Capt. and Mrs. W. S. Lineberry, of Millboro, will leave the latter part of this week for North. Garden, Va., where they will visit their daughter, Mrs. Frank E. Minor. Mr. and Mrs. Lineberry attended the meeting of the Confederate veterans in Winston-Salem the first of the week.

Mr. J. T. Wood returned last Friday from Baltimore where he spent five weeks purchasing goods for the Wood Cash Clothing Company. Mr. Wood says he not only had advantage of the Baltimore markets but saw traveling men from New York and other markets.

other markets.

Mr. L. C. Phillips has accepted a position with the North Carolina Cotton Growers Co-operative Association. Mr. Phillips was in Gaston county last week and from there he will go to Cleveland county.

Mrs. Will McGuinn, of High Point, was the guest of her mother the first Mr. C. B. Smith, of the Carter Mercantile Company, Ramseur, was a business visitor in the city Tues-Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kivett, of Sta-

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kivett, of Sta-ley, Rt. 2, were among the business visitors in the city Saturday. Mr. W. L. Lineberry, of the Line-bery company, Randleman, was in Asheboro on business Tuesday. Harvey Davis and wife, of Greens-boro; Elsie and Clifton Davis, of Useh Paint: Alva Loftin and family

High Point; Alva Loflin and family of Edgar, were week-end guests at Barker Brothers, Cedar Lane Farm, on Asheboro, Route 1.

Anderson M. Barker is visiting this week in High Point, Edgar, and around Randleman.
P. M. Davis and family of the Blair Dairy at High Point passed through town yesterday on their way to spend a few days with his sister, Sybil J. Barker, on Asheboro, Route

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Winingham returned last week from a trip of several days spent at Asheville, Blow-ing Rock, North Wilkesboro, and other places of interest in Western North Carolina.

Mr and Mrs. Fred Cox and children, of Lexington, are spending their vacation in western North Carolina. Mrs. W. V. Smith and daughter,, visited relatives in High Point this Wallberg where he will enter school Star.

for the coming year

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hilliard and the Re

son, Bruce, have returned from a wisit to relatives in Washington, D. C., and Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Arthur A. Lewis and children are visiting relatives in Wilmington, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Millsaps, Jr., have as their guest Mr. and Mrs. Millsaps and Miss Kate Millsaps of Mrs. Calvin Frazier, Jr., and little daughter Rachel and Miss Louise Berry have returned from a visit to friends in Salisbury.

Mr. E. B. Cole, of Hemp has purstone Terrace, on which he will erect a handsome residence. Mr. and Mrs. Cole will in the near future move to Asheboro. Mr. Cole is engaged in the lumber business.

Mrs. J. W. Hayes was in town returning from Trinity Route 1, where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. K. Lanier. Mr. J. W. Saunders, of Sparta, Ga., in renewing his subscription recently writes that he can not get along without The Courier. Mr. Saunders was born and reared in New Hope township and is anklous for weekly news from that section. The Courier will be glad to have a reporter so Mr. Saunders and others from that sections tion may have weekly news.

A number of the confederate Veterans of the county are attending the annual state reunion at Winston-Salem this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Caviness, of Durham, have been visiting relatives at Coleridge. They returned to their home the latter part of last week.

Mr. Clave Grimes of Jackson's Mrs. Cleve Grimes, of Jackson's Creek, visited Mrs. B. F. Morgan at

Miss Veda Morgan, of Caraway, will leave Monday for Greensboro where she will enter N. C. College

Bille, are the guesta of Miss Minnie Hoover.

Rev T. F. Andrew, of Staley was a visitor on our streets Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ingram and daughters, Miss Mabel and Annie Glades and Son, Mr. H. I. Ingram visited their daughter and sisters, Miss Foy and Alberta Ingram of Raleigh, Sunday.

Mrs. B. F. Morgan and Misses Moleta and Verda Morgan of Caraway and Miss Lyde Kearns of Bombay were visitors in Asheboro Monday.

Mesars, H. T. Branson and E. L. Reece of Ramseur were visitors in Miss Blanche Burkhead, who has a position with the Register of Deeds, Guilford county, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Burk-

Mrs. Mary Burns and son, were the week-end guests of Mrs. James Covington in Rockingham. Mr. W. H. Weinell who has been Randelph county compare very favor-ably with those in his own district Mr. Millsap's district is made up of some of the counties in which considerable cotton is grown and says that while the boll weevil did not make his appearance until late this season that great havoc is being wrought.

