BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE AT RAMSEUR

Seldom indeed do we have the privilege of witnessing an occasion that equals in simplicity and beauty as the one solemnized last Wednesday at the splendid new home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Highfill on Raleigh street when Miss Nettie Highfill, of Liberty, became the bride of Victor H. Coltrane, of Norwood.

The interior of this handsome little bungalow was beautifully decorated with ferns, and blackberry blossoms throughout the reception room and parlor. The dining room colors were pink and green, roses and ferns were used for decoration.

At the time appointed, 9:30 A. M., Miss Elizabeth Smith played Mendelssohn's wedding march, during which little Miss Alice Scott and Master Glenn Highfill, ribbon bearers arranged the ribbons. Rev. W. F. Ashburn, of Liberty, pastor of the bride took his place before a artistically arranged altar in the parlor. Little Miss Elna Highfill, ring bearer carried the ring in a beautiful white flower.

Mr. Mabrey, of Norwood accompanied the bridegroom to the altar and the bride came in the arm of her brother, D. E. Highfill who gave her away. Rev. Mr. Ashburn then performed the impressive ceremony, using the ring service of the M. P. church.

After the ceremony Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Scott received the guests at the door. Heartily congratulations were extended the happy husband and wife and the guest were ushered into the dining room by Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Marley where delicious punch was served by Misses Vallie Ellis and Pauline Allred. Miss Elizabeth Smith and Mrs. V. C. Marley served pink and white cream and cake.

The couple left for a trip to Asheville where they will spend a short time before going to their home at Norwood. The bride was most becomingly attired in a three piece suit of midnight blue with accessories to match.

Mrs. Coltrane is the attractive and accomplished daughter of Rev. and Mrs. D. A. Highfill, of Liberty, and possesses a large number of friends there and at other places where she has taught.

Mr. Coltrane is a splendid young business man of Norwood and enjoys the friendship of many people of that place and elsewhere, having served "over there" and coming in touch with men of prominence and influence during the war.

Those from a distance attending the marriage were: Miss Florence Owen and C. L. Highfill, of Liberty; Miss Martha Caudle of Climax and Mrs. Mattie Caveness of Coleridge.

We wish for these young people the best things life has to offer.

Edgar Reece and sister Mary, of Oxford were visitors here Sunday. They were formerly residents of Ramsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Auman of M. P. Orphanage, High Point, spent Sunday with Mrs. Auman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Forester.

Misses Eliza and Gertrude Cole of Liberty spent a week or two with Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Curtis recently.

Mr. W. Ed. Johnson and family of Thomasville spent the week end here with friends.

Rev. A. W. Lynch of Burlington spent Sunday here with friends.

The revival at the Ramsey Baptist church has been well attended the church almost overflowing at times. The interest has increased and much good done we are sure. As yet there is no complete results reported.

DEPUTY R. L. COOPER BUSY CAPTURING STILL

Deputy Sheriff, R. L. Cooper, of Staley, captured a distillery near Lineberry Station last Friday and destroyed about two hundred gallons of beer. On the same day Mr. Cooper destroyed between five and six hundred gallons of beer one-fourth mile from this distillery but the parties got away with the still.

Mr. Cooper was in Asheboro again Monday with another still of 60 gallon capacity which he captured on Sunday within two hundred yards of White's Chapel church, Columbus township, during the morning service.

MEMORIAL SERVICE AT MOON'S CHAPEL

Memorial services were held at Moon's Chapel Baptist church in the edge of Chatham county last week. There was a large crowd of former residents of this community in attendance, as well as visitors from Greensboro, Siler City and other places. The pastor, S. L. Morgan, of Ramsey, had charge of the exercises. Dr. J. A. Clark, pastor of the Baptist church, in High Point, delivered the annual sermon, after which a beautiful and impressive service was held at the cemetery and the graves were decorated.

ARTHUR BURROW BITTEN BY SNAKE

Arthur Burrow, the six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Burrow who live two and a half miles east of Asheboro, was bitten by a pilot snake Monday. The little fellow was at the barn with his brother who was feeding the mules when he stepped on the pilot that was lying in the hay rack. Medical aid was summoned and the boy is improving.

