The large 300 acre farm of Mr. D. W. McCarn, on Factory Road, about 12 miles south of Asheboro, four miles of Mitchfield on Norfolk Southern Railroad, will be subdivided into four tracts and sold at your own price on

AT ELEVEN O'CLOCK

Saturday, Oct.

There is on this place an excellent, well built and conveniently arranged dwelling, with large fireplaces, covered well under shelter, plenty of porch space, papered front rooms, etc. Large barn, stables, crib, tenant houses, and every equipment to be found on a first-class farm.

Fruits in abundance and of almost every description. Much of this land is suitable for tobacco or grain, for cattle and sheep raising; and on much of the land there will be in a few years a fine growth of timber.

Mr. McCarn has become very much attached to this home place, but finds it imperative to sell in order that he may take up work in another section. So now is the opportunity you perhaps have been wanting to get you a home and farm on easy terms of payment and at your own price. Recember the date, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 28, and be on hand. And even if you do not buy there will be many things of interest taking place. A brass band will furnish plenty of spirited music, and a number of prizes will be given away. Most of these prizes will be gold coins.
