Randolph County Redeemed by the Democrats

Randolph County Elects Full Democratic Ticket

In Randolph county Joseph Weaver leads the Democratic ticket by a majority, it is estimated, of more than 150. His opponent, O. C. Marsh, tails the ticket, running behind almost everywhere, Clifford Cox being only a little behind him. John F. White leads the Republican ticket and the majority against him is estimated to be something like 62, probably a little more. Sheriff Brady led the Republican ticket in Columbia township, running 30 votes ahead of the Republican ticket, while in Grant where it was expected that he would run behind, he was only behind the balance of the ticket four or five votes.

The four precincts in Asheboro township gave an average majority to the Democrats of 407, the south ward giving the largest majority, 115 to Mr. Hammer. The east ward, the next largest majority, 110. East Asheboro gave Mr. Marsh, for commissioner, only 66 votes, while Weaver, Crantford, and Edwards got 181.

In east Randleman Marsh received 231 votes and Weaver 235. Love for congress received 234 votes in that ward, while Hammer received 241. In west Randleman Marsh received 221 votes and Weaver 212. Mr. Hammer received in that ward 228 votes, while his opponent Love received 213. Mr. Hammer's majority in the two precincts of Randleman township is 22; while Marsh lost Randleman, his home township, by 6 majority.

The returns of the election from the various townships were not given for each candidate.

Walter Love, Republican candidate for congress, C. N. Cox and O. C. Marsh received the lowest vote and Weaver, Cox and Hammer had the largest Democratic vote.

Mr. Hammer's estimate of his majority without the official vote from Hoke is 7,500.

LATEST ELECTION NEWS

The County Canvassing Board met today and are canvassing the election returns. All the Democratic county ticket is elected by majorities ranging from 62 to 185. The majority against F. M. Wright is 62 and against J. F. White 64.

North Carolina Gives Majority of Over 80,000

North Carolina Returns Her Ten Democratic Congressmen to Washington; 11 Superior Court Judges and Corporation Commissioner Lee Elected.

Never has there been such a sweeping Democratic victory in North Carolina. Some of the counties that are now Republican have given substantial Democratic majorities. First of all is little Davie, the smallest county in the state, which has been Republican for 50 years, with the exception of one Democratic official one time. It has not only elected the county ticket but has elected a member of the legislature, Mr. M. J. Hendrix, the father of the young man who married Miss Kate Phillips, of Asheboro. There were three candidates for member of the house in the general assembly. This accounts for his running ahead of the county ticket which was elected by from 40 majority upwards. Mr. Hammer's majority for congress in that county is a little more than 100.

Other Republican counties which have gone Democratic are Burke, 400 majority; Catawba, 200; Cabarrus, 250; Henderson by a substantial majority, the first time in 30 years; Cherokee the first time in 20 years, by a good majority. Surry county has elected C. H. Haynes, Democrat, for sheriff and some of the other county officials.

The ten Democratic congressmen from the state were returned by increased majorities. Major Charles M. Stedman, of the fifth district, is re-elected by a majority of 12,000 or more over Mrs. Lindsay Patterson. Congressman Doughton, whose election two years ago was contested, won by a majority of 7,000 over Ike Campbell, and Congressman Hammer, of this district is returned by a majority almost doubling that of two years ago.

There were eleven superior court judges standing for re-election, all of whom were elected by handsome majorities. Chairman W. T. Lee, of the State Corporation Commission, led the state ticket, his majority being approximately 80,000.

Mr. J. F. Spruill, of Lexington, was elected solicitor by a large majority in the twelfth district.

Mr. Zeb Vance Long was elected solicitor in this judicial district.

High Point township has gone Democratic for the first time since 1910.

Prior to the election on Tuesday there were 29 counties in the state Republican and the return of fifteen counties to the Democratic column leaves only four counties in the state Republican.

METHODIST PROTESTANT CONFERENCE CLOSES SESSION AT HENDERSON

The 97th annual session of the North Carolina Methodist Protestant conference closed at noon Monday after a six days session at Henderson. At the afternoon session, the opening day of the conference, the following officers were elected: President Dr. A. G. Dixon; secretary, Rev. C. W. Bates, of Henderson; treasurer, Rev. S. W. Taylor, of Burlington; statistical secretary, Rev. L. W. Geringer, of Asheboro; and C. B. Way, of Burlington, conference reporter. Dr. Dixon has for the past few years been secretary of the board of young people's work with headquarters in Baltimore. He will move to Greensboro in the parsonage for the president of the North Carolina conference.

