WEEKLY RALEIGH LETTER

(By Maxwell Gorman.)

Raleigh, Oct. 24.—Marion Butler of Rep.-Pop. fusion days has been entered by the present-day Republican campaign managers for a speaking tour in the state, being billed this week and next for spell-binder efforts in Alexander, Catawba, Burke and other counties. Many voters remember how the "Sampson Fox" fooled them in the 90's and will not readily fall for his partisan sophistries in the election November 7th. It was his fault that he fooled enough voters to hoist himself into political office the first time. Those familiar with his record know that it will be their fault if he fools them again—and they will not allow him to do so. The efforts of the Republicans, emanating at Washington, where Butler appears to have started from with his orders, are mainly to capture a seat of two in the next congress, including that held by the old Confederate, Major Charles M. Stedman. Former cabinet official Leslie M. Shaw is invading the fifth for the Republicans in behalf of Mrs. Lindsay Patterson, the Republican candidate. The state is being canvassed by Democratic speakers most effectively, under direction of the state committee and the county committees, and the Democratic men and women of North Carolina must see to it that a full vote is polled—and the way to do that is for each individual Democratic voter to be sure and go to the polling places and cast their ballots. There are just fourteen days from this writing to put on the finishing touches to the line-up, and every one ought to measure up to their duty and run no risk of the loss of a single congressman or legislator. North Carolina was the only state in the American union that held and increased its Democratic majority at the election two years ago, when the north and west called for a "change"—and got it with a vengeance, to the regret and chagrin of millions of voters. The record of the Harding Republican national administration and that of the "worst congress ever" since that election is a menace that millions will resent at the polls next month. To stem the one-sided plutocratic tide that set in it is necessary to elect a Democratic congress this year, and the patriotic ex-service men and the deceived business men, working men, farmers especially, will show Warren Gamaliel Harding what a knock-out solar plexis is like, legislatively speaking. As the Democratic good-government hosts of North Carolina advance in this campaign, we all should keep an eye peeled on any and all efforts to sow dissensions in our ranks, and act accordingly. For whoever attempts it, if any should try it, is an enemy and a traitor to the only political party that has given and guarded and maintained honest, clean, Anglo-Saxon government and white supremacy to this Southland during the last half century—and it is as important now as ever to work and fight for the same principles and conditions as in the past. We have nominated all our candidates in the primaries and some county conventions, and no honest Democrat who participated therein can conscientiously scratch a ticket. The Tri-State Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Association has instituted suits against 14 members of the association residing in North Carolina, asking damages at the rate of five cents a pound for tobacco alleged to have been sold by the growers outside the association in violation of the contracts. FIRST LYCEUM ATTRACTION WAS WELL ATTENDED The first Lyceum attraction which was presented at the court house last night was well attended and was considered one of the best ever presented in the town. Woman's Club to Meet Wednesday. On account of court the Woman's club will not meet in court room as heretofore announced, but will meet in the Methodist Episcopal church on next Wednesday, November 1. Near East Relief Weeks This week and next are set aside for Near East relief contributions. There is hardly a person in the county who can't make a small contribution to the starving children in these Christian lands. Every one knows and bemoans the horrible conditions existing in these countries where the Turks are killing and persecuting by the hundred. Let us do our small part by giving what we can to relieve conditions. Send your contribution to Mr. I. C. Moser, Asheboro, N. C. All donations regardless of size, will be appreciated. MRS. HAL W. WALKER, Chairman Randolph County. Miss Mary Bulla Honored. Miss Mary Bulla, who graduated with high honors from the Asheboro high school last spring, and who entered Davenport College this fall has been made editor of the Davenport Weekly Record, a college publication. She has written a most interesting article on "Probable Reasons for Literary Achievements in North Carolina," which will appear later in The Courier. It is unusual that an honor of this kind is conferred upon a freshman in college, but the honor is worthily bestowed as Miss Bulla is an exceptionally brilliant young woman. She is the daughter of Mr. L. D. Bulla, who has for many years been connected with some kind of editorial work. A condensed handbook on feeding farm animals may be had by asking for the September 1923 bulletin of the Department of Agriculture. A card to the Editor, Experiment Station, Raleigh, will bring the booklet to you.

WEEK'S SOCIAL EVENTS

(By Maxwell Gorman.)