DEATH OF HON. G. SAM BRADSHAW

The Courier is grieved to announce the death of Hon. G. Sam Bradshaw, which occurred at his home in Greensboro Friday night, May 18. For several years Col. Bradshaw had suffered from pulmonary trouble, when together with Bright's disease and heart trouble took him away. All of his immediate family were at his bedside when the end came except Mrs. Dewey of Fayetteville, and a son, John Bradshaw of Wichita, Falls, Texas.

For many years the name of Sam Bradshaw was a household word in Randolph county; it was here that he entered upon his career, and here a considerable part of his life was spent. His name carried magic, and at one time he was the most beloved man in our midst. After his removal to Greensboro he achieved great prominence in the profession of the law, was active in all popular movements, and held the esteem of the city and state.

The main facts of his life are here briefly summarized. He was born in Alamance county 69 years ago and was son of William and Margaret Bradshaw, both of excellent North Carolina families. After graduating at old Trinity, he engaged for a year in teaching, then entered upon the study of law in the office of Dick and Dillard, a famous law firm of Greensboro. He located in Asheboro, and in addition to the practice of law he edited the Asheboro Courier. In 1884 he was elected Clerk of the Superior Court, and in that capacity served 12 years, during which time he became an outstanding figure in the political and social life of the State. He was a trustee for the State University and Trinity College, and director of the High Point, Asheboro and Randleman Railroad. He was a Mason, an Elk, a Knight of Pythias, a member of the Greensboro country club, the manufacturers club and many other organizations.

In his early professional life he married Miss Lou McCollough, of Guilford county, and to this union was born 7 children, two of whom, Sam and Kate, preceded him. The living children are: Mrs. R. T. Rosemond, of Charlotte, John M. Bradshaw, of Wichita Falls, Texas, Mrs. John H. Dewy, of Fayetteville, Mrs. Benjamin Robertson, of Dallas, Texas, and Mrs. B. C. Vitt, of Greensboro. A sister, Mrs. Partridge, lives in Mount Airy, and a brother, Rev. Mike Bradshaw, in Durham. The funeral and interment was held in the First Presbyterian church in Greensboro.

The State within recent years has known no brighter intellect. Col. Bradshaw was distinguished both as an orator and a writer. He wielded a magnetic pen; but pen and tongue were of equal quality. He used both with equal power. Everything emanating from him wore his own likeness. He borrowed from no man. He imitated no man and no man could imitate him. He was unique, original, wonderful. Of him it may be said with truth that he was eminent in every field in which he appeared, and fitted for every effort which he undertook. We shall miss him sadly.

At two o'clock Saturday June 2nd, there will be a county wide Farm Bureau meeting. It is important that every member be present at this meeting as there are some important business matters to come up. Among other things we want to elect officers for the coming year, and we hope that you will be thinking about this matter and make up your minds who you wish to vote for at this meeting.

We hope that every farmer that possibly can will attend this meeting whether he is a member or not, as Mr. J. N. Paine, State Secretary, will be with us and will have a message for all. Tell your neighbor about the meeting for fear he failed to see the notice and insist on his coming out.

Very truly yours,
J. O. FORRESTER,
County President

ASHEBORO REGRETS TO LOSE MR. MADDOX

His friends at Jonesboro will be interested to know that Mr. D. W. Maddox, the former superintendent of the graded school at that place, but who has for three years been at the head of the Asheboro school, has been offered two attractive positions for the coming year, one as county superintendent of public instruction in Columbus county, also as principal of the city schools at Morganton. Mr. Maddox is undecided as to which offer he will accept.—Sanford Express.

REVIVAL BEGINS AT ASHEBORO BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY

Rev. E. S. P'Pool of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, will arrive in the city Saturday to conduct revival services at the Baptist Church. On account of the High School commencement sermon to be preached at the M. P. Church at 11:00 a. m. Sunday, the morning service will be held at the Baptist Church at 10 o'clock, when Mr. P'Pool will preach his opening sermon of the revival series. The evening service will be at 8 o'clock. There will be no service Monday evening, as Mr. P'Pool has been engaged to deliver the commencement address for the High School. Beginning Tuesday services will be held twice daily at 8:30 and 6:15 p. m.

