

THE COURIER

Thursday, February 8, 1923

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. R. J. Lawrence of Seagrave, Route 1, was in Asheboro Monday.

Miss Nelle Porter, of Way Cross, Ga. has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Moore. She left Monday for her home.

Mr. Charles Wroton of Kock Hill, S. C., was the guest of friends in the city Sunday.

Miss Adelaide Armfield, a student of Salem College was at home for the past week end.

Miss Kate Hammer left Saturday for the northern markets where she will purchase spring and summer millinery.

Mr. I. C. Moser, returned to Raleigh Monday after spending Saturday and Sunday in Asheboro.

Miss Lucile Scarborough, a member of the faculty of the Lexington High School was at home for the past week end.

Mrs. Will Lawrence has returned home at Winston Salem, after a few days visit to her uncle W. J. Moore. She was accompanied by Miss Nelle Porter, of Way Cross, Ga.

Mr. E. B. Leach of Seagrave was a business visitor in the city Monday. Mr. Leach has recently returned from Norfolk and Petersburg, Va. He visited his son C. W. Leach at Petersburg.

Mr. A. S. York and little son William of Liberty, Route 2, were in Asheboro last Friday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Briles, of Trinity, Route 1, a son, Joseph Lafayette.

Mr. E. H. Bird, of Kemp's Mills, was a business visitor in town the latter part of last week.

Mr. J. R. Lambert of Coles Store, while in Asheboro Friday came in and paid his subscription to The Courier.

Mr. F. Newsom, of Asheboro, Route 3, was in town one day last week.

Mr. W. B. Hogan, of Seagrave, was a business visitor in Asheboro the latter part of last week.

Mr. I. F. Craven, of Seagrave, Route 1, while in Asheboro last Thursday, paid his subscription to The Courier.

Mr. W. P. Hurley, of Abner, is critically ill with influenza.

Mr. Hobert Hancock of Providence township was on our streets Saturday.

Mr. Tom Foster, of Asheboro Star Route is improving his home by remodeling and putting on a fresh coat of paint.

Captain A. M. Rankin, of High Point has gone to Hot Springs, Ark., for treatment. His many friends in Randolph county are interested in his recovery.

Mr. A. E. Routh, who had the misfortune of having his Ford car stolen about the middle of Jan., has had no trace of his car whatever.

Mr. G. C. Bolding of Clover Leaf Poultry Farm of Seagrave, Route 2, was in town Saturday. Last year Mr. Bolding had 55 hens from which he realized $176.00 from eggs and about 50.00 from chickens. Mr. Bolding has increased his flock this year to 100 chickens.

Mr. Jerry A. Thurber, of Pleasant Garden High School won in the preliminary debate of his school Friday and is making an effort to win in the triangular debate.

Miss Zelma Miller was the week end visitor of her sister Miss Maude Miller at the North Carolina College for Women in Greensboro.

Miss Alice Patterson who has been visiting Mrs. J. S. Lewis returned to her home at Bennettsville, S. C. Monday.

Mrs. Bob Lewallen left Saturday for Philadelphia and Salem, N. J. where she goes to visit her sister and some school friends for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw of Greensboro have gone to Dallas Texas, to visit their daughter, Mrs. B. S. Robertson and their son Mr. John Bradshaw of Houston, Texas.

Mr. Edward Morgan performed one of the most delicate operations ever heard of in this country when he removed an eye from a pig and placed it in the head of Harold Lemonowicz of Patterson, N. J. The patient has been blind for several years and surgeons who were present during the operation think it will be successful.

Mrs. J. M. Boyette, wife of Stanley County's representative died at her home in Albemarle last week. The house adjourned Saturday in respect of Mrs. Boyette.

The Buffalo Broom Works which has been located at Pleasant Garden has been moved. Mr. N. F. Horner, who is a large stockholder in the concern, is manager of the business. There are now two broom factories in operation in Sanford. The Phillips Broom Factory which shut down a year or so ago, has resumed operations.

Sam Lowe, of Asheboro, Route 2, recently caught a hawk which measured 53 1-2 inches from tip to tip, and weighed about 5 1-2 pounds. The bird had been carrying off Mr. Lowe's chickens so he set a steel trap and caught the thief.

Miss Flora Breedlove, of Liberty, Route 2, died January 31st from influenza. She was buried at Massadotta Baptist Church February 1st. The deceased was fifteen years of age.

Elton Crotts, the two year old son of Lee Roy Crotts, of Goldston recently suffered a broken collar bone by falling from the porch where he was playing.

