NOTICE

By virtue of the power vested in the undersigned by decree rendered in the Superior Court of Randolph County, in the Special Proceeding, entitled John R. Walton vs. Carl Coltrane et al., I will offer for sale at public auction at the court house door in Asheville, N. C., on Friday the 6th day of October, 1922, at 12 M. o'clock, the following lands situated in New Market township, Randolph County, N. C., and bounded as follows, to-wit:

Adjoining the lands of Ed Swain, Joe Walls, Clark Small, Whitehead, Ed Nance, Wm. Coltrane and others: Beginning at a black jack, in Coltrane's line running thence south on Swain's line 19 chains and 55 links to a black oak; thence east on Swain's line 21 chains and 75 links to a post oak in Johnson's line; thence south 35 chains and 30 links to a stake in the old field below the grave yard; thence west 24 chains 57 links to a stake near Wall's hickory corner; thence north 80 degrees west 10 chains and 55 links to a stone Wall's corner; thence south 10 chains and 10 links to a stake Small's corner; thence west on Small's line 6 chains 50 links to a stake in Whitehead's line; thence north on Whitehead's line 17 chains 28 links to a dogwood; thence north 80 degrees west 7 chains and 50 links to a black oak at a branch; thence north 40 degrees west down said branch 3 chains and 25 links to an ash on the branch; thence west 16 chains 38 links to Coltrane's corner; thence north on Coltrane's line 15 chains to a corner of the Jackson school house lot; thence west on school house lot 3 chains and 25 links to a stake; thence east 3 chains and 25 links to a stake in the Fetters old line; thence north 25 chains and 50 links to a stone; thence east 43 chains and 35 links to the beginning, containing 300 acres more or less.

The foregoing described lands will be offered for sale to the highest bidder in the following manner:

First. The entire tract of land and timber as above described will be offered for sale as a whole.

Second. All the merchantable timber trees on the above described lands will be offered for sale. In case the sale of the timber being confirmed by the court separate and apart from the land, the purchaser will be given a general timber deed containing the provision that the purchaser will have a period of three years from date of confirmation of sale in which to cut and remove said timber trees, and said purchaser shall have the right to cut and remove all timber trees measuring 8 inches across the stump 10 inches above the ground.

Third. The foregoing described lands, having been subdivided into four separate tracts, will be offered for sale as separate tracts of land and timber, the boundaries and acreages of each separate tract are as follows:

First Tract. Beginning at a black jack in Coltrane's line running south 19 chains and 25 links to a stake Swain's corner; thence north 85 degrees west 43 chains and 35 links on the dividing line to a stake in Coltrane's line; thence north 16 chains and 50 links to a stone; thence east 43 chains and 35 links to the beginning, containing 78 acres more or less.

Second Tract. A. FRANK WALL DIES IN HIGH POINT HOSPITAL

The death of S. Frank Wall, which came suddenly Friday afternoon following an operation for appendicitis at a local hospital in High Point, last Saturday Mr. Wall suffered an attack of appendicitis, and underwent an operation later. While he was considered in a serious condition, his death came as a surprise. Mr. Wall was born in Randolph County, son of the late S. W. and Nancy Wall, and lived in this county until several years ago when he moved to High Point where he has been in business ever since. He was conducting a grocery store on English street at the time of his death.

He was also a prominent Mason, having for several years been secretary of the Numa F. Reid Lodge number 244, of High Point. He was a faithful member of Wesley Memorial church, and it was from there that the funeral services were conducted. Surviving him are a widow, four sons, and four daughters, also three brothers, one of whom Mr. Joseph Wall, lives at Sophia in this county.

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
 And one clear call for me!
 And may there be no moaning of the bar
 When I put out to sea;

But such a tide as moving seems asleep
 Too full for sound and foam,
 When that which drew from out the boundless deep
 Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
 And after that the dark!
 And may there be no sadness or farewell
 When I embark;

For through from out our borne of Time and Place
 The flood may bear me far,
 I hope to see my pilot face to face
 When I have crossed the bar.
