

THE COURIER

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Thursday, April 24, 1923

The two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Luck is critically ill. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Broadfoot, who have been visiting relatives in Asheboro, returned to their home in Fayetteville last Saturday.

Mr. Sidney Wood leaves the latter part of this week for Fulton, Ky., where he has contracted to play second base with the Kentucky, Illinois and Tennessee League. Mr. Wood has won a splendid reputation as a ball player and his election to this ball team is quite an honor.

Messrs. Clyde Capel of Candor and C. A. Armstrong of Troy were business visitors in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. Z. D. Dorsett of New Hope Academy was in Asheboro Saturday on business.

Mrs. Clarence Rush recently had the misfortune of spraining her ankle. While Mrs. Rush has suffered considerable discomfort, she is able to be out again.

Mrs. B. C. Johnson and son Vernon, were visitors in Greensboro Monday.

Mrs. Ruth Lowe has purchased her son, Albion Lowe's residence in South Asheboro, and is moving from her home at Asheboro Route 2.

Mr. I. W. Phillips of Randleman was in Asheboro Monday looking for a house. He wants to move to Asheboro the latter part of the week.

Mr. Toy Wilson and family have moved to Asheboro from Star, where they have been living for the past few years. Mr. Wilson formerly lived in Asheboro.

Mr. W. M. Staley was in Asheboro a short while Monday, returning from Flag Springs where he attended the funeral of his daughter, Mrs. Flossie Dawkins, of near Ersek.

Eugene Kearns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kearns, formerly of Farmer, but now of Greensboro, recently achieved the feat that every ball player big and little hopes for knocking a home run with three men on bases.

Mr. Percy Bostick of Greensboro was a visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Auman of Seagrave passed through town Monday afternoon enroute to Ramseur, to attend the commencement.

Mr. John Kearns of Bombay was a visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mrs. Joe M. Forester is in Ramseur this week, attending the commencement.

The Presbyterian congregation has greatly improved the grounds around the church edifice by terracing and turling next the street and sowing grass over the yard.

Mrs. F. E. Asbury made a short visit to Pleasant Garden last Saturday.

Bethel Alred of Grays Chapel was a visitor in Asheboro Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Clark and William Clark of High Springs are the guests of Miss Ora Mae Burney.

On Saturday night April 28th at Parks X Roads a play "The Courtship of the Deacon" will be given. An admission of 15 and 25 cents will be charged.

Miss Lyde Kearns, of Bombay, was in Asheboro shopping Saturday.

Thomas Fox who is a member of the senior class of Franklinville High School has kindly remembered the Courier with an invitation to their commencement the fifth of May.

Col. W. P. Wood was in the office a few days ago and counted up seven Confederate soldiers in Randolph county who have died since January first. They are comrades Maness and Hancock, Daniel Chrisco, Oliver Coble, Miles Cross, Wm. D. Cross and Dr. F. E. Ashbury, and there are probably others.

Miss Linnia Burkhead went to Greensboro last week to represent the music department of the Asheboro high school in the contest held at North Carolina College for Women. Although the representative from Gastonia won, Miss Burkhead is reported to have played remarkably well.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Lambeth and children, of Thomasville, were guests of relatives in town last Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. Jack Cranford, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cranford, underwent an operation for appendicitis last Memorial Hospital, one day last week. The young man is doing well.

Uncle Murphy Burris who was to leave his home at Ramseur and go to New Orleans for the Annual Reunion of the Confederate Veterans but decided not to go attended the Exhibition at Maple Springs and enjoyed it.

Miss Ruth Cox returned to her home in Asheboro this week after a visit to her sister Mrs. T. V. Rochelle in High Point.

Miss Kate Bulla, of the Clayton High School faculty spent Sunday with home folks. She was accompanied home by Miss Mary Proden, of Wilson, who is also a member of the Clayton High School.

The Randolph Chapter U. D. C. will again this year serve dinner to the Confederate Veterans who attend the annual May 10th celebration in Asheboro.

Every one who expects to vote in the Municipal Election May 8th must have their names in the registration book by sun down Saturday April 28th.

Mrs. W. B. Lassiter and Mrs. D. M. Wootenly are at Monroe this week attending the Woman's Missionary Conference.

Mr. L. M. Miller of Pipe was among the county citizens who attended the Winston road sale Tuesday.

Mrs. S. E. Barker were in the city Monday

Dr. T. Carl Walker, has been in High Point for the past few days with his sister, Mrs. D. B. McCaray who is there on account of the illness of her husband.

Mrs. Sybil Barker, and Mrs. Edgeron of Asheboro Route 1, were called to Northampton county last week on account of the death of a friend.

