SOLE SUFFICIENT IN THE

Mrs. James Cheely, of Manchester, Gs. is visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Fox.
Misses Kate and Carrie Brittain, who are teachers in the Denton schools, were week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. T. Brittain.

Brittain.
Mr. and Mrs. Laurin Cranford visied in Sanford Sunday
Mr. H. B. Isey, of Coolemee, was a visitor in Asheboro Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Beanblossom and daughters, Misses Tels, Ola and Ida Benblossom, of Davidson county, interest in Asheboro and near Sec.

in Asheboro and near Searove last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McArn, formerly of Richland township, now living at Liberty visited Mrs. McArn's sister Mrs. D. R. Beanblossom and Mr. John McArn and family near Silver Hill last week.

Mrs. Charles Hines entertained for C. Kelly at the Country Club,

Mrs. Charles Hines entertained for Mrs. R. C. Kelly at the Country Club, Greensboro, on Thursday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Kelly recently came to Greensboro from Winston Salem. Mr. Kelly for seven years practiced law in Asheboro going from here to Greensboro afterwards to Winston-Greensboro and now having returned to Greensboro and formed a new partner ship and entering the general practice of law.

The U. S. Farmer's Bulletin No. 876 gives useful information for stor-876 gives useful and butter in summer for Irish potatoes on one half acre of ing surplus butter in summer for land. People who saw them say winter time. J. B. Craver, of Winston- Salem, who has been elected National Coun-cillor of the National Council of the patriotic sons and daughters of Amer ica is a first cousin of Mr. J. A. Holder of Asheboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Fritz have moved to Troy to make it their permanent home. Mr. Frittz had a position with the Lexington Grocery Company, Asheboro, and has been transferred to the Troy branch. Among the boarding students Asheboro high school are Mr. Worth Parks, Pisgah; and Miss Ada Shaw. Strieby.

Miss Ida Clark, a daughter of Mr. John Clark, who lives a mile east of Asheboro, has gone to Raleigh to take a business course in King's Business College.

Mrs. Charles L. Lewis and little daughter, of High Point, were guests of Mrs. Lewis' sister, Mrs. Elmer Steed and Miss Cora McMasters, for a few days last week.

of Cedar Grove township, have en-tened Asheboro high school. The four young ladies are living with Mrs. F. E. Asbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Garner, who is been doing light housekeeping Mrs. F. E. Asbury's residence for Mrs. F. E. Asbury's residence for man Hammer that an airplane will purpose of running the mill. The have been doing light housekeeping in Mrs. F. E. Asbury's residence for several months expect to move into Mr. T. J. Lassiter's residence on Sunset Avenue soon Mr. O. R. Jarrell, who has been in Jacksonville for several years in the printing business, was a welcome vis-The Courier office Monday with his brother Jethro Jarrell, who lives in Asheboro. Mr. Jarrell worked for The Courier three years. He left it about twenty years ago going to High Point and afterwards work-Winston-Salem. He is a splendid newspaper mechanic and job the press room of the Arnold Printing Company, that does fine color work, in Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. Jar-Mrs. Irving Cox. of Central Falls. man. He is at present in charge of work, in Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. Jarrell came through the country in his automobile with his family and will spend the winter.

Mrs. Irving Cox, of Central Falls, ers before a part of the catalogues were printed the following appears:

Premium List for Art Department.

go back the last of this week. Mr. J. C. Cox, president of the Central Falls Mfg. Co., and son Irvin Cox, Secretary and Treasurer, were in Asheboro Tuesday of this week.

Mr. W. H. Pickard, of Greensboro Best oil landscape 2.00 and Florida, passed through Asheboro Tuesday of this week.

boro last Friday on his way to Car.

Best water color figure 2.00 Mr. Cox now lives in Greensboro.

Among the young people leaving for college this fall are the following from Asheboro: Misses Ruth Hadley from Asheboro: Misses Ruth Hadley, Golda Hayworth, Marguerite York, and Vivian Cranford to Greensboro College; Julia Ross, Ethel Johnson, and Mabel Cox to North Carolina College for women; Etta Reid Wood College for women; Etta Reid Wood and Nan Lewis to Cenverse College; Gertrude Adkins to Gulford College; Messrs. John Hadley, William Underwood, and Edwin Morris to Trinity college, Durham; John Burkhead, Dan Burns, Samuel Brittain to the University of North Carolina; Charles McCrary and William Johnson to Davidson College; and Hal Rich to Oak Ridge.