Miss Ruth Hadley left Tuesday for Granite Quarry, where she went to attend the marriage of a friend.

The Courier is making a special offer to teachers and pupils who are leaving their homes for the various schools throughout the country. The subscription from now to June 1st will be $1.00. Mr. J. D. Bivins, editor of the Albe marle Press, was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hadley. Mr. Fred Burgess, who taught at Ramseur last year, and who was elected to teach again this year, resigned and expects to enter the Uniwersity and secure an A. B. course. Mr. V. C. Marley, of Ramseur, was business visitor in Asheboro last Tuesday.

Mrs. Wm. Coward of Norfolk, Va., visiting her sister, Mrs. L. M. Fox. Mr. and Mrs. James Kivett have returned from a week's stay at Wrightsville Beach.

Mr. Carr Parrish who is in the High Point hospital is improving. Mr. Parrish has been seriously ill with blood poisoning.

Misses Mae and Clare Presnell were the guests of friends in Greensboro the first of the week.

Miss Esther Ross spent the weekend at Jackson Springs.
Miss Kate Bulla will leave Wednesday for Greensboro where she will enter the North Carolina College for Miss Cleta Rich spent the week-end with friends in Linwood. Miss Maxine Redding of Cedar Falls, is the guests of friends and relatives in town. William Underwood, Jr., spent the eek-end in Thomasville. Elmer Rich and sons were visitors in Troy Last week.

Miss Massa Lambert, a member of the Asheboro High School Faculty, returned Monday night from Greens-boro, where she has been studying at . C. Cellege during the summer. Mrs. Otis Rich and little daughter, Winfred Berry left Wednesday for Mary Louise, spent last week in

Mr. R. D. Marsh, superintendent of the Ramseur school was a visitor in Asheboro yesterday. Mr. Marsh has been to Ridge Crest this summer having charge of the athletic and nature study department at the Southern Baptist Assembly. Mr. Marsh says he has a splendid corps of teachers for the Ramseur school this

COUNTY'S SCHOOLS OPENING

Next Monday September 10th will see some of the county's leading leading schools open for the fall term. Ramseur, Randleman, Franklinville

The Ramseur school has met the requirements for an accredited school and is on the list in group 2. class A. There has been wonderful improvement in the Ramseur high school. The new building is one of the best in the State. The library laboratory have been improved and very attractive features added. The people of the community have shown every interest in this enterprise by giving it their hearty support. The members of the faculty are: Miss members of the faculty are: Miss Carrie Cranford, Miss Janet Bratton, Mrs. J. P. Cox. Miss Ruth Finch, R. D. Marsh, High school, Mrs. Herbert Brady, Miss Elizabeth Collier, Miss Isla Willis Thompson, Miss Grixelle Moore, Miss Madge Caviness, Miss Margaret White, Miss Ora Scott, and Miss Bessie Warren Grades.

The Franklinville school will also open on Monday. The list of the teachers who have been chosen are recorded in the Franklinville items of the Courier this week. Mr. Davis of Chapel, Hill, is Superintendent. This is Mr. Davis's first year at Franklinville. He succeeds Mr. R. B. Little, who has taught at Franklinville for the last two years.

charge of the Farmer school, which will also open on next Monday. The Seagrove school will open September 17th, The members of the faculty are as follows: B. H. McCarn Principal, Misses Treva Richardson, Alta Hudsen, Maude Lee Spoon, and Mrs. R. F. Lynch.

Angier B. Duke Drowned

RANDOLPH SUPERIOR COURT. ME. REODES MOFFITT TO

Sentember criminal term of the Superior Court convened on Mon-day morning of this week with his honor, Judge Benjamin F. Long, presiding, and Zeb Vance Long. Cooper of Fayetteville will be most intelligent presentation of the criminal law.

Solicitor Long centinues to grow in strength as a prosecutor and in pop-ular favor with the public. The following cases were disposed

State vs. B. M. Anthony for transporting and possession of alcoholic liquors, found guilty and sentenced to 8 months. Appeal to the supreme

Three cases against Melvin Beckcrdite were consolidated and the defendant called out and bond for $1,000 forfeited.