CITY COMMENCEMENT BEGINS NEXT SUNDAY

The commencement exercises of the Asheboro school will begin next Saturday morning at 11:00 o'clock when Dr. A. N. Ward, president of Western Maryland College, Westminster, Md., will deliver the annual sermon in the Methodist Protestant Church. He is a speaker of note and will no doubt preach an able sermon. On Monday at 2:00 P. M. Class Day exercises will be held at the Capitol Theater. These exercises will be different from anything which has ever been held in Asheboro. They are of the ordinary in that they will assume the form of the last meeting of the class. It is predicted that these exercises will be unusually interesting. Monday evening, at 8:15 the commencement address will be given at the courthouse, to the graduating class by Mr. E. S. P'Pool, of Hattiesburg, Miss. Following the address the Junior and Senior scholarship medals will be delivered to the winners. The senior and seventh grade diplomas will also be given. Certificates will also be awarded for perfect attendance and no tardies. Mr. Maddox, superintendent of the school will give a brief report of the past year's work. On Tuesday evening the concluding exercises will be held when the annual high school play will be given at the Capitol Theater; the subject being "Patty Makes Things Hum." A comedy in three acts, and will be presented by the graduating class of the Asheboro High School.

Synopsis
Mrs. Greene ordains a dinner party; the lobster don't come, Mr. Greene forgets all about it; the "accommodator" is sick; and the hostess' sixteen-year-old sister, Patty, expelled from school, turns up very greatly undesired, as a last straw. Patty is sent to bed to get rid of her, but she turns up later in the character of waitress, flirts with the guest of honor, has a good time generally, and ends by getting engaged to the guest. Hyacinth, the "cullud" help introduces a riot of fun.

Characters
Captain Braithwaite, who wasn't so slow after all—Samuel Brittain.
Captain Little, who had a little misunderstanding—John Hadley.
Mr. Green, who played the host—Edwin Morris.
Mr. Smith, a neighbor worth while—Tyson Ferree.
Mrs. Smith, who proved herself a true friend—Claire Presnell.
Mrs. Green, Captain Little's sister, who entertained under difficulties—Helen Sykes.
Patience Little (Patty), who managed to make things hum—Ruth Amick.
Helen Braithwaite, engaged to Captain Little—Linnie Burkhead.
Hope Dunbar, who is still hoiing—Gertrude Adkins.
Hyacinth, a loquacious colored maid—Annie Lee Spoon.

The school has been pronounced one of the most successful ever taught in Asheboro notwithstanding the fact that conditions have been very much congested. Mr. Maddox will not return to Asheboro as he has been elected Superintendent of the Morganton schools. It is understood that all the teachers were re-elected but it is not yet known how many of them will return.

The closing of the school this year marks an eventful period in the lives of the young people who will complete their years work.

The Courier extends good wishes and congratulations to each and every one who is receiving a diploma and hopes that the conclusion of their work here will mean the beginning of a college career.

BAPTIST WILL MEET IN MOREHEAD CITY

The eighth annual session of the Baptist Seaside Assembly will meet in Morehead City, June 24 to July 1. The sessions of the Assembly will be held in the Atlantic Hotel, which will house for the most part, the assembly guests for the week. The rates of the hotels of that city will be reduced for this occasion.

MR. J. T. SMITH DIES SUD- DENLY IN ABERDEEN

Mr. J. Thomas Smith of Greensboro died in Aberdeen yesterday morning from acute indigestion. Mr. Smith was traveling representative of Anderson Wholesale Grocery, in Greensboro and has for a number of years sold goods in Asheboro. He was in Asheboro on Tuesday of this week on his way to Aberdeen. He is survived by his wife who was the daughter of Rev. James W. Rose of Asheboro, also four children.

JUDGE PLATT D. WALKER DEAD

Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina, Platt D. Walker died at his home in Raleigh, Tuesday May 22, 1923. The deceased was born in Wilmington. He practiced law in Richmond county where he married Miss Covington in 1878. Judge Walker was educated at Horner School at Oxford but finished his collegiate courses at the University of Virginia where he studied law under the late Professor John B. Minor. He began the practice of law with the late Walter L. Steele of Rockingham, who afterwards was a member of Congress. Judge Walker was one of the ablest of all the distinguished members of the Judiciary in this State. No man has lived in the State who can cite so readily as many authorities as Judge Walker.