Mr. E. H. Morris called The Courier last week and ordered the paper sent to each of his four children who are away during the achool year. The are away during the school year. The three young ladies are teaching and Edwin, Jr., is a student at Trinity College, Durham.

Many of the school folks here paid us $1.00 for The Courier until June first. This is special reduction rates to the young fells away teaching or

The Courier is getting out a special Fair Edition this week feeling it is our duty to help give the fair a good "send off". Let every citizen co-operate in making this a successful fair.

Messrs. L. B. Lambert, Eugene Chisholm, Clarence Lovett, and Harris Coffin went to Greensboro last Monday afternoon for the championship baseball game between Greensboro and Danville.

Such a heavy hallstorm visited the Little's Mills and Mangum sections in Montgomery county, last Thursday night that many large stones were still to be seen Friday afternoon, according to the Mt. Gilead correspondent in the Greensboro News.

The High Point baseball club has old Mr. Neeley Hunter to the Birningham club for next year. Mr. Junter is a sou of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. lunter of this town.

The Old Hickory Cafe has recently died much to the attractiveness of his popular eating piace by a fresh set of paint, which makes it even more sanitary than heretofore.

The Asheboro Furniture Company has enlarged its quarters by taking out the partition and adding the room of the partition are visiting leaves their shifteen are visiting their company of the partition are visiting their company of the partition are visiting their company of the partition and partition are visiting their company of the partition are visiting the partition are visiting the partition are visiting the partition and partition are visiting the partition are visiting the partition are visiting the partition and partition are visiting the partition are visiting the partition are visiting the partition are visiting the partition and partition are visiting the partition are visiting th has enlarged its quarters by taking out the partition and adding the room formerly occupied by the Asheboro weinis stand. A fresh cost of paint nd enlarged stock are other im-absence their children are

Mr. Carl Cox was called home Sun

Mr. Moffitt has stores at Troy

Wilkesboro schools. They were pres recently left for various colleges: Misses Nan Lewis and Etta Reid ford, Marguerite York, Ruth Hadley,

Frances Barker, Kate and Ida Smith,

Helen Sikes, Mary McCain, N. C. C. W. Greensboro; Virginia Redding, Ethel Cox, Adelaide Armfield, Salem

College, Winston-Salem; Edwin Mor-

Morris, Ed Bunch, Hal Rich, Oak

Ridge; Floyd Beaver, State college, Raleigh; Noal Neal, Liberty High School, Winfred Berry, Wallburg.

Mrs. William Jennings, of Gibsonville, spent the week-end with Mrs. Bob Lewallen, at Mountain View and spindles. The expense of this new dam will be approximately $150,-

PEALS FOR ART FOR THE FAIR

All those wishing to enter any-thing in the Art Department are earnestly requested to have their ex-nibits properly entered by nine A. M.

Wednesday of the Fair. This will give the committee time to get the exhibits ready for the judges.

As the list failed to reach the print-

second best oil painting

Second best 1.00

Best study from nature 1.50 Second best 1.00

Best Charcoal

Second best

Best pen and ink sketch 1.00

Second best 2.00

Best pine needle tray 1.50

Second best 1.00

Second best 1,00

Best collection of basketry 2.00

Second best 1.00 Best hand made flowers 1.00

ment we take special care of all pieces entrusted to us.

MRS. J. T. UNDERWOOD, Supt.

MRS. J. G. CRUTCHFIELD, Asst.

THANKS

health I wish to thank the good peo-ple of Asheboro and Randolph county for their hearty co-operation during the tonsil and adenoid clinic held there for the school children last week. We especially wish to thank weck. We especially wish to thank the Woman's club for the many favors shown the parents during the week. The delicious sandwiches, fruits, tea and coffee they served will long be remembered by us all. The splendid assistance rendered by Mr.

T. F. Bulla, county superintendent of schools and Dr. Hunter, health officer, was very much appreciated.

LONIE WILLIAMS.

MARRIED

On behalf of the state board of Best fancy basket (Not mention-

Second best

Second best

MRS. J. T. UNDERWOOD AP-

farm.

relatives in Asheboro.

Giles.

Miss Cors Fox, of Randleman, seriously ill at the home of b brother, Dr. L. M. Fox. provements.

The members of the Merchants' association and other business men of the town are co-operating to make the Randolph county fair this year better than ever before. At 12 o'clock on Saturday, the Delco light company will give away a light plant; and at three o'clock the same day, the Merchants' association will give away a five passenger Ford car.

