

THE COURIER

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Thursday, September 27, 1923

Mr. Sidney Wood attended a show in Greensboro last Thursday night. Arnold B. Huff, local theater man of High Point, is recovering from a broken arm caused by the kick of an automobile in an attempt to crank it.

Mr. Jesse Robbins, who was principal of Leaksville school last year and who has been at Winchester, Va., and who has been during the summer visiting relatives in Asheboro and attending college there, will take a year's course when he will resume his duties as a teacher.

Mr. J. W. Holmes of the First North Carolina Infantry, Company E, who lives at Randleman, and is 84 years old, saw Henry Wyatt, the first southern soldier to lose his life, killed. He was shot at Bethel in 1861.

Mr. M. Hughes, another veteran soldier, was in Asheboro recently. He is 84 years old.

Mr. John Woosley, who is a student at the University of Chicago, is pursuing a post graduate course for a doctor's degree, returned to Chicago this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bulla, of Concord, were here this week on a visit. Mr. Bulla is an Uncle of Superintendent of Public Instruction, T. F. Bulla, and his wife is the widow of Claude Woodell. Both formerly lived in this county.

The Thomasville Times of last week contained the information that Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips were thrown from their car when struck by another car near Thomasville recently. They were carried to the High Point Hospital where it was decided the wounds were not critical. There were three cars in the mix-up. Denton had a most successful community fair last week. The three community fairs in Randolph last week were all successful. One was at Flint Hill, Holly Springs and Farmer.

Mrs. Annie Robbins returned Monday from a visit to Miss Julia Thorns at Aberdeen, Tuesday.

Rev. W. F. Kennett preached at the M. E. church Sunday evening in the absence of Rev. W. H. Willis who is helping Rev. Woosley in a protracted meeting at Mt. Vernon this week. Work is progressing rapidly on the residence of Mr. M. E. Allen on Main street.

Mr. G. H. Hussey, of Asheboro, Route 3, while in town Saturday gave The Courier a pleasant call and gave us his subscription.

Dr. C. A. Hayworth has let a contract for a handsome new residence to be built on Sunset Avenue.

Mr. W. C. King, of Pisgah, was a visitor in Asheboro last Saturday.

Mr. Clifford Morris who is attending school at Oak Ridge was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Morris for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sorrell and children, of near Raleigh, and Mrs. R. L. Thompson, of Durham, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Scott, Saturday and Sunday.

A large number of our people attended the meeting at Gray's Chapel Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Talley, Misses Allie Hege and Elizabeth Steele, of Winston-Salem were guests at the home of J. T. Wood Sunday.

Mr. W. H. Moring returned yesterday from an extended visit to Raleigh and Washington, D. C.

Miss Iley Scott was called to her home at Durham Sunday on account of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Annie Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Howell, of Baden, spent the week-end in Asheboro, guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Dickens. After a two week's visit in Asheboro, Spencer and Baden, Mrs. W. B. Allred returned to her home at Camden, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Allred and children returned the later part of last week from Washington, New York and other points of interest.

Mr. T. W. Mitchell, of near Denton, was a business visitor in town Tuesday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Branson, September 21st, a daughter.

Mr. John Miller was a visitor in Lexington last Sunday.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Club will meet with Mrs. W. D. Stedman, Wednesday afternoon, October 3rd at 3:15.

The Woman's Club has been offered a building lot in the central part of town, and we wish every member interested to be present at the Wednesday meeting for a discussion.

Miss May McAlister returned from a month's stay with friends at Montreat recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Erwin and little daughter, Margaret, of Charlotte, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Robbins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baker have moved from Asheboro to Candor. Mr. Baker has for several months been the mechanic for the state highway station here. While working in Asheboro he married Miss Kate Spoon.

The new addition to the Ashlyn hotel has been completed. Twenty new rooms are being opened this week.

Mrs. F. E. Asbury is in Greensboro visiting relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Lassiter will leave this week for Melbourne, Florida, where they will spend the winter. While Mr. and Mrs. Lassiter are away, their house on Bungalow street will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Gárné.

Headmaster P. H. Elkins and T. D. Bynum, of Siler City, were in town for the fair yesterday. Mrs. Elkins is one of the judges in the pantry department and Mrs. Bynum in the fancy work department.

Mrs. Julia Fuller, of Fullers, was in Asheboro yesterday enjoying the fair.

Mr. James Cheely, who has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Fox, will leave tomorrow for her home in Manchester, Ga.

T. Fugh and Mr. E. N. and family of Charlotte are in town this week.

The fair opened yesterday with a record breaking attendance. The officials and each chairman are to be congratulated upon the success which has already been pronounced. They have been uniting their efforts and have succeeded in gathering splendid exhibits.