NEWS OF TOWN AND COUNTY

(By Our Field Correspondent)
W. L. Asheboro Fruit & Produce Co. has a fine truck to offer to the merchants of Randleman and Asheboro.

A good reputation is like a fire once lit it is easily kept burning. But if it once goes out—good-night. Who remembers the old-fashioned farmer that believed new roads and ditches were sure to break him up?

Most people criticizing a newspaper are those who do not read it. There are lively times in and around Asheboro because there is so many orders coming in for the products turned out from our factories from all parts of the United States and the output brings many thousands dollars daily into the town. Asheboro is on a solid foundation and is bound to grow and it is one of the healthiest places in the state.

Mr. W. M. Albright, who is one of the best truck farmers on Ramsey, Route 1, has been selling some fine cabbage on the Asheboro market. He made 1200 bushels of sweet potatoes last year.

Mr. W. H. Redding, who is a good truck farmer on Randleman Route 3, has been selling a great many strawberries on the Asheboro market. The crop is growing in favor with the farmer and since they are easier to raise and more profitable than most anything else, and a ready market for all that can be raised, there is no danger of overloading the strawberries. Every farmer should try them.

Mr. J. W. Curtis, of Liberty, has the most up-to-date undertaker establishment in this section of the state. In the hour of sadness and need when death overtakes some one near and dear to you, someone must be called in to take charge of the details. Mr. Curtis can render that care, consideration and service which you would appreciate during these dark hours. Besides his undertaking establishment he owns a clothing store that is a credit to any city of much larger pretensions. Mr. Curtis is always anxious to do what he can to further the interests of Liberty.

A large addition is being built to the cotton mill at Worthville. Mr. J. L. Crouse, of Greensboro, has charge of the work. Everybody at Worthville is making money and all are happy.

Mr. Frank Talley, representing the Randolph Grocery Company of Randleman, was in Asheboro a few days ago calling on the merchants.

Mr. J. F. Routh has just finished with improvements on his residence in Randleman which makes it one of the most attractive in the town.

Mr. J. M. Breedlove, of Cedar Falls, has bought for himself and family a new Ford.

A certain cow, though pastured in beautiful meadows, was attracted by more tempting appearance of distant fields. Shunning the abundance at hand, she wandered afar, always finding the new spots less appetizing and less plentiful, and always leaving them untasted for the new fields inviting her on. Growing hunger only spurred her on until finally, exhausted by it, she fell to the sands of a desert whence she never again rose. People who shun the stores at home because of the allurements of those in larger towns often find themselves getting less than they expected. Get in the habit of seeing your local dealer first. If he hasn't what you want, he will get it. You'll be helping him to serve you better by helping him to make it pay.

There is some talk of a cotton mill being built between Franklinville and Ramsey. Who knows but what Franklinville and Ramsey will be one big city in the near future. Everybody who wants to work is finding something to do in Franklinville and Ramsey.

Mr. J. C. Callieut, of Cedar Falls, has purchased an automobile.

Misses Mary and Grace Smithman have returned to their home in Troy, after spending three months in Florida. They made the trip by motor.

Mr. N. N. Newlin, a prominent citizen and merchant of Randleman, is among our renewal subscribers this week.

Misses Mary McCain and Grace Brazier spent several hours in Greensboro Saturday.

Rev. W. H. Willis spent a short while in High Point one day last week.

Mr. E. P. Hayes, a good citizen and business man, of Randleman, has had his subscription to The Courier moved up two years.

Among the new enterprises of Asheboro is a rock crusher owned by Mr. E. L. Hedrick. Mr. Jot Lamb has charge of it and is working about a dozen men.

Mrs. Z. T. Jobe, of Atlanta, Ga., was in Asheboro recently visiting in the home of her cousin, Mrs. R. B. Brooks. She is a native of this county and it has been 29 years since she was in Asheboro. She says she would not have known Asheboro as there has been such great improvements.