Much interest is being shown by the people of the town in the arrival of the handsome new ambulance now installed by the management of Memorial hospital.

Mr. A. H. Crowell who moved - to Asheboro from Salem church, a few months ago, has completed and opened a convenient filling station at the end of Sunset Avenue where the roads to Denton and Thomasville boro.

Ar. H. N. Edwards has moved his family from Franklinville to Ashebore. They are living in Mrs. J.

fork.

The Woman's Club is grateful to all the members who so heartily coperated last week in furnishing lunches for the parents of children choles for the parents of children could be considered to the parents of children choles for the parents of children cho lunches for the parents of children operated on at the tonsil and adenoid clinic conducted in the court house. Mr. J. T. Powell, a progressive farmer living near Sophia, raised sixty three and one-half bushels of Mr. Chas. Redding, of Trinity, was in town Tuesday, returning from Chapel Hill, where he had been to place his son, Howard, in the University for this school term.

Mrs. Maude Snyder and children,
Hilda and Joe, of Randleman, were ris, John Hadley, William Under-wood, Trinity College, Durham; John Burkhead, Samuel Brittain, visitors in Asheboro one day the lat-

Dan Burns, Chapel Hill; Gertrude Adkins, William Hammond, Guilford College, Chas. McCrary, William ter part of last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Lackey and little son, Howard, of Winston-Salem, are visiting in Asheboro this week. Mr. M. E. Allen, of Ramseur, Route 1, has begun his new bungalow on old main street in Asheboro. Mr. Allen expects to move here as soon as his residence is completed.

Mr. Elias Ashworth, of Denver, Colarado, has recently renewed his subscription to The Courier. Mr. Mrs. I. N. Cox and children left Ashworth writes that he don't want last week for Lakeland, Fla., to spend

For Sale—Nice store and good dwell to miss a single copy of the paper as the winter. it is a great satisfaction for him to hear from his old county.

The Farlow-Millikan-Bulla reunion and Irvin Cox, Secretary and Treas-Misses Leta and Gertrude Presnell, of Seagrove, and Eva and Lola Briles, of Cedar Grove township, have enconnections are invited to come.

Messrs. John Kearns and Fulton Kearns, of Bombay, were business drive their mill and will fly over the fair grounds, Wednesday Central Falls mill now has ten thouschildren's day, weather permitting. Mr. C. G. Foust, a former Randolph man, now a lawyer, banker, and lumberman, of Dallas, Texas, is visiting relatives in the county. Mr. Foust is a son of the late Wm. H. Foust and an uncle of Isaac Foust, of near Ramseur. He has been away from the county for 40 yers.

Miss Laura Parrish visited relatives in Thomasville last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wiles, of St.

Mr. Bob Bunch visited relatives at Best oil painting$3.00 Oak Ridge Sunda

Mr. W. H. Pickard, of Greensboro Best oil landscape boro last Friday on his way to Car- Best water color figure 2.00 thage to conduct a land sale. Mr. Edsel Way is erecting a nice Best landscape 1.50 bungalow in North Asheboro oppo- Second best 1.00

site Mr. Edgar Presnell.
Messrs. R. L. Tant and E. T. Walton went to Greensboro yesterday on Best pastel

Mr James Burns has recently purchased an interest in the Peoples' Auto Service company. This new concern expects to erect a new filling Second best station across the street on the lot Best pencil sketch recently sold by Mr. E. G. Morris to Second best the Lewalien Brothers, and will handle Hudson and Essex cars.

Engineer O. L. Pierce and Mr. Best piece hand painted China 2.00 Charles Hasty went to New York Second best 1.00 last week for the Dempsey-Firpo Best collection of China 3.09 fight.

Mr. Theron Willis, a son of Rev. W. H. Willis, has entered Ashebore high school and is a member of the Senior class. Mr. Willis was a student in Statesville high school last

Mr. W. A. Rousseau, who has for the past two years been with Congressman Hammer, has accepted the management of a real estate company in which he is interested at North Wilkesboro. Mr. Rousseau will spend most of the time with his mother in Wilkesboro.

Subscribe for The Courier while in Asheboro for the fair.

Mr. J. G. Steed, of Mt. Gilead, was business visitor in the city Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parks and lit-tle daughter Mildred, of Franklinville, were in Asheboro Monday looking after some improvements which are being made on the residence purchased from Mr. J. S. Lewis, on Sunset Avenue. They will move to Asheboro in October. Miss Lucile Page, who has been visiting relatives here, left Sunday (or Burlington, where she will visit friends.

next year. Mr.
Dr. and Mrs. J. V.
To.
Cooper and C. C. and Alpheus Cox, oyed 1000, gallons half mile east of

At the home of W. G. Carter, Carer's Mill, Moore County, September 8th Miss Mumie Carter was was married to Professor Herbert Dale Page.

