at Mt. Vernon Springs Tuesday by Rev. Fountain, after which burial followed. Seagrave Wins From Shiloh 5 to 3 For the first time in ten years, Seagrave defeated the fast base ball team from Shiloh last Saturday 5 to 3. It was one of the best games played on the local diamond this season, many sensational plays occurring in the game. Only eight hits were secured off the delivery of Cox for Seagrave, while ten were garnered off the two visiting twirlers. The features of the game was the hitting of Walker, Robbins and Cox, of Seagrave. Walker secured three hits, Robbins hit in three runs and scored one himself, while Cox hit in one run and twirled a good brand of base ball. A large and enthusiastic crowd attended the game. Prominent Aberdeen Man Dies. The Sandhill section lost one of her foremost citizens in the death of Mr. John Blue, of Aberdeen, last Tuesday. Mr. Blue was 77 years old, and a pioneer turpentine operator, lumberman, and railroad builder of that section. He was a popular man, having a wide circle of staunch friends, and will be missed in the Bethesda Presbyterian church, of which he was a ruling elder. Mr. Blue had been in ill and failing health for the past several months, but for several days prior to his death, he had been in a critical condition. He leaves a wife, three sons, W. A. Halbert and Henry Blue, all of Aberdeen, and two daughters, Mrs. J. W. Graham and Miss Louise Blue. One brother, Neill A. Blue, of Raeford, also survives. Birthday Celebration. A number of neighbors, friends and relatives met at the home of Miss Tamer E. Glasgow, Sunday August 21, to celebrate her 78th birthday. A long table 30 feet in length under the shade trees in the yard was spread with a bountiful feast of good things to eat. After prayer and a short talk by Rev. Joe Smith those present enjoyed the splendid dinner. Although the affair was a surprise to Miss Glasgow she enjoyed the occasion very much. The afternoon was spent in pleasant conversation after which all departed, wishing her many more happy birthdays. Funeral of Ruth Elizabeth Langley. The funeral of Ruth Elizabeth Langley, the six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Langley was held from Cedar Grove church Saturday afternoon. The little girl died at the home of her parents at Glenwood following a brief illness.

Lynn Stout, son of Mr. W. C. Stout, Rev. T. J. Green performing the ceremony. Mrs. James C. McAlister met the guests at the door and ushered them into the parlor where the wedding took place. The home was made lovely by the use of ferns and cut flowers of various kinds. The bride wore a most becoming blue canton crepe dress with grey accessories, carrying a bouquet of beautiful white roses and ferns. Her attendants were Miss Myrtle Cox and Mr. J. C. Brooks, Miss Mattie Andrew and Mr. W. L. Brooks, Miss Pauline McAlister and Mr. Glenn Stout. Miss Clara McAlister, wearing light blue canton crepe, presided at the piano and softly played "Love's Dream," while the wedding party came in. They will spend a few days in Rameur and will later make their home in Greensboro.