About 100 ministers and delegates were present at the opening session, among them several distinguished ministers and laymen. Dr. F. T. Benson, editor of the Methodist Protestant, of Baltimore, who is well known here, and Dr. G. R. Miller, general secretary of the M. P. board of education in the United States, from Pittsburgh, were among the distinguished visitors present. Sunday was an important day in that three new ministers were ordained. They were Rev. E. A. Bingham, Rev. J. D. Hardy, and Rev. G. A. Laughlin. This service was presided over by Rev. J. E. Pritchard pastor of the Henderson church, and the ordination sermon was preached by Rev. Rowland C. Stubbins, of Grace church, Greensboro. In his sermon, which was an extraordinarily strong one, Rev. Stubbins stressed the need of preaching more to the children of the church, and pointed out that education without religion leads to atheism and religion without education leads to fanaticism. The appointments were read Monday at noon, and adjournment followed soon afterwards. There was much interest centered around the appointments, as there were a number of changes this year.

Rev. L. W. Geringer, who has been pastor of the Asheboro Methodist Protestant church for the past three years will go to Asheville. Mr. Geringer has been untiring in his efforts to improve the church during his pastorate. There have been more than 125 accessions to the church and in his work among the young people he has been especially successful. Although the congregation was preparing to build a new church when Mr. Geringer came to Asheboro, he has assisted in its erection and although the building is not completed, it is a splendid church.

Rev. H. F. Fogleman, who has since his graduation at Westminster Theological Seminary three years ago, been in Reidsville, will come to Asheboro.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY

Will Hasty Stabs Prof. Maddox and Cuts County Superintendent Bulla. Will Hasty was drunk election day and late in the day was in front of the court house cursing the Democratic registrar and the Democratic party and some of its candidates.

The Courier has gathered the following information about the tragedy on the streets of Asheboro election night:

After the night mail had come in and was distributed Hasty was standing in front of the postoffice and in loud, profane and vulgar language cursed the Democratic party. After he had been cursing for several minutes Mr. D. W. Maddox, superintendent of the Asheboro City Schools, went into the postoffice and got his mail, and as he came out, Hasty called Mr. Maddox the vilest and most vulgar name that lips could utter; told him he had been "shooting negro talk to the school children." He was also cursing about having to pay taxes for schools. Mr. Maddox replied to him in a kind manner, "You were never worse mistaken in your life; I never thought of such a thing." Maddox barely stopped, but walked on. After he got several steps from Hasty, Hasty told him he had better go back to South Carolina where he belonged, using violent, profane oaths, and walked toward Maddox, putting his hand in his pocket and grabbed Maddox with his other hand. Maddox hit Hasty with his fist, knocking him against the glass window. Hasty came at him again with his knife open, striking at Maddox, but so far The Courier has been unable to ascertain whether Hasty cut Maddox before Maddox knocked him down, but Maddox is certain that when Hasty lunged at him the second time Hasty had his knife in his hand striking at Maddox and that when Hasty grabbed Maddox's shoulder the first time Hasty had one of his hands in his pocket. Maddox clinched him as he came at him and threw him to the pavement. Hasty cut Maddox again.

Hasty was taken to jail and Maddox was taken to the hospital. At first it was thought Maddox would die. He was cut not only in the back or side, but was also cut in front and slashed with seven or eight gashes.

County Superintendent of Schools Bulla was cut or stabbed on the left wrist and right fore finger, but not seriously and was not confined to his bed. The doctor dressed his wounds and in a few weeks it is believed that they will heal.

When a bystander said that Hasty should go to jail instead of being taken to his room, Charles Hasty, a brother of Will, threatened to kill any man that touched him, and turned to an old man who was standing by him, who had not said a word, and cursed him most violently and knocked him down.

Hasty has given bond for $2500 with J. S. Lewis, F. M. Wright and J. T. Winslow as sureties.