SHEBORO COURIER, ASHEBORO, N. C

fied advertising will classified advertising will be for less than 50 cents and all isoments sent in must be acpasied by remittance.

Learn at home or school, Bookkeeping, orthand, Typewriting, Civil Service on credit. Position guaranteed EDWARDS BUSINESS COLLEGE WINSTON SALEM AND HIGH day on account of the illness of his FLOWERS-For flowers for every ocfather, Mr. S. S. Cox, of Asheboro ension, see or phone your order to Star Route. Mr. Cox is manager of B. B. Moffitt's store at Rockingham. Mrs. Wm. C. Hammer, agent for Ford, High Point, N. C. Quick De-

Rev. R. C. Stubbins, paster of the M. P. church in Greensbore, is as-WANTED-Laborers to work at rock plant in North Asheboro. Will pay from $2.50 to $3.00 per day. Apply sisting Rev. Kennett in a meeting at Mrs. John T. Moffitt and daughter, E. L. Hedrick, Asheboro. Miss Mary, are teachers in the North ent for the opening September tenth. Mr. H. N. Edwards has moved his FOR SALE-Splendid Store and Dwelling combined in town of fifteen hundred. Liberal terms, eighteen miles from Winston on two railroads. Fine chance to make money. Address "B" Courier. 12t pd 7-12-23 matic Tires, almost new. See J. A. The The following girls and boys have tf 7-26-23.

FOR SALE-One second hand Ford Wood, Converse College, Spartanburg S. C.; Golda Hayworth, Vivian Cran-Car. He is using a Chevrolet. Hill-Nance Chevrolet Company. Asheboro, N. C. Greensboro College; Mabel Cox, Kate Bulla, Ethel Johnson, Julia Ross,

FOR SALE-A 95 acre farm, south side of river between Ramseur and Franklinville. 25 acres in cultivation, 9 acres of bottom land, 35 acres hog fenced. Good well and buildings, good timber, Road by house. William Cox, Ramseur, N. C. 6t pd 8-30-23 eow.

MIS-PLACED—A copy of Book.

"Master of the Red Buck and Bay Doe" by William Laurie Hill. Mrs. Johnson, Davidson College; Clifford

> CORD WOOD WANTED-Quote dry pine wood f. o. b. shipping point, stating freight rate to this place. Address P. O. Box 172, Raleigh, N.

ing house combined with all modern The Central Falls Manufacturing fixtures. I also have for sale a small roller mill with modern machinery and gasoline engine. Mill and store is on same lot in Ashe boro's best residential section. Own er desires change of occupation on account of health. Terms can be arranged. Hal W. Walker, Asheboro, N. C. year and when finished will develop something like 400 horsepower to

> FOR SALE-At my farm, Asheboro Route 1 a buggy, harness farming machinery and tools, threshing machine, gasoline engine, household furniture and other things, Saturday September 22, beginning 10:00 A. M. M. E. Allen, Asheboro, R. 1. 2t pd 9-13-23

FOR SALE-One Delco Light Plant with large size batteries, has only been in use two years, is in first class condition. A good 1923 model five passenger touring car in excellent condition. Also one wood saw with gasoline engine. Apply MRS. ANNIE STALEY FOX, Franklinville, N. C.

FOR SALE—A Small Stock of mer-chandise, good location in cotton chandise, good location in cotton mill village. If interested apply at once to Courier.

FOR SALE-Mileh cow at Locust Grove Farm. From $30 to $70. Also some young cattle. Jas. A. Lineberry, Millboro, N. C.

FOR SALE-A good home in Ashe boro, one of the best towns in the This home is in good condition, 9 rooms and sleeping porch would make a splendid place for large family, located near the school. Anyone interested in property see J. A. York, Asheboro.

WANTED—A good, reliable, sub-stantial farmer. Will give such a man a good chance on my land. Wm. C. HAMMER, Asheboro, N. C.