Rev. W. F. Ashburn and H. C. Causey of Liberty were among the business visitors in the city Monday. They say there is considerable interest in the Municipal Election which comes off May 8.

A number of Asheboro people attended the commencement at Ramseur and Liberty the first of the week. Mr. John Alford who recently underwent an operation in a local hospital at High Point has returned home, much improved.

Messrs. Reeces Alford and Graydon Alford of Worthville have accepted positions at the Central Falls Mills.

Miss Ruby McDonald and Mr. Dermont Burrow were week-end visitors to friends in Worthville.

Miss Lola Rose is out again after being confined to her home with influenza.

Misses Virginia Winghamam, Ida Moody and Mr. George Teague attended commencement play at Ramseur, Tuesday night.

Misses Annie, Grace Dora and Etta Williams, Nellie Maness and Nellie Royals and Messrs. James Betts and Elvin Maness attended the funeral of Graham Davis at Hemp Sunday.

Mr. R. C. Johnson will in the near future begin the erection of a handsome store building. He will put his stock of merchandise on the first floor. On the second floor there will be a Knights of Pythias Hall and other rooms for rent.

Mr. A. O. Frick and family moved to Elizabeth City last Tuesday.

Mr. W. T. Horner, of Ramseur, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Jennie Williams, Sunday.

Mr. Jim Betts is at Memorial Hospital, having had an operation for appendicitis Saturday.

Messrs. George W. Reitzel and Walter L. Smith, of Liberty, were visitors in Asheboro yesterday.

Mrs. Ed. Mendenhall and two children are in Asheboro, the guests of Mr. W. F. Redding's family. Mrs. Mendenhall will leave Saturday for New York, where she will join her husband, who is now connected with a government printing plant at Governors Island. Capt. Mendenhall was transferred from Camp Benjamin Harrison.

Mr. S. A. Frazier of Randleman was among the business visitors in Asheboro yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Smith, of Greensboro, are the guests of Miss May McAllister. Mr. Smith is pastor of the Church Beside of the Road in Greensboro.

Miss Cloie Lucas and Miss Lora Rosa taught a most successful school at Welch School in Union township this past year. The commencement program was prepared but on account of some misunderstanding as to location it was deferred. There was much disappointment in the neighborhood that the building promised was not available. The members of the school are said to have prepared themselves for one of the best closing exercises ever held in that community.

Rev. J. W. Haddaway, Dean of Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md., was the guest of Mr. Frank Redding, Jr., Tuesday night. Mr. Redding is a member of the Senior class at Western Maryland this year. They accompanied the body of Rev. Otho Stone to Thomasville.

Mr. S. Bryant of Winston-Salem was a business visitor in Asheboro Tuesday.

Rev. H. F. Fogleman returned Monday from Gastonia where he assisted in a series of meetings.

Mr. Arch Winslow, of Worthville, was greeting his friends in Asheboro yesterday.

Mr. Thomas Walker, of the Caraway Section, was in Asheboro yesterday on business.

Mrs. Lacy Black and little son, Wallace, were in Asheboro yesterday, returning to their home in High Point. They had been visiting Mrs. M. C. Spoon and family at Ramseur.

Mrs. W. B. Alford, of Orangeburg, S. C., has for the past few days been the guest of R. I. Dickens family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hayes were called to Durham yesterday on account of the death of Mrs. Ingold. Mrs. Ingold's death was caused by muscular rheumatism.

Miss Juanita Gregg, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Gregg, of Siler City won in the declamation contest at Guilford College last week.

Mr. Henry M. Robins of Asheboro, and Mr. Duke Robins, of Greensboro, left Monday morning for a fishing trip in the Eastern part of the State.

Several Asheboro people attended the birthday celebration of Mr. Wyatt Trogdon in Union township Sunday.

The Committee on Near East Relief Work in Randolph wish to thank each person who contributed either clothing or money in the recent campaign.

Mr. K. L. Smith, of Asheboro Route 1, has recently installed the Deleo lighting system in his home. Mr. Smith purchased it from Mr. E. C. Cox of Asheboro, dealer for Randolph County.

Miss Gladys Trogdon of Randleman R. I. visited in Greensboro Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martindale and child son Melvin motored to Snow Camp Sunday where they spent the day visiting friends.

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS

Mrs. Kate Cox, who has been confined to her bed for the past month died April 18 at the age of 84 years. Funeral services were conducted last Thursday by Rev. S. L. Morgan and Rev. W. L. Scott at the M. E. Church. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

Mr. John G. Hanson of Ore Hill and Miss Margaret M. Smith of this place were married in Greensboro April 18. Immediately after the ceremony they left for Asheville and other points of interest in Western North Carolina. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson will reside in Franklinville. Their many friends extend best wishes for a long and happy life.

