

THE COURIER

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Thursday, June 14, 1923

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson motored from Hamilton, Canada and are here for a visit to their son Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ferguson.

Mr. J. O. Forrester and family of Ragsdale were the guests of Mr. J. W. Birkhead and family Sunday. Mr. Joe Forrester returned with them after a week's visit.

Mr. F. Goodwin of Greensboro has been in Asheboro and other towns in the county for the past few days arranging for some special advertising in The Courier.

What is known as Rush Wood Park farm on Farmer-Denton highway is now being developed and subdivided and will be sold in lots.

Will Everhart of Thomasville, was run down and severely injured on the Denton highway near Cedar Lodge by a car in which Clifford Varner and Allen Long, of Thomasville, were riding Sunday afternoon.

Physicians were summoned to attend Mr. Everhart but the extent of the man's internal injuries were uncertain.

A number of Asheboro boys attended the opening dance at Jackson Springs Saturday night.

Mrs. James Covington left the latter part of last week for her home at Rockingham after a week's visit to relatives in Asheboro.

Richard Emerson Killed and Denver Smith Seriously Injured When Car Turns Over

There will be a meeting at the School Auditorium, June 16, 3:00 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of discussing the proposed school taxing district election of Trinity township.

Rev. and Mrs. Woosley spent Saturday and Sunday in Durham.

R. C. Kelly Former Asheboro Attorney to Locate in Greensboro

Mrs. Kate Brittain is visiting friends at Litterton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Rich and family were visitors in Troy Sunday.

DR. BROOKS NEW PRESIDENT STATE COLLEGE

Emerson, whose skull was crushed, died within a few minutes after the accident, while en route to a hospital.

Those attending colleges at various places who have returned home for vacation are: Miss Hazel Coletrane from Guilford college, Miss Bernice Coletrane from N. C. C. W., Messrs. Thomas and Newton English from Guilford College.

W. L. Coletrane, election judge, and R. L. White, Jr., election registrar, both of New Market township, Randolph county are scheduled to go on trial in the federal court, Greensboro, this week on a charge of allowing a qualified voter to vote at the general election last fall.

Miss Nell Fox is spending this week in Greensboro.

Asheboro gardeners are beginning to enjoy green beans and many other vegetables of their own cultivation.

DR. BROOKS WILL PROBABLY BE SUCCEEDED BY MR. A. T. ALLEN, DIRECTOR OF TEACHER TRAINING.

Miss Myrtle Cox, of Ramseur, Route 1, entertained a number of her friends at her lovely country home "Whispering Pines" Saturday evening.

Miss Bess Johnson has returned to her home for vacation, having taught in Jonesboro Graded Schools, the past term.

Miss Carrie and Mr. Charlie Phillips, who have been teaching in the Greensboro schools are spending a few days with their parents before leaving for Columbia University to attend summer school.

Miss Isley Smith, of High Point, was a week end visitor in town.

Miss Elizabeth Skeen has completed a business course at the Woman's College in Greensboro.

Two Delightful Parties at Garland Lake

CLOTHING FOR NEAR EAST

Senator Overman has declined an invitation of the United States shipping board to cruise a week on the fine new ship, the Leviathan, because he says the trips will cost the taxpayers of the country $600,000.

PHONE US TO CALL

Mr. Arthur Macon has severed connection with the Smith Drug Company in Salisbury and has assumed the general management of the new Yaddin Drug Company which is one of the best and most perfectly equipped drug houses in the state.

Miss Maxine Redding of Cedar Falls is visiting Misses Mae and Clara Pressnell and Mrs. John Brandon.

McCord-Parrish

Many were found last year who had dragged themselves for miles suffering from pneumonia, acute rheumatism and frozen feet or limbs, simply from lack of clothing.

ASHEBORO STEAM LAUNDRY

TRINITY COLLEGE SUMMER SCHOOL

Mr. and Mrs. Deaton Pressnell and one daughter of Greensboro were in Asheboro Sunday afternoon.

Asheboro is growing rapidly and the real estate is increasing in value.

Thousands of animals perish in Henderson, June 2, in a half storm in the region of a village called Epiphany.

Miss Kitchin, son of the late Congressman Claude Kitchin, has returned to accept the nomination in the primary.

TRINITY COLLEGE SUMMER SCHOOL

HOLLAND HOLTON, Director

You can select a pair here that will look GOOD, feel GOOD and wear GOOD.

COFFIN & SCARBORO

Fresh, Satisfying, Sanitary Sandwiches

At Both Drug Stores

We cater to clubs and parties

Give us orders for your refreshments for your luncheons, teas or parties

Sandwiches 80c per dozen

Phones 160 and 126

MISSES COX & REDDING

TRINITY COLLEGE SUMMER SCHOOL June 15 to July 28, 1923 For teachers, college students, and graduates of standard high schools. No afternoon classes. No class of more than thirty-five students. Ample dormitory room. Primary and grammar grade demonstration classes taught by North Carolina teachers. HOLLAND HOLTON, Director College Station, Durham, N. C.