STORE FOR SALE-A small stock, groceries, notions and shoes. Located in cotton mill village on State highway, has filling station. Will sell stock and rent building. Apply at once, Box 103, Randleman. ply at once, Box 103, Randleman, N. C. 2t-9-20

"Autumn Fashion Show" Marley & Caviness' on Liberty street, last Wednesday night was enjoyed by some four or five hun dred people. The members of this firm wish to thank everybody who attended for their keen interest and perfect order and conduct while there. It was a great pleasure for them to have the community come together in this way.

MARLEY & CAVINESS Ramseur, N. C.

FOR RENT-Two 5 room bungalows with water and lights, on Hoover Stree near the Hospital, apply to I. D. Wagger, Asheboro, N. C. 1t-9-20

FOR SALE-Good farm of 107 acres near Seagrove, good house, barn tobacco barn and orchard. roads near railroad, school, church. Real bargain for quick sale. Mrs. G. F. Garner, Box Asheboro, N. C. 1t-want the man that killed my collie puppy Saturday the 15th, to see me at once. I have his state number. Joe Betts, Asheboro, N. C.

LOST-A light tan lady's coat and a dark gray bath robe near Worthville. Finder please return to Mrs. Harland Prevost, Worthville, N. C. 1t-9-20.

WANTED—Girls for company who are working in city. Board cheap. Box 291, Phone 922-A.

FOR SALE-J. I. Case traction engine and American saw mill. Complete outfit. W. H. Cox, Moffitt, 4t-pd-9-20

FOR RENT-Three rooms with water and lights, over Pritchard Grocery, suitable for light house-keeping. Apply to H. C. Jones, Asheboro, N. C. 1t-9-20

FOR SALE-or I will exchange for a one ton Ford truck, one Willys Electric Light Plant complete, in factory condition, air cooled, burns kerosine, works automatically, will give terms. J. M. Foust, Jr., Mt. Vernon Springs, N. C. 2t 9-20. Vernon Springs, N. C. *******************************

Adopted by the Randolph County Medical Society at it's Meeting Sept.

11, 1923). Whereas: it has been the will of our Heavenly Father to call from earth to heaven our beloved and highly esteemed fellow member, Dr. Israel Fox, of Franklinville, N. C., be resolved: First: That we, the members of Randolph County Medical Society, bow in humble submission to the Will of God, knowing that He doeth all things well.

Second: That this Society has lost most faithful, devoted and loyal member—one, who did all in his pow-er to make the Society successful.

Third: That while, we will greatly miss him, we rejoice in the hope that it is well with him and that the Great Physician has called him to his home in heaven, where there is no sickness or death.

Fourth: That we extend to the bereaved family our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy and love in this, 2t-9-20 ciety, The Courier, the family of the eceased and recorded in our minutes.

C. A. HAYWORTH, M. D. C. S. TATE, M. D. Committee on Resolutions.

Sodas Medicine School Supplies Stationery, Toilet Articles HASTY DRUG STORE

OR SALE-One good work horse, weight 1350 pounds, will sell cheap. Want to buy some good milch cows for dairy, phone 111. A Page Gay, Asheboro, N. C. 1t-pd ay's Dairy will be ready to furnish a limited amount of milk to the town of Asheboro by October 1st. Produced in a sanitary dairy. Will deliver twice a day. Phone 111. A Page Gay, Asheboro, N. C. 1tp-9-20

FOR RENT-October 1st, 1923, One 2-story 6-room dwelling, on South Fayetteville street, Asheboro, N. C. J. M. and F. C. Caviness. 1tp-9-20

Lots Nos. 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16, block C, and lots Nos. 6, 7, and 8, block D, in the Hamlin Highlands, in Asheboro, as shown by map of Hamlin Heights registered in Book 136, Page 239, register's office for Randolph county are for sale. See Wm. C. Hammer.

FOR SALE-4 "Durock Jersey" brood sows, 5 head of shoats and 14 pigs at farm prices or I will trade for "Ford" touring car, truck, or tractor implements, also a number of 50 gallon steel drums with spigots, $3.00 each. C. E. Ma-con, Ramseur, N. C. 2t pd 9-20

RANDOLPH COUNTY FAIR

Next week is the big Randolph County Fair and have you got your new fall Shoes, Slippers, Sweater, Coat and dresses?

If not-now is the time and here is the place to get them at the right price.

All next week we are giving special prices on Ladies' Dresses and Coats. You will find a big assortment of all wool Poiret Twill and Serge Dresses on our racks running in prices from $6.95 to $18.75. These are wonderful values. Come and buy one of these and spend the difference at the fair.

Remember you only have a few more days before the Ford Car is given away.

F. E. BYRD

Asheboro

N. C.