Mr. Hal Cranford, who spent his boyhood and early manhood in Asheboro has returned for a visit to his brother Lonnie Cranford. Mr. Cranford went West and has been in Oklahoma for a number of years. He is a prominent member of the firm of the Empire Gas company at Bartlesville and has been successful. Mr. Cranford expresses surprise and delight over the marvelous growth of his home town.

Mrs. G. W. Crofts and son, George, of Los Angeles, Cal., are the guests of Mrs. Crofts' brother, Mr. Rowland Briles, this week.

Mr. R. C. Hoover, of Mechanic, was among the Fair visitors in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Walker and children of Seagrove were in town attending the Fair yesterday. Mr. Walker said he raised a sweet potato weighing six pounds. It was ten inches in length and seventeen inches around.

The post office has added 110 new boxes this week.

Mr. W. F. Hunsucker, who has for a number of years been The Courier's field representative, is on the Fair grounds writing receipts for those who pay their subscription.

Subscribe for The Courier during the Fair.

Everybody is wondering who will receive the Ford car and the Delco Light plant at the fair Saturday.

Mr. John B. Humble is suffering from a cracked rib, the consequence of a fall two years ago.

Mrs. C. H. Phillips and daughter of Thomasville were among the visitors at the Fair yesterday.

Mr. Elmer Rich is suffering from a sprained arm, from a fall he had at his brick yard in South Asheboro.

Rev. S. L. Morgan and family, of Ramseur, were among the Fair visitors yesterday.

Leave your subscription to The Courier while in the city for the Fair.

Mrs. W. H. Parks, of Franklinton, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Memorial hospital last week is reported as doing as well as could be expected.

Mrs. James Wrenn, Miss Massie Stone and Mr. Frank Stone, of Siler City, were in town attending the Fair yesterday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Gus Hayworth, September 22nd, a daughter.

The many friends of Capt. W. H. Weinle, who has been critically ill for sometime in Memorial hospital, will be glad to know that he is improving rapidly and expects to go to his home in Virginia sometime next week.

Mrs. Marvin Lovett has returned from Asheville where she has been for sometime on account of her health.

Mr. E. B. Johnson and daughters, Misses Jessie and Annie and Master Glenn, of Bombay, were among the visitors attending the Fair yesterday.

Mr. John Davis who suffered a stroke of paralysis last Thursday night, does not improve.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lewis are moving in with their son, Mr. Lucy Lewis until their handsome new home on Fayetteville street is completed. Mr. Hugh Parks of Franklinton who purchased Mr. Lewis' residence on Sunset avenue is making a number of improvements before moving his family here.

Mrs. Joe Betts who underwent an operation for appendicitis at the High Point hospital, at High Point, is reported as doing well.

Mr. John Kearns of Bombay, was a visitor in Asheboro Wednesday.

Mr. W. A. Rousseau, who has been with Congressman Hammer for nearly two years as secretary, has resigned his position and accepted a position as district agent of the Southern Life & Trust Company with headquarters at North Wilkesboro, his territory being composed of Wilkes and a half-dozen or more adjoining counties. Mr. Rousseau while with Mr. Hammer made many friends both in Washington and in Asheboro who wish for him much success in his new endeavor.

Rev. S. L. Morgan will preach at both the morning and evening service at Franklinton Baptist church next Sunday. This change is due to the fact that the revival services will continue through Sunday at the Methodist church in Ramseur.

COUNTY NEWS AND HAPPENINGS

(Continued from page 1.)

eral students who have entered school here from elsewhere.

The Christian Endeavor Society members met last Thursday evening at the school auditorium, with several visitors present. After the business meeting various games were played, and a written contest was enjoyed. Ice cream and cake were served.

Miss Ebladia Stutts, who has been visiting at Spencer, returned home Monday.

Several of the town people are attending the protracted meeting at Maple Springs and New Hope this week.

The highway which is being constructed near this place is progressing rapidly under the management of Mr. R. E. Shell.

Mr. Ben Auman has accepted a position with the Seagrove Hardware Company.

Mr. J. J. Harper and family of Bennett are attending the meeting at Maple Springs this week.

Messrs. Frank and Jasper Auman went to Norman last Sunday to see their brother, Jason Auman, who is very ill.

Farmer.

The Community Fair held at Farmer on the 21st was fairly well attended considering the time spent in preparation for it. The farm exhibit was not as good as it might have been, but the pantry supplies and woman's needlework shown were excellent. The talks made by Miss Nora Bradford, and Messrs. McCrary and Kimery on subjects of interest to farmers and farm people were very interesting.

Among the visitors from a distance attending the Fair were Mr. and Mrs. Eli Allen from Holly Springs, Mrs. Julia Fuller from Fullers, Mrs. Julia Plummer from Hannersville, and Miss Dora Redding and Mr. Troy Redding of Flint Hill.