W. H. Parks has moved to his home recently bought from W. P. Marble on depot street.

C. C. Curtis, C. M. Fruit, L. M. Curtis, Tom Black and A. H. Burgess attended court in Greensboro last week.

Will York, of High Point, attended the funeral of Mrs. Kate Cox, last week.

Rev. S. L. Morgan will preach the commencement sermon at the M. E. church Sunday at 11 o'clock.

G. H. Cox and family were visitors in Greensboro Sunday.

C. H. Julian, C. C. Julian, and Miss Katherine Julian were guests at the home of J. B. Teague, near Pleasant Garden Sunday.

C. L. Allred and family, C. B. Thomas and family, Ernest Routh, Miss Lillie Allred and Mrs. Peter Allred were visitors in Troy, Sunday.

Dr. LaPaid, head of History of Trinity College, Durham, Lectured at the school auditorium, Saturday evening. Subject, "What should be the dream of Franklinville."

Several of our people went to Ramseur Sunday afternoon to hear Rev. J. Clyde Turner.

Dolph Jordan of Newport News, Va., is visiting here this week.

L. M. Welch, and son William Henry visited J. P. Marable, near Seagrave, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. John Free and family of High Point were in town Sunday.

Messrs. Benton, and Alton Moon caught 62 pounds of fish in two days, the largest one weighed 18 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Buis and daughter, Miss Catherine, of Winston-Salem, were week-end visitors in town with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fenton visited in High Point Sunday.

Dr. Allport, of the University, will lecture at the academy Friday evening on "character formation in childhood."

Mr. J. H. Marley and family, Mr. David Holliday, of Greensboro visited in town, Sunday.

SUGGESTIONS FOR TOWN OFFICERS

It is generally understood that the present Mayor and Board of Aldermen will not stand for re-election again.

In getting out a new ticket we should not forget that our town has grown to such an extent that it is very important that a Mayor and a Board of Aldermen be selected who are fully capable of looking after the financial as well as the moral interests of our town. The following ticket if elected would represent the various interests of our town, including manufacturing, business, professional, laboring and moral interests and one which I believe would appeal to the women voters also:

For Mayor—John M. Caviness.

Aldermen—J. O. Redding, Free Ross, Dr. J. G. Crutchfield, C. W. Scott, J. T. Lewellen.

Clerk—Harris Birkhead.

Treasurer—Hal M. Worth.

It is true that Mr. Redding is on the school board and would not be allowed to hold two offices at one time, but that can be easily arranged. (Signed)

One Who Has the Best Interests of Our Town at Heart

DEATH OF MR. DOUGAN

Mrs. Lella Ann Dougan died March 30, at the age of 68 years, in Black Creek township.

Mrs. Dougan was a good wife and mother and held in high esteem by all who knew her. She will be greatly missed by her relatives and friends.

Mrs. Dougan is survived by her husband, J. T. Dougan, two daughters, Mrs. J. E. Hill, of Sophia, Route 1, and Mrs. Florence Rush, of Caraway; two brothers, T. M. Crowson, of Trinity Route 1, and W. S. Crowson, of Asheboro.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Kennett at Back Creek church. Interment followed in the cemetery.

ATTENTION!

Members of Randolph Camp No. 1646 United Confederate Veterans are hereby called to meet on Thursday, May 10, 1923 at the M. E. Church in Asheboro, N. C. at 11 o'clock A. M.

All veterans are cordially invited.

After the business meeting the Daughters will serve dinner and provide other entertainments. The Veterans will join the Daughters Memorial services.

A. G. MIBICK,
1st Lt. Commandant
P. H. MORRIS,
Secretary.

MULE STOLEN

Albert Cox living at the Will Hammond place near Gray's X Roads, in Cedar Grove township had a mule stolen Monday night April 16. It was an iron gray, 5 year old mule, weighing 300 or 300 pounds. Newly shod on front feet, no shoes on hind feet. The hair on the end of "bob" of the tail is pure white. Scar about 3 inches long cut with a barbed wire on the left hip. The mule came to Zeh and is manly; cannot be hidden and has short hind feet.

Mr. Cox offers a reward for the return of the mule.

Mrs. H. W. Walker Entertains Club

The Friday Afternoon Club met at the regular fortnightly meeting with Mrs. H. W. Walker, on South Fayetteville street. The general topic for this meeting was "Recent English Poetry." Mrs. M. G. Edwards read a paper on John Mansfield, and Mrs. I. C. Moser read an article on Robert Brooke.

