

SUPT. BULLA GIVES MR. CRAVEN INFORMATION ABOUT SCHOOL BONDS

August 24, 1923
Supt. T. Fletcher Bulla,
Asheboro, North Carolina.
Dear Mr. Craven:

I want to thank you for the information you have given me regarding the county school bonds. It is already in circulation here that half of the bond issue will go to Asheboro and that the new maintenance tax will be added to the tax on the maintenance tax. I will be glad to correct your answer to the following questions:

1. What is the amount of the debt that will be taken over in Asheboro, Randleman, Liberty and Farmer?
2. Will the new maintenance tax abolish the special tax in Trinity?

Cordially yours,
BRUCE CRAVEN,
August 26th, 1923.

Dear Mr. Bulla:

I am sending you under separate cover School Law. You will see for yourself that all indebtedness now existing will be paid out of the new maintenance tax.

1. All present local tax in Randolph for schools will be abolished and the new tax which we will vote will take its place and this will be used to pay teachers for eight months and pay bond indebtedness now existing and the operation of the school.
2. If the Board of Education has a budget of $175,000 from the $200,000 we would not have funds enough to build the houses we expect to erect. But there need be no question about us having $500,000.00 to spend for school buildings and equipment for them.

Yours truly,
T. FLETCHER BULLA,
County Supt.
August 28, 1923.

Mr. Bruce Craven,
Trinity, N. C.
Dear Mr. Craven:

I take great pleasure in answering your questions relative to the County Bond issue. I am glad you asked the question.

1. There is no indebtedness at Farmer. There is an indebtedness at Asheboro, Randleman, Liberty and Ramseur which is approximately $175,000., with some credits which I am not able to give at this time. The County proposes to take over this Bonded Indebtedness, but it will not be deducted from the $500,000.00 voted. In other words we will have $500,000.00 to spend for building. The North Carolina School Law Article 20, section 245, Paragraph 2,

I appreciate your courteous and clear letter of August 25, and it is entirely satisfactory to me, and clears up the only possible objections to the bond issue for county school buildings and equipment. This $500,000 of county school bonds, properly divided out will put a good school building in reach of every child in the county, and to pay the bonds and interest will require only a tax levy of about fifteen cents on the $100, and I shall support it very heartily for the good of the whole county.

Cordially yours
BRUCE CRAVEN