Miss Madge Kearns, Veland Janie Cranford left last week for Pleasant Garden where they have entered school.

Mr. Edgar Kearns and family of High Point spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Kearns and children of Mt. Gilead, were week-end guests of Mrs. Roxana Dorsett.

Mrs. L. C. Elliott went to Baltimore, Md., last week to consult Dr. Howard A. Kely. She was accompanied by Mr. Elliott and Mr. T. E. Luther. Mr. Luther has trouble with his eye, and was treated with radium.

Flint Hill.

Mrs. Lilly Marley, of Oakland, Cal., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kanoy.

A number of our young men left Tuesday morning on a big fox hunt.

Mrs. Ollie Briles is visiting her father, Mr. J. E. Ward.

The community Fair at Flint Hill Wednesday of last week was a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cooper have returned from a visit to California.

The Sunday school at Flint Hill is progressing nicely.

The birthday dinner at Mr. Michael Farlow was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kanoy had a family reunion on September 23, honoring their daughter Mrs. Lilly Marley, of California and Mrs. Mamie Jones, of Ohio, who are visiting them. A sumptuous dinner was served on a large table on the lawn.

Kemp's Mill.

The showers we have recently had were very much appreciated. It was very dry in this section.

Allie Brown, daughter of W. W. Brown, who has been in the Memorial hospital at Asheboro, for the past two weeks, is expected home on a few days. We are glad she is getting along nicely.

Amos Hinshaw, Lewis Hinshaw and wife and E. C. Bird and wife who were called to Horton, Indiana, on account of the illness of their brother, Frances Hinshaw, have returned to their homes on Ramseur, Route 1.

The sale at M. E. Allen's on Asheboro, Route 1 was well attended and things sold well. Wm. Hareley from the Mt. Airy section has bought Allen's farm and has already moved on it, occupying a tenant house until Allen's new house is completed.

Martin Albright has begun work on his new house.

We understand a roller mill is to be installed in the mill at Kemp's Mills. They have been using a kind of half-roller process.

S. F. Barker and wife spent the week-end with relatives at Edgar. They were accompanied by Lucile Edgerton.

Horace Edgerton and wife and little daughter Sybil, who have been on an extended visit to their relatives and friends in Ohio, have returned home. While away they attended the Ohio yearly meeting of Conservative Friends, which was a large and impressive occasion.

MONEY TO LOAN

I have a limited amount of money to loan in $300.00, $500.00, $800.00 and $1000.00 amounts on either town or country property. I also have money to loan in larger amounts on satisfactory farm security. Terms easy and rate of interest low. Anyone interested will call at the office of Hammer & Moser, over the Asheboro Bargain House, in Asheboro, N. C.

Dr. Earl S. Sloan, of Boston, in his will left $5,000 to New Bern, N. C. and $3,000 to the Masonic Lodge at that city.

Dr. John Alexander Williams, age 52 years, a prominent surgeon of Greensboro connected with St. Leo's hospital, committed suicide in Baltimore September 23rd in a private sanitarium where he was taken for treatment.

WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAIN SCHOOL FACULTY

Honoring the school faculty, the Woman's Club entertained at the Country Club Friday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30.

Every effort was made in order that all might get acquainted, and informality was the keynote. Progressive hearts were enthusiastically played, highest score being made by Miss Virginia Steed. The prize was a strand of amber beads.

The music was especially pleasing. Mrs. McMahan delightfully sang two numbers. Misses Bulla and May gave several selections, while Mrs. Sulton Stedman with her violin added to the enjoyment of it all.

Delicious refreshments were served in three courses.

We regret that any member of the faculty or club was unable to attend the reception.

Report of the Condition of THE BANK OF RANDOLPH At Asheboro, N. C., in the State of North Carolina, at the close of business, September 14, 1923.

Resources

|   |              |
|---|--------------|
| Loans and discounts   | $486,255.95 |
| Overdrafts  | 1,881.76     |
| United States Bonds and Liberty Bonds                                     | 17,850.00    |
| North Carolina state Bonds  | 500.00       |
| All other stocks, bonds, and mortgages                                    | 6,200.00     |
| Banking house and furniture and fixtures                                  | 10,000.00    |
| Cash in vault and net amounts due from banks, bankers and trust companies | 210,430.50   |
| Cash items held over 24 hours   | 4,319.70     |
| Checks for clearing   | 2,183.14     |
| Total   | $739,621.14 |

Liabilities

|   |              |
|---|--------------|
| Capital stock paid in                                   | $21,400.00  |
| Surplus fund  | 78,600.00    |
| Undivided profits, less current expenses and taxes paid | 25,922.09    |
| Deposits subject to check, individual                   | 590,182.21   |
| Deposits Due State of N. C. or any Official thereof     | 19,227.27    |
| Cashier's checks outstanding                            | 4,277.57     |
| Certified Checks  | 12.00        |
| Total   | $739,621.14 |

State of North Carolina, County of Randolph, September 24th, 1923.