After the program was concluded, the hostess served apricot and cheese salad, assorted sandwiches and iced tea followed by mints. Several visitors besides the members of the club were present.

THE PRISCILLA CLUB MEETS

The Priscilla club was entertained Wednesday afternoon of last week by Mrs. C. L. Amick. The home was made unusually attractive by the variety of spring flowers. Sewing engaged the attention of the guests for an hour or more after which the hostess assisted by Mrs. G. L. Millikan served ice cream, cake, and mints.

Randolph Chapter U. D. C. Was Entertained.

The Thursday afternoon of the Randolph Chapter U. D. C. was entertained in a pleasant manner by Mesdames Joe D. Ross, E. H. Morris, and W. A. Underwood at the home of Mrs. Ross.

An interesting newspaper article provided by the hostess was read by Miss Esther Ross on the preservation of the Lee Chapel. Other than this, there was no program for this meeting, the greater part of the time being taken up with plans for the tenth of May celebration for the Veterans of the county. After the business meeting was over, the hostesses served a congealed salad course with nut and cheese sandwiches, coffee and whipped cream.

HIGH SCHOOL JUNIORS ENTERTAIN SENIORS

The Junior class of the Asheboro high school gave a most enjoyable party last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ferree, on Sunset Avenue, in honor of the Senior class. Mr. and Mrs. Ferree's son Willard is a member of the Junior class.

A principal feature of the evening was the making for each other of booklets by the Seniors. Pictures were cut from popular magazines to illustrate various events in the lives of the young people. Many of the illustrations were very clever and amusing.

After the booklets were completed, all present were invited to the porch and lawn, where tables had been set for an elaborate course of refreshments. The place cards were daintily decorated with bowls of violets and pink rose bud, the class flower of the Seniors. The following refreshments were served: chicken salad, wafers, pickles, sandwiches, margerites, iced tea, cream, cake, and mints.

Besides the members of the Junior and Senior classes, Superintendent D. W. Maddox, Misses Jessie Richardson, Mary Sue Rutland, Grace Frazier, and Massa Lambert of the high school faculty; and Mesdames E. L. Moffitt and W. A. Coffin, class mothers, were present.

As the closing feature of the evening's entertainment, Mr. John Redding, the president of the Junior class, gracefully presented each Senior with a mock diploma, on which was written a personal sentiment. The reading of these sentiments provided much amusement.

The Ferree home was attractively decorated with bowls of violets and other spring flowers.

MISS MORRIS SINGS AT RECITAL IN GREENSBORO

Miss Charabel Morris sang at a recital given by the members of the junior class in music in Greensboro College last week and was the recipient of much praise. She sang, "Garden Romance" by Grant-Schaefer, and "The Harp of Delight" by Harris. Miss Morris sang, "In the Garden of My Heart" by Ernest R. Ball, at a recital given April 9th. She has a soprano voice of delightful quality. Miss Morris is a member of the senior class at Greensboro College this year. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Morris of Asheboro and has many friends in the town who will be interested in knowing that she is making such splendid progress.

ROYAL REPUBLICAN REFUSES TO CHEER FOR SUGAR TRUST

(From Ohio State Journal (Rep.))

One thing which we, as a loyal and enthusiastic Republican, refuse to cheer for, unless we get positive evidence to do so, is that among the other exclusive evidences of the abounding prosperity which has returned to our country solely through the masterful efforts of our great administration is the fact that one of our leading sugar companies has doubled its customary dividend.

MRS. MARGARET ROBINS DEAD

Margaret Robins died at her home on Asheboro Route 2 April 20th at the age of 77 years. Mrs. Robins had many friends and was held in high esteem by all who knew her.

The deceased is survived by her husband, Mr. I. M. Robins and six children. The funeral and burial services were conducted by Rev. Parker, of Randleman at New Union Church, Saturday.

MISS ESSIIE HILL, FORMERLY OF ASHEBORO WEDS IN THOMASVILLE

Miss Essie Hill and Mr. James Wyatt both of Thomasville were married, April 14th.

Mrs. Wyatt is the attractive daughter of Mr. A. L. Hill, formerly of Asheboro, and has many friends in this town and county.

Mr. Wyatt is a promising young business man of Thomasville.

MILLBORO ROUTE 1 NEWS

Rev. W. F. Ashburn preached an interesting sermon at Gray's Chapel, Sunday.

Miss Linda Williams has returned from near Ramseur, where she taught the past winter.

Misses Dorothy Routh and Annie Coley were guests at Mr. Jack White's of Rural Hall, Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Routh, and Miss Alta Walker went to Asheboro Shopping one day last week.