Will Hasty several months ago went to the Standard Drug Store, broke a showcase and did fifty dollars worth of damage, cursed loud and violently, walked up and down the streets cursing. He was put in jail and for hours he cursed and swore, did considerable damage to the jail, breaking several of the bolts in the cells and pulling them loose, breaking one of the commodes into hundreds of pieces, but was finally turned loose by the county authorities. No arrest was made either by the county authorities or by the city authorities. In Cabarrus county, recently, three or four young men were sentenced to from six to 12 months on the roads for tearing up the commodes and letting water flood the county jail and otherwise damaging it.

R. C. KELLY AND JULIAN PRICE PURCHASE RECORD

It is of interest to the many people in this county who know Mr. R. C. Kelly, of Winston-Salem, formerly of the law firm of Hammer and Kelly, of this place, and Mr. Julian Price of Greensboro, are now the sole owners of the Greensboro Record. For some time Mr. Price and Mr. Kelly have been part owners of the paper.

DISTRICT C. E. CONVENTION MEETS IN ASHEBORO

The eleventh district meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society will be held in Asheboro Saturday afternoon and Sunday. The district comprises 11 counties, Alamance, Caswell, Surry, Yadkin, Davie, Davidson, Randolph, Guilford, Forsyth, Rockingham and Stokes.

All plans have been made and it looks as if this will be the record convention of the district. The Christian Endeavor society of Asheboro will give free entertainment to the delegates who attend the convention. Charles F. Evans, southern secretary, together with Frank P. Wilson, field secretary, will have prominent places on the program.

Mr. A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, will address the convention on Saturday night, using the "Passion Play" for his subject, while on Sunday afternoon, Dr. A. P. Kephart will deliver the chief address.

All delegates who have not registered are asked to notify Mrs. Charles Fox, Asheboro. Mr. Lucy L. McAlister, of Greensboro, is president of the district.

Hammer's Majority in Seventh District, 7,500

Reports from all the counties in the district show that Congressman William C. Hammer has carried the Seventh District by approximately 7500 votes. His majority in Randolph is 150, practically the same as the Democratic county ticket, and 100 or more ahead of the state ticket. His majority in Davidson county is more than 600; in Davie county, 100; in Montgomery county, 400; Moore county, 1000; Lee county, 1060; Hoke, not heard from; Scotland, a little less than 1000; Richmond, 2425; Anson, 1700; Union, 1100.

The only two counties in the district that have given majorities against Mr. Hammer are Wilkes and Yadkin. The majority estimated against him in Wilkes is reduced 1900 to 2250 below what it was two years ago, the majority now being 1427, while in Yadkin it is less than 1000 about 800. Two years ago the majority against Mr. Hammer in Wilkes was 3800; in Davie, 950; in Yadkin, 1825; in Davidson, 872; in Randolph, more than 1000.

DEMOCRATS GAIN IN EVERY STATE IN UNION; SENATOR CALDER DEFEATED

Miss Alice Robertson, of Oklahoma, Republican member of present house, is defeated.

Newberryism is not popular even in Michigan, where the state has gone Democratic to the great surprise and chagrin of Republican leaders.

Senator William A. Calder was defeated by Dr. Royal S. Copeland, New York City's health commissioner. Ohio has elected a Democratic governor.

Former Governor Samuel Ralston, Democrat, has defeated Senator Beveridge, of Indiana.

The state of New Hampshire has had the greatest Democratic landslide since 1856.

Senator Townsend has been defeated by Woodbridge Ferris, a Democrat. This is the first Democrat elected to the senate in Michigan in 70 years. Townsend was of the Newberry type of Republicans.

The latest information is that the house of representatives is Democratic or mighty close to it.

Volstead, chairman of the house judiciary committee, is defeated. So is Senator Kellogg defeated by a Democrat.

Mondell, Republican leader of the present house, and who has been in congress 26 years, ran for the senate against the present Democratic senator Kendrick, and Mondell goes down with a decided majority against him.

Lodge may barely squeeze through in Massachusetts. Senator Reed, of Missouri, is elected.

In New Jersey, Governor Edwards has a good lead over Senator Frelinghuysen.

Senator Sutherland, of West Virginia is defeated by Mr. Neely, a Democrat.

The indications are that there have been great gains throughout the entire country, and while the Democrats may not carry the house of representatives there will be a gain of more than 125 members. The Republicans will still hold the senate, for one-third of the senators are elected every two years and this time those to be elected are most of them strong Republican states.