I, W. J. Armfield, Jr., Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

W. J. ARMFIELD, Jr., Cashier.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 24th day of September, 1923.

D. D. ALMOND,
Notary Public.

My commission expires 1-8-25

Attest:
D. B. MCCRARY,
P. H. MORRIS,
J. D. ROSS,
Directors.

NOTICE OF LAND SALE

In and by virtue of an order of Superior Court of Randolph county, North Carolina, made in special proceedings entitled Mary Blair, widow, E. A. Blair et al, heirs at law of C. W. Blair, deceased ex parte, the undersigned commissioner J. W. Fouts will on, Saturday, October the 27th, 1923 at 2 o'clock p. m., on the premises offer for sale to the highest bidder the following described tract of land: lying and being in the County of Randolph in the state of North Carolina, in Trinity township and bounded as follows; and adjoining the lands of Bowers, Proctor, Johnson, Bundy, an others, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a stone, Sink and Bower's corner in Asbury Peace's line; thence south 4 degrees 30 minutes west long Bowers' line 759 feet to a stone; said Bower's corner; thence south 86 degrees 30 minutes east along Ran Proctor's and Johnson's line 990 feet to a stone, Johnson's corner in said Bundy's line thence north 4 degrees and 30 minutes east along said Bundy's line 759 feet to a stone in said line, now Asbury Peace's corner; thence along said Peace line north 86 degrees 30 minutes west 1025 feet to the beginning containing 17.55 acres more or less, save and except 7.28 acres sold to J. W. Fouts January 10, 1905.

This land is situated about two miles west of High Point, right near the sand-clay road, leading from High Point to Prospect church. A good community and the land is well suited for poultry and small truck farming.

The terms 25 per cent down, 25 per cent in six, twelve and eighteen months, deferred payments bear six per cent interest, title reserved until final payment is made. Sale will be subject to confirmation of court.

J. W. FOUTS, Commissioner,
High Point Route 5.
This the 18th day of September 1923. 4t-9-27

CAR LOAD APPLES

to arrive in a few days. Good eating and cooking apples at half the usual price. Apples are scarce and will be high this winter. Better stock up now. Special price to merchants in quantities. H. B. Moore, Ramseur, N. C. 1t 9-27

LOTS Nos. 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16, block C, and lots Nos. 6, 7, and 8, block D, in the Hamlin Highlands, in Asheboro, as shown by map of Hamlin Heights registered in Book 136, Page 233, register's office for Randolph county are for sale. See Wm. C. Hammer.

The community fairs in Randolph County and Farmers proved a success in every way, and the exhibits in the county fair this week is the most attractive thing there.

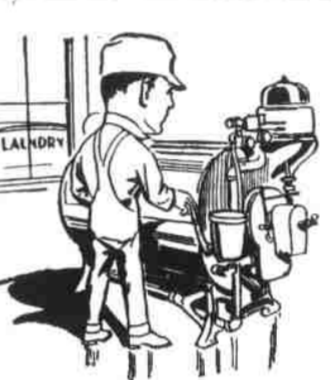

Mr. Alex Evans, a prominent citizen of Yadkin County, Davidson county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Nannie Hartley. Deceased was 89 years old and was a confederate soldier.

Come Right In

Do you live out of town? If so, we invite you to make our Bank your headquarters when here.

Come right in. You are as welcome as the people here, and they are all welcome. Come in and get acquainted with our officers and our customers. Use the facilities at our Bank freely. It is the service we have to offer that makes us proud of our Bank. You don't need to be a customer. Come in, anyway. You are welcome.

ASHEBORO BANK & TRUST CO.

OUR UP TO DATE PLANT

produces perfect work on your linens, and we are willing that you should be the judge of this fact. Place an order with us this week and the finished clothes will be delivered to you promptly. Compare our washing and ironing with others and note the big improvement.

ASHEBORO STEAM LAUNDRY
Phone 57 W. P. ROYSTER Mgr.

Bargains In Tires

Brand New Stock

GOODYEAR and GOODRICH
Both are Good

Bad weather is coming and old tires will soon be "going bad" so now is the time to put on new tires for the winter.

We can save you money on tires and will prove it if you will let us.

Ford sizes from $7.00 in Fabric to $12.50 in Cord.

Moore Motor Company

Ramseur, N. C.

Don't forget that we are giving this Boy Scout knife with every boys' suit $10.00 up.

We are continuing our sale as previously advertised, through Fair Week, ending September 29th.

We still have some wonderful bargains in every line of merchandise. Make our place headquarters while in town for the Fair.

Wood Cash Clothing Co.

Asheboro, N. C.