Mr. John T. Turner, Aged Citizen of Rameur, Dies Monday

Rameur, Oct. 3.—John T. Turner, aged 81 years, a resident of Rameur for thirty-two years, one of her most respected citizens and a brave Confederate Veteran died Monday after three weeks' illness from paralysis. Mr. Turner had been in good health until three years ago when he suffered a stroke of paralysis since which time he has been incapacitated for his regular work, but able to do home chores and go about town to some extent. But when becoming suddenly sick about three weeks ago he failed to recover strength and grew weaker until the end came. Mr. Turner served in more than a score of battles in the Civil War and was wounded once and suffered many hardships in the bravest manner for the sake of his country. He took great delight in telling about his many experiences in the war, and wrote interesting letters in the Courier some years ago. He had many firm friends among the old soldiers, most of them having preceded him to the beyond. He goes to again join the ranks of the faithful ones who believed in their Great Captain.

Mr. Turner was a faithful member of the M. E. Church, South, for more than fifty years. He loved his brothers in the church and was ready to help in the work of the church. He was also a member of the Masonic fraternity since young manhood. He leaves a widow, three sons, P. L. Turner of Greensboro, Walter Turner of Columbia, S. C., and Ernest Turner of Rameur and four daughters, Mrs. G. H. Jones of Franklinville, Mrs. Ella McMath and Miss Maggie Turner of Rameur and Mrs. Morris of Greensboro, many other relatives and friends at this and surrounding places.

Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. L. Scott Tuesday at three o'clock and interment by his brother Masons in the city cemetery. The throng that attended his funeral and the many beautiful flowers that covered his grave showed the love and great esteem felt for this good man. His family and friends have our deepest sympathy.