E. C. Shaw was convicted of fornication and adultry with one Mrs. R. D.Bost, who formerly lived in Asheboro, but has here-to-fore pleaded guilty and has left the State.

Tom Tucker showed good behavior and was discharged to return to South Carolina, where he now lives. State vs. Joe McDowell was continued upon request of counsel employed to aid in prosecution because of the absence of O. L. Sapp one of attorneys employed for the State to aid the solicitor.

Cecil Kivett was convicted for abandonment without adequate sup-port, his wife, Bessie McDowell Kivett, a daughter of Riley McDowell, of Concord township. It appeared in evidence that the defendant and his wife before their marriage were working at a silk mill in High Point. The defendant seduced her under promise of marriage, and after the child was born and he had paid for the child, married her, and lived with her six days, left her and went to Virginia and was brought back af-ter indictment. After defendant's conviction the judge stated if he would first make payment of $300 he would decide what amount per month he would require the defendant to pay per month to aid in sup-port of the wife and his child, whereupon, the defendant left the court nouse and did not return. called out on his bond, and judgment county roads, and ordered that if he pay his wife $150 for support of herself and child one year and provide for payment of $15 a month until the further order of court, the other sen tence to be striken out. Thomas Freeman was convicted and sentenced for 18 months on Rowan county roads for hitting Chas. Saunders with a club and shooting at him.

Bige Brown, colored, was fined $10. and required to pay the costs for al-

Alfonzo Hayes pleaded guilty for transporting and buying liquor and is to appear in court this forenoon for judgment to be pronounced.

Lige Elliott was fined $75 and costs for carrying two pistols at the same

Wish Holder pleaded guilty for operating an automobile while intoxicated and was fined $50 and cost, and defendant not permitted to operate an automobile for one year. Holder formerly lived at Randleman but for sixteen years has lived in 3 Greenaboro.

Judgment suspended upon payment of costs as to Percy Nixon for possessing and transporting liquor.

Thomas McMasters, David Brooks and John Brooks pleaded guilty for possessing and transporting an ale bottle full of liquor and each fined 5.10 and costs.

$10. and costs.

R. L. Harding fined $50 and costs for operating automobile while intoxicated.

Fred Gilea fined $25 and costs for pred Gilea fined Gilea fin possessing and transporting half pint bottle containing some liquor.

C. L. Evans fined $25 and costs for assault with a rock. Roy Hayes was sentenced for a towhere she will enter N. C. College for the last two years.

The school at Randleman will open the school at Marvin Smith was acquitted of an affray with John Michael. Michael was convicted and fined $25 and costs and for operating an automobile while intoxicated was required to pay the costs and give bond of $500 not to operate an automobile for 12 months.

Mrs. W. H. McMahan's Grandfather Celebrates 190th Birthday.

and Miss Lyde Kearns of Bombay were visitors in Asheboro Monday.

Messars H. T. Branson and E. L. Beece of Ramseur were visitors in Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cameron and daughter, Miss Byrd, of Denton visited Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Byrd at Mt. Gilead last week.

Mr. W. C. Jones was a business visitor in town last Saturday.

Mrs. A. W. Gray, of Level Cross, was a visitor in town Monday.

Miss Clyde Kearns of Farmer, passed through Asheboro Monday en rouse to Greensberg, where ale will teach music this winter.

Miss Carris Brittain will this feat be one of the tachers in the Denton school. Miss Brittain regarded by A. B. degree from the N. C. College Drowned Angier B. Duke, only son of the Durham was of the Celebrates 190th Birthday.

Angier B. Duke, only son of the Durham was celebrated in which the B. N. Duke, wealthy tobacco manufacturer, of Durham was drowned at Greenwish, Conn., last Monday, for Yadkin county, where she attended the celebration of the 100th birthday anniversary of her grand-father, Mr. William Reavis on Tuesday. Thousands of people were present including five generations of the family from different states. Many were present from western states. Mrs. Reavis will be 94 years of age in December. She does practically all of her house work, and Mr. Reavis is, also, quite active for his age. His long life is probably attributable to the fact that he has never indulged in the use of narcotics and has led a divorce in 1921.

