

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS

The protracted meeting closed at the Holiness church Sunday night with 63 conversions.

Mr. John Allred and family of Rockingham, spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Peter Allred.

Revival service will begin at the Baptist church next Monday evening October 2.

Mr. Joe Shaw has moved his family from Cedar Falls to the residence vacated by Luther Burrow on Stony avenue.

D. F. Hayes and family and Mrs. Meter Leonard have moved to Durham.

Both cotton bills shut down one day last week and a large number of our people attended the county fair at Asheboro.

Messrs. Paul Routh and Fred Patterson left Monday morning for the University where they will enter school.

Mrs. S. E. Teague left Friday for a few weeks visit at Sanford.

Mr. P. D. Luther is attending court at Troy this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fentriss spent Saturday evening and Sunday at High Point.

Mrs. R. D. Garrison visited relatives at Greensboro last week.

Mrs. M. C. Jones, of near Melancton, is visiting her people here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Russell, Mrs. M. L. Buie and daughter, Miss Mattie Buie, spent Saturday and Sunday at Hamlet.

Mr. Ras Grimes has moved his family to Coleridge where Mr. Grimes has charge of a shuttle block mill.

Several of our people attended the revival meeting at Grays Chapel Sunday.

The protracted meeting commenced at Shady Grove church Sunday, the pastor, Rev. G. W. Morehead, of High Point, is assisted by Rev. McKay, of Greensboro.

Mr. W. R. Thomas and Miss Beatrice Trogdon were married last Wednesday evening at the M. E. parsonage, Ramseur, Rev. W. M. Smith officiating. The couple have many friends here who wish for them long and useful lives.

Mr. C. L. Allred, one of our wide-awake poultrymen, received the first prize on his coop of Rhode Island Reds at the fair at Asheboro last week.

Mr. Allie Groce and Miss Esther Hancock were married Saturday evening and are receiving many congratulations from their numerous friends who wish for them long and happy lives.

Mr. C. B. Dove, of Richmond, Va., after visiting his father, Mr. D. Dove, has returned home.

Mrs. Margaret Smith, who holds a position as milliner for the Franklinville Store Co., has returned home after spending a few weeks in New York and Montreal, Can., where she has been visiting relatives. The Philaetha Sunday school class gave a party in her honor last week.

Mr. Fletcher York, of Albemarle, was a visitor here the first of last week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Pugh, a son, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Clarence Parks and children, who have been spending the summer in Richmond county, have returned.

Mr. C. E. Henson has finished the road leading to Cedar Falls, except the bridge across Bush Creek, near Arthur Wrenn's.

Messrs. Ross Grimes and W. R. Cox are preparing to saw shuttle blocks near Coleridge this fall.

Misses Katherine Buie and Lucy Buie have entered the Normal College at Greensboro.

RANDLEMAN NEWS

Mr. Sam Tempko, of Lynchburg, Va., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Max Waggoner.

Mrs. R. J. Waggoner and Mrs. Abe Bernard, of High Point, spent Wednesday here.

Several of our people attended the Randolph county fair at Asheboro last week.

Miss Lucile Swain, of Greensboro, is the weekend guest of Mrs. J. O. Pickard.

Miss Dorna Van Werry spent the weekend in Greensboro, guest of her sister, Mrs. Ed Allred.

Miss Nora Hughes spent Saturday in Greensboro.

Miss Veva Allred was a weekend visitor in Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Caudle were in town Sunday the guests of Mrs. J. C. Caudle.

Mrs. A. C. Cecil is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Bowman.

Rev. W. F. Womble, presiding elder, preached in St. Paul M. E. church last Sunday at 11 a. m. and held the fourth quarterly conference for the Randleman charge.

Rev. Jim Green, evangelist, will begin a tent meeting here this week. The tent will be located on the school ground.

Miss Hazel Floyd, of Greensboro, spent the weekend in town.

Mr. James Hayes was in town a short while Saturday enroute to Biscoe.

Miss Clara Hayes, of Greensboro, is the guest of Mrs. W. T. Ferguson.

FARMER NEWS

Mr. Chestnut, principal of Farmer school, attended a conference of high school teachers in Greensboro last week.

Miss Clyde Kearns, who is teaching music in Greensboro, spent one day at home recently.

Mr. William Horney and family and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan, of High Point, visited relatives here Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Hubbard spent Saturday and Sunday in Greensboro, as guests of their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Kearns.

Miss Kate Dorsett, who is teaching in Greensboro, spent the week end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Yates, of Greensboro, spent the week end at home.