Rev. D. A. Yuncannon will preach at White's Memorial, Sunday night. Memorial services will be held at Gray's Chapel, the 4th Sunday in May, and at Bethany the 3rd Sunday.

WHY NOT NEWS

Miss Stephenson, of High Point, was a week-end guest of Mrs. M. C. Auman.

Mrs. N. J. Tippett, who has for the past few years been with Mrs. Cornelison, has gone to Mt. Holly to make her home with her son, Henry Stuart.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. King and little daughter, Nancy Jane, of Alamance county, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. King.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Trogdon and children, of Star, visited at M. A. Cargis last week.

Miss Mary Graham, of Candor, spent Sunday at T. W. Lawrence's.

Messrs. C. L. Monroe, of High Point, J. C. Laurence and V. E. Stuart of Trinity spent the week-end with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Manley Williams of Asheboro visited Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cagle, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Auman and Miss Merle Ring have been attending commencement at Ramseur this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Auman and children, of Seagrave Route 2, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Yow, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Monroe and son visited Mrs. Monroe's mother at Star, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Graves and Mrs. H. D. Smith were visitors in Asheboro Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Slack, Miss Merle Ring and Mr. Otis Graves attended the State Sunday School convention held in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Carl Smith and friend, of High Point, visited home folks, Sunday.

The farmer with no schooling earns $240 per year; with a common school education, $556.50 per year; high school education, $648.50 per year; with a short course training added, $898.95 but when he adds the full four year course in an agriculture college his average income jumps to $1,264.00 per year, find investigators at the State College.

MR. W. H. PARKER OF MT. GILEAD DEAD

W. H. Parker died suddenly at Mt. Gilead yesterday morning, aged about 65 years. Mr. Parker is a substantial business man and farmer. He is a director and vice president of Mt. Gilead Cotton Oil Co. He leaves two daughters, one at Mt. Gilead, Miss Ella Parker and Miss Janie Parker, music teacher in Baptist University at Raleigh. The deceased is a brother of Eldridge Parker of Troy.

MISS RUTH HADLEY TREASURER STATE COLLEGE PRESS ASSOCIATION

At a meeting of the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association at Queen's College, at Charlotte this week, Miss Ruth Hadley, of the Greensboro College for Women, was elected treasurer. Miss Hadley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hadley, of Asheboro. Miss Mary Bulla, of Asheboro, and Miss Blanche Caverness, of Coleridge, represented Davenport College at the meeting in Charlotte. It is gratifying to the Courier, as well as the many friends of these Randolph County girls, to know that such honors have been conferred upon them.

MRS. FLOSSIE DAWKINS OF NEAR ERECT DEAD

Mrs. Flossie Staley Dawkins died at her home near erect, April 21st, following an illness of two weeks with influenza and pneumonia.

Mrs. Dawkins, daughter of W. M. Staley of Seagrave Route 1, was 31 years old. She was one of fifteen children. Mrs. Dawkins' husband Jesse Dawkins, died the 23rd of last November also with pneumonia.

The deceased is survived by three children, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Staley of Seagrave Route 1, six sisters and three brothers, five brothers having died.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Hulin, of Seagrave at Flags Springs Church Monday afternoon. Interment followed in the cemetery.

Employees have been busily engaged in blasting stumps during the past month on the Lambeth farm in the Hopewell section of the county. Dynamite was used in uprooting the stumps which were left when the timber was cut a few years ago. Stumps have been taken from twenty-five or thirty acres of land, and the surface is now smooth enough to be cultivated with machinery.

Route 3 tips the scales at 370 pounds, in sixty-fifth year. Mr. Stout moves about by the use of a good stout walking cane.

REMEMBER

"MONEY IN BANK MEANS SECURITY"

And we would suggest that you deposit at least a part of your income in our regular savings account department, where it will always earn interest for you, compounded quarterly, and become part of your permanent reserve fund.

We cordially invite you to join our REGULAR SAVINGS CLUB and help keep alive the Spirit of Thrift in this community.

Asheboro Bank & Trust Co.

CAPITOL THEATRE

SATURDAY ONLY

STANDARD FORMER

Keith Vaudeville

5 — — BIC ACTS — — 5

MATINEE 3 P. M. — NIGHT 7 and 9 P. M.

25 and 40 cents 45 and 60 cents

SEATS FOR NIGHT SHOWS NOW ON SALE

WE REMOVE YOUR BACKBROAKING BURDEN

that bears you down so every Monday. No more blue washdays at home, when you engage the ASHEBORO STRAW LAUNDRY to do your home wash. Figure it up with our representative. It costs you no more in the end, and saves much toil.

Phone 87 W. F. ROYSTER, Manager