Miss Virginia Aldridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Aldridge, of Millboro, who is teaching at Magnolia in Duplin county, has written the Courier an interesting article in which she says that the florists of that county have recently completed the harvest of their canna, tube roses, dahlias, etc., and report it above the average.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gatlin of Raeford have announced the marriage of their daughter Arah suline to Mr. Ralph Blake Stewart, January 31st. Mr. Stewart is well known in Asheboro having visited Mrs. Clarence Rush. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart will make their home in Greensboro.

Rev. W. F. Kennett who was last week assigned to the pastorate at Richmond circuit, will preach at Cedar Falls next Sunday morning.

Mr. W. A. Underwood is attending the meeting of the Laxall representatives in the Carolinas in Charlotte. He made a rousing speech Tuesday on the advantages of holding special sales which has had much favorable comment.

News has been received here that Dr. J. G. Crutchfield, an officer during the world war has been recommissioned in the U. S. R. C. and that Hal W. Walker also an ex-soldier has been recommissioned as First Lieutenant and both men have been assigned to the 322 Regiment with headquarters at Greensboro, N. C.

Mrs. Emma N. Wall, one of the best milliners in the county has accepted a position with the Lineberry Company in Randleman. Mrs. Wall has been with G. W. Elliott and Company for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clarke and little son W. C. Jr., of Charlotte were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Parrish Sunday.

Mrs. Wilson Kearns who has been ill for some time was taken to High Point hospital for treatment Saturday.

The many friends of Miss Rose G. Rush will be glad to know that she is improving rapidly at Memorial Hospital. Miss Rush underwent a serious operation but has gotten along well. She expects to return to her home the latter part of the week.

Miss Elizabeth Winslow who for the past few months has been in California arrived in Asheboro the latter part of last week.

Mrs. J. T. Ryan of High Point, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Burns attended the funeral of Mr. S. G. Spoon at Flag Springs Sunday.

Mr. Frank Yates, who recently died at Denton, was a brother in law of Mrs. J. H. Poole, of Asheboro. He is survived by his wife and the following children: John Vernon, Blanche, Claude, Ragan, Frank Jr., and Willie Thomas Yates.

Wallace B. Stone, of Thomasville has recently been appointed, by Governor Morrison, as Inspector General of the National Guard to the rank of Major. Major Stone was in the 30th division. Richard Stone, the brother of Major Stone is the Motion Picture Machine operator at the Capital Theatre.

Mr. T. J. Finch, receiver of the Bank of Thomasville on February 1st announced he was prepared to pay four per cent dividend to the depositors.

Lewis Brooks, the 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Brooks, of Greensboro, after deciding that he would see something of the country notified his parents from Charleston, S. C. last Sunday, of his whereabouts. The boy had decided to go to Florida to join some of his acquaintances but his money gave out and he became homesick and notified his mother of his whereabouts.

Messrs. B. D. Drake and R. C. Kanoy of Biscoe were business visitors in Asheboro Saturday. They had been in High Point to consult with Mr. Elwood Cox, State Highway Chairman of this district, concerning the route of the highway from the Montgomery County line south through Biscoe. According to reports the survey will take in a part of Mr. Drake's residence and he was interested in getting the route changed.

Mr. J. A. Auman of Seagrave is the first to respond to the statements The Courier is sending out. Mr. Auman is taking advantage of our clubbing offer. The Courier and Progressive Farmer for $2.25 and as a prize The Southern Agriculturalist.

Last Week Mr. W. L. Trotter of Greensboro came to our office just before we went to press to put an ad in our paper. He had lost a hand bag from his car between Star and Randleman. The next day after the paper was issued Mr. Ralph Whatley of Uulah brought the bag to our office, two young men having found it and left it with him. Mr. Whatley received a reward for himself and the young men and Mr. Trotter writes he is so pleased over the return of his satchel that he wants to give each a pocket knife.

The citizens in the Kemp's Mills and Moffitt's Mills section were greatly inconvenienced Tuesday upon the failure to get their mail. The Farmer mail was carried on this route and the mail in this section was taken to Farmer. This is the second time this has happened since Christmas and the patrons are complaining.

NOTICE SALE OF LAND

Under and by virtue of the power and authority contained in that certain Mortgage Deed executed on the 1st day of April, 1922, by Frank Griffin and his wife Lizzie Griffin, and duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Randolph County, N. C. in Book No. 200 at page 66, and default having been made in the payment of the note thereby secured when due, I will on Friday the 9th day of March, 1923, at twelve o'clock (noon) on the premises in Black Creek Township in said County, offer for sale at public auction to last highest bidder for cash, the following described tract or parcel of land, Situate in Randolph County, N. C. in Black Creek Township.