Announcement of the approaching marriage of Mr. Stuart Rhodes Moffitt to Miss Allien Wiggins his honor, Judge Benjamin F. Long, presiding, and Zeb Vance Long. Cooper of Fayetteville will be of Eaquire, prosecuting for the State. The following grand jurors were sworn and empanelled: R. L. White, foreman, R. T. Loyd, W. L. Craven, W. P. Julian, J. P. Lamb, G. H. Payne, W. H. Miller, W. A. Shore, J. B. Alien, J. R. Hunt, John Hancock, R. L. Summey, John R. Brown, H. C. Lanier, G. C. Brooka, D. A. Henly, T. E. Walker, S. M. Smith, John M. Trogdon, M. C. Lowdermilk.

Petit Jurors, P. No.l.
J. M. Scott, H. H. Pope, W. H. Rogers, H. C. Causey, J. A. Ellis, A. E. Pritchard, W. I. Burrow, C. D. Tregdon, J. M. Holt, E. A. Frazier, R. T. Loyd, H. C. Causey, Artie Russell, Gaston Lineberry.

Judge Long's charge to the grand jury was as is always the case when he makes a charge, clear, able and most intelligent presentation of the spiritell level.

lightful supper was served. Those enjoying the happy event were: Misses Elyer Richardson, Lena Hilliard, Donna Lee and Mary Loflin, Irene Kearns, Pauline Burkhead, Eva Cranford, Frances Moore, Elizabeth Bulla, Nancy Hunsucker, Henrietta Underwood, Virginia Steed, Mes-dames C. L. and C. H. Cranford and Rush Lassiter.

Meeting of Woman's Missionary So-ciety of the M. E. Church, September 11

We wish to call attention to the members of the Woman's Missionary Society, of the M. E. church, that on Tuesday, the 11th, the regular monthly meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Moore, on Fayatteville street, at 8 o'clock. We etteville street, at 8 o'clock. We would like to urge each member to be present at this meeting.

We would also earnestly ask for your co-operation in our Mission Study Work. We are just now beginning our fall study, and would like to have every member of the Missionary Society a member of our study class.

MRS. W. J. MOORE, Supt. of Study and Pub.

Flowers for Fair

Mrs. John K. Wood, chairman of the flower committee, is urging the ladies of the town and county to have their flowers ready for exhibition at the Randolph County Fair. Good prizes will be awarded.

Dr. Worth Bagley Daniels, son of Hon. and Mrs. Josephus Daniels, was married to Miss Josephine January, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. January, of St. Louis, in Baltimore, last Monday.

Mr. Ben Scott, of Ramseur, became the father of his 21st child one day last week. Mr. Scott has been married twice. His first wife had nineteen children and his second has Six people were killed at a crossand a child was seriously injured.

Six persons were drowned in th ing in New York Inst Sunday by a Waccamaw river, at Conway, S. C., train running sixty miles an hour, when an automobile plunged through partly open draw bridge.

_aacacagaacaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa

Arriving daily are our fall Hats Smart and exquisite models for sport, street and dress wear

We will have a complete line of the Madge Evans hat for misses

PRICES ARE POPULAR

McMASTER AND LOVETT

(Over Asheboro Bank and Trust Co.) Asheboro,

GREYSTONE TERRACE LOTS CONTINUE TO SELL

Does any one expect Asheboro to stop Growing? OF COURSE NOT

Then we expect to see Greystone Terrace lots equal the values on Sunset Drive and North Fayetteville Street.

Make a selection now for your home, and another one for investment, while prices

The terms are inviting. Address-

J. S. McALISTER, Manager,

Greensboro, N. C.

New Fall Dresses and Coats

We have just what you want in the newest fall dresses in weaves, colors, and patterns at very attractive prices. We want you to come in and look them over whether you want to buy or not.

We have a nice lot of children's ready-to wear School dresses 98c and up
Boys' suits $1.98 and up $1.98 and up

New Fall piece goods coming in daily Three big school tablets for 10c Sheets 72x90, bleached Wash Cloths, each 5c
Bath towels 2 for 25c and up

We have just what you want in shoes for the whole family, school shoes for the children, work shoes, dress shoes, at the right prices.

F. E. BYRD

Asheboro,

Opposite W. D. Stedman and Son