

FRANKLINVILLE NEWS

Rev. W. F. Womble, Presiding Elder of Greensboro district held the fourth quarterly conference of Ramseur-Franklinville church here Sunday night. A number of delegates from Ramseur were present and the report on finances shows that the two churches are doing good work. After the business meeting Rev. Womble preached an excellent sermon. Mr. Carley Hancock, who has been visiting for some time in Arizona returned home last week. Mrs. Jennie Spoon visited friends in Greensboro last week.

Mr. T. J. Buie and family left last week for Boynton, Va., to visit Mrs. Buie's parents.

Mr. H. S. Edwards has moved his family to Asheboro. Mr. Edwards was manager of the Randolph store up to the consolidation of Randolph and Franklinville stores into Franklinville store company, of which he has been secretary and treasurer and general manager until recently. For a number of years he was superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school and also a deacon in the church. Mr. Edwards is a good business man and citizen. We are sorry to lose this family but feel that our loss is Asheboro's gain.

Messrs. Chas. Buie and Joe Fox made a trip to Greensboro Saturday.

A number of our citizens met at the M. E. church Monday night to appoint a committee to secure a doctor for this place and the following were elected: Messrs. G. C. Russell, J. W. Clark, Hugh Parks, R. D. Garrison and W. A. Martin.

Mr. F. A. Bluster and family, A. W. Tippet, Mr. C. C. Cox and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cox, Mrs. Paul Whitley and Miss Beattie Cox of Greensboro, were visitors here Sunday.

Messrs. J. M. Tippet, G. H. Cox, W. C. Tippet and Ray Tippet were visitors in Greensboro Sunday.

Mr. M. L. Allred and family visited relatives at Winston-Salem last Saturday.

Russell Parks, Clyde Jones, Joe Fox, Fred Patterson and Paul Routh left Tuesday for Chapel Hill University.

W. A. Martin and T. F. Jordan went to Greensboro last Wednesday.

W. R. Cox has moved his family to High Point.

W. H. Allred is critically ill at his home near Mrs. Jennie Brown's.

Mr. R. C. Green and Turner Batten of near Caplesie spent Sunday at Grove Hotel with Mr. W. A. Martin.

Mr. Melvin Lamb and family, of near Siler City, are visiting Mr. G. K. Reaves.

Mr. Burgess Allred has moved his family from near Asheboro to one of Mr. W. A. Grime's residence in West Franklinville.

Miss Laura Summer will leave this week for Smith College at North Hampton, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Thomas and Miss Lillie Allred spent Sunday at High Point.

Mr. Irving McLeod has moved his family from Cedar Falls to Franklinville.

School opened Tuesday with an enrollment of 275 and the outlook for a good school is encouraging. The high school superintendent has organized a Riley Literary Society with the following officers: Miss Lula Routh, president; Olin Wrenn, vice president; Miss Mary Holliday, secretary; Elmer Moore, treasurer; Prof. W. C. Groce, Critic; Gertrude Moffitt and Cletus Slack, Censors; Margaret Buie, Dawson Hughes, Esther Moore and Clinard Moffitt, Program Committee.

The Grammar Grade has also organized a Parks Literary Society with the following officers: Alton Burk, President; Elizabeth Hudson, Vice President; Elizabeth Fox, Secretary-Treasurer; Inez Curtis, Chaplain; Miss Flora Hall, Critic; Pauline Curtis, Censor; Ida Phillips, Cora May Fox, Robert Hugh, Program Committee.

EDGAR NEWS

The revival meeting at Cedar Square which was conducted by Rev. R. H. Melvin, of Greensboro, and others, closed Wednesday night. The meetings were well attended and there were more than twenty converts.

Jeremiah Allen and family of High Point attended meeting at New Hope Sunday morning and spent the afternoon at J. O. Newton's.

Miss Althea Farlow visited Mrs. W. M. Thomas in High Point the first of last week.

Raymond Tysinger of Glenola is having a filling station put in and will have a store also.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Davis entertained several friends at a tobacco barn chicken supper recently.

Rev. B. B. Bulla is conducting a revival meeting at Sophia.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tysinger of Glenola entertained a number of young people at a watermelon feast recently.

Dr. Clyde Ridge, of Raleigh, West Virginia, spent several days recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Ridge.

A revival meeting will begin at Marlboro Sunday night September 23 to be conducted by Rev. R. H. Melvin, of Greensboro.

Miss Annie Cox after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. W. N. Elder at Hopewell, Va., has returned.

Misses Zettie Johnson of Thomasville, Irene Thomas of High Point, Estella Laughlin and brother Arthur, of near Denton recently visited Althea Farlow.

A number of the relatives of Miss Mabel Coltrane attended her funeral at Trinity Sunday afternoon.

J. N. Newlin spent one day recently in Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Davis entertained a few friends at a chicken supper Thursday night.

Stanley Spencer is erecting a new dwelling.