RURAL CARRIER EXAMINATION AT LIBERTY OCTOBER 13

The United States civil service commission has announced an examination to be held at Liberty on October 13 to fill the position of rural carrier at Liberty.

Both men and women, if qualified, may enter this examination, the commission states. Women will not be considered for rural carrier appointment unless they are the widows of U. S. soldiers, sailors, or marines, or the wives of U. S. soldiers, sailors, or marines who are physically disqualified for examination by reason of injuries received in the line of military duty. Form 1977 and application blanks may be obtained from the office mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the commission at Washington at the earliest practicable date.

TRINITY NEWS

Mr. Marsh Bullard, of Gainesville, Fla., is visiting at the Parker house.

Rev. and Mrs. Marcus Woosley were at the parsonage recently on a visit.

Mrs. Treva Primm, who has been spending some time with her grandmother at the Parker house, has returned to her home in Raleigh.

Mr. Frank Wood and family have left for Hyde county.

The protracted meeting here will be held in October.

Mr. Wesley Reddick, who has been in feeble health for some time, is about the same.

Miss Lassie Cagle, of High Point, has been on a visit here.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson and little brother, Dougan Clark, of High Point, spent a short time in town recently.

The missionary meeting met with Mrs. Ballance Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Coltrane went to the Ebenezer neighborhood a few days ago.

The Missionary Society of North Trinity met with Mrs. Vancannon at her residence known as the old "Brick Lodge," last Friday afternoon.

Mr. Dave White and family have moved to the bungalow in South Trinity.

Miss Lula Younts was visiting friends in town Friday.

There is no hotel, tavern, inn or boarding house of any size in Trinity. There would be a good opening here for some one to run a large boarding house on European and American plans. It is needed here.

M. L. Edwards was visiting friends in town last week. Mr. Edwards graduated here in the college days 44 years ago. He was inquiring about Prof. L. Johnson, his teacher of mathematics.

Rev. and Mrs. Marcus Woosley have been in Trinity for several days, guests of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. E. Woosley. Mr. Woosley has been assisting his father in a meeting at Hopewell.

There is considerable interest in lights for Trinity. Mr. June Royals has been making a canvass of the town to ascertain the wishes of the people.

Johnson street is being improved. This news will be welcome to many of Trinity's residents and visitors.

Ex-Sheriff Blue.

After 12 years of efficient service as sheriff, Mr. D. Al. Blue, of Moore county, has retired and in the future will devote his entire time to farming.

As sheriff he served longer in the office than any other man in the history of this county and made a record probably never excelled.

It is understood that Sheriff Blue will engage in apple-growing, with due attention to peaches and tobacco.

Sheriff Blue is a devout Presbyterian and has the courage of his convictions. He has made a fearless, impartial officer and retires as a "friend of man."

NOTICE OF MORTGAGEE'S SALE OF LAND

Under and by virtue of power contained in a certain mortgage deed, given by W. J. Moore to the undersigned, bearing date of June the 14th, 1921, and recorded in the office of the register of deeds for Randolph county, North Carolina, in book 185, at page 63, to secure the payment of a certain bond or note of even date with said mortgage, and default having been made in the payment of said bond or note and the principal and interest of the same being due and unpaid, the undersigned will at 12 o'clock M., on the 28th day of October, 1922, at the court house door in Asheboro, North Carolina, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, all that certain lot or tract of land situate, lying and being in Randolph county, North Carolina, in the town of Asheboro, on Rush Avenue, adjoining the lands of Gid Macon and others and more fully described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a stake or stone in the south margin of Rush Avenue, Gid Macon's corner; running thence with Rush Avenue, south 70 degrees 30 minutes east 349.8 feet to a stake, the intersection of Rush Avenue and South, or Old Main Street; thence with the west margin of said street south 35 degrees 50 minutes west 236.2 feet to W. C. Hammer's corner; thence with W. C. Hammer's line north 86 degrees 30 minutes west 313 1/2 feet to a stake in W. C. Hammer's line; thence north 22 degrees 35 minutes west 316.3 feet to point of the beginning, containing about two (2) acres, more or less, and being all of what is known as the Wiley Rush home place. Said mortgage having been given to in part the purchase price of the above described land.

This the 27th day of September, 1922.

JEAN RUSH, WILEY D. RUSH, ULNA RUSH, MARGARET RUSH, Mortgages.

Hanner & Moore, Attorneys for Mortgagees.

Report of the Condition of THE BANK OF RANDOLPH

At Asheboro, N. C., in the State of North Carolina, at the close of business, September 15, 1922.

Table with Resources: Loans and discounts, Overdrafts, unsecured, United States Bonds and Liberty bonds, etc.