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Weatherly entertained the candidates on the Democratic ticket for this county at dinner at their home in Franklinville Tuesday evening. The candidates spoke at the school house at Franklinville later in the evening. Miss Margaret Sparger was hostess to the newly organized two table bridge club at the Central Hotel Friday evening. After several interesting games the hostess served pineapple salad, olives, ham and cheese sandwiches, and coffee with whipped cream to Misses Ethel Lovett, Bern Scarborough, Mabel Parrish, and Messrs. Robert Bunch, John Hunter, Idol Ferree and Britt Armfield. Mrs. J. K. Wood Entertains Book Club The first meeting of the Randolph book club was held at the home of Mrs. John K. Wood last Friday afternoon. The home was attractively decorated with chrysanthemums and other fall flowers. Mrs. J. Redding read an account of the life of the author of one of the books in the club and Mrs. Wm. C. Hamner read a chapter from The Americanization of Edward Bok. Current events followed and were of much interest, many of them being upon the most interesting topics of the day. Mrs. Wood had a number of invited guests one of whom was Mrs. Delia Dixon Carroll, of Raleigh. She was detained at Samarang where she was at a directors' meeting and did not reach Asheboro until after the meeting. The hostess served chicken salad, walnut sandwiches, pickles, wafers and coffee. REVIVAL CLOSURE AT ASHEBORO M. P. CHURCH The series of revival services which has been in progress at the Methodist Protestant church came to a close Sunday night with the largest congregation during the meeting. Rev. J. D. the highest terms of the preaching, and did it well. The people spoke in the highest terms of the preaching, and the pastor is sure he has never listened to series of better sermons. There was considerable interest manifested. A large number of unchurched people manifested an interest in their spiritual welfare by requesting prayer, and there were a number of professions. The meeting was held in the auditorium of the new church. Of course the new auditorium is not completed but the church people are delighted that the work has progressed to the extent that the auditorium could be used for the meeting. The local church is rounding out another successful year's work. The Sunday school has made substantial progress and gains during the year. The young people are holding on faithfully to the Christian Endeavor work. The gains in church membership will not be so large this year as it was last, but there will be reported a substantial net gain. Considering the conditions under which we have to labor, with the new church building in process of construction, revival meetings having to be postponed from the regular time, etc., the local Methodist Protestants have reason to be encouraged. Rev. A. C. Gibbs to Thomasville With much regret the M. E. church and citizens generally of Asheboro heard of the removal of Rev. A. C. Gibbs as pastor of the M. E. church here. Mr. Gibbs has been in Asheboro three years and perhaps no man has so endeared himself to the people of the city generally as has Mr. Gibbs. A pulpit speaker of rare ability and a pastor unsurpassed by any, the people love and trust him and are loath to let him go. Mr. Gibbs has done a great work in Asheboro and in the years to come people will look back with fondest memory to the pastorate of this good and able man and his splendid wife whose friends are as numerous as the people themselves. Thomasville is to be congratulated upon securing Mr. Gibbs. Why Not News Mr. J. B. Slack, Jr., of the A. and E. College, Raleigh, spent the week end here with relatives. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Austin and children, of High Point, spent the week end with Mrs. Austin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Auman. Mrs. W. A. Burgess, of Greensboro, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Monroe. Miss Hester Stuart was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stuart, recently. Miss Stuart has accepted a position of office secretary in the office of the North Carolina Sunday school association. Mr. Otis Statts, of High Point, is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stutta. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Trogdon and Masters Henry, Hubert and A. B., Jr., spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cagle. Miss Craig Russell is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. S. E. Cornelson. Mr. F. R. Auman is spending some time in this section. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Spencer and children, of Rameur, spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Spencer. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lowdermilk, Kraton, Susan and Junius have returned from Arkansas and expect to live in Seagrove to have the children in school. A birthday party in honor of Mrs. J. M. King, Mr. J. A. King, and Miss Lela Smith was at the home of Mr. J. M. King September 20. After an hour of social enjoyment dainty refreshments were served. James Stucky Says, "Rat Cost Me $125 for Plumbing Bills." "We couldn't tell what was clogging up our toilet and drains. We had to tear up sewer pipes, etc. found a rat's nest in basement. They had a rat in the sewer with them."

ANNUAL SYNOD OF PRESBYTERIANS IN LINCOLNTON

The Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina is in its one hundred and ninth session at Lincolnton this week.

The synod consists of seven presbyteries of Albemarle, Wilmington and Fayetteville in the eastern section and Orange, Concord, Mecklenburg and King's Mountain in the western. One of the interesting features before the synod is the proposed organization of a new presbytery with Raleigh as its center. Two years ago a campaign for over a million dollars for the endowment of these schools and colleges was successfully completed. Another for a half million for the orphans home, to cover four years, is so far successful. Just now one is being conducted for $600,000 for Davidson, a report of which is eagerly looked for at this meeting. Flora MacDonald is raising $150,000 to meet an offer of $50,000 from the Carnegie foundation. BLUE SKY VIOLATORS SELL WORTHLESS STOCK TO PUBLIC Warrants have been issued for representatives of the High Point Springs Shade Company, who have sold $80,000 worth of stock when the concern has $374.39 in assets. The company seems to have been incorporated last August, but representatives apparently had sold stock before then. L. G. Babe, W. G. Chandler and W. G. Brown, the latter a woman, of Winston-Salem, were the incorporators. They were joined later by J. B. Pegram, of Winston-Salem. Pegram and Babe failed to appear at the trial and forfeited $1,000 bonds. Chandler has shipped to Baltimore. C. D. Peebles and D. E. Koonce, of Davie county, who were agents, were tried before S. S. Bouldin, in Trinity Township, Tuesday and bound over to Randolph superior court. They sold several Tabernacle township citizens stock, among them ex-Sheriff J. F. Hughes $4,100; Mr. and Mrs. Luther C. Smith $500 each; William Allen Briles $500, and Dave Thomas put in a tractor valued at $500. Peebles and Koonce detained on trial that they were acting in good faith with the people from whom they were soliciting stock. THE LAST SERVICE OF THIS CONFERENCE YEAR Will be held at the Asheboro Methodist Protestant church next Sunday. You are invited to be present for this last service of the year. The