Mr. and Mrs. James Adams and little daughter, Wilma, of Jamestown, recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Lee Leonard.

Will Routh and family of near Staley visited Mr. and Mrs. Amos Davis Sunday.

Rev. Jeff Jones of Deep River filled his regular appointment at Marlboro last Sunday week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Vancannon recently visited at N. E. Davis.

COLERIDGE NEWS

Mr. John Smithman, Misses Fannie Craven and Pearl Simmons of Greensboro, visited Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Richardson here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Connie Allred and family, of Franklinville, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of W. A. Poole.

The following young people from Coleridge left for school last week:

WIT NOT THEM

Mrs. Earl Byrd and little daughter, Edna, of Hemp, visited Mrs. Byrd's sister, Mrs. E. L. Slack last week.

Miss Lucy Bower, of Ramseur, is visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. E. L. Auman and son, E. L. Jr., and John, Jr., and Lawrence Austin, of High Point, were the guests of Mr. Auman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Auman.

Mrs. J. A. Monroe and sons, C. L. and Harry are visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Monroe at Lillington. Harry will remain there to be in school this term.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cagle and Mr. J. M. Ring visited in Carthage Sunday.

Among those who have left recently for various schools and colleges are J. B. Slack, Jr., A. E. Raleigh; E. W. Auman, Elon College; John Lawrence, Vern Stuart, Philmore Graves, Trinity high school; Harry Monroe, Lillington; Misses Hazel Auman, Hemp; Lena Russell, Hazel Auman and Mary Leach, Elon College.

The bridge crew have completed the culverts on the new highway near here and have moved their camp near Steeds.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Bean and son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sullivan and children, of Asheboro, and their mother, Mrs. Catherine Monroe were recent visitors at J. A. Monroe's.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Moore and children, Sarah Alice and Joe, Jr., of Asheboro Route 1, visited friends here Sunday.

Saturday evening, September 23rd at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Lawrence a birthday supper was given in honor of Mr. Lawrence and his sister, Mrs. J. A. Auman. Just before the supper Rev. T. J. Green united in marriage their brother, Mr. T. M. Lawrence, of Why Not and Mrs. Sarah McNeil, of Steeds Route One.

On Saturday September 15 Miss Leila Smith, of Why Not, and Mr. Clyde Lemons, of Seagrave, surprised their friends by motoring to Greensboro and being married by Rev. H. O. Nash, at St. Andrew's at 12 M. Mrs. Lemons is the accomplished and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Smith. Mr. Lemons is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lemons, and is in the lumber business with his father.

Mrs. Monroe left a few days ago for a week's visit to her daughter, Mrs. A. L. King at Star. Mrs. Monroe is in eighty and the mother of fourteen children.

Fall Opening

MILLINERY, DRESSES, COATS, COAT SUITS, SWEATERS AND SCARFS

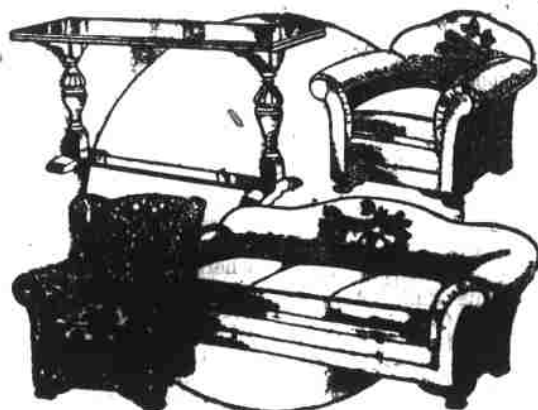

Thursday and Friday, September 20 and 21

Miss Eula Parrish who spent several weeks in the northern markets will be in charge of the ladies' ready-to-wear department and will take pleasure in serving you.

G. W. ELLIOTT

Randleman, N. C.

The Asheboro Furniture Company has recently enlarged its quarters and has added a more extensive line of furniture.

Consisting of Living Room, Dining Room and Bed Room Suits. A most up-to-date line of Druggets, Kitchen Cabinets, beds, Springs and mattresses; in fact every thing needed in a home. Call and see our new furniture and save money by buying from us.

The Asheboro Furniture Co.

Asheboro, N. C.

On Tires for fair week only, 12 1-2 per cent reduction on Miller Tires.

We carry a full line of accessories, gas, oil, tires, and tubes.

Do all kinds of repair work. Invitation extended to Fair Visitors.

Official garage for Carolina Motor Club.

HIGHWAY SERVICE STATION

Asheboro, N. C.

VISITORS INVITED

—To Make—

OLD HICKORY CAFE

Headquarters During the Fair

—At Our—

Booth at the Fair Next Week

We will have a display of Furniture which is kept in our stores at

RANDLEMAN AND HIGH POINT

Randolph citizens connected with our firm. We are grateful for all patronage and respectfully solicit a continuance of same.

See our line of all kinds of furniture before buying.

Bradner & York

Randleman and High Point, N. C.