Table with Liabilities: Capital stock paid in, Surplus fund, Undivided profits, less current expenses and taxes paid, etc.

Report of the Condition of THE ASHEBORO BANK & TRUST COMPANY

At Asheboro, in the State of North Carolina, at the close of business, September 15, 1922.

Table with Resources: Loans and discounts, Overdrafts, unsecured, United States Bonds and Liberty bonds, etc.

Table with Liabilities: Capital stock paid in, Undivided profits, less current expenses and taxes paid, etc.

Report of the Condition of THE BANK OF COLERIDGE

At Coleridge, in the State of North Carolina, at the close of business, September 15, 1922.

Table with Resources: Loans and discounts, Demand loans, Overdrafts, unsecured, U. S. Bonds and Liberty Bonds, etc.

Table with Liabilities: Capital stock paid in, Surplus fund, Undivided profits, less current expenses and taxes paid, etc.

Report of the Condition of THE BANK OF FRANKLINVILLE

at Franklinville, in the State of North Carolina, at the close of business, September 15, 1922.

Table with Resources: Loans and discounts, Demand loans, Overdrafts, unsecured, Banking houses, furniture and fixtures, etc.

Table with Liabilities: Capital stock paid in, Surplus fund, Undivided profits, less current expenses and taxes paid, etc.

I, Cleon T. Spoon, cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

CLEON T. SPOON, Cashier. Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 26th day of Sept., 1922. J. T. BUIE, Notary Public. My commission expires January 28, 1923.

Correct-Attest: HUGH PARKS, H. S. EDWARDS, W. C. JONES, Directors.

Pleasant Birthday Dinner.

There was a delightful birthday dinner at Mr. M. F. Pugh's at Cedar Falls Sunday, September 17, in honor of his wife's 69th birthday.

North Carolina, Randolph County. Having qualified as administrator C. T. A. on the estate of W. W. Jones, before F. M. Wright, Clerk of the Superior Court of Randolph county.

All parties having claims against said estate are notified to present same to the undersigned duly verified within one year from date of this notice of this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons owing said estate will come forward and make immediate settlement.

This the 26th day of September, 1922.

H. C. JONES, Administrator, C. T. A. Chas. H. Redding, Atty. 9-28-6t

Administrator's Notice.

Having qualified as administrator of the estate of Rudy C. Brower, deceased, late of Randolph county, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against said estate of deceased to exhibit them, duly verified, to the undersigned on or before the 27th day of September, 1923, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery.

All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment.

This 27th day of Sept., 1922. J. DUDY Kirkman, Administrator Rudy C. Brower, deceased. R. F. Paschal, Atty. 9-28 6t

VALUABLE FARM AT AUCTION SATURDAY OCTOBER 14 At 12:00 M. Known as the Alfred Hanner farm, at Hannersville Cross Roads, Davidson county, containing 220 acres, located on the highway between Thomasville and Denton, eight miles south of Thomasville, ten miles east of Lexington, within 1-4 mile of church and school. C. & Y. R. R. runs through this property. Nine-room dwelling house, 6-room tenant house; two large barns and other outbuildings. 115 ACRES OF FOREST TIMBER. The land will be sold in four tracts, and then as a whole. For further information see or write J. W. Hanner, Asheboro, N. C., or Alred P. Hanner, Thomasville, N. C.

NOTICE-SALE OF REAL ESTATE FOR THE NON-PAYMENT OF DELINQUENT TAXES DUE THE TOWN OF ASHEBORO, N. C.

By order of the Board of Town Commissioners, and pursuant to the statutes in such cases made and provided, the undersigned, J. S. Ridge, Town Tax Collector for the Town of Asheboro, in the County of Randolph, State of North Carolina, will proceed on Monday the second day of October, 1922, at 12 o'clock M., at the court house door of Randolph County, to sell at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, those certain lots or parcels of land whereon taxes for the years 1919, 1920 and 1921, are past due and unpaid, as set forth in the following list which shows the names of the parties in whose names said property is listed, together with the amount of taxes and cost in connection with each separate parcel: This August 22, 1922. J. S. RIDGE, Town Tax Collector.

Table with columns: Name, Description, 1919, 1920, 1921. Lists property owners like M. M. Ferree, L. M. Fox, J. E. York, etc.

LINCOLN Get Behind The Wheel. A ride in a Lincoln is one continuous trip of comfort and enjoyment. Changes in road conditions bring scarcely any perceptible difference in the smoothness with which your car travels. The Phaeton $3800 F.O.B. DETROIT Ten Body Types. Asheboro Motor Car Company PHONE 171 ASHEBORO, N. C.