Adjoining the lands of V. P. Hunt, Samuel Yates, and others, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a white oak, original corner on West side trading Road, in J. C. Robbins' former line running thence W. 5 chs with said Robbins' line to a stone, thence S. 68 1-6 deg. W. 18 chs. to a stone, corner in N. side of Caraway Mt. thence N. Variation 50 to 27-25 to a pine knot in the ground; thence E. along marked line 39 50-100 chs. to West side of trading Road; thence S. by W. the various courses of said 22 chs. to the beginning containing 68 acres, more or less. This deed includes the 10 acres of land sold to J. C. Robbins.

Tract No. 2

Fifteen acres of land in Black Creek Township. Beginning at apple tree stump near an old coal pit, running thence East 14 1-2 chs. to a black gum in old field, Caroline Hunt's corner, thence S. 69 East 3 chs. to a stone on the trading Road, thence E. 2 1-2 chs. to a stone in the field, thence N. 6 chs. to a stone; thence N. 19 W. 4 1-2 chs. more or less to a small white oak; thence S. 67 W. 25 chs. to a stake in the old line on the South side of Caraway Mt. thence S. 60 E. 2 3-4 chs. more or less to a black oak thence N. 70 E. 7 3-4 chs. to the beginning, containing 15 acres more or less.

This land is located in a good neighborhood, on R. F. D. route has good dwelling house, stock barn, tobacco barn and packing house, well watered and plenty of timber.

This February 6th, 1923.

R. L. CECIL, Mortgagee,
T. W. ALBERTSON, Attorney,
High Point, N. C.

FRANKLINVILLE ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Lucy Melvin of Greensboro, spent the week end with Mrs. Melvin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hughes.

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Parks attended the funeral of T. J. Fraley at Greensboro Friday. Mr. Fraley was a former resident of this place having been depot agent for a number of years.

The Betterment Society is going to give an encyclopedia to the high school library and requests that any one having books that they would like contributed will please leave them at the school house.

Prof. R. F. Little, Clyde Jones, Joe Fox, Clyde Rich Chas. Buie attended the concert given by Prof. Friezt, Kresgler, violinist, at Greensboro Friday evening.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brady, February 22nd, a daughter, Helen Ray. Mr. Comer of the University of N. C. spoke at the graded school auditorium Friday evening on "Getting an Education Without Money."

The Lockville Power Co. will soon have their line completed to Franklinville.

McMASTERS-ADCOCK

Miss Josie McMasters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McMasters, of Staley, was married January 27th, to Mr. Broadway Adcock, of Siler City, T. P. Barker officiating.

Following the marriage a reception was given. The bride is a most charming young woman. The groom is a prosperous merchant of Siler City.

DR. J. G. CRUTCHFIELD
Dentist
Bank of Randolph Building
Phone 28 Asheboro, N. C.

Hands Wanted!

We can still handle a few more

*Spinners
Spoolers
Reel and Winder Hands.*

Apply at

Central Falls Mills
Central Falls Mills, N. C.

BIG SALE

Has Been Continued Through
Saturday, February 10th

This sale has far exceeded our expectations in every way, so we have decided to extend the time for one more week. We have many more big bargains here yet for you, and we have added many more big values for this week. It is useless to try to list the many big values we have, but we will give you just a few prices of the many bargains we have for you.

One lot Men's and Boys' Shoes this week— $1.98	15-inch White Crash Toweling, red border, this week— 10c	We are going to give you some unbelievable values in Overalls. Heavy weight 220 blue denim Overalls, this week only— $1.19
One lot Ladies' Oxfords, all new and a wonderful value, this week— $1.98	Highly mercerized Table Damask at prices— 49c to 79c All Good Quality	This is a wonderful value and we will sell them for this price as long as they last this week. Come early and get you a pair before they are gone.
One lot Ladies' Hose, this week only per pair— 9c	We still have some big values in LADIES' COATS and DRESSES for this week	We are still giving you the same big values in Gingham that we have for the last ten days.
One lot Men's Socks, this week price— 9c	Just a few pieces of high grade Aluminum ware we are closing out at— 79c	We have just received a big lot of ratines in all the new colors. You want to be sure to see them while in our Store.
17-inch White Crash Toweling, blue border, this week— 15c	J. & P. Coats Spool Thread, spool— 5c	Three big School Tablets for— 10c

The above are only a few of our many bargains we have for you. Don't let this opportunity pass without taking advantage of it.

BROOKS & BYRD

Opposite W. D. Stedman & Son Asheboro, N. C.