STANHOPE BRYANT SEEKS FREEDOM BY COURT EDICT. Greensboro, Oct. 29.—Habeas corpus proceedings were started here this afternoon before Superior Court Judge T. J. Shaw, concerning the sanity of Stanhope Bryant, Jr., of Winston-Salem, with the wife of the young man, formerly Miss Sarah H. Sternberger, of Missouri, as petitioner for herself and husband, and with his father, Stanhope Bryant, Sr., as respondent. Escaped Hospital. Young Bryant was committed to the state hospital for the insane at Morganton last August, escaped twice but was recaptured, and the action was started by the wife to secure his release from the institution. According to the testimony, the young man was tried before Judge Hartman, in Forsyth recorder's court, shortly before being sent to Morganton, on a charge of passing worthless checks, given 90 days' road sentence and appealed. His father then asked for his examination by the clerk of the court for a determination of his sanity, but as the young man was on bond that could not be done, so, following ruling by Judge Lane, a commission was named by the clerk of court, and it examined him and committed him to the hospital for the insane. Both Sides Testify. Testimony today was offered by both sides, the elder Bryant, his son and the latter's wife and Dr. McCampbell, superintendent of the hospital, being among the witnesses. However, the matter was continued until next Monday afternoon after a hearing lasting from 3 o'clock this afternoon until nearly 9 o'clock tonight in order that Dr. Watkins, assistant to Dr. Campbell, a witness for the petitioner, might testify concerning the examination given young Bryant when he was brought to the hospital. Mr. Varner's purpose is to give Lexington and High Point the same class of shows that Greensboro and Winston-Salem have. Many Randolph people will keep a lookout for these road shows in High Point and Lexington with a view to taking advantage of the opportunities offered nearer home than heretofore. Lexington Wins Foot Ball Game from Asheboro High. Asheboro High School team was defeated by the Lexington team at Lexington by a score of 30 to 0. During the first half Asheboro made a splendid show against the heavy Lexington team. Not until the last of the third quarter and in the fourth quarter did Lexington seem to out-class the visitors. In the third quarter the Asheboro team began to give way. Although the boys met defeat, they made a good stand considering the fact that they were so much lighter weight than the Lexington team.