Mr. J. M. Pounds, of Cedar Falls, has our thanks for a renewal of his subscription to The Courier.

Mr. and Mrs. Rezzie Auman and Miss Pallie Rich, of High Point, spent Sunday in Asheboro.

The man who doesn't want his children to learn to swear should never invest in a second-hand auto.

Work is progressing nicely on the court house at Carthage, and the August court may be held in the new building.

CO-OPERATIVE SPIRIT NECESSARY TO FAIR

A fair is an educational institution that belongs to the community, it represents the interests of the community. Therefore every man, woman and child in the county should have a responsibility as to its teachings, morals and its general efficiency. Good citizenship demands this; in fact at no time in history has there been an era when so much depended upon citizenship, loyalty, co-operation and efficiency as our present day, and in my opinion the men and women who are broadminded enough to feel they have a responsibility outside of their own personal success or prosperity are the worth while community builders that ultimately mean better homes, more happiness and greater prosperity. The fair is the logical clearing house for all these teachings, as it touches every interest from childhood to old age, and is made up of departments reaching the farm, the factory, the home, the school—an fact every community interest should be featured. This means that every inhabitant of the county has a part to play in its successful operation, otherwise they are not complying with the requirements of good citizenship. Let's start now in our own way and make this year's fair the most progressive county fair in North Carolina and the one that stands in the front ranks of efficiency, it has achieved a great success in the past two years almost unparalleled and is now one of the best equipped fairs in the state.

Get your fair catalogue now and start planning for the favorite week of the "52" make the world set up and take notice.

Don't forget the last week in September.

W. C. YORK, Mgr.

KILLS HIMSELF AFTER SHOOTING WIFE

Raymond F. Morris, a driver of an ice wagon at Raleigh, whose age is stated at 38, shot his wife following a quarrel in the presence of their four children, May 16, and then immediately turned the gun on himself. Morris died instantly. His wife was transferred to a local hospital, and her recovery is reported as likely. The immediate cause of the shooting, it is alleged, was due to the fact that the woman left home during the afternoon.

MARRIED

Married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pugh in Providence township, Randolph county, on May 19, 1923, Miss Elsie Pugh and Frank D. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clark, the marriage ceremony being performed by Rev. J. A. Bales, pastor of St. Paul's M. E. Church, South, Randleman. The bride and groom will begin house keeping in their new home just above Rocky Knoll school house in Guilford county on the Asheboro to Greensboro highway.

HIGH POINT, THOMASVILLE AND DENTON RAILROAD INCORPORATED

The old Carolina and Yadkin Valley Railroad, which was sold three times before its affairs in the hand of a receiver could be wound up, has been reincorporated under the name of the High Point, Thomasville and Denton. The new road has an authorized capital of $175,000 taken by the men of the three towns. The sum paid for the property was $125,000 and the sale confirmed by Judge A. M. Stack. Plans for placing the line on a paying basis are rapidly maturing. The business men of the three towns have signed an agreement to give the line at least 50 per cent. of their business for three years.

HIGH POINT OFFICERS APPOINTED

The City council held its regular meeting in High Point last Friday night and appointed the following officers to serve for the next two years: Horace Haworth, judge of police court; R. L. Pickett, city manager; Dr. Fred Peacock, city attorney; T. W. Alberson, prosecuting attorney; W. L. Smith, city collector; L. W. Blackwelder, chief of police; Dr. S. S. Cox, city physician; A. B. Horne, chief of fire department; J. L. Sechrist, fire inspector; Henry Sechrist, keeper of cemetery; J. W. Kivett, superintendent of abattoir; Dr. A. C. Jones, milk and meat inspector.

M. E. MATTERS

By W. H. WILLIS
Sunday school as usual, but no preaching at 11:00 A. M., Sunday, on account of the commencement sermon at the M. P. church.

Our church is represented in the present graduating class by the following: John Hadley, Linnie Burkhead, Ed. Morris, Virginia Redding, Frances Barker.

At 8:00 P. M., the pastor will preach on "The Kicker."

Mr. R. L. Jarrett, of Central Falls, has renewed his subscription to The Courier.

Mr. W. C. York, of Asheboro, has been employed to manage the Chatham County Fair and there is every prospect of the fair being the biggest and best that Chatham county has ever had.

LOCAL PYTHIANS PLANNING BIG EVENT

On May 25th, the Asheboro Lodge No. 236, Knights of Pythias is planning to hold a big celebration. The lodge is growing at a rapid rate and many new men are coming into the order. For Monday night's event the following candidates having completed the Rank of Esquire are in waiting for the mysteries of the rank of Knight: E. S. Millaps, Sheriff A. C. Cox, J. F. White, Jr., J. W. Puck, W. A. Gregory, R. S. Ferree.

These candidates will be introduced to the mysteries of the Rank of Knight by a degree team composed of forty members of Greensboro Lodge No. 80 who are coming over for the event and will bring with them their gorgeous uniforms, paraphernalia and other implements necessary in putting on the amplified form of the third degree. Besides the degree team from Greensboro other members of the Greensboro lodge are coming along and Asheboro Lodge extends an invitation to any and all members in good standing from any lodge. All members of the Asheboro lodge are especially invited to come out and help welcome the visiting brothers. The local lodge has planned for ample refreshments and there will be a good time for all who may attend.

DEAR CLUB MEMBERS

As we enter into our new year work (our club year as you know runs from April to April) I hope we may soon get lined up for service.

While most Woman's clubs do not hold regular meetings during the summer, we have found it a very good plan, (in order to keep in touch with each other, and our good work) to have social gatherings each month. This does not meet the approval of all, but of a right good majority. A garden party is being planned for May 31st on Central Hotel lawn. A picnic for all club members and their husbands, will likely come in July or August. Our regular meetings are always the first Wednesday in every month at 3:30 P. M. Please be prompt. I am very glad to have had the privilege of attending the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs Winston-Salem, May 2nd to 5th. Only wish every member of our club could have been there. Those of us who were there will try to bring to you, from time to time during the coming year, some of the good things you missed.

Mrs. Lindsay Patterson of Winston-Salem instrumental organizer and first President of the Federation extended greetings, she said, in part, "Could a woman ask for a sweeter task, a more gracious privilege than to welcome her baby, her precious baby, grown to woman's estate and home again to celebrate her twenty-first birthday, welcome as the flowers in May, welcome as joy after sorrow, etc. Certainly you had an auspicious beginning, for your first birthday was the centennial of Salem Academy in May 1902."

Mrs. Patterson said women were very very timid twenty years ago. No one thought of a woman making a speech, they had papers to read and when she got up to read her first paper she had stage fright so bad she could not hold her paper still enough to be able to read it, so one of her friends, (who had so faithfully pledged her support if she would only make the venture to organize came and stood by her. This she said helped greatly, and her friend soon sat down, and no sooner did she become so frightened again, that she turned to her friend and cried out, "You promised to stand by me, come hold my paper!"

I, (as your new president), am already trembling, and am not asking just one friend to stand by me, but the entire membership of the Asheboro Woman's club. It has been said that the woman's club is the most democratic in membership, the most comprehensive in aim, and the most successful in objectives attained, and covers more ground in the least time than any other organization in the state. There can be no question as to the broadening effect of woman's clubs. Women are refreshed in many ways and are better fitted to the duties at home. She learns that she may no longer concentrate her talents upon herself and her own loved ones, for these same loved ones must come in contact with the community life in which they live, therefore for their protection, she must yield her influence in the community, thus more successfully accomplishing the perfect womanhood and manhood of her own, and at the same time help others who might not have the same atmosphere her own enjoy.

A community without organized women doing various splendid things, would soon lose its influence at home and abroad, and become a place where no one would care to live.

Mrs. Inman, says, "Service is the only rental we pay for the place we occupy."

In closing may I ask in the beginning that you stand by me. Let's try to do something worth while.

First let's put on an advertising campaign. No work can reach the hearts of people, unless it first be forced upon their attention.

Just remember, that if you are not at our club meeting, we miss you, and believe had you been there the meeting would have been a greater success.

CO-OPERATION spelled with capitals all the way through is what we must have, without this our club is a failure NOW and not this time next year.

ESTHER AUMAN LOVETT,
President Asheboro Woman's